A WEEKLY FAMILY NEWSPAPER--DEVOTED TO LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS, LITERATURE, EDUCATION, AGRICULTURE, SCIENCE, ETC.

Volume I. Plymouth, Ohio, Saturday Morning, January 21, 1854. Number 14.

POETRY.

From the Newark Reporter. MY BIRTH-DAY.

How changed are the throats that my natal-day brings! How changed is all else since the May-morn of life...

My birth-days are not as they were heretofore! And my heart feels the cry as it waxes old...

Al! the sins and follies of years heretofore, Arise in my bosom as polished spheres...

Miscellaneous.

STORY OF A LEG.

[The following curious anecdote is from the German of Zoehcke, and is declared to be founded on fact.]

Two days after he received a similar note but more urgent invitation, asking that on the following morning...

'You are by no means the most civil of Englishmen,' replied Thelvet.

'You must be a madman, sir,' said the surgeon with a smile.

'What you mean, sir?' 'I will tell you my little mean. I will show you my leg, and you will see...

cutting was about to commence, the Englishman lay on his back, and declared it should not go down during the operation.

'My dear sir--Excuse me! I fear I am not so well as I should be, but I have no objection to your examining my leg...

'If a man wipes his feet on the door before coming into the room, you may be sure he will make a good domestic husband...

'How hoisely the snow comes down! You may see it feel, but never hear it.'

Oh! there is a dream of early youth, And I were loath to give it up...

A Thanksgiving Scene. Adelaide Talbot was beautiful and lovely in youth, dearly loved by all...

'What a man! what a man!' exclaimed the crowd, as they looked at the man who had just been rescued...

'What is your objection?' asked the captain. 'Butter,' says the captain, 'you don't go down to the bottom of the sea...

toeing one, romping with another, and now tooting up Robert's baby, to the honor of its mamma, and the delight of all others...

'The fact is,' exclaimed Will, 'that we started with sunrise this morning, but met a most provoking breakdown by the way.'

'What is your objection?' asked the captain. 'Butter,' says the captain, 'you don't go down to the bottom of the sea...

Plymouth, O., Saturday, January 21.

Annexation in General.

"Annexation in General," may be considered as an indicative heading for an article...

Hundreds of the citizens of the Golden State, brimful of Patriotism and New England...

In New York an expedition is being fitted out for the Lobos Islands...

Rumors are rife of another crusade against Cuba. Thousands of restless...

The Sandwich Islands, too, are longing for an opportunity to form a portion of our confederacy...

Well, we say good! We need all their localities to complete the galaxy...

For the first time in this State the clergy, editorial have held a convention...

The Sandwich Islands we ought to have and must have. The highway between California and the Chinese Empire...

As to Cuba, the natives of that island are extremely anxious to be Americanized...

Olden Pages may talk about "National Boundaries," "Danger to our Institution," etc.

For the whole country the "Genius of Liberty" is the motto...

As for the danger to our Institutions, National stomach is not so delicately organized...

As for the danger to our Institutions, National stomach is not so delicately organized...

As for the danger to our Institutions, National stomach is not so delicately organized...

Our Common School System.

We observe that at the present time, efforts are being made in various sections of the State...

The attempt to reduce the School Appropriation in this State, we are glad to see, meets with universal condemnation...

Dated by Telegraph.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 The Union of to-day contains another strong editorial disapproving of all special legislation...

It is rumored that President Pierce has opened his eyes and has himself received this emphatic expression of the Union.

In the Senate, Mr. Bedford, Collector of New York, was favorably reported on a week ago by the Committee on Commerce. The Senate has been in Caucus...

President Pierce has received his proclamation against the Expedition now being fitted out in California, and elsewhere, in the United States...

Mr. Gadsden, our Minister to Mexico has telegraphed that the treaty with Mexico is honorable to both countries. It will, no doubt, be ratified by the Senate...

The Independent Democrats in Congress are about to issue an address to the country, setting forth their objections to the Nebraska Bill, and appealing for help to defeat it.

In the House, to-day, the Committee on Military Affairs were instructed to inquire into the expediency of constructing a road from Salt Lake to California.

In the Senate a resolution was adopted as to the propriety of extending the Law regulating the pensions of widows of the Revolution and of widows of soldiers of the War of 1812.

Mr. Grinn received a resolution of inquiry as to the disposal of the Naval forces of the United States at the time the Somers Expedition left California, which was a warm debate arose.

In the House this morning, a resolution was offered relative to the Erie road, expressing the desire of the Legislature to redress the wrongs of Erie, but, questioning them to respect the laws, and decisions of the Courts until the matter is settled.

Captain Allen Fairbridge, Supt. of the Military Academy at Norwich, Vermont, died suddenly at that place on Tuesday.
