Doc Simmons Wins Race

Doc Simmons of Loudonville won the late model feature event at Mansfield Raceway last night, followed by Roger Reuer of Mansfield and Ellis Hite of Mt. Vernon.

Other winners in late models were Larry Leedy of Bellville in the helmet dash, Simmons in the first heat, Joe Montgomery in the second heat and Chuck Dewey in the third heat.

Robert Cain won the roadstock heat and Dick Curry took the Mini stock heat.

Ashe, Smith Vie in WCT

DALLAS (UPI) — Arthur Ashe has a quick critique for his World Championship Tennis title match today against Stan Smith.

"It's going to be like two double barreled shotguns firing at each other from 78 feet," said Ashe. "And I personally think Stan is the greatest player in the world right now. I don't think anybody will dispute that."

Ashe and Smith will face each other today before a national television audience with $50,000 going to the winner and $20,000 to the loser.

The winner will succeed Australia's Ken Rosewall, who captured the WCT crown the first two years of the tournament.

Rosewall, who made it to Dallas again but lost to Ashe, took third place Saturday and $10,000 with a 6-3, 6-2 win over Rod Laver. Laver pocketed $6,000 for fourth place.
