

EVERY FRIDAY MORNING. BY ROBINSON. ONE DOLLAR PER ANNUM. PLYMOUTH, FRIDAY, NOV. 5, 1864.

For the Plymouth Advertiser. THE BATTLE OF ALMA—HORRORS OF WAR.—The thrasher's mail brought the particulars of the battle of Alma. Every hour of the day we have been talking of the progress of the war on the Crimean front.

Telegraphic Items. CLEVELAND, Oct. 29. GREAT FLOOD AT CLEVELAND.—Loss over one million dollars. At one o'clock this morning a fine broke out which continued for several hours.

Politics Just Now. It's the most amusing thing in the world, this game of politics, just now, particularly. After a campaign totally unexampled in our history...

Politics in New York.—Never since the days of the witless in March was there such a "mix" as there is in the political cauldron of New York at the present time.

General's Story.—The General of the 11th Regiment, Colonel J. H. French, has a story to tell of the battle of Alma. He says that he was in the front of the British force.

Buffalo, Oct. 27.—An accident occurred on the Great Western railroad, which resulted in the burning of the head of the engine and the loss of several lives.

The People have spoken. "The People have spoken," 160 times. "Tractors Boked," 204 times. "1000 Guns Boked," 103 times.

Mr. Dinn was not known as a candidate for the office of sheriff of this county. The result occasioned much surprise.

The Battle of Alma.—The battle of Alma was fought on the 20th of September. It was a decisive victory for the British forces.

Prisoners of War.—The prisoners of war taken at the battle of Alma were treated with humanity. They were given food and clothing.

Ohio Redeemed.—Ohio Redeemed has been used at the head of articles 132 times. The same thing slightly varied, 107 times.

Brandsnoaz and Letinias.—Brandsnoaz and Letinias were the names of the two men who were killed in the battle of Alma.

The Battle of Alma.—The battle of Alma was fought on the 20th of September. It was a decisive victory for the British forces.

Prisoners of War.—The prisoners of war taken at the battle of Alma were treated with humanity. They were given food and clothing.

The People have spoken. "The People have spoken," 160 times. "Tractors Boked," 204 times. "1000 Guns Boked," 103 times.

Brandsnoaz and Letinias.—Brandsnoaz and Letinias were the names of the two men who were killed in the battle of Alma.

The Battle of Alma.—The battle of Alma was fought on the 20th of September. It was a decisive victory for the British forces.

Prisoners of War.—The prisoners of war taken at the battle of Alma were treated with humanity. They were given food and clothing.

The People have spoken. "The People have spoken," 160 times. "Tractors Boked," 204 times. "1000 Guns Boked," 103 times.

Brandsnoaz and Letinias.—Brandsnoaz and Letinias were the names of the two men who were killed in the battle of Alma.

The Battle of Alma.—The battle of Alma was fought on the 20th of September. It was a decisive victory for the British forces.

Prisoners of War.—The prisoners of war taken at the battle of Alma were treated with humanity. They were given food and clothing.

The People have spoken. "The People have spoken," 160 times. "Tractors Boked," 204 times. "1000 Guns Boked," 103 times.

Brandsnoaz and Letinias.—Brandsnoaz and Letinias were the names of the two men who were killed in the battle of Alma.

The Battle of Alma.—The battle of Alma was fought on the 20th of September. It was a decisive victory for the British forces.

Prisoners of War.—The prisoners of war taken at the battle of Alma were treated with humanity. They were given food and clothing.

