Fourth of July Celebrations seem to be going out of date. People are not half as patriotic as they used to be.

George Fripel, a German employed at the Western Exchange, made a narrow escape from being hanged.

It appears that the horse that bit Mr. Shoup, was not mad. The animal was dispersed, and paid made it engrave.

Spencer & Wright have received another lot of new goods, making a very large and complete assortment.

Our people are to have a picnic. Capital and labor, eating, drinking and dancing under trees, are fine modes of enjoyment.

The committee appointed to make the necessary arrangements for the celebration of the Anniversary of our National Independence.

The young people of Fairfield celebrate on the "light, fantastic evening." The ball to come off at Curtis's Fairfield Hotel.

At Ganges the Schools are to have a celebration. Our talented friend, Dr. G. A. Allen of Rome, is to deliver the address.

The Liquor Law has been put in force against two vendors, in our village, this week. The first was charged with selling liquor—bona fide liquor—by means of which several pairs of heels became lighter than the heads of men.

The Democratic voters of Plymouth Township: Pursuant to a notice of the Democratic Central Com. of Richmond Co., requesting the Democratic voters to meet at the usual places of holding elections in this Township.

AND the five Yanks have arrived with another lot of Carriages, for which they have no room in their workshop unless some be purchased. Having sold the whole of the proceeds, after paying the expenses of the trip, the balance is to be distributed to the Freylerian, Methodist and Lutheran Churches.

THE Meticulous Celebration, at Newark, the 4th inst., was a splendid affair. A large number of Masons and Odd Fellows from the surrounding country were present, and the village was densely thronged with people attracted by the novel ceremonies to take place.
