The Chicago Convention of State Rights says that the Michigan Gov. at Railroad brought into the city 100,000 of wool for the cottons. The wool is to be made into a yard of all the shawls to bring in a supply each day. The second cold weather has used all the supply of wool in the city. That city ought not to grow wool, but rather to extend its stock of her manufactures so far that they get good. Poor thing.

Judge W. Arthur has the proposition of the New York Times before him for contempt of Court, in publishing a falsehood in the shape of a summary of the day's proceedings in the Marine Court. The article intimates that the Judge is more contemptible than the court in which he presides.
