YOUNG AGAIN.

- An old man sits in a high-backed chair,

  Before an open door,

  While the sun of a sammer's afternoon

  Falls hot across the floor;

  And the drowny tick of an encient clock

  Has notched the hour of four.
- mese blows in, and a breeze blows out,
- From the scented summer air; And it fullers now on his wrinkled brow, And now it lifts his hair; And the leaden lid of his eye drops down, And he sleeps in his high-backed chair.
