Who is She?—FROM THE SPASINS... 'Tis said a justice of the quorum...

In every walk of life... Put miracle away, we can... In each a woman figure—said...

When the street you hear a rout... And one sore wounded, faint out... 'Tis the girl who helps the blind...

have been so poor for the failure of Jones... But I suppose it must be, and we must...

Every body said that John Barnet was a nice young man... And this truth was the proceeding...

As usual, John Barnet begged her to make him happy by promising to be his forever... And she said she would be true to him...

John Barnet had another suitor in the person of a wealthy and eccentric old bachelor... And she said she would be true to him...

New York, March 6.—The steamship Star of the West, from San Juan at noon on the 24th of Feb., has returned with nearly 200 passengers and above $400,000 in specie on freight. She touched at Key West for coal on the 21st.

The Spanish Consul at Key West has issued a proclamation, by order of the Captain General, Cabel, declaring that the coast blockade and also stating that all vessels bound to an enemy port, which might be found crossing along the coast would be seized and searched by Spanish war vessels.

A HERRING EXPLOSION.—It seems from a letter in the Hiberna Chronicle, that Gen. Harkness has just received much newspaper publicity for having written a letter to the tax collector, directing him to present the unpaid tax bills of the people of that town to him for payment, first ascertaining that the total amount of those bills did not exceed the enormous sum of $2,200.

A grand military review and mock battle had taken place near Fort Princeton this morning with Havana dates to the evening of the 27th ult.

The blockade of the ports of Cuba still continued, but the steamers were not detained in their movements. The vessel arrested had transpired, but great military preparations were still going on.

A British military review and mock battle had taken place near Fort Princeton this morning with Havana dates to the evening of the 27th ult.

The U. S. Consulate was threatened with destruction, and a guard was kept for fear of an attack.

WASHINGTON, March 6. The party of Americans who were arrested by the firemen people, on San Juan street, have been released and American citizens engaged in a lawful and peaceful enterprise.

These are so tight, and the cash is hard to come by, that you will find it difficult to get through the month. You will find it difficult to get through the month. You will find it difficult to get through the month.

For money is a hard thing to borrow. For money is a hard thing to borrow. For money is a hard thing to borrow. For money is a hard thing to borrow.

The politician starts, for it costs a mighty deal and the mouth of his purse is so narrow. This may be a hard thing to borrow. For money is a hard thing to borrow.

The merchant is out down with his head bowed in view. And so customer buys, to his sorrow. And so money is a hard thing to borrow. For money is a hard thing to borrow.

The whiz-kid might, for the drouth has killed the crop. And so he looks on his prospects with sorrow. For he knows his friends will stick when he has't a bar. And money is a hard thing to borrow.

Hoagarth's Red Seal—Hoagarth was once applied to by a miserly old nobleman, to point on his staircase a representation of the destruction of Paris. Hoagarth in the Red Seal. In attempting to fix upon the picture, Hoagarth became quite dissatisfied.

They are all gone over. 'Twas where the Israelites? 'Twas where the Israelites? 'Twas where the Israelites? 'Twas where the Israelites?

It is said that the new dogman of the immaculate conception of the Virgin Mary recently promulgated by the Pope is not received by the Roman Catholics of Georgia openly rejoicing, also, and the monks of St. Marina have been summoned before the tribuna of Rome to answer the contempt of the Pope in rejecting the dogma. None opposite to it is also manifested in France.

NEW PACES OF FLOOR. etc.—The New York Post of Thursday, makes a comparison of the prices of provisions in 1892 and those of the present year. In looking at the reports of the markets in the winter of 1892 it is found that the price of flour ranged from thirteen to fourteen dollars, based, at wholesale prices. The retail price was on an average, fifteen dollars.

SLAVERY IN EGYPT.—The Paris correspondent of the Journal of Commerce says: "The Vicoy of Egypt has solemnly declared that he will not allow the importation of slaves into his province; but as to those already in it, he says they are to remain in statu quo." A change, says the document, will be made in the constitution of the Mussulman. The anti-slavery principle, from the testimony of the tribuna of Rome, there is a large number of slaves in the country, in order to get rid of the majority, it is not enough.
