

FOREIGN ARRIVAL

The Asia arrived at Halifax yesterday at about 10 P.M. The Herman sailed from Southampton on the 24th inst.

Since the breaking up of the Vienna Conference, there has been several supposititious meetings of the four allies, but without any material result.

The London Times speaks of the policy of the new Czar as more audacious than that of his father, and it is so regarded throughout Europe.

Nothing definite is known in relation to the condition of the siege. The general impression is that the French are not in a better position than they were in the latter part of the month.
