

PREMIUMS AND REGULATIONS, WITH THE NAMES OF THE AWARDING COMMITTEES, FOR THE FIRST ANNUAL FAIR OF THE PLYMOUTH AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY, TO BE HELD AT PLYMOUTH, ON TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY, 21, 22 and 23rd October, 1855.

TO THE PUBLIC. Inasmuch as the Plymouth Agricultural Society has been organized but a short time, and this being its first Fair, the Directors have concluded not to state the amount of the Premiums that will be given upon articles entered. All money received for memberships will be expended in Premiums, which will be paid either in Cash or Diplomas, according to the merits of the articles to which they are awarded. It is not the intention of the Directors to offer anything that is not perfectly certain of being able to fulfill. Premiums will be paid upon all articles entered below, and such articles as the Committee may deem deserving. Immediately after the Fair a list of articles upon which premiums have been awarded will be published.

OFFICERS FOR 1855. President, JOHN BOONE; Vice President, LEVY E. SHAW; Secretary, J. B. ROBINSON; Treasurer, ROBERT McDONOUGH.

ADVERTISERS: For which, and other services he shall receive such fair compensation as the Board of Directors shall determine. The President shall deliver or cause to be delivered an Address before the Society, on Agriculture, at each Annual Fair. This Convention may be amended at any of its meetings, by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

ARTICLE I. This Society shall be called the PLYMOUTH AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY. Any person who is a resident of the following Townships, in this County, to-wit: Greenfield, Fairfield, Pitsfield, Richmond, New Haven, Ripley, Greenwich, in Richland County, and in Adams, Clermont, Hamilton, Hancock, Jackson, Franklin, Weller, in Crawford County, Anson, Cranberry, Vernon, in Seneca, Venice, may become members of this Society by paying to its Treasurer, annually, the sum of One Dollar, in advance.

ARTICLE II. The officers shall consist of a President, two Vice Presidents, Secretary, Assistant Secretary and Treasurer, who shall be elected by the members present at the Annual Meeting, also a Board of Directors, who shall be likewise elected, a majority of whom shall be a quorum for the transaction of business. The annual meeting shall be held on the last day of the Fair at the place of holding the Fair.

ARTICLE III. The Board of Directors shall appoint all Committees and Officers not otherwise provided for, fill all vacancies, and have the general supervision of the affairs of the Society. Competitors for Premiums must be members of the Society. Persons holding entries at the Fair shall be under the control of the Secretary for his endorsement, upon which shall be paid by the Treasurer.

ARTICLE IV. A full List of Premiums, together with notice of the time and place of the annual Meeting and Fair, shall be published in the Plymouth Advertiser, not less than six weeks next previous to such Fair. Awarding Committees of not less than three members shall be appointed for each of the several classes of animals and articles. That on Field Crops shall require of competitors a full statement in writing of the process and expense of cultivation, and also the affidavits of two disinterested persons, of the measurement of the ground, and its production. That its production shall require a written statement of the products, method of cultivation, cost and income of the same, for the year previous, unless covered by the measure.

ARTICLE V. No premiums shall be awarded on grass or grain Crops, for less than one acre, and on Root Crops, including Potatoes, for less than one acre, or more. The amount of all crops to be determined by weight. No animal shall be entitled to a premium two years in succession, after it is four years old. The Board of Managers shall meet on the first Wednesday after the annual Fair, to award premiums, at which time all premiums shall be awarded.

ARTICLE VI. No article or animal shall be entitled to a premium, unless owned by the person offering the same, or a member of his family. All animals and articles shall be classed by the Board of Managers. The reasons for awarding premiums shall accompany all reports.

ARTICLE VII. The Treasurer shall give bond in such amount and with such security as the Board of Directors shall require, and shall pay out all funds of the Society (except money for Premiums) on written order of the President and Secretary. He shall make a full report at the annual Meeting.

ARTICLE VIII. The Secretary shall keep a full record of the proceedings of the Society and Board of Directors, and make a report thereof at the annual Meeting. He shall be the same to be published in the Advertiser.

ARRIVAL OF THE
The Royal Mail Steamship, Capt. Lout, arrived here on an early hour last night. She left Liverpool on Saturday morning, and after a week's work in the Atlantic.

The week had been entirely unproductive of news of importance in the Crimea or Baltic—the products of the telegrams remaining about the same.

The British Parliament, Mr. Gladstone's motion of censure upon the duke of Cambridge had been delayed and finally passed on July 10th.

The weather had been moderately favorable for agricultural purposes.

Second Death.—The Asia arrived at half past two this morning. The Washington left last night.

Lord Rogers has been called to England. The French troops were formed in an avenue to pass through, from the Camp to the Sea.

Trifling operations in the Baltic reported. The Austrians are not being called for on the most favorable terms.
