of her son, Carl Woodworth.

LIQUOR
Must Not Hereafter Be Sold To Men Whose Families Are Objects of Charity.

Following its recent decision that names of men whose families receive aid would be placed on the saloon "black list," the Richmond county liquor license commission has adopted a resolution making the decision official. Complaints from township trustees and the humane society prompted the action.

The commissioners' resolutions provide that "the Richmond county liquor license board pledge themselves to cooperate with the humane society and township trustees whenever the humane society and the township trustees furnish the county liquor license board with the names of parties, who by their habit of drink place their families as objects of charity and therefore dependent upon aid from the humane society and the township trustees; that the liquor license board will furnish all licensees within the county a list of the names so furnished, and notify the licensee not to sell or give away liquor to any such persons."

"That should any licensee after having received notice from the county liquor license board sell or give away liquor to any persons so listed, that the licensing board will aid the humane society and the township trustees in the arrest and prosecution of said licensee, and after conviction for the first offense their license shall be revoked, according to the license law."

Parcel Post Weight Limit May Be Enlarged.

Recent experiments conducted by the postoffice department with a view to increasing the weight limit of the parcel post have proven so successful that the parcel post weight limit soon may be shipped by rail.

Postmaster General Burleson is giving the scheme serious consideration and is known to be favorable to it. The weight limit of parcels at present is fifty pounds.

"The 100-pound weight limit has no reason for its existence," the postmaster general declared Thursday. He expressed the belief that 100,000,000 parcels would be transmitted through the mails during the year.

State Ready to Spend $110,000 in Huron Co. in 1914.

State Engineer Laylin will confer with the Huron county commissioners Tuesday in regard to the roads in this county in which the state will assist.

The state road road fund has $50,- 000 ready to spend on the Main Market Roads in this county, between Monroeville and Norfolk, and Norwalk and Wakarusa, spending dollar for dollar with what the county will spend.

The state also has $60,000 to spend in the same in on the roads from Monroeville to Havana, Olens to Pittsville and a mile of the Old Water works road, to the Peru line.
This is a total of $110,000 that the state is ready to spend in Huron county for good roads this season.

Engineer Herrick will start surveyors out as soon as weather permits and have the surveys made by the state roads. It is hoped to have the contracts for the work by April 1, and to get an early start.
A general sentiment seems to prevail in favor of brick for the new pieces of Main Market road to be built this summer.

This will make a complete east and west road, modern improved, across the county; a north and south road complete, up the west side and a north and south road complete, in the center.

Under the new law the state also can state half the expense of all bridges on state roads, and system of maintenance in the future is to be on a careful and methodical basis.—Reflector.

If Your Cash Is in Bank They Needn't Fall.

Local people will be interested to read the following from the Cleveland News, as Feb. 1 is the new tax time instead of the first Monday in April. The News item says:

County Auditor Zengerle made the discovery Wednesday that Ohio's recently acquired Warnes tax law lets you go out free of tax if you have your money in bank and leaves you open to the prying of the assessor if your money is in stocks, bonds or mortgages of any kind.

"If the new board of deputy tax assessors is unable to discover the ownership of the $300,000,000 now deposited in Cleveland banks they ought not, in fairness, to try to hunt up the other intangible securities such as stocks, bonds and mortgages," said Zengerle.

Here is the provision he found in the Warnes law:

"Nothing in this act shall be construed or held to authorize the tax commissioners to demand or receive from any financial or banking institution any list of depositors, stock depositors or others who transact business with any such institution."

The clause prohibits the tax assessors from investigating the bank deposits listed in the personal property returns of citizens according to Zengerle.

Express Rates to Be Reduced February 1st.

Express companies have received another present from the United States. First, it was the parcel post that ate into their profits and lured package senders from their doors.

Now it is a new edict of the Interstate Commerce Commission, cutting heavy slices from express rates for all parts of the country and for all weights of parcels.

The edict will take effect February 1. The cut ranges from 12 to 20 per cent.

Under the new schedule reductions from Akron to cities in the state will amount to from 12 to 15 per cent.

Express companies expect a large influx of additional business on account of the cuts. Companies say manufactured food products, such as eggs, butter, vegetables and fruit will receive special attention to insure rapid transportation and quick delivery. In cases of parcels weighing over 20 pounds, the express companies will order-cut the parcel post by a considerable amount.

Utilities Value Increased in County.

Public utility corporations in Ohio will pay taxes this year on more than a billion-dollar valuation. This figure is fixed by the state tax commissioners on an increase of more than $25, 000,000 over last year. Compared with 1910, when county auditors made the valuation, there has been an increase of $235,000,000. The total is $1,055,231,700. The value of utilities in Huron county for 1913 was $115,791,200. For 1912 it was $115,791,200.

END IT ALL FOR ME, NO SIN

Judge Fines Crime at Murder in the Second Degree and Imposes Penalty Which is Practically Life Sentence.

Philadelphia, Pa.,—Tottering under the weight of his 80 years, William Eberwein stood in criminal court here and told a simple but dramatic story of how his wife, 15 years younger, had pleaded with him to kill her, and how he committed the deed.

After the old man had completed the story, Judge Walling of Erie, Pa., temporarily presiding in the court, surveyed the best form of the prisoner, stood the crime at murder in the second degree and imposed the minimum penalty, which, in this case, was practically a life sentence. It was a solitary confinement in the penitentiary for not less than seven years or more than 14.

Holding on to the prisoner's coat with trembling hands, Eberwein, who is a veteran of the Civil war, told the court that his wife was an invalid and that one day last October he came into their home and found her lying at the bottom of a stairway down which she had fallen. He offered to have her sent to a hospital, but she would not go.

"You do it, William," Eberwein alleged she said.

"Do what?" I said, the prisoner continued about making his first trip in a submarine.

"End it all for me. It's no sin when I'm suffering so."

"Go on, William," she says, "go on." "Then I tapped her on the head with the board, and I tapped her again. She did not move much, and once when I stopped she kind of whispered: 'Go on, it won't be long.' So I kept on tapping and she got quiet."

Eberwein stopped speaking, but he urged him to begin again and told of his arrest. "If I got out of this I want to go to the soldiers' home," he said.

11 SAILORS TRAPPED

LIEUTENANT AND MEN GO DOWN

Efforts Still Being Made to Rescue Ship But All Hopes of Rescuing Men Are Gone.

Plymouth, Jan. 30.—An all-day search by a fleet of torpedo boats, in which were attached cables to sweep the bottom of Whitland bay, failed to locate the sunken British submarine, A-7, on Sunday. Although hope of any of the crew being alive was long given up—six hours being the maximum time they could breathe after the ship sank—the search will be resumed.

Desperate efforts were made on Friday to rescue Lieutenant Welman of the British navy and a crew of 11 men from submarine A-7, which sank during maneuvers in Whitland bay.

Whether the men are dead or alive had not been established on Friday, but navy officials have expressed the opinion that all had perished. The exact spot where the little vessel sank has not been definitely fixed. The A-7, in company with the A-8 and A-9, made a plunge about which engaged in maneuvers. Its sister ship, the A-10, was at the surface at the end of the maneuver, but nothing has been seen of the A-7 since it opened its valves and dived.

When the officers of the other vessels realized that their sister boat was in distress they sent out signals for aid. Rescue boats were immediately rushed to the vicinity where the A-7 went down. They threw out grappling irons and dragged the bay until darkness set in, but their efforts were fruitless.

The A-7 was in charge of Lieut. Gilbert M. Welman, who had as an aid another officer. A number of the crew continued about making their first trip in a submarine.

"End it all for me. It's no sin when I'm suffering so."

"I had a bottle in my hand that I had brought in out of the yard. I looked at her and guessed it would be a sin."

CAUSE TERROR.

Protestors of Moughan County, Mich., Will Try to Extricate Meyer.

Washington, Jan. 29.—Democrats of the house rules committee decided on Saturday against ordering congressional investigation of strikes in the Michigan copper field and the Colorado coal district. The Democrats determined that as the West Virginia investigation by the senate was the first of its kind, that if the Colorado and Michigan situations were to be acted upon the senate was the body to consider them. Democrats of the house committee concluded there were no questions in either strike nor concerning the federal government and that there was nothing to show that the state authorities were unable to cope with the situation. The entire committee will meet Tuesday.

Houghton, Mich., Jan. 30.—Charles H. Meyer, president, and six other officers and organizers of the Western Federation of Miners, who are under indictment here for conspiracy, will be considered fugitives from justice by Houghton county attorneys unless they return voluntarily to the state and stand trial. It was announced here on Saturday.

The first count of the indictment charges conspiracy to prevent by force and arms the pursuit of their vocations by employees of the mining companies. The bill against Meyer and the other officials of the federation charged a misdemeanor.

Blackbeats from the Japanese fleet discovered a native craft containing 16 refugees from Sakura who were in a starving condition. They reported that, owing to the floating masses of pumicestone and the high seas, they had been unable to steer their boat and had spent three days adrift at the mercy of the elements and without a morsel of food.

The geologist Okada is of the opinion that Sakura-Jima will continue in eruption for a month.

About seven-tenths of the island is a desert of lava and the remaining third is such a hopeless condition that it must be abandoned. Fifteen hundred of the 2,000 houses on the island were buried. The estimated damage to the island is $5,000,000. How to deal with the islanders is a great problem, the professor says, but evidently they must migrate.

Tokio, Jan. 30.—An indication that the loss of life on the island of Sakura may be much larger than has been supposed is given in a report received on Saturday from the Japanese interior department sent to Kagoshima. He reports that 9,000 out of Sakura's estimated population of 19,000 has been accounted for.

Moline, Ill., Jan. 21.—As the result of an attempt on the part of three prisoners to escape from the state penitentiary here on Monday, seven men are dead and one woman is wounded.

The dead:

P. C. Oates, deputy sheriff.

C. O. Oates, guard, shot in arm.

Judge John R. Thomas, formerly congressman from Illinois.

Tom Lane, prisoner.

Charles Kuntz, prisoner.

The injured:

Miss Mary Foster, prison cleaner.

J. W. Martin, turnkey; shot in chest.

C. O. Oates, guard, shot in arm.

Judge Thomas, a Muskegon attorney, was formerly congressman from Illinois, a federal judge and a member of the United States senate.

He served five terms in congress from the 1870s till 1901.

Reed, Lane and Kuntz, the three prisoners, were taken to the state penitentiary, where they were confined.

The prisoners were taken to the penitentiary offices and at the point of the penitentiary officers and at the point of the penitentiary officers.

Tramp's Methods Not Altogether Unlike That Followed by Two Many Others.

Robbery came up for discussion in St.
Washington with the other night and tramp's methods were discussed. Field told this anecdote about the Wassy White line.

Some time ago a hole weekly tap on the back door of a restaurant here and asked for something to eat. The good housewife responded that the world first him on the back step above with a good dinner and was willing to earn the meal by taking out the gutter.

The tramp agreed, and when he had eaten his way through several sandwiches to a feeling of happiness, the housewife came out with a reliable looking bag.

"You must have gone to that trouble, madam," said the hole, using the term implement. "I never use a bag in cleaning out a gutter."

"Never use a bag," said the woman with a wondering expression. "What do you use, then, a shovel?"

"No, madam," replied the hole, starting for the bag again, "my method is to pray for rain."

Plymouth, Ohio, says: "I had a very lame back and pains through my joints. My kidneys were weak and I had to get up five or six times at night on account of their acting too frequently. I used four boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and they relieved the kidney weakness and pains in my back. Last spring I had backache and trouble with my kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills brought me prompt relief."

The citizens of Chicago Junction held a meeting Thursday to devise means and plans for the promotion of a fair and races to be held this coming fall, excepting to the advantage of the $800 county fund set aside for this purpose.

At the present time there is no fair held in any part of Huron county and no doubt the project will be a paying proposition to the promoters and Chicago Junction.

Starting Monday Mr. Frank Preston has arranged to establish a milk depot in Plymouth, and for the present will have his headquarters at the electric depot, where milk can be had at any time through the day, the same being in charge of Agent Shadle.

The milk question in Plymouth for some time back has been one of a prohibitive nature, depending upon neighbors and townspeople for their supply, and the establishing of a milk depot will be quite an advantage to our people, who should give it the same patronage.

Mrs. Elizabeth Sherman, who suffered an apoplectic stroke at her home on Sandusky street last week Thursday night, passed peacefully to rest at 2 o'clock Thursday morning, only at intervals having regained consciousness during nearly her week of illness.

Had deceased survived until March, she would have been 75 years of age, having survived her husband, the late Jacob Sherman, by less than one year. Funeral services will be held at the late home this (Saturday) afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Obituary will appear in our next issue.

A good joke was pulled of here Sunday evening when a certain lively stable clerk was made the victim of practical jokes. He had become smitten with a certain young lady and was very anxious to take her out buggy riding and finally succeeded in making a date.

This she tipped off to some young fellows, one of whom attired himself in female clothing and went riding with the lively stable clerk, who never discovered his mistake until he was in the act of assisting his lady love from the buggy, when the young man in raising his skirts a trifle too high, disclosed a pair of No. 10 cowhide boots.

Word was received at Manfield Thursday that Edward Burgraff, who had escaped from the Richland county jail on November 29th, in company with William Tindell, had been captured at Bluefield, W. Va., where he had been working in a brewery for three weeks under the name of James Spaulding.

When Burgraff was under the influence of liquor he talked too much and spoke about escaping from jail in Richland county where he was under indictment for manslaughter, which remarks led up to his arrest.

The Richland county authorities were at once communicated with, and the Bluefield authorities were advised to hold him until extradition papers could be made out and an officer sent after him. The prisoner has admitted that he is Burgraff.

Several from this place have taken membership in the Richland County Fish and Game Protective Association and a little later on it is intended to hold a meeting here to give all an opportunity to associate themselves with the movement, which has for its object the protection and propagation of fish, game and song birds in Richland county.

Between sportsmen and owners of property in hunting and fishing territory, and to interest and educate members in sportsmenlike methods of taking fish and game. The membership fee is 25c per annum and several hundred Richland county people have already enrolled their names in the organization.

A Musical Concert.

Under the auspices of the local high school, at the Methodist church, on Thursday evening, Jan. 29, a rare musical treat will be given the public. The program will be rendered by the Crowell Family, consisting of father, mother, and four children.

Mr. Crowell completed his musical education in Germany, and is one of the finest violinists to be found anywhere. The children are all violin players of remarkable ability. The youngest, a mere child, is a wonder in her line of work. The cello and piano are also used in the rendition of their program, and some vocal work will be given.

A special price of 15c is made to all members of the schools and 25c to adults.

Concert will begin at 7:30 p. m.
