YEARNED FOR SEA WHEN BOY

Forced to Remain at an Executive Desk During the Spaniah War, He Became an Expert on Ordnance.

Chicago—While Admiral Fletcher, who captured the city of Vera Cruz Tuesday, has never resided in Chicago, he has been a frequent visitor here at the home of this brother, Thomas J. Flatcher, 5237 Cornell avenue. The latter is treasurer of the Cooperative League of Chicago. J. Fletcher, as not of the Chicago Fletcher, is an illeutanant on Admiral Fletcher's flag-ship.

"We Fletcher do not come of a sea-faring breed," add the civilian Fletch-er at his home "On the contrary, we are lows men and we should by all rights have lived and died landiub-bers. My brother is an admiral now because our representative in con-gress in Marshalltown, lows, decided he would fill a vacancy at Annapolis by holding a compettive examination.
