

After Auto Thieves.

Plymouth entertained auto thieves for about a minute Monday, and if they had hung around for an even minute more they would have had opportunity to explain to authorities.

This deduction is based on the conduct of fellows who drove a Buick roadster into the square Monday and inquired the way to Toledo.

They were first noticed by Floyd Downing on the pike near the intersection of the road to Cleveland or Toledo, the driver not seeming to have any idea of their location, nor caring much about their destination.

They asked Downing where he was going and were told to Plymouth, whereupon they said they would follow him in. During the conversation Downing made a mental record of the license number, 123836. He also noticed that a plate on the radiator carried "Canton Automobile Association."

When Downing started his car to Plymouth, his inquirers, instead of following, turned their car and headed the opposite direction. Downing, on arrival here, reported the incident to Mayor Shadle.

About five o'clock Mayor Shadle was talking of the incident to C. M. Lofland and a few minutes later while Mr. Lofland was near the Plymouth Garage, he noticed a car that talked with the driver which the Mayor had given.

Mr. Lofland hurried back to the Mayor to give him the tip, but before the Mayor could reach the suspicious outfit it was headed north out of the square.

It was noticed that the Canton Automobile Association plate had been removed within the time it was noticed by Downing and the arrival of the car in Plymouth.

Mayor Shadle telephoned information to Willard, but we are without information whether or not apprehension was made. Furthermore the machine may not have been stolen, but if not, the actions of the drivers were at least suspicious.

Sugar Water Season.

This is sugar water season for the Advertiser. The law says the syrup must be labeled pure. We are complying with the law and you will find the label on the margin.

We are expecting a good flow in April. Some are charging $2.00. The price is still soft and we are in $1.50 and guaranteeing both quantity and quality.

Adam G. Lederer.

Adam G. Lederer, well known Crawford county farmer, died at 10:30 Friday night at his home three miles east of New Washington, death resulting from an attack of uraemic poisoning. He had been unconscious for several days. About a week ago his wife found him at an early hour in the morning lying in an unconscious condition in the cellarway at his home, he having left his bed unobserved some time during the night. Mrs. Lederer, aided him in returning to his room and his condition gradually grew worse until the final dissolution came.

Cost $1200.

An examination of Huron county records, lasting about three months, has cost about $1200, according to a statement made at the court house.

The examiners were T. W. Jones and his assistant C. H. Churchill. The period of examination extended over a period of 27 months. When the county books were examined two years ago, the period covered was only 15 months and the cost was $800. The records are fully checked and have not been made public. —Ketcher-Herald.

The trustees of Plymouth township have purchased a new 10-ton roller and screener and the same has been shipped from the factory to Plymouth where it will be unloaded. The Plymouth township trustees expect to put the roller and screener at work at the moment it lands and there will be some improvement in the Plymouth township roads.

A victory postage stamp will soon be issued in commemoration of the close of the war. The victory stamp has the figures of Liberty victoriously with a sword in one hand and the scales of justice in the other. The design is on a shaded panel and has the flags of the four countries — England, France, Belgium and Italy — draped in the background. The stamp will be sold only on request and will not replace the regular three-cent stamp.

Plymouth Man Implicated in Big Automobile Tire Theft

W. G. Ramsey, living on North Street, Huron county side, is under bond for $1000 charged with the theft of a truck load of auto tires from the B. & O. railroad, Willard.

On Monday evening Marshal Tucker of Shelby received a tip that a truck load of stolen tires was leaving Willard, and moving in the direction of Plymouth.

He immediately called Sheriff Ross, Norwalk, and gave him the information, urging that he start immediately for Plymouth to make an effort to overtake the driver and his load.

Within the next five minutes Sheriff Ross and his deputy were speeding fifty miles an hour Plymouthward, and on arriving skirted the town hurriedly in search of the moving truck, and was rewarded for his diligence by seeing R. W. M. Hageman truck leaving the Ramsey garage.

Stopping the truck and making a hasty examination of the load, the Sheriff ordered the driver to proceed to Shelby and place the load of tires in storage and safe custody.

After a brief discussion with

Mr. Ramsey, Sheriff Ross proceeded to Willard, in company with Marshal Tucker. There they went into conference with Detective Prince, an officer of the B. & O. At the close of this discussion Detective Prince filed an affidavit with Mayor Dawson charging Ramsey with receiving and concealing stolen property. Based on this information Mayor Dawson issued a warrant for the arrest of Ramsey. The prisoner was taken to Willard where a preliminary was held in Mayor Dawson's court. Ramsey entered a plea of not guilty and was required to execute a bond in the sum of $1000 for his appearance on Friday March 28, 1919.

It seems that the truck driver was not guilty and was involved in the theft, but was acting in the ordinary relation of servant and responded as he would do in the usual call of business.

The arrest of Ramsey is likely to disclose the workings of a slick responsible for much theft and which has kept officials busy of late in an attempt to secure evidence that would lead to conviction.

The other day a Willard party offered bags of clover seed to Bachrach Brothers, but without avail. Bachrach pronounced the seed as stolen, basing their judgment on the manner in which the seed was sacked. It was sewed up in the bag just as a shipper would prepare for shipment. Parties offering the seed for sale stated that they were threshers and the seed had been accepted for machine service.

Unable to sell the seed to Bachrach the parties concluded to profit by Bachrach's objection, and therefore secured another grain sack and after emptying the seed into this tied it as a farmer usually closes a grain bag.

Going then to E. F. Childs, Boughtonville, the seed was sold for the cash for more than two hundred dollars as well as in the Peoples National Bank, Plymouth.

It happens that Mr. Childs was in Plymouth when the parties attempted sale of the seed to Bachrach, and on reaching his home in Boughtonville was surprised that the seed had been purchased by the man in charge.

Mr. Childs, convinced that the seed had been stolen went to Willard and demanded the return of the money and got it. He is now retaining the seed and will deliver same when ownership is determined.

Last week Liberty Bonds to the amount of $40,000 was stolen at Willard while same were in transit from Norwalk to Willard banks. These have been traced, so it is alleged, as far as Willard and onto the express truck, and further than this officials are unable to go.

It is reported also that stolen whiskey has found lodgment in Plymouth, one party buying a barrel for $150, so it is reported, and which is hardly enough to cover the revenue tax.

An additional truck load of tires were removed from the Ramsey property Wednesday, under the direction, or at least surveillance of authority. Just when this supply was received, and whether received and stored on his property with his knowledge and consent has not been disclosed.

Mr. Judson says that when a man loses confidence in himself he makes the life unamiable.

While the editor of a certain newspaper was away from home for awhile, he left the paper in charge of a minister of the gospel. During the minister's stay in the office the following letter came from a subscriber: "I know you that I paid my subscription to your paper the last time I was in your office. If I got any more letters from you as I received last week I will come in and mail it out of you." The minister answered the note like this: "I have been trying to get that out of the editor for ten years, and if you will come down and mould it out of him then, my dear sir, I have twenty members of my church I will let you operate on."

The R. F. Guthrie Sale.

The sale of household goods on last Saturday at the R. F. Guthrie home attracted a large crowd and good prices were maintained, but the crowd was justified because the offering was above the average in quality.

Editor Is Ill.

Our good friend Ed Evans, editor of the Willard Times is ill, suffering from an inflammation of the vocal cords. He probably won't be back for some time. Instead he is moving into the Hanick property on West Broadway, and Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Hanson will occupy the property on High street which Mr. Connolly vacates.

T. A. is the type of fellow we like to have around. There is just enough Irish in him to make him likable, and we are glad he's sticking.

Listen To This Piano Note.

The primary department of our public schools feel the need of a piano in their school work. The need is so urgent in their opening exercises and afternoon diversions that they are determined to secure an instrument on their own exertion, asking on the patronage of the public at a series of events which the grades will stage.

The first of these will be given at the Desler theater Friday evening April 4, when they will screen "The Square Deceiver."

The Square Deceiver is a five act Metro Wonderplay of youth and love, featuring Harold Lockwood, who is everybody's favorite in casts of this nature.

Let us help the primary department realize their ambition. Let's give the Square Deceiver a veritable jam in the matter of attendance on Friday evening April 4. It won't hurt anybody to put a piano in the primary department if we will all help.

In the second week of April they will stage the second event about which we will tell in our next issue.

Married.

On Monday March 17, 1919, occurred the marriage of W. R. England, of Jewett, Ohio, to Miss Sue Beelman, of Plymouth.

The union was solemnized in Newport, Kentucky, by the Rev. Overly, pastor of Grace M. E. church of that city.

Mr. England is identified with the Plymouth Stamped Metal Co. of this city, and Miss Beelman is the daughter of Mrs. Susan Beelman, of High street, this city, with whom the couple are making their home, temporarily at least. The Advertiser joins their friends in wishing a long, happy, and prosperous career in their chosen relationship.

Miss Grace Walker Dead.

The many friends of Rev. Welsh and wife will be saddened by the news of the death of their niece, Miss Grace Walker, of Los View, on March 26, after a severe attack of influenza, from which she seemed to be slowly recovering.

Miss Walker spent a year with her uncle and aunt, and attended Plymouth High School.

On March 10, the aged father of Rev. Welsh passed away, having had influenza followed by a second stroke of paralysis.

Sticking With Us.

A few weeks ago it was rumored that T. A. Connolly would probably move to Cleveland, temporarily at least, but he isn't going. Instead he is moving into the Hanick property on West Broadway, and Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Hanson will occupy the property on High street which Mr. Connolly vacates.

If your name appears in the list below you will be expected to be present and participate in the opening event of Friday evening March 28, 1919, at 7:30 o'clock. Aside from the banquet, there will be good music, good speaking, and the appointment of committees looking to the permanent organization at a second meeting to be held a week or ten days later. This action is deemed advisable for the reason that an election of officers and the adoption of a constitution and by-laws in connection with the program of the opening night would mean a belated session.

Presumably there is nothing omitted to make the opening night a joyous one. Your presence is desired and that it may be secured we are making this formal announcement and invitation. If your name is in the list below then you will know that you are a part of the biggest and most potential body ever organized for the good of Plymouth. If your name is not there you yet have time to submit your membership before the event it is in full swing at the opening hour.

Davis Brown Returns To Bucyrus.

Davis Brown, who recently came from Bucyrus to assume the position of works superintendent at the plant of the J. D. Fate Co., has submitted his resignation that he may accept his old position with the American Clay Machinery Co., Bucyrus.

His resignation is effective in 30 days, but by mutual understanding he will leave on an earlier date, dependent upon the completion of certain work which he has in progress.

We regret Mr. Brown's decision well in his return to his old company with whom he had spent many years before coming to Plymouth.

Eggscapty.

George Hatch, berryman, fruit man and farmer, today a hen's egg into our office Monday that for size is recommended to Mr. Hoover as a worthy offer of production.

This egg measured 6 1/2 inches round the small circumference, and just 8 inches, strong in circumference the long way. It contained two perfect but very large eggs.

Unless something more pretentious will tie the ribbon on the Standard and also decorate her with a Distinguished Service badge.

Lewis Moon At Ducros Sales.

Lewis Moon, the Ducros Breeder, Pleasant View Farm, attended a sale of Ducros on the Charles Sprague farm, near Lima, on Tuesday last week. The average per individual was $400.

On Wednesday he attended the sale of Ducros on the farm of Ira Jackson, near Dayton, where the average price per individual reached $580. One male hog commanding $1,500.

Mr. Moon also witnessed the sale of a herd on the Tom Johnson farm near Columbus, where the average price reached $250 per head.

Mr. Moon bought two sows and a male pig, to add to his Pleasant View herd.

Just To Explain.

The Advertiser desires to correct a statement made in a previous issue whereby we credited W. D. Outerbridge with the supervision and oversight of the B. W. Willett farm.

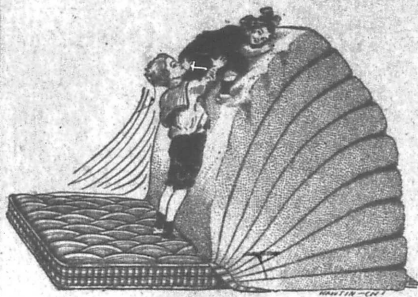

We did not know at the time that F. L. Hicks was already in charge of the farm, otherwise we would not have taken in so much territory for Mr. Outerbridge.

The facts are, Mr. Hicks is supreme in the farm management, but Mr. Outerbridge came only to look after the residence property, where he will make a house for Mr. Hiram Willett, and grow small fruits and vegetables.

We do not have taken in so much territory for Mr. Outerbridge may be excused from blame, for he gave us no information whatsoever.

Rape Produces Well As A Forage Crop.

One of the most profitable ways of providing extra pasture for swine is to grow rape, as shown by tests at the Ohio Experiment Station. The dry matter of rape has been found to compare favorably with that of alfalfa or clover pasture; it is also high in mineral matter which makes it valuable for swine pasture.

An acre of rape pasture may be estimated to carry from eighteen to twenty-four full-fed spring pigs from June until the close of the grazing season. In comparative feeding tests pigs on rape pasture required 64 pounds less of corn for each 100 pounds of gain produced than those fed in dry lot.

Rape is also one of the cheapest crops to seed, as only from four to six pounds of seed per acre is required. Most of the seed in this country is produced overseas. War conditions have made the shipment of rape seed difficult but, according to seedmen, there is little danger of a shortage this season.

To Control Oats Smut.

County Agent Laird has secured Prof. W. G. Stover of the State University to assist in some demonstrations of the methods of control of smut in oats.

Thousands of bushels of oats are destroyed in the county each year by this disease and by proper seed treatment this loss can be practically eliminated.

Meetings will be held at the following places:
Ridgefield Township.—Thursday, March 20, at 9:30 a. m., on the farm of Tom Jones, east of Monroeville.
Hartland, Twp.—Thursday afternoon at 2:30 p. m., on the farm of Charles Robbins, south of Hartland Center.
Richmond Twp.—Friday, March 21, at 9:30 a. m., on the farm of William Miller, west of Willard.
Ripley Twp.—Friday afternoon, at 1:30 p. m., on the farm of R. A. Atyoo, east of Boughtonville. All farmers interested in getting rid of oats smut are urged to attend one of these meetings.

Advice And Practice.

"Smith," said Jones, "I have a chance to marry a poor girl whom I love or a rich girl whom I do not love. What is your advice?"
"Jones," said Smith, "love is the salt of life. Without it all else is naught. Love makes poverty wealth, pain joy, earth heaven."
"Enough," Jones said, "I will marry the poor girl whom I love."
"I knew you would," said Smith, taking out his fountain pen. "And now the address, please, of the rich girl you do not love."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

His Favorite Cross.

The present war has been prolific in stories relating to the activities of the colored soldiers in France and some of their humorous experiences therein. Some are true; others doubtless have developed from the American love for creating a "Southern" folk. Jones, One returned soldier, who fought at Verdun, recalls a colloquy between three colored soldiers in France.

"All I wants as a souvenir," one of them declared, "is a iron cross from the body of a Duche we 'at I done kill."

"Me!" chimed in another. "I don't want no iron cross, no-deed. I wants a reg'lar Cross de Gerry fom some French gin'ral."

"You-all kinwant w'atsoevah you-all wants," interjected the third. "But if you asks me I wants a-cross de big pond to New York. Dat's de sort o' cross I wants."

OUR CLOTHING DEPARTMENT deserves the title "Style Headquarters for Young Men."

Here young men and older men with young ideas, come for clothes that are different, clothes that have distinctive personality.

EVERY GARMENT IS AN EXCEPTIONAL VALUE

THE QUALITY of a suit, as we understand the term, embraces everything that goes into it; the materials, the trimmings, the workmanship.

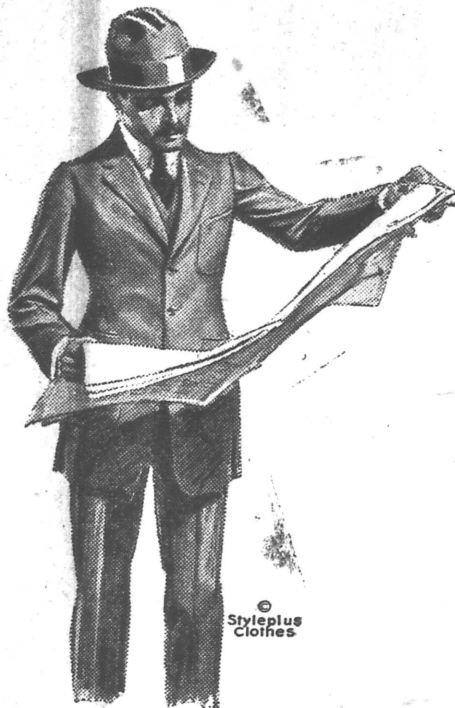

THE STYLE is represented in the garments correct designing and its up-to-dateness. When these two are combined in clothes, at the moderate price we ask, then you have "Value."

That our suits are the biggest values that you can find, is a statement that you should not accept without proof--and the proof is here waiting for you whenever you will favor us with a visit.

Grape Juice Industry Developing In Ohio.

Due to the increased demand for grape juice as a beverage, many Ohio farmers and gardeners are preparing to set out larger areas of vineyards this spring, according to the department of horticulture at the Ohio Experiment Station. The grape-juice industry, it is believed, will develop into as large a business as the manufacture of wine, which has been as high as 2,000,000 annually.

Unlike the wine industry, the manufacture of grape juice is expected to develop in all parts of the state since it has been found possible to grow grapes in practically every section of Ohio as well as in the counties bordering Lake Erie. The development of vineyards of the highest-flavored fruits for supplying home markets alone will also stimulate the production of grape juice as a by-product of grape culture, fruit men state.

Early grape growing was centered around Cincinnati, the Patent Office in 1833 reporting 1,400 of the 1,500 acres of vineyards in Ohio within 20 miles of that city. In 1910 almost one-third of all the Ohio vineyards were in Cuyahoga county. In earlier years Ohio produced twice the amount of grape wine made in any other state although California ranked second in importance.

Immediate Relief Needed!

American Red Cross cables from Europe, urge immediate relief for hundreds of thousands who are in great need of clothing. A campaign will take place, for the collection of use-clothing for all ages, and both sexes, in all the European countries except the Central Powers.

Garments need not be in perfect condition, since the material can be used for children's garments. (Many Refugee women employed by the Red Cross in making over substantial materials.)

Every family in town or country is urged to look through attic and closets for such clothing as can be spared to make comfortable the less fortunate people of the devastated lands.

All clothing, shoes, etc. are to be packed in burlap bags for shipping, thus saving the Red Cross much expense on freight charges. If you have any such bags enclose your contribution in them and they will be very acceptable.

This collection will be assembled during the week of March 21 to 31. Bring or send to the home of Mrs. Geo. Sauer.

To accumulate money is thrift. Thrift is not speedy. It takes much time to accumulate, but the habit is inspiring, and it reaches its fullest fruition in your December.

THRIFT IS YOUR SHOCK ABSORBER.

When the step is trial, when the sight is dim, when the mind has lost its clarity, then, but did you practice thrift?

April Hatched Pullets Make Good Producers.

Experiments conducted at the Ohio Experiment Station to determine the influence of time of hatching upon the egg production of pullets indicates that about April 20 is a satisfactory time to hatch the lighter breeds of fowls raised particularly for egg production.

Pullets hatched February 22 were found to lay well from August 10 to November 1, but during late fall and early winter went through a molt similar to year-old hens. The results secured with pullets did not justify the expense and labor involved in brooding the chicks during cold weather.

A profitable egg production was secured with pullets hatched June 13 but it was found more difficult to rear a satisfactory percentage of the chicks at this time than if they were hatched during the latter part of April.

$66,000 For Road Improvement.

Ashland county will get $66,000 from the Ohio highway department to be used in road improvements as the result of the visit of a delegation of men from Ashland to Columbus. This appropriation will enable Ashland county to carry out an extensive road building campaign. About 14 miles of roads in Ashland county are to be improved this year at an estimated cost of $430,000 in addition to other country road work.

The King's A Regular Fellow.

The man whom King Albert of Belgium asked for a cigar arrived home on the Sierra. His name is Bryon Stowe and he lives in New York City. Stowe is a warrant machinist in the naval air service.

"I was in an airplane the Americans captured at Knessel-Aere, Germany," he said. "A big plane landed and out stepped the pilot, a big, handsome fellow.

"Got a cigarette?" he asked. "I gave up." "And a match?" "I gave him the match." "American," he asked. "I said 'yes'." "I'm a Belgian," he said. "I have heard about 'Albert's chariot and the man's manner was somehow impressive." "You're King Albert," I said. "I'm Albert," he replied, grinning cheerfully. —Chicago Herald and Examiner.

A Monster Clock.

The dial of the world's largest pedestal clock, erected in the center of the new $10,000,000 wholesale terminal at Los Angeles, can be seen from any part of the 20 acres covered by the market place. The clock, which is 35 feet high, automatically operates its own lighting system at sundown and shuts it off at daylight, and winds and sets itself.

Fox Breeding.

Raising ranch-bred foxes is an industry that is being carried on extensively in all the Canadian provinces, in at least a dozen of the northernmost states of the United States, and beginning in Japan and Norway, all lying in much the same climatic belt, adapted to domesticating the black fox, under the most favorable conditions.

A bill introduced into the state legislature would compel a driver of an automobile to wear a button bearing the same number as his license tag, otherwise explain to the authorities. The bill is designed to help determine ownership in case of theft. If the driver cannot show button bearing the duplicate number he can explain to the sheriff, or wait till the sheriff can confer with the state registrar of automobiles.

Irving S. Cobb is being booked as a lyceum attraction at $750 per night. If they would make it a clean $1000 we might be induced to enter the lecture field, but we'd hate to speak for an hour for a paltry $750. That's only a little above the price of a Ford.

Men we have boiled down the objections to the League of Nations, we find about equal parts of bellow and partisanship, with sincerity present in a slight trace. Those objections are unimportant in a legislative sense, and are of the species that make us wonder how they found entry into legislative councils. We are still clinging to William Howard Taft as our notion of what constitutes a level headed republican, and as the man whose counsel is worth heeding.

It would seem that the bribery investigation now going on at Columbus has fastened a measure of guilt on two members of the General Assembly from Cleveland. One of the accused, Mr. DeJahanty remains mute under the charge, and the other Mr. Wright says he may enter a denial. The democratic executive committee of Cuyahoga county recently demanded Mr. DeJahanty's resignation, but he preferred to hold on. Maybe the house will make the request as it is empowered to sit in judgment over its own members. There is not much in a legislator who cannot go through a brief session clean and wholesome, and the sooner they step aside the better for the legislative body and its mission of service for the people.

Items of Interest From The Oberlin Business College.

The Spring Term at The Oberlin Business College will open Monday, April 7, 1919, and as new classes will be formed in all departments this is one of the best times of the year for new students. The value of business training is appreciated more than ever before. Through the war experience the world has suddenly awakened to the fact that the demand for bookkeepers, stenographers, accountants and office help in general is greater than for any other service. The Oberlin Business College has emerged from the war period with a reputation for thorough work not surpassed anywhere in the country. It was recently selected by the U. S. Government as one of the schools for retraining disabled soldiers and sailors at government expense, so that it is one of the few business schools having both state and national recognitions.

This school is authorized by the state to offer a Commercial Teachers' Course which leads to the state certificate, and also trains for Civil Service, business and office positions. The April issue of The Oberlin Business College News is just out and will be mailed to anyone requesting it.

Keep Grapes Fresh for Months.

Grapes can be kept fresh for several months by inserting their stems through the corks of glass bottles, filling these with water, pressing the corks firmly in, sealing them if necessary with paraffin and tverting the bottles on wooden racks in a cool cellar. The bunches should hang free, their stems sticking up into the water.

If you don't get your hard coal while you can buy it at the low price you will have to pay more, but it won't be my fault.

Give Me Your Order

Give me your order now and I will see that your coal is in sometime in May or June, and give you the low dollar price.

Farmers Wanting Feed

Farmers wanting feed, any kind of feed, and want the bottom price should see me before buying. That's the sure way to avoid loss.

Pocahontas Coal

There is this and that grade of Pocahontas coal, but the kind I offer you is guaranteed and you can't buy a better grade anywhere. If you let me have your order now I'll save you the low price.

Letter From Mathias Chronister.

Camp Le Souge,
Feb. 23, 1919.

Dear Mother, Father, and All—

I received the Advertiser and was glad, the letters from the boys were very interesting especially one from the Kuhn boy giving a little description of a few things an American soldier has to go through. Although I have not seen nor been through what some of the boys have I have seen plenty.

Some very funny things have happened in my tour. A lieutenant from a certain battery of our regiment was in charge of a gun. It was being put into firing position and a few shells were dropping near. When some one gave the gas alarm and the poor lieutenant did not have his mask. He ran a circle around the gun asking what to do, but finally decided to climb a tree. But he never succeeded, for it was a false alarm. It was very funny after it was all over but it brought the sweat out on the lieutenant's face. A Jew by the name of Miller faints and a crowd "Oh the news of my death will sure kill my wife." It was only a shell that threw dirt around the gun crew. It was there that I met gunner L. Buzard. The battery that he belonged to moved in and we had to move further back in the woods. He was closer to the front than we were.

We were shooting about nine miles. There was a gun shooting at us, the officers' say, about sixteen inch. We moved a gun within a couple of miles from the lines to get a crack at her but the armistice was signed before she spoke.

After the armistice was signed we hiked back about 15 miles to clean up some woods. Then to Froyon where I could cross the Meuse canal and river over to Weishey and visit gunner L. Buzard.

We boarded a train near St. Michiel, rode three days and nights, sixty to a box car, and found ourselves at this camp.

I have lived in the homeliest houses in Aubiere. Two fine hotels of which were turned into hospitals. Aubiere is a very old town. Around it you can find very many monuments, where Gaspar won and lost battles.

Bordeaux is very near this camp on 18 miles. It can be compared with Paris in the way of views. I have been down there but once in our six weeks, stay at this camp.

I think that the 37th division is getting ready to go home. Buz beat me there from the way things look.

Here is a pretty good poem.

A Miss or Two.

They missed me at home,
So I've heard said;
And they missed me in France
With German lead.

And now that the missing
Is o'er, I guess
I'll Mrs. a Miss
Who missed me, she says.

And I won't miss the boat
That takes me to be
A Mr. again
And not P-v-t.

I won't miss the captain
I won't miss the lieuts.
I won't miss the mess
Nor the bugler who toots.

And if my fist's doubled
And my arm is free
I won't miss the top—
He made me K. P.
But to talk of missing. A miss may be as good as a smile, but it will be for me when I begin to miss this army life.

It is rumored that we leave this camp next Thursday. Here's hoping it is true.

Yesterday I was jabbed in the arm for the Flu. Please excuse this penmanship as I wrote this when I was on guard. It rained for about ten hours, without a stop. Goodbye.

From your son,
F. M. B. Chronister,

Apple Sprays For 1919.

On account of the great numbers of aphid or plant lice eggs this spring, it will be well to delay our Dormant spray until the leaf buds have expanded and the leaves are about three-fourths the size of the squirrels' ears. The spray at this time will kill practically all of the plant lice and destroy the eggs that are not hatched.

Spray No. 1—Dormant Spray.
1 gallon of Lime Sulphur to 7 gallons of water, and Nicotine Sulphate or Black Leaf "40" in the proportion of 1 pint to 90 gallons of water.

Apply when blossoms show pink or just before opening. To Bordeaux mixture, 6-8-50 strength, add 2 lbs. of arsenate of lead powder to 50 gallons of spray. If plant lice are present, add one-half pint nicotine sulphate to 45 gallons of spray.

Spray No. 2—Salicylic Acid.
Apply when about 25 per cent of

Paints

You can't freshen your spring house cleaning just right without paint. We have it from a thumbful to a barrel.

Varnish and Stain

You can't make your old furniture look like new without Varnish. We have it in little cans and big.

Oils and Greases

You can't run smoothly unless you oil up. No matter what your machinery, we have the oil or grease.

A Little Bit of Fence

A little bit of fence around a fertile field will limit range of stock or multiply the yield. We've got it any weight, and the price we quote is right. Horse high, bull strong, and little piggy tight.

Save one half on your butter bill. NUCOA is churned from milk and milk by one of the oldest nut butter factories in the U. S. Its sweet flavor will cause your friends to ask, where do you get that good butter?

Jello - Jiffy Jell - Gelatine

The use of these delicious products is ever increasing and it is a usual thing to have a customer conclude her order with Oh yes, give me a package of Jello.

We carry a full line in all flavors, and among the latest additions is lime and mint flavors for your salads. Also Pineapple and Logan-berry in the fruits. Use more of this cheap and wholesome product.

Ginger Ale - Lime Juice

We have just received a shipment of the famous Saegerstrom Ginger Ale. Take home a bottle and when the folks try this refreshing drink you will buy it by the case.

Rose's West India Lime Juice supplies a wholesome and refreshing beverage diluted with plain or aerated water, with or without the addition of sugar.

about July 15.

Any one wishing further information, get in touch with the county agent.

Care Anxious Men.

Anyone who is just beginning to learn he should not use any other than the one that has been used for years. The Dormant spray applied after the buds have burst may cause a slight burning of the edges of the leaves, but this will not be serious.

Spray No. 1 and spray No. 2 are the most important for this section, but spray No. 4 should not be omitted, and for perfect fruit spray No. 4 should be used.

Many trees for planting from 1919. There are said to be about 5000 trees for the winter, which grow throughout tropical India.

Entering Stamp Contest.

Mail carriers of Richland county are enlisting themselves in the Ohio War Savings Committee stamp contest to be closed August 3, the winner of which will be given a free trip to Mackinac Island and return. The cruise will be made aboard one of the largest and most palatial of the Great Lake steamers; and every accommodation for the comfort of the winning carrier will be provided.

The winning mail carrier's only qualification will be that he has sold at least $15,000 in War Savings Stamps during the period of the contest. Certification of the sales is made by the local postmaster. Interest in the contest will be maintained through special lists designed by Edwin D. Ford War Savings chairman for Richland county.

The Ohio War Savings committee is offering a special correspondence course in salesmanship to every mail carrier entering the contest. This course is designed to quicken the carriers' sales ability.

Following Richland county carriers have entered the "Trip to Mackinac" contest:

Wern F. Hauserman, Mansfield.
Herrn W. Zellman, Mansfield.
Orrin L. Laird, Mansfield.
Geo. H. Hoover, Mansfield.

Merchants handling cigarettes are selling to minors under 16 years. This is also a violation of the law.

Violators will take notice that this is a final warning, and prosecution will follow further infractions.

Mayor A. A. Shagle.

Twentieth Century Circle.

The 20th Century Circle met with Miss Rilla Trauger March 17, 1919. Mrs. Walker gave a humorous reading, Mrs. Casey, at the Woman's Club, in a very pleasing and entertaining manner. Mrs. Shutt had for her subject North-west Territory, which was instructive. Mrs. Artz's paper was on the "Lakes Training Station," which gave an idea of the late navy training. Mrs. Postle's paper on Rubber Industry gave an idea of the wonderful work that is being done at Akron. The response to roll call brought forth much Irish wit which caused much merriment. The Circle then adjourned to meet with Miss Beer-Bower at the home of Mrs. Sykes, March 31.

Scooper's Answer To Hoover Food Law.

They tell us that the price of food is dropping, by inches. Alas, an inch is much too small, the price has fallen still further. We love to think of days gone by, when food cost really nothing. It seems to us the profiteers deserve a mighty cuffing. Our lunch today consists of tea, a hot bun and a pickle. Ten years ago we flagged a stake and paid four times a nickel. We still recall when eggs were bought for eighteen times a penny, but now, you know, for fifty cents you don't get very many.

When we think of gravied spuds we clasp our head, it's spinning, it seems to us. The war at home is really just beginning. We fear that we are growing thin with worry over prices. We used to order bread by loaves but now we order slices. If prices soon don't drop to where our pocketbook can meet 'em, we think we'll look for softeners and then we'll up and beat 'em.

Red Cross Notes.

To those who so kindly loaned chairs for the Red Cross workers! The attendance now is so small that the chairs are no longer needed.

So you can get your chairs any day, unless, you can furnish a worker for each chair. There is plenty of sewing and probably will be for some time. Our quota of Refugee garments is 2000 before May 15, for this division.

Pie Social.

The pie social last Friday night at Hazel Grove school house was a rousing success. The event was attended by a large crowd, and there was entertainment for all. A program was the first feature of the evening and this was followed by a fish pond which was patronized by those fond of fishing. The pond brought in $2.40. Thirty-three pies were sold and netted $25.80. The highest priced pie was $3.75 and the lowest was 50 cents. The money will be used in purchasing a Columbia phonograph for the Hazel Grove district school. Miss Alma Clark, the teacher at Hazel Grove, and all the pupils and parents worked earnestly to make the evening a success and they certainly accomplished their object.

A Conductorless Car.

The "conductorless" street car had its first tryout yesterday on the Brooklyn Rapid Transit lines. Four cars of a new design calling for the services of only one man as operator, were running on one of the suburban lines. The officials say that now if they prove successful that new cars will be operated in the sections where there is little traffic. They are provided with entrance and exit at the front of the car and the motorman collects the fares and handles the transfers. The new cars accommodate 35 passengers. They are equipped with a safety device that makes it impossible for them to move while the doors are open. New York Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Women of Richland county are to be enlisted in the War Savings campaign.

Edwin D. Ford, War Savings chairman, has advised the Ohio War Savings Committee of the selection of Mrs. J. L. Stevens of Mansfield as chairman of the women's division of his committee.

Activities so successfully undertaken and accomplished by women of Ohio during the war developed a potential ability to carry on work of the character to be assigned them by the War Savings organizations over the state. In each county of Ohio the women's division of the W. S. S. committees will take an important part in the campaign for the sale of War Savings Stamps.

GOOD-BYE BACKACHE, KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES

For centuries all over the world GOLD MEDAL Blandin Oil has afforded relief in thousands upon thousands of cases of lame back, lumbago, sciatica, rheumatism, gaiteritis, gravel, and all other affections of the kidneys, liver, stomach, bladder and allied organs. It acts quickly. It does the work. It cleanses your kidneys and purifies the blood. It takes a new man, a new woman, of you. It frequently wards off attacks of the dread and fatal diseases of the kidneys. It often completely cures the distressing diseases of the organs of the body allied with the bladder and kidneys. Bloody or cloudy urine, sediment, or "brickdust" indicates an unhealthy condition.

Box of imported GOLD MEDAL Blandin Oil Capsules. They are pleasant and easy to take. Each capsule contains about one dose of five drops. Take them just like you would any pill. Take a small quantity at a time if you want to. They dissolve in the stomach, and the kidneys soak up the oil like a sponge does water. They thoroughly cleanse and wash out the bladder and kidneys and throw off the inflammation which is the cause of the trouble. They will quieten the stiffened joints, that backache, rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, gaiteritis, gravel, "brickdust," etc. They are an effective remedy for all the diseases of the bladder, kidney, liver, stomach and allied organs. Your druggist will cheerfully refund you money if you are not satisfied after a few days' use. Accept only the pure, original GOLD MEDAL Blandin Oil Capsules. None other genuine.—Adv.

SCOUTS

SCOUT TREES FOR ROOSEVELT

The 16,000 troops of the Boy Scouts of America are everywhere taking an active part in planting memorials to Theodore Roosevelt. Many troops have already had impressive services and have taken up Scout Commissioner Dan Beard's idea to plant Roosevelt trees. A million pine trees will be set out in the Interstate park by the scouts of New York city, according to the plan of the park commission. Several troops of Manhattan borough scouts are endeavoring to have a grove of trees planted in Central park to represent the formation of a troop of scouts in the regulation four patrol and called the "Roosevelt Scout Shelter."

In Philadelphia each troop will plant a tree in a prominent place. Columbus scouts, as soon as the weather will allow, will plant trees in the state house grounds in the center of the city. Each troop will plant a tree, and the completed group will be known as the "Roosevelt Grove." The boy scouts of Everett, Wash., are to plant trees on the highway from Skagit to Gray Lines in honor of the soldier and sailor dead, and they ask that they be included for their chief scout citizens. Chicago is planning for a fitting memorial in the forest reserve. In Syracuse, N. Y., the scouts will plant a number of "Roosevelt stims" in each of the city parks, properly labeled.

This plan of the nearly a half million members of the Boy Scouts of America has found instant support and enthusiastic advocacy.

SCOUT WAS GERMAN CAPTIVE.

Constantine Oen, imprisoned in Lens until freed by British bombardment, has returned to his home in Johnston City, Ill. After the British captured the city he was sent to Paris, where he joined the French boy scouts. He wore a French scout uniform when he landed in New York.

Pioneer Scout Norman Liddell of Johnston City interviewed Oen when he got back home. The boy said: "I left Johnston City five years ago on my way to France to see my aunt. I went to Hennicourt (near Lens), a city in France, and lived there two years and a half. While I was there the Germans captured the place and took me prisoner for two years. I used to have to work in the streets for the Germans. The prisoners the Germans took that were over sixteen years old had to eat dogs and cats."

"The town was then bombarded by the British and taken. Then I was sent to Belgium and lived there six months, and then was exchanged as a prisoner and passed to Switzerland. Then they took me to Germany; then from Germany to Paris, working for the American Red Cross, and then from Paris I took a boat to the port called Rochambeau, and then I took a steamer to New York, and from New York to Johnston City."

SCOUTS HONOR HERO DEAD.

The little French boy scout who was shot by the invading Germans because he would not reveal the presence of the American victory has been honored by Troop No. 502 of Manhattan by being placed at the head of a ghostly troop of scout war heroes. As Scoutmaster H. A. Groesbeck called out the names, answer is made for them and the colors are dipped. Troop No. 502 is connected with public school No. 168.

Troop No. of Jamestown, N. Y., in commemorating the men from that city who died in the nation's service, took the following course: "In token of our gratitude to them and of our loyalty to the cause for which they died, we have resolved that when the roster of our troop is called their names shall henceforth be called first and saluted and the answer, 'Dead on the field of honor' shall thereupon be made for them."

CRIPPLED BOYS AS SCOUTS.

A troop of scouts has been organized in the city of Minneapolis, Minn. They are the best rope workers and the fastest signallers in town. The scouts that are able to hobble about much enjoy the program of scouting.

Every member of the troop had a war garden of his own last summer and six received the most from that war garden contest. During the year they harvested, from their troop gardens, vegetables amounting in sales to $810, and not one of them able to walk without a cane or crutches.

SCOUTS HELP AT INAUGURATION.

Three hundred and seventy-five scouts were on separate detail at the state capital in Harrisburg, Pa., at the inauguration of Gov. William G. Sprunt.

Cordial letters of appreciation were received by Scout Executive J. P. Flynn from the governor and from the superintendent of the state consistory, both of whom said they had never seen a large crowd handled in a more efficient manner.

COMB SAGE TEA IN HAIR TO DARKEN IT

Its Grandmother's Recipe to keep her Locks Dark, Glossy, Beautiful.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mummy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyneth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyneth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.—Adv.

The Modern Method. Mrs. P. J. Patterson upon an acquaintance and found that the latter's ten-year-old son had developed a face that was considerably too large for his body. "Willie has the mumps," remarked the caller with a critical glance at the victim. "What are you doing for him?" "We sent for the doctor," answered the mother, "that's the method we left off on the matter." "How times have changed," remarked Mrs. Patterson. "When I was a little girl we used to treat mumps by taking a strip of salt pork, plentifully spiced with salt and pepper, and binding it around the throat." "Yes, we thought of that, but at the present price of pork we decided it would be cheaper to get a doctor."

DETECTING PRETENDED DEAFNESS.

In cases where there is hysterical and imagined deafness, or plain simulation, the following ingenuity is prescribed: The patient is made to sing with a piano accompaniment. Then the pianist changes the key (from one-half to one tone more), and if the singer is not really deaf he is carried off by his singing and changes to the key given by the piano. By playing in varying strength one may by this means estimate the degree of ailment in a subject having an incomplete deafness.

BOSCHEE'S SYRUP

Why use ordinary cough remedies when Boschee's Syrup has been used so successfully for fifty-one years in all parts of the United States for coughs, bronchitis, colds settled in the throat, especially lung troubles? It gives the patient a good night's rest, free from coughing, with easy expectoration in the morning, gives nature a chance to soothe the inflamed parts, throw off the disease, helping the patient to regain his health. Made in America and sold for more than half a century.—Adv.

A Confession of Failure.

Johnnie was practicing diligently with his new slingshot. Suddenly an old lady touched him on the arm. "Boy," she said, almost tearfully, "that's a thing I never could do—but a harmless little boy."

"Darned if I can, either!" he said sympathetically.

Garfield Tea is Nature's laxative and blood purifier; it overcomes constipation and its many attendant ailments.—Adv.

But women make fools only of men who fly the material.

Dr. Flynn's Pleasant Pellets put an end to indigestion, constipation, dizziness and headache.

One way to become round is to eat plenty of square meals.

POINT HE HAD OVERLOOKED

Time Coming When Hubby Would Discover That His Bride Was Not Altogether Spiritual.

Grocery Man Was Too Eager to Register "Kicker" to Take Notice What Time It Was.

He watched her daintily nibbling her excess sandwich.

A horse hitched to a wagon fell across the car tracks in front of a government building in the national capital.

"I know what it is," he cried, suddenly. "I know why you appeal to me more than any other girl I ever met. It's because you're the perfect combination of the spiritual and physical. Your fresh, plump beauty and your birdlike appetites—"

In about two minutes the driver, assisted by the usual first aid, had unbuckled a lot of harness and the horse was up and on his way. And that was all there was to it except that—

"I never did eat much, even as a child," she murmured, indignantly. "A touch of tonsil in the morning, a sip of soup at noon, a sprig of celery or a pinch of parsley at supper and I'm satisfied. As mother always says, 'the man that gags my board bill will be in luck.'"

When a car waited for the track to be cleared an elderly man person, who looked as if he considered the world a big mistake, said to a man beside him:

"My ideal!" he cried.

"Gent your eyes at the windows of that office, sir; every one alive with men and women; if the clerks of a department will leave their desks and fritter away the government's time over a trifling sight like this, what sir, I ask, must be the state of our national conscience?"

"It's a fearful strain," she thought, "but I'll land him this week or die in the attempt!"

The man next had cast up an eye per request, and chuckled with his heartiness of one who sleeps well, eats three solid meals a day, and treats his wife like a perfect lady.

An honest man wants only what belongs to him—and what he can persuade others to let him have.

"Say, friend, you've got it all balled up. You are so busy looking at the windows that you overlook the clock. Noon means lunch time."

It is usually the forward boy who is backward at school.

And the national conscience was vindicated.

Must Carry Lights

Horse driven vehicles must carry lights at night. Drivers who neglect this are not only liable to a fine, but cannot collect damages in case another vehicle runs into them.

The automobile has established new conditions on the highway at night. Before the motor driven vehicle became general, horse driven conveyances were in comparatively little danger of collision. Both the speed and the vision of the horse prevented the crash. Lights were scarcely necessary.

But with the constantly increasing crops of automobiles, all of them lighted front and rear, the vehicle without lights is a menace not only to auto traffic but to itself. Farmers who drive automobiles realize this quite as much as others. There have been many costly collisions because lights were not used and there will be more unless all traffic on the public roads bears some kind of an illuminated marker at night.

The wise farmer lights his wagon even without a compulsory law. He knows that it safeguards him. Every farmer and every other interest ought to welcome a measure designed to protect the users of the highways. The farmer ought to be most interested because in a collision between a big motor car and a farm wagon, the wagon usually gets the worst of it.

Thought It Was Tin.

Platinum looks like tin to Mrs. Elizabeth Powers, who scrubs floors for a living. It also looks like tin to the incompetent burglar who stole Mrs. Powers' alarm clock. There is an excuse for Mrs. Powers—none for the burglar. In his business he ought to have known better.

Mrs. Powers was scrubbing up in a ladies' tailoring shop when she found in a dusty corner the "tin pin with pieces of glass in it." It was certainly pretty and Mrs. Powers hooked it on the front of her shirt waist and went home. There she stuck it into the pin cushion on the bureau and forgot it.

Last week the bungling burglar came around and carried her alarm clock away. She needed a new clock and she had no money. So she took the "tin pin" to a pawn shop and timidly asked if she could borrow a dollar on it. She got arrested then. To her vast amazement she heard the pin appraised as worth $1500. But everybody believed Mrs. Powers' story and she was discharged by the magistrate. The owner of the pin gave her $15 to buy a new clock. N. Y. Correspondence of the Pittsburg Dispatch.

Prince Henry In Columbus.

Sarverman went last Saturday Prince Henry, brother of the man who was later the Kaiser of Germany, was a guest of the city of Columbus. Though his stay in the city was only a few minutes he was officially welcomed by both the governor of the state, George K. Nash, and the mayor of the city, John N. Hinkle.

A week before, the prince with his extensive suite, had landed from the Kron Prinz at New York and was welcomed first by Hermann Ridder of the New York Zeitung at a dinner to which a thousand newspapermen of the country had been invited, and at which the royal guest in an address said he had been informed by the brother, the emperor, that newspapermen in America occupied rank equal to his generals, and that he came to further cement the ties of friendship between the two countries.

The next day he went to Washington and was welcomed by President Roosevelt at a state dinner. The party then returned to New York to witness the launching of a new yacht that had been built there for the Kaiser. The president attended the launching and Miss Alice Roosevelt, now Mrs. Longworth, christened the craft "The Meteor." It is a matter that has escaped attention recently that in the official suite of Prince Henry on that visit was Admiral von Tirpitz, the man who ordered the sinking of the Lusitania and whose insistence, it is now known, led Germany to enter upon the indiscriminate sinking of neutral ships in forbidden waters and thus forced the United States into the war.

One thing connected with the tour of America by the prince that specially interests Ohio is that when our Governor Nash made plans to honor the distinguished party and tried to arrange to meet the train that bore him at the state line, he was informed that it would be impossible for the prince to permit the governor to ride with him on his train. The German consul at Cincinnati was charged with conveying that information to Governor Nash. Things have changed somewhat now, German consuls in the United States are not giving orders as to what governors may or may not do.

Is Your Life A Hard One?

Do you people at home feel at times that this war has made your life pretty hard? Read what an American correspondent writes about one of our boys who had been doing his duty:

"In a little field hospital west of Montdidier, I stopped at the bedside of an American boy, one of those victims of the German mustard gas, with which the Huns are making all their present gains. His eyes were matted with yellow pus and he could not see. His face was terribly burned. His lips were swollen and purple. His whole body had been turned the color of an Indian, and portions of it looked like melted flesh, as though it had been liquified.

"The fighting had been renewed all along the American lines, and German wounded had begun coming into our hospitals. I said to this soldier:

"The boys are getting their revenge for you fellows tonight." He smiled through his seared lips, and in a voice so faint that I had to bend down to listen, he gasped, "God! I wish I was back there with 'em!"

Do you still think your life a hard one? Help support that boy and the hundreds of thousands of others doing their duty. Buy War Savings Stamps to the limit of your capacity.
