

Demonstration Day at Lebanon Farm

Lebanon Stock Farm and Hazel Grove School to Be Scene of Interesting Meetings Tomorrow.

The Club work is the keynote of the work in the rural districts around Plymouth, and in order that the Pig and Poultry Clubs may get a flying start for the year, Demonstration Day will be held at the Lebanon Stock Farm south of town tomorrow, and in the evening the Shanty Community Welfare Club will hold a meeting at the Hazel Grove School.

The Demonstration Day exercises will begin at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow.

At this meeting C. C. Terrel will be present from New Vienna, Ohio, and will be in charge of the hog breeding, and I can assure you that he is capable of handling the hog judging demonstration.

The Knapp, proprietor of the H. O. Hatchery of Shelby, will also give a poultry demonstration which will be a benefit to every farmer. This demonstration will be for the benefit of the community at large. Let everyone of the community be present. We assure you that it will be an interesting and interest to you, young or old.

The regular monthly meeting of the Shelby Community Welfare Club will be held at the Hazel Grove school house north of Shelby Friday night, March 21st, at 8 o'clock. C. C. Terrel will be present to give talks on the club work.

A fine program will be presented at the business meeting. Don't stay at home, but every one help fill the banquet hall. Don't forget the school house.

Entertains Club

On Friday evening, March, 14th, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Root, opened their home for the Annual Party given by the Tourist Club.

Dinner was served at 6:30, and guests were laid for twenty-six, including members and guests. The St. Patrick's Day Color scheme of green and white, which was the theme for the decorations and service, white rosebuds and green ferns being used as centerpiece.

After dinner, selections on the piano by Miss Miriam Root and Vocal selections by Supt. T. S. Dues were enjoyed. The radio program of songs was enjoyed by all.

Members and guests alike were thoroughly entertained and Mrs. Root for their hospitality.

BECOMING IMPATIENT

With drilling operations in progress in nearby fields, operators of Plymouth are becoming impatient and are beginning to wonder just when they may expect action.

Several of the farmers who have leased their farms to the Peck interests in Mansfield were in the Advertiser office Saturday, and stated that when they made their lease they were promised that drilling operations would start in not less than thirty days.

It is simply a speculative scheme that the intention is not to drill but to sell out to some party, that is, to lease or to sell out to some party, that is, to lease or to sell out to some party, that is, to lease or to sell out to some party.

20TH CENTURY CIRCLE MEETS

The Twentieth Century Circle met at the home of Mrs. Anna Walker, March 17th.

The following program was given: Woman of Yesterday and Today, Miss Grace Earnest.

The Western Office Investigated, Mrs. Alice Willett.

To Vacuum Clean the World, of its Insect Pests, Miss Rilla Truitt.

Twenty-two members responded to Roll Call. Mrs. Wm. Clark, hostess.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

The next meeting will be at the Chamber of Commerce Rooms, on March 21st.

BRIDGE

Mrs. Leon Summers and Mrs. Clifford Lacer of Shelby were the featured parties last Thursday afternoon, four tables being in play. The Plymouth ladies invited to attend this party were: Mrs. J. H. Smith, Mrs. Chas. Miller, Mrs. Alex. Bachrach, Mrs. Alex. Kappenberg, Mrs. Sam B. Bachrach, and Miss Nelson.

OLDEST CUCUMBER ON EARTH

The Advertiser has on display what we believe is the oldest cucumber on earth.

This cucumber was grown in a bottle in the year 1887 by Mrs. Ella Hemming. It will measure approximately 10 inches in length and eight inches in circumference.

It is in a perfect state of preservation, and looks as good as lots of Dill Pickles we have purchased from the grocery.

STILL DRILLING AWAY

Those who journeyed out to the Morse Farm Tuesday afternoon when Messrs. Schrock and Black are drilling for gas with 99 feet of casing, will be disappointed.

Reports were circulated among Plymouth Tuesday morning that the operators expected to bring in this well some time Tuesday afternoon. Several Plymouth residents in force to see what would happen.

This well is now more than 100 feet deep and Tuesday afternoon they were over 175 feet into the limestone. According to the depth of the Shiloh field, gas should be found at this depth, it is what they expected to complete this well Tuesday.

However, nothing was found, although the showing of the same taken indicates that the prospects are good. The operators stated that should this well prove to be dry they will move their equipment to a nearby farm and put down another well.

They haven't given up hopes of striking gas in this well as yet, and that is not the question. It is different from the Shiloh field, and it may be necessary to go much deeper. So long as all indications point to gas, they will continue drilling operations.

Have's homine they strike a "wheat" of a well.

EARL SAYS HE'S COMING HOME

Earl Smith, who is sojourning in Florida, has written friends here that he expects to return to Plymouth around April 1.

Earl is in Tampa, and says he's having a "wheat" of a time.

TO COMPETE AT HURON COUNTY INSTITUTE

The Plymouth W. C. T. U. Contest superintendent has received a letter from the County Superintendent asking that contestants for the Silver Medal, holding the silver medals who spoke at the local institute March 7, be enrolled for the Gold Contest at the Huron County W. C. T. U. Institute at New London in April.

This is considered a victory for local contestants because of the fact that they are younger than other contestants in Huron County. After they were seated on the platform the night of the local institute, the county president, Miss Mary Fitterer, Bellevue, remarked that she was afraid they were too small to speak with the other contestants who would enter for the County Institute. She was told that the local superintendent of contest work would put them up against any holders of the Silver Medal.

Miss Fitterer is serving her sixth year as president of Huron County W. C. T. U. and she said the Gold Contest held in Plymouth was the first in Huron County since she became president.

The contests are held with the intention of getting before the public the different departments of W. C. T. U. work and it is no doubt because of a lack of workers interested in and understanding contest work that more of it has not been done in Plymouth and Huron Co. There is no better way to get the temperance work before the public and into the homes of the community, also into the hearts and lives of the youth of the county.

Those from Plymouth who will try for the Gold Medal at New London in April and their substitutes will be: Edna A. Cystic, "Wait Till I Light a Cigar." Plan to attend this County W. C. T. U. Institute and encourage all contestants, as well as the local workers. Fold Plymouth is going after that gold Medal.

CREDITORS MEETING

A meeting of the creditors of the Kirkpatrick Shoe store will be held today in Mansfield for the purpose of electing a trustee in bankruptcy.

Chas. A. Sailer is the temporary receiver.

SOCIAL GATHERING

There will be a Social Meeting in the K. of P. Hall tomorrow night (Friday) in honor of a group of members who have been active in the local lodge for 25 years.

All K. of P.'s Pythian Sisters and their families are invited.

BIG CHURCH SESSION AT MANSFIELD

Local pastors, superintendent and other Sunday school workers are invited to attend the district conference of county council leaders to be held in Mansfield, March 21, under direction of the Ohio Council of Religious Education. In addition to the county and township Sunday school officers, the Ohio Council, according to an announcement of I. S. Richmond, business manager, will ask executive committee members of the state council to attend the conference. There will be ten conferences in all, covering the several sections of Ohio. The following pastors are expected to attend the conference: Marion, Crawford, Morrow, Richland, Knox, Ashland, Huron, and Wayne.

SCHOOL TRACK MEET

Preparations have already commenced for the athletic meet for the annual Richland Co. school track meet scheduled for May 10. As is the custom, the meet will be held for the purpose of bringing together all amateur athletes of the county and to raise money for the county.

As a reward for those entering the contest a silver trophy will be given the winner of the contest. The contest will be held at the high school track for both boys and girls, trying out for basketball, throwing among other sports, a 100 yard dash, girls and running hop, step and jump for boys.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Price motored to Galion Sunday and visited with relatives.

WHY NOT BUY A TRUCK

The Advertiser's criticism of the fire department, has created no little amusement. Members of the department claim that the responsibility for the frozen hose does not rest at the door of the members of the department. Their opinion in the matter of the extinguishers, is that a part of them were filled, and that the operators were not gratified that the recent fire was not one of the type where second count, and that it was one of the sort that could be extinguished without the aid of fire fighting equipment.

It is not true that the operators are to be blamed. A Coles novel proposition to purchase a Ford Truck, equipped with hose frames, ladders, and other fire fighting paraphernalia. Those favoring this move state that it is next to impossible to get the necessary equipment out of the barn where it is stored and on to the street in winter.

There is no way of keeping the truck out of being stored warm, consequently the drying and proper use of the hose is made extremely difficult. It is also claimed that the hose is old, having been purchased in 1911, and that it will be soon necessary to purchase a new one.

A proper place on a paved street should be acquired by the town as a fire house, and Plymouth's Fire Department should be given the standard of twentieth century requirements.

It is a good plan, and should meet with the approval of the property owners of our village. But every one will have to support when the money is raised for this to be paid. We don't know.

School Notes

The high school basketball team played one of its best games of the season at Sycamore last Friday night. At the end of the ball, Sycamore led by one basket. The playing of the Plymouth team was featured by the guarding of Hills by Captain Adaskin. The final score was in favor of Sycamore.

The following night the boys journeyed to Fredericktown for the final game of the year. The local boys played their opponents to a standstill the first half of the game but weakened in the latter stages of the game and lost 21-9.

The experience gained this year will be invaluable to the team next year. Despite the fact that fewer boys have been secured, the boys forced many of their stronger opponents to exert their utmost efforts to enable them to win. The season's record speaks well for the coach, Mr. Backlund, who was forced to form a comparatively new team and play all games on foreign floors.

If you would know the meaning of Social, Communism and Religion, the opportunity will be afforded at the Ohio Annual Literary Contest of the Plymouth High School, April 11th. The subject to be debated is: "Resolved: Short stories, and plays should be recognized as a literature."

The school orchestra will have a membership drive and is making good progress. Parents who are interested in their children's instrumental education will find it profitable to attend a concert to the children, next week.

Those in the First Grade who do not recite in the school, last two weeks, were: Donald, Helen, Garret, Lora, Ebbelberger, Edith Mae, St. Dunas, Ebbelberger, Frederic, Miss. Richard and Fred. The next concert will be held in a short time.

ELECTED FOR THREE YEARS

At the March meeting of the county board of education held Saturday afternoon at the board room, L. C. Martin was re-elected county superintendent of schools for a term of three years.

The county board of education is composed of A. W. Lantz, Perry township, president; A. L. Bishop, Ontario, vice-president; A. F. Scriber, Bellevue, W. Black, Shiloh and W. O. Wiles, Lucas.

EXTENDING GAS FIELD

Leases are being rapidly taken up in New Haven township, northwest of this village, and derricks will soon be placed in the field, according to an announcement from operators interested in extending the Shiloh Gas field.

TWO GOOD WILLS LAST WEEK

Two exceptionally good wills were drafted in last week in the Shiloh field.

One was on the Clayton Mertz place and shows a flow of better than 30,000 feet in length. It is stated that this well will produce for two years to come.

The other well, the best of the two, was brought in by the S. S. Munne place and has a flow of over 100,000 feet.

Drilling on the Wolfersberg place is still under way and Messrs. Mitchar and Nash expect to bring in this well in a few days.

Asks New Trial

May Begin Sentence This Week. Filed Last Monday. Believes He Will Be Over-Ruled.

Willard Pettit, charged with murder in the second degree for the slaying of John Payne on the Huron Valley Farm, on the evening of December 26, was sentenced to a term of from 19 to 20 years of hard labor in the State Prison at Columbus, after a verdict of manslaughter had been brought against him last Friday evening at 9:00 o'clock.

Judge Galbraith, in imposing sentence, specified that three days of every year, Dec. 24, 25, and 26, should be spent by Pettit in solitary confinement.

Council for Pettit, Attorney Workman of Mansfield, and Attorney Channing of Akron, immediately filed a motion for a new trial. Reasons given for a new trial are outlined as follows:

First: That the verdict is not sustained by the evidence, and is contrary to law.

Second: For errors of law occurring during the trial, and excepted to by the State on the time.

Third: That the Court overruled the objection of the defendant's permit-try testimony to be given to the jury, to which the defendant objected at the time.

Fourth: That the Court erred in the trial of said cause, in excluding evidence of the character of the defendant, on the objection of the plaintiff, to which ruling the defendant excepted at the time.

Fifth: That the State erred in its charge to the jury, to which the defendant at the time excepted.

Sixth: The Court erred in refusing to charge to the jury as requested by said defendant, which ruling the defendant at the time excepted.

Seventh: The court erred in refusing to charge the jury with arguments, as requested by said defendant at the time excepted.

Eighth: Misconduct of the Attorney for the State by him, in his argument to the jury, to which the defendant at the time objected and excepted.

Ninth: A newly arrived addendum material to the defendant, which he could not with reasonable diligence have discovered or produced.

Tenth: A great and surprise which oral evidence could not have produced against the defendant.

Eleventh: The court erred in law occurring at the trial, prejudicial to the rights of this defendant, as appears by the record, and at the instance of the State.

There is little question but that this motion will be over-ruled by Judge Galbraith, and counsel for Pettit will have to move their objection of carrying the case to the higher courts through the usual legal channels.

A statement of the ten day stay of execution of the sentence of Pettit, has brought out the fact that Pettit will probably begin his sentence this week.

One fourth of the estate of a disabled World War veteran who died here recently was inherited by the American Legion. The veteran, Earl Mason of Indianapolis, provided for the bequest in his will. Dennis J. Downey, head of the legal division of the Legion's hospitalization committee here, was named as executor. The amount of the estate was approximately $350.

The will recites that "every consideration and kindness" was shown to Mason by the Legion, and that he made the gift as a token of gratitude and to assist in providing aid for other disabled soldiers. Mason came to Kansas City several months ago in broken health and without employment. The Legion assisted him in securing compensation and hospital services. The former soldier's parents are dead and he had no other near relatives.

APPLY THESE RULES TO BEAUTIFY ROOMS

Hang Draperies in Straight Lines, for Instance, Says Specialist.

Apply a few simple principles, and an unattractive room is transformed.

It works that way in the choosing and hanging of draperies, says R. Jenness Wirth, extension specialist in home economics at the Ohio State University. For example:

"Windows are draped to soften the glare of light, to secure privacy, and to add beauty."

"All draperies should hang in straight lines and may, if desired, completely cover the window trim. If curtains and over-drapes are both used, they should be of same length. When measuring, allow for casings and hems."

"It is economical to buy drapery material wide enough to cut in the middle so as to 'make two strips. The material may cost more by the yard, but the two strips, when cut, cost less than two narrow strips bought separately."

"If the wallpaper is figured, or mottled, use plain draperies. Choose a color which will blend with the predominant color in the wallpaper and which will duplicate some other soft color in the rug or upholstery. If the wallpaper is plain, use a figured or striped drapery. Choose touches of color that appear in the rug, walls, and upholstery."

No Education

Matt Tolliver is an assistant fireman for a colliery in Dixie. His mountain origin betrays itself in every a minute accent and idiom. Bill, Matt's and awful ignorant sister, ain't he? They remarked to their friend Street one day. "I've never notice the way he talks? Like for instance he mests the president, he'll say, Howdy Pesser? He don't never say Professor at all."

Fine, But

Lew saved up a little money, and when Al came over a few days later the two brothers went into the hardware business. One day Lew bought a roll-top desk, and when it arrived he said to Al: "The one I took will do for the two of us. And here are two keys, one for you, Al, and one for me."

Al took 'the key, but seemed to study the desk. That's all right, Lew, he said, but where is my keyhole?

Too Definite

Why, certainly, replied Mr. Jones agreeably. Let's see—well suppose you call every Thursday morning.

Asked to describe a man he had just mentioned, the Corner Druggist said, "Oh, he's the kind of fellow that calls every good-looking young woman 'girlie.'"

- FIVE REASONS WHY Automotive experts advise changing crank-case oil every 500 miles, trucks every 300 miles:
1. Because the best oil "wears out" in time.
 2. Because oil becomes fouled with road dust and minute bits of metal from moving parts.
 3. Because oil may become diluted with unburned fuel working past the rings.
 4. Because this simple precaution guards against scored cylinder walls and pistons and burned bearings.
 5. And because it makes your motor last longer and run better.

What The Legion Is Doing

The American Legion has concluded two weeks of testimony in behalf of amending legislation for relief of disabled veterans of the World War, during which 37 specific amendments to the existing War Risk Insurance Act and Vocational Rehabilitation Act were requested. The hearings were granted by the newly organized committee on World War Veterans' Legislation of the House, whose creation was urged by the Legion.

The hearings have been based upon The Legion omnibus bill, which has been sponsored by Representative Royal C. Johnson, of South Dakota, the committee chairman. This bill was drawn by Watson B. Miller, chairman of the Legion's National Rehabilitation Committee, and contains the recommendations of the San Francisco Convention of the Legion, held last October. They are the result of four years study of the workings of the laws affecting war's disabled, by hundreds of Legionnaires in the field, who are in daily touch with the relief problem.

Miller has been the chief witness before the committee during the past two weeks. He analyzed to the committee the proposed changes in the law section by section, and explained in great detail just why the Legion believes each amendment necessary either to save the lives of disabled soldiers or to extend to them the benefits which the Congress has heretofore advocated, but which have not been received by the disabled because of deficiencies in existing law.

The more important of the basic amendments urged by the Legion are: the hospitalization in government hospitals of veterans of all wars without reference to service; connection of their disabilities; extension from three years to five years of their discharge; of the two-year period during which tuberculosis, mental and organic diseases shall automatically be considered to have been contracted as a result of service; and the granting of compensation and insurance awards in the field instead of in the district offices by officials who have never seen the disabled men.

Dr. Kennon Dunham of Cincinnati, the Legion's expert advisor on tuberculosis, appeared before the committee, set forth the medical reasons underlying the Legion's request for the five-year presumptive period for tuberculosis, while Dr. William F. Foy of Wisconsin, the Legion's advisor on mental diseases, told the committee why the presumptive period should be extended to five years with mental diseases caused by shell shock and other harrowing of war.

privileges of the Legion so that he can see the advantages of membership. The quarter is used to defray cost of correspondence, printing and administration.

Many department adjutants have written to national headquarters commanding the plan, and to order supplies of blanks for distribution by posts. Among these are Minnesota, Wisconsin, those from Samuel's own state Kansas, New York, North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia, New Jersey, Tenn., Colorado, Nebraska, Pennsylvania, Main and Mississippi.

Renal of the percent tax levied on boxing shows in Maryland is sought by members of the American Legion of Cleveland, Cumber-land and Baltimore are perhaps the only two cities which state regular shows. The veterans say that an additional state tax works a hardship.

One at a Time

Many ministers could, from personal experiences, tell of strange names bestowed upon infants at their baptism, but few could equal the following story told recently by the bishop of Sodor and Man. A mother who was on the lookout for a good name for her child saw on the door of a building the words "Nemo Deus in terra heret," and she decided that she would adopt it. Some time later, passing the same building, she saw the name "King" on another door. She thought the two would sound well together, and so the boy was baptized "Nemo King Smith."

Over many homes from the church where the baptism had taken place she passed the building again. The two doors on which she had seen the new words now closed together and what she read was not "Nemo King," but "No Smoking."

The tall, proud girl turned haughtily to the white-robed figure.

"Have you no heart?" she asked in a low tone.

"No," he growled.

"Well, give me a ten cents' worth of liver."

SHILOH

Mr. Zinc spent the week-end at his home in Mt. Vernon.

Mr. Guy Shaffer spent the week-end at Ashland.

A banquet was held at the school house Auditorium, Wednesday night for the parents of the Domestic Science class and the Smith Hughes class. About 85 were present. A three course supper was served. Mr. Bacon acted as the Toast Master.

Mr. Richards of Columbus gave an interesting talk on school work. After supper the pupils gave an entertainment which was greatly appreciated by all.

Miss Vera Dick and Miss Edith Troxell spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Greveling of near Ganago.

Mr. George Bodley and daughter Florence, spent Sunday in Willard.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams and children, Robert and Jane were Sunday guests of Mrs. Sarah Darling.

Mr. J. Davidson and family were Sunday guests of relatives in Mansfield.

Miss Eleta and Donna Yocoy of Ripley spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. Anna Middleworth on Main St.

Mr. Len Dick, who had his foot seriously hurt is able to be out on crutches.

Mr. O. P. Swartz, who has been seriously ill for the last week is slowly improving.

Mr. Glen Swanson of Shelby, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Swanson.

Mrs. Fannie Preston has returned from Cleveland, where she spent the winter with her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Culling.

Mr. Hamlin spent several days in Elyria.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. McBride and Mrs. and Mrs. H. W. Marling motored to Ashland Sunday and called on Mr. Charles White.

Mrs. Hamlin spent several days in Mansfield.

Klan's Hour To Stop Has Come

At Jackson, Mississippi, there was an incident that caused Mr. Underwood, as the Memphis, Tenn. News-Sentinel said, "to show the manner of man he is."

Three anonymous notes were handed to Senator Underwood as the Congress of the United States opened. Each note challenged him to express his views on the Ku Klux Klan. The challenge was accepted by the Senator. He refused to believe that a large number of men would join any organization for a bad purpose, and proceeded to demonstrate that the Klan is not a proper agency for the exploitation of the ideals of men with high purposes.

"I do not know what effect these declarations may have had on personal fortunes," he said. "For nearly thirty years I have represented your state in the Congress of the United States and it has sustained me because I attempted to bring true to the principles of democracy to the foundation of the Constitution. I have had your party, the Democratic party, has twice in each house of Congress given me the flag of Democracy to represent."

"I do not say to you gentlemen who wrote me those notes and asked me to declare myself that it was an unkindly act and that I am glad you called for it. I am glad to give it to you. I do not say this in criticism of you personally as a Klan member, because I believe in the great body of you, if not all of you, have joined the Klan without giving consideration to the great work you are doing. But I do say to you today and now, the hour has come for you to stop. It is not fair to your fellow citizen as the Klan, because I believe in the Klan, but I do say to you, if you are standing for the enforcement of the law and order in this country, you should discontinue the Klan. I do not say to you, if you stand for it as men stand for it in the open. If you think the laws of your state are being violated, stand up on your hind legs and go to the grand jury. Don't take a man's name who is unable to defend himself, make him suffer from your hands, and deny the principles of the Constitution of your government."

NEW HAVEN

Those who witnessed the Basket Ball game with Pitsville Friday evening in the Town Hall, say the boys played the hardest game of season and won by a two point margin. Had it not been for the consistent pass work and the spurt made by Sponseller and Silliman in rigging three baskets during the last few minutes of the last quarter the boys would have met defeat instead of victory. Every member of the team played an excellent brand of Basket-Ball. With out doubt the spirit of the student body present accompanied by the snap of Cheerleader Watts had a great deal to do with the spirit shown by the player. It was certainly gratifying to notice the interest taken by the student body and patrons of the school. There is little doubt but that Basket-Ball will be a permanent sport in the School providing a suitable place can be found for practice and games.

Winners in the Oratorical and Reading Contest held in the High School building last Tuesday were: Oration --- Marcus Duff, Reading --- Bouvena Burma. The Oyo Literary Society received the most points and will therefore have the honor of retaining the cup until the next contest. Each contestant did exceptionally well. The entire student body should be commended for the spirit shown.

The boys of New Haven have organized an athletic Association for the purpose of promoting and fostering clean, wholesome athletic sports in the school. The following officers were elected:

President --- Jacques Sponseller
Secretary --- Oliver Howard
Gen. Mgr. and Treas. --- Jesse Ruth

The following program will be given Friday afternoon, March 21 by the Excelsior Literary Society:
Song School
Essay on March --- Oliver Howard
Vocal Solo --- Marcus Duff
Book Report --- Howard Sparks
Duet --- Lelia Newman and Violet Newman.

Reading --- Helen Donnerwirth
Literary Prophecy --- Jesse Ruth and Corvin Sponseller.
History of St. Patrick's Day --- Kathryn Vogel.
Piano Solo --- Rachel Snyder
Class Will --- Helen Clark
Original Pantomime --- Henrick Cook, Carl Stessman, Dana Newman, Bouvena Burma, Yelma Moon, Treva Stahl, Helen Miller, Robert Gleason, Chauncey Woodward, Helen Mills, Violet Newman.

The following pupils in Miss Buckingham's room had E or above in the number of subjects stated below:

First Grade: Wayne Bauers, 4; Ernest Buzzard, 2; Frances Cummings, 5; Norma Keller, 3; Aerna Moon, 5; Esther Parker, 1; Jane Trimmer, 5.

Second Grade: Ellen Bauers, 4; Dorothy Donnerwirth, 3; Dorothy Eichelberry, 4; Lucille Hole, 3; Yelma Hoyle, 3; Robert Kiser, 3; Ruth Slesman, 5; Gertrude Smith, 3; Elsie Swader, 3; Wilma Skinner, 4; Robert Trimmer, 4.

At chapel services Tuesday morning Stunt Ford presented the first and second team Basket Ball men with letters. In receiving the boys their letters. Mr. Ford emphasized the fact that the letters were not merely a piece of felt but something that represented of the school. These letters are something that cannot be bought but rather can only be received through hard work in some particular line.

The following men received first team letters: Skinner, Silliman, Sparks, Sponseller, Watts, Ruth. Second Team letters, Howard, Watts H., Gleason, Slesman, Slesman, N., Woodworth. Skinner and Watts also seniors this year and will therefore be the first letter men to ever graduate from the High School. Skinner was captain of the eagles, and captain elect of the Baseball nine.

YOUR QUESTIONS And Its Answers

QUESTION—"I have been told by some of your patients that you can tell me where I am sick and describe the symptoms without asking questions. If this is true, how is it done?"

ANSWER—Knowing that disease is caused by pressure on special nerves, and being thoroughly trained in palpation to detect this pressure, together with a knowledge of Anatomy and Symplo-matology that enables us to decide what organ is affected and what symptoms will result from certain pressure, we can locate and describe disease without questioning the patient. For instance, we know that pressure on certain spinal nerves will cause stomach trouble; that pressure on certain lumbar nerves causes constipation; that a certain spinal impingement will cause headache, etc. etc. The fact that we can locate and describe sickness without first questioning the patient is ample evidence that we work along definite lines.

This department is edited to spread the knowledge of Chiropractic as a method of correcting the real cause of disease. Questions will be answered, in the order received, if addressed to

THE PURPOSE AND VALUE OF W.C.T.U. INSTITUTES.

The following is a paper prepared and read by the local W. C. T. U. president at the local Institute March 7. Our own State Superintendent for Institutes, Mrs. Van Kirk says: The W. C. T. U. Institute is not a meeting for the transaction of business, but for the study of the best and most practical plans for advancing our own cause. The object of the W. C. T. U. Institute is to educate, efficiency and train for as well as to create a sentiment for a greater sense of their responsibility and to bring before the public a better general idea of the value and worth of our work. It is the best possible medium to bring our women in touch with our departments and familiarize them with our best plans for working them.

Our national Supt., Mrs. DeVaux, says: The price of progress is education. The institute, local committee of State is the approved method for securing the largest return to members and interest. It offers a constructive program which will aid in the education and development of our women, while at the same time attracting those from outside our ranks. The Institute will give needed emphasis to the benefits of prohibition, thereby creating sentiment for this in holding and organizing the 18th Amendment. It will give attention to the program of activities outlined, thus obtaining a wider knowledge of the far-reaching plans of our organization.

State Institutes public opinion is essential to intelligent public action we have to secure that intelligent public opinion for our community by means of local institutes. The local institute offers the very best training for all workers of the rank and file of the W. C. T. U. Each union should hold at least one each year the ideal number is four, one each quarter.

In addition to the local institutes, each county should hold a County Institute in which all the local unions shall participate. One at New London about the 15th of April. Mrs. Mary Harris Armour, known as the "Queen of Cyclopedia," said at all at the National Institute Department conference, Place God first, follow this up with good speakers and thorough publicity. If I don't want to speak to my benches, You're not to do what God wants you to do if you're going to be a success. If you want to do things hard things then you're a failure, you can't sink yourself into everlasting bliss, you can't even pray your self into Heaven. The Institute is the life-giver of the local union. California doubled its membership through Institutes and Georgia never would have some dry without Institutes. Have prayer, faith, pen and publicity and a real school of methods and eventually each department superintendent will enthusiastically present her work.

Mr. J. Hemminger will hold a sale of household goods at his residence on High Street Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. J.H. Atyco, who has spent the past several months with her children in Cleveland, has returned to her home here.

SCALING HEIGHTS

YOU may often be hailed with wonder at the apparent ease with which some of our athletes, of no pronounced ability, climb steadily and unerringly to the heights.

To our mind they are deficient in mentally and power of endurance, yet, in spite of your doubts, they keep mounting surely day by day, brushing aside difficulties with no observable effort and finding fast by their places.

Opposing forces do not daunt or discourage them.

They plan an ascetic. They refrain from boasting, yet within their hearts there is an ironlike resolution to stay in the fight until they meet victory.

Often they are footsore, exhausted in body and spirit, but never are they in a mood to admit defeat.

They plan an ascetic. They refrain from boasting, yet within their hearts there is an ironlike resolution to stay in the fight until they meet victory.

Often they are footsore, exhausted in body and spirit, but never are they in a mood to admit defeat.

when he beholds blind Milton groping his way to the heights sublime? Those who cry "Impossible" are those who need most to familiarize themselves with the trials of the immortal who overcame and won imperishable crowns.

Has Anyone Laughed At You Because—

By ETHEL R. FEYER

You use perfume? You evidently don't use enough.

Perfume is a lovely thing in moderation. The flowers profit by it, the world profits by it.

Why shouldn't you add to the beauty of things too? Of course when perfume covers a deficiency of the sanitary code and when it annoys people, then it is the time to put on the stop code! Perfume is lovely when it is, but beware when it "aint."

80 Your get-away here is: That they only laugh and don't complain.

SHOW THE RIGHT

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

RECOLLECT Old Henry Smith. Remember Hiram Brown;

No better folks to neighbor with there are in any town.

They hated sinners, hated sin, idolatry, and doubt;

When things were wrong they started in 'at once to point them out.

And yet there was a difference In Henry Smith and Hiram: Both had common sense.

And couldn't stand a lie? Old Henry hated good and strong.

Whatever wasn't white; But Hiram not only saw the wrong But also saw the right.

Old Henry was the kind who pass Upon the other side;

But, fallen man or fallen lass, Old Hiram always tried

Not only sinners to condemn And scripture to repeat,

But tried to lend a hand to them To help them to their feet.

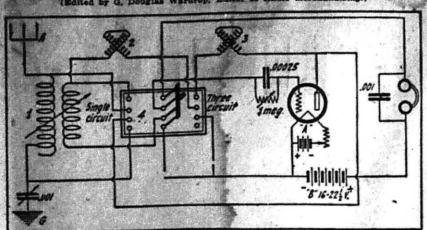

Well, lots of us are Henrys, yes, And some are Hiram, too.

Condemners' sinners ain't I guess, Not all there is to do.

But lend a hand, and help along, And do your little mite—

Not only try to show the wrong But try to show the right.

By Means of a Four-pole Double Throw Anti-Capacity Switch Connected in the Circuit of a Three-Circuit Regenerative Tuner as Shown, It Becomes an Easy Matter to Shift From a Single Circuit to a Three-Circuit Connection at Will.

By PAUL E. DUFFIELD. For ease of operation and volume of signal, the single circuit regenerative tuner stands supreme against the three-circuit regenerative tuner. The latter, however, is more selective and will eliminate interference in cases where the single-circuit tuner would be helpless.

Banjo and Head Phones to Make Loud Speaker

The loud speaker or resonator herein described not only works well, but requires no mechanical or electrical parts to be constructed or purchased.

The banjo is turned upside down, one edge being raised slightly by placing it on a book or some such convenient object, so as to keep the tone chamber clear of the desk or table top.

The phones are then laid on the skin of the banjo, inside. The instrument acts as a resonator of the sound in the phones, giving a clear, musical tone of pleasant characteristics.

It seems apparent that other musical instruments could be used, experimenting with various positions for the phones on the tone chamber until satisfactory results were obtained.

25-Ohm Rheostat May Be Made by Amateurs

The rheostat shown in the illustration can be made easily with a 25-ohm resistance unit and a switch arm, preferably one with a bushing. The blade is removed from the knob and is soldered to the collar.

YO HO AND AN ACHING TOOTH

By Robert Stewart Buttrick. The surgeon of the America received a radiogram stating that a man had suffered for five days with a tooth aching so much that he could not sleep.

HOUGH calm was the wind and smooth was the sea, a storm raged full blast on the strag "Nancy Lee," for the skipper was groaning as grouchily as could be; and he raged and he swore.

Hand Capacity Can Be Eliminated in Sets. Hand capacity is not always eliminated by shielding the panel upon which the instruments are mounted, as many have found out.

Have You This Habit?

MISS STAR

WHAT a charming person Miss Star is, and what interesting things she has done! One of her friends said to Mrs. George the day after her dinner party.

Mrs. George of course repeated this conversation to Miss Star, and next morning, Miss Star looked content. "Oh, ah, yes," she said vaguely.

Then Mrs. George forgot her impression of discrepancy. It was a month before she saw Miss Star again. Miss Star was drooping about, clearly wretched and miserable.

Mrs. George was really concerned. She spent the afternoon making herself useful and delightful to poor Miss Star, who was so good-looking. She was surprised, therefore, the following day to find Miss Star out on the courts as usual.

"Oh, I guess the doctor was mistaken," was Miss Star's somewhat unconvincing explanation.

After that, when Miss Star talked about her admirers and her engagements and her adventures, Mrs. George deducted a large percentage, and they accepted the remainder tentatively.

GOOD THINGS TO EAT

SPINACH is one of the greens which should often be found on our tables.

Stewed Dandelions. Cut and wash a peck of fresh dandelion, drain and put to cook in boiling water to cover.

Chicken With Asparagus. To two cups of cold fowl cut into small cubes add one cup of cooked asparagus cut into small pieces.

good deal of amusement and no disillusions. Then one day Miss Star told her that she was going away to live, that she was leaving in a week, and that probably they would not see her again.

They were all surprised. Mrs. George led of all. She felt a good deal of attachment for Miss Star, and was glad that she did not have to accept this announcement for fact.

POULTRY LIKE MASH AS ALL-YEAR FEED

"People who make money with chickens, feed mash the year around," says "Biddy" not only likes it, but it is an excellent way to feed animal protein for skim milk, buttermilk, or some form of waste can be mixed with the mash.

"In some sections many farmers feed their flocks fresh meat during the winter with excellent results. This meat consists of various animals, such as rabbits, muskrats (cats) or (fox) fur, calves not good enough to raise, worn out horses or a farm animal that has been accidentally killed, body injured or that has died from some non-communicable disease.

"In feeding such material care should be taken that the meat does not spoil," says Mr. Halpin, poultryman at the University of Wisconsin.

"When fresh meat is not available, some meat scrap or tankage should be purchased in place of meat. It is not drink enough milk in cold weather to give the most profitable production.

Light and Ventilation

Plan an Important Part

Fifty of light and ventilation in the poultry house will help to keep the flock healthy and the house clean and sanitary. The general appearance of the interior of a poultry house should be bright, light, and cheerful.

When there are enough windows, the sun will strike the poultry house and the interior will be lighted even on sunless days. Sunlight is the best-known germ destroyer, therefore all openings should be so located that the sun will strike the interior of the poultry house at some time during the day.

Early Maturing Pullet

The One to Breed From

The pullet that takes eight months or more to mature is not so much a paying proposition. It not only costs more to keep her until she lays but the very weakness which made a late maturer of her prevents her from making a good record the rest of her life.

Early and late maturity are inherited. Don't breed from a late developer. Put a leg band on every bird that has begun laying to date. Then in September pull the bands from those that have moulted or which show very little egg capacity in the rear.

Fertility of White Eggs

Greater Than Brown Ones

The result of tests show that white and brown eggs need the same temperature for incubation, but it is warmer than the other, but brown eggs have a tendency to poorer fertility, more dead germs, more chicks that are weak, and a few fewer chicks than white eggs. Under ordinary conditions it is reasonable to expect white eggs to be 89 cent to 92 per cent of the fertile egg, and 75 per cent of the fertile egg.

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says basketball is the great winter game, and the inside baseball she reads so much about doesn't seem to be making much headway.
