

Japanese War Affects Plymouth Directly

ANXIETY FELT OVER HOME BOYS SERVING COUNTRY ON ISLANDS AND IN THE PACIFIC.

Along with the rest of the nation Plymouth was jittery Sunday, as the first bullet of Japan's attack on the Pacific Islands were flashed throughout the country. News of death and destruction which spread over the Philippines and Hawaiian Islands, brought anxiety to the Parel and Brothers family, who have members assigned to those areas.

Up to Wednesday morning, no word had been received from Elmer Parel, a captain in the flying corps, who left few weeks ago for the Philippines and Robert Brothers, who has been stationed at Honolulu for the past three months. A letter received from Brothers last Saturday stating that army life was getting monotonous, and that life on the islands wasn't very exciting. Little did he realize at that time the entire Pacific Island population, as well as the United States would be startled by the suddenness of an attack by Japan in the Pacific.

Elmer Parel, who has been in the air service for the past several years, was in Plymouth in August. He was on a leave prior to being transferred from Salt Lake City to Albuquerque, N. M. It was while on the leave that he revealed to his friends that the time seemed short before he would be transferred to the Philippine Islands and a few weeks ago his prediction came true. He flew to the island, dropping over to see Robert Brothers who was in camp on the Hawaiian Islands.

Several other local boys are stationed at various camps in California, Washington and Oregon. Thomas DeWitt, who has been serving in the Naval Reserves, has failed to get a letter home for some time, and his whereabouts are unknown.

So judging from the secrecy and precaution taken by the Navy, things weren't so rosy in the Pacific. Naturally, you ask, why didn't our men see the enemy? Everyone knew that peace negotiations were going on in Washington, and the presence of a plane carrier or airplanes in and around the islands would not warrant an attack. No word from Washington had been given those in charge of the Pacific Defense to fire on planes or ships. So, let's don't be too critical of the men who were in command.

HOW WILL WAR AFFECT PLYMOUTH?

It is too sudden as yet to make any prediction, but there will be plenty of opportunities for us to show our patriotism and loyalty to our country and to the men who are doing the real fighting.

One of the first orders received here from Washington was directed to the Fair-McGinty machine shop, to maintain a four guard around the plant, and to be unusually cautious. The local plant is doing considerable defense work, especially in the locomotive division and in the foundry.

Additional lights have been erected around the local manufacturing plant, and a 24-hour police guard has been placed in service. Government officials have made it very emphatic that no chances for sabotage will be taken, from the smallest plant to the largest, the country over.

There is no doubt but that every machine, man and material in the country will be called into service, as President Roosevelt says, "24-hours a day, seven days a week." It's going to take production on this basis to keep up with the fight that is ahead.

YOUNG MEN ENLIST

Answering the call for their government for service, William Fetters, William DeWitt, Charles West and Ted Roberts have signed up for the Navy and will complete their physical examination every day. Many young men who are of age, and who wish to serve his country has the opportunity of doing so now. The Navy, more than ever, needs men to man the ships which are being launched daily on both seaboards. A special message is being printed in this week's Advertiser, found on Page 5, in which young

A Message To All Citizens

Sunday, December 14th will be the first Sunday since we have become an active participant in the war. We believe our cause is just but we know war means broken homes; crushed hopes; destroyed ideals; great sacrifices, suffering and death.

In the face of this situation we urge the people of Plymouth to attend the church of their choice this Sunday. The military forces of our nation must be undergirded by the moral and spiritual forces.

Two duties face us; to win the war as speedily as possible and to see to it that Jesus Christ wins the Peace. The second is more important than the first. The Allies won World War One, but no one would say Jesus won the Peace. He and He alone is the Prince of Peace.

We, the three pastors of Plymouth unite in appealing to the citizens and especially to all church members to lend every possible aid in developing a moral and spiritual atmosphere that will defy defeatism and give our people that indispensable moral fiber essential to success. It is sometimes said: "The Protestants of America have lost the fine art of worship. In this time of national crisis, let us 'seek first His kingdom and His righteousness.'"

U. S. LOANS ON CORN SOYBEANS SET FOR COUNTY

Government loans on the 1941 corn and soybean crops are available to Richland county farmers at the rate of 79 cents per bushel for corn and $1.05 per bushel on soybeans, according to county AAA officials.

The corn loan rate is 18 cents more per bushel than the 1940 figure. Soybean loans are offered county farmers for the first time this year.

Applications for corn loans will be received at the county AAA headquarters on North Diamond Street until next Sept. 30. Soybean loans will be available only until Jan. 30, 1942.

To be eligible for loans, farmers must have planted within their acreage allotments this year and qualified for parity payments.

The $1.05 loan on soybeans is for No. 2 beans stored on the farm. The rate for beans for warehouse storage is 98 cents a bushel, AAA officials said. Loans will be granted only on ear corn until June 1. After that shelled corn will be accepted as security for loans.

The big increase in the corn loan rate is the result of higher corn prices and a new basis for determining loans. The county rate this year is set at 85 per cent of the parity price of corn, or the price that would be paid over a time of years during normal times.

Parents are invited to bring or send their children to Plymouth this Saturday, Dec. 13th. Santa Claus will be on the Square with a little remembrance for the kiddies. If bad weather prevails Santa will be in the stores around the Square.

TRUCK THIEF GANG LINKED TO FARM HERE

Franklin Bevier who resides on a farm four and a half miles southwest of Plymouth is being held in Cleveland under arrest as a member of an inter-state ring of truck thieves and hi-jackers.

Two Cleveland detectives searched the farm Friday and found a trailer tractor outfit which is thought to have been used in stealing a load of wine valued at $2000. The detectives stated that three tractors and six trailers had already been recovered.

Police believe the ring has been operating since October 1940. According to Detective Lieutenant Charles Cavola of Cleveland, autos and trucks stolen by the ring were driven to the Bevier farm where they were partially repainted and then returned to Cleveland where the joy was completed. The men are said to be experts at removing motor and serial numbers and then stenciling new numbers.

All the men have been taken into custody. The first man was arrested at Peninsula, Ohio, near Akron, after a deputy sheriff pulled him for failure to make a stop. The man finally left his car and fled on foot, carrying behind a gun, blackjack and tools. He was traced to his home in Cleveland.

PAYMENTS DUE

All members of the local group insurance plan are notified that dues are payable by Saturday of this week. Payments should be made to Stacy Brown, Earl McKastor, or James Root. The report has to be in by the 15th and your cooperation will be appreciated.

FIRE DESTROYS BIG BARN BARN

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the large barn on the Olive Gottfried farm early Tuesday morning. The farm is located on the edge of the corporation on the North road.

Mrs. Gottfried, who is employed at Wayne's Restaurant, stated that when she left home at 10:30 p.m. there was no sign of fire, and she did not hear of it until later in the morning. Grover Payne, who is visiting at the home of his daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Frederick first saw the blaze on the second floor of the barn when he arose at six o'clock. Payne states that his first observation was a blaze in the three upper windows, and that no great location from the building, indicating that the entire interior of the barn was afire.

Norman Gottfried, who operates the farm, failed to bring in the livestock Monday from the pastures, and as a result there was no loss of livestock. The cows which the family milk, had been transferred to a smaller barn near the home. A few pieces of farm equipment and some hay went up in smoke, and the building was a total loss, partially covered by insurance.

There are no electric wires in the building, and trunks have steered clear of that section, and it is very apparent that the contents could not have started the blaze through spontaneous combustion. The barn was well ventilated, and the hay had been in for several months.

The barn one of the oldest in this section, was sturdy built, and its loss will be greatly felt by the family.

Husband And Wife Installed As Officers In O. E. S. Chapter

Installation at Plymouth Chapter, O. E. S., Tuesday evening, sent the new official year off to a splendid start. Mr. and Mrs. Ova Dawson were installed in the East as Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron and as this young couple made their pledges we knew that whatever this year may bring they will be competent.

Mrs. Dawson's installation gown was made of rose pink taffeta, with shirred waist, puffed sleeves, and a full, floor length skirt. Her husband presented her with a gold flexible bracelet, as an installation gift.

The new Worthy Matron had invited as her Installing Officer from Angulus Chapter, Shiloh, Mrs. Ditha McBride, this year's Deputy Grand Matron of District No. 10. Mrs. McBride wore a floor length dress of medium blue trimmed at the girdle waistline with gold thread design. Mrs. Frank Gleason, installing Master, wore a suit of powder blue silk. Mrs. Gladys Dawson, installing Chaplain, in rose beige crepe. Both were also of Angulus Chapter. Mrs. Willard Ross, in black taffeta, presided at the piano as Installing Organist.

The year's officers wore floor length gowns of white taffeta, with the exception of the Star Points, who wore beige lace.

At the close of the installation Mr. and Mrs. Dawson were presented with flowers and a gift from Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dawson. The Worthy Matron also received a friendship gift from her officers and another from retiring Matron, Mrs. Julia Einsel, of Milan. At each officer's en- velle was found a star-trimmed envelope containing Christmas wishes and a remembrance from Mrs. Dawson.

The new Worthy Matron will conduct her meetings with her own white gavel, trimmed with the Star color ribbon, a gift from her aunt, Mrs. McBride. The Worthy Patron and other officers put on a short installation service in honor of the new Matron in which candle light and music were used.

The regular and final business meeting was opened and closed by retiring Matron, Mrs. Einsel, who closed her official year with appropriate remarks, and invited her officers to her guests at a party in the Chapter rooms on Saturday evening.

At the close of Chapter she was presented with the Past Matron's pin, the Star and gavel, for her year's work, and Harry Dawson, retiring Patron was also remembered with a gift. Both were also remembered with a thank-you gift from the Stella Circle, and Mrs. Einsel was given a gown away present as she has moved from Plymouth to Milan.

President Katherine Sourwine of the Stella Social Circle, reminded all of the December meeting with Mrs. Eva Smith on W. Broadway. Each is to bring a wrapped Exchange gift of 10c.

At a lace-covered table, which was decorated with a lighted Christmas tree, members and guests were invited to a light holiday luncheon. Luncheon committee members were Mesdames P. H. Rook, P. Ruckman, B. Schreck, F. Pitzen, and Mollie Keller.

The next regular meeting will be the second Tuesday evening in January.

LUTHERAN LADIES AID MEETING

The Ladies Aid met Tuesday in the annex of the Lutheran church. A covered dish dinner was enjoyed by all, the table being appropriately decorated with the Yuletide season in mind.

The meeting was called immediately after the dinner. Mrs. M. Shepherd was in charge of the devotions. She read an article by Kathleen Norris entitled, "Prayers for Xmas." Also a story written by Chas. M. Sheldon on "What Does Christmas Mean Today?" This was quite impressive and gave us food for thought.

The business was as usual, with election of officers for the coming year. Mrs. J. E. Nimmmons read several letters from the Osterlen Home, thanking the church, as a whole, for the donations and contributions that they have received for their needs. A "thank you" letter was also read from Ruth Specht telling what a wonderful time she had shopping for herself with the money the Ladies Aid sent her.

After an exchange of Christmas gifts the meeting adjourned to meet January 13th, 1942.

POSTMASTER GIVES ADVICE ON MAILING OF YULE GREETINGS

Large numbers of Christmas greetings mailed in unsealed envelopes at the third class rate of postage (1½ cents for two ounces of mail) are disposed of as waste each year because they are undeliverable as addressed, due to improper address, removal of addresses, or other causes. Postmaster Claude Sourwine states:

"Such greetings are not entitled to the free forwarding privileges according to those mailed in sealed envelopes at the first class rate," he pointed out. "Consequently, the senders in many cases, never know that the greetings were not

Mr. Sourwine suggests and urges that those mailing Christmas cards send them at the first class rate (two cents per ounce for Plymouth and three cents for other cities). "Greetings sent in this manner may be sealed and contain written messages, not otherwise permitted; consequently, they have a more personal appeal which is, of course, more highly appreciated by the recipients. Then too, greetings at the first class rate of postage are dispatched and delivered first, are given directory service, and if necessary, forwarded without additional cost. "If the letters are found to be undeliverable, they are returned without charge provided the sender's return address is shown on the envelope. "In contrast, greetings mailed at the third class rate and which cannot be delivered as addressed because of removal of the addressee, or for some other reason, must often be destroyed as waste, thereby causing disappointment," Sourwine said.

Here's Mail Deadlines
In the Cincinnati area, which includes the three states comprising this division, Indiana, Kentucky and Ohio, the dates for latest mailings that will insure delivery before Christmas are:
Dec. 15, California, Idaho, Oregon, Washington, Wyoming, Montana; Dec. 16, Arizona, Nevada, New Mexico, Utah; Dec. 17, Colorado, Maine, North Dakota, South Dakota, Texas; Dec. 18, Arkansas, Connecticut, Florida, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Mississippi, Nebraska, New Hampshire, Oklahoma, Dec. 19, Alabama, Delaware, Georgia, Maryland, Missouri, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Pennsylvania, Virginia; Dec. 20, District of Columbia, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio, Tennessee, West Virginia.

Farmers—Tenants—Investors!

HERE ARE SOME FACTS that may surprise you!

It's certainly no news to you that crop prices have been moving up. It's anybody's guess how much higher they may go in the not-distant future. With half the world hungry, war conditions are making new markets for American farmers.

History shows that with rising crop prices there is always a corresponding rise in the price of desirable farm acreage. Already this rise has begun and will doubtless go much further.

AETNA PRICES STILL AT BARGAIN LEVELS
Prices of many fine Aetna farms were set several years ago and they are exactly the same today. This may seem to you like poor business on our part—in not taking advantage of a better market. But the fact is that we do not need, nor wish to make money on our farms. Our aim has been simply to price them and to sell them at figures that make safe buys for purchasers. We want our farms, once sold, to stay sold. So our prices remain as they were. In the face of rising prices, our farms are bargains on today's market.

But rock-bottom prices are only one of the many great advantages you'll enjoy in dealing with Aetna, whose business is life insurance, and not land!

AETNA PROSPERITY FARMS
The farms we are now offering to farmers, tenants, and investors are of all sizes and types, to meet every need. And every one of them is ready and waiting for the right man to move in and take advantage of today's good conditions and of the still better-conditions that the future offers.

IT WILL PAY TO ACT NOW!
Prosperity Farms at opportunity prices won't last long. We expect them to be "snapped up." So read the descriptions of the farms listed and see how fine they meet your needs. If you do not find exactly what you want, get in touch with us without delay, for we have others—at a bargain price and with only a small down payment.

Here are the benefits you receive when you buy an

NERVES AND KIDNEY ACTIVITY KEPT

MT. VERNON LADY AWAKE NIGHTS.

PRAISES TON JON FOR RELIEF

Whole System Seemed Clogged With Poisonous Wastes; Swelling and Pains Have Disappeared; Complexion Cleared up.

Discouraged with suffering and failure to find adequate relief until she was urged by a friend to try the famous New Herbal Medicine, TON JON No. 3, Mrs. Ray Padlock, well known resident of 10, 3rd Ave. Mt. Vernon, Ohio, today added her name to the thousands of Ohio citizens praising these celebrated medicines for a happy return of strength, she says.

"I am enjoying the first relief in a year, since I took TON JON, and I have regained five pounds. Before I took TON JON, I had unsuccessfully tried to find a medicine that would end my agonizing suffering but in vain. My head ached most of the time and I rarely if ever slept a night through without getting out of bed several times to relieve my kidneys and in the last year, my nerves have been affected by this bladder weakness.

"I am not troubled with any of my old sufferings now that I've taken TON JON. I don't even have spots before my eyes and the swelling has disappeared from my legs, hands and feet. My skin cleared up so such an extent that all the pimples I had, have left completely. TON JON has certainly given me the relief I was seeking, and the doubt in my mind but what TON JON will help others that suffer from the same trouble I had."

If you suffer come to Eddy's Pharmacy, 900 Broadway, Lorain, Ohio, and talk to the TON JON Health Representative.

Denison University To Present "Messiah"

GRANVILLE, O.—Central Ohio residents annually are drawn to Denison University to attend the presentations of Handel's "Messiah" during the Christmas season. This year two performances have been arranged by Karl Eschman, director of the Denison Conservatory of Music, at Swazey Chapel Saturday, Dec. 13, at 7:30 p. m., and Sunday, Dec. 14, at 2:30 p. m. Both are open to the public without admission charge. Annually since 1905 Denison University has presented "The Messiah." Last year a check of the audience showed that 45 of the 58 counties in Ohio were represented.

Both the Engwerson chorus of 200 voices and the 50-piece Denison orchestra are made up principally of Denison University students. They have been rehearsing since the opening of college in September. Assisting Mr. Eschman are Sam Gelfer, concertmaster of the orchestra, and Brayton Stark, chapel organist.

Soloists this year will come from New York. They are Mar-

PILGRIMS WIN OVER SHILOH

In an exciting game, the Plymouth High Pilgrims won their first game in three starts, defeating the Shiloh Drummer Boys, their traditional rivals, by the score of 34-21. The game was played on the local floor.

Plymouth led 10-2 at the end of the first quarter and was never headed. Plymouth was on the long end of an 18-12 score at the half, and also led 24-15 at the end of the third quarter. Jim Rhine played the whole game at guard, taking the place of Sid Thomas, who was sick in bed. Rule led the scoring for both teams, getting six buckets and one free throw for a total of 13 points. Shiloh's scoring was well divided, Myers and Adams getting six and seven, respectively. This was a Twin Valley League game. New Haven comes here Friday night, December 12, for their second game with Plymouth this season. The Pilgrims will be seeking to gain revenge for their 30 to 26 beating in the first game of the season. The Reserve game will start at 7:30. Let's all come out

PLYMOUTH BACKS UP PRESIDENT
Being a small community in a large and manufacturing area, Plymouth is a good cross-section for comparison as to the nation's attitude toward our entering the war against Japan. It matters not what our national political faith may have been; it matters not what mistakes our leaders may have made; but the general consensus of opinion expressed among our residents is: "That we'll fight to the last man." But it's going to take more than opinions; it's going to take real effort, and sacrifice. Sacrifice, not in the terms we ordinarily think, but each individual will have to be thoughtful in the use of materials and things of which the country's national emergency is dependent upon. We should spend every cent possible for national defense bonds; we should again show patriotism when we appear before the flag or hear the strains of the national anthem. Yes, there's a thousand and one ways each individual can aid, and the best slogan we can get acquainted with right now should be: "My country right or wrong."

The voice proved to be that of Mrs. C. L. Hannum. She also sang "O Little Town of Bethlehem," and "A Merry Christmas, Tourist."

Mrs. Helen Hoffman, who had charge of the program for the evening, read a story by Henry Van Dyke, entitled "The First Christmas Tree," after which a modern story, "The Home-made Miracle," was read by Miss Pearl Elder and Mrs. Sam Bachrach.

After an exchange of gifts, the members adjourned to meet Jan. 19th with Mrs. Stacy Brown.

CHRISTMAS MEETING OF W. S. C. S.

Red Christmas candles and evergreen made the tables of the W. S. C. S. most festive at the December luncheon meeting at the Methodist Church on last Thursday. At each plate a tiny candle made 1942 mottoes, and red paper was found. The two-course luncheon was served this month by Mesdames Burdge, Frank Kenestrick, D. Dunham and Florence Bruckner. Business was conducted by the President, Mrs. G. Hersher, and during the meeting it was voted to hold a contest with the Shiloh Methodist W. S. C. S. in getting old and new Advocate subscriptions. Rev. H. Winternute has offered a prize to be divided by the two churches, the winner receiving $3 for the treasury and the loser receiving $2. Mesdames Orpha Brown and Mabel McFadden were appointed as a committee on subscription.

It was announced that the January meeting would be postponed a week, as the first Thursday of the month falls on New Year's Day.

Mrs. H. Winternute was the leader of a most interesting program and held the attention of all. By using blackboard notations she made the high points of the lesson more impressive. Mrs. Geo. Hersher was the devotional leader for the Christmas meeting.

In January, Mesdames McFadden, W. Thruout, Points and I. Ross will be the hostesses, with Mrs. Willard Ross in charge of the program hour, and Mrs. F. Pitzer for the devotions.

NEW DOG TAGS GO ON SALE

CANINE OWNERS MUST OBTAIN 1942 LICENSES PRIOR TO JAN. 20. THE AUDITOR WARNS.

Tags for Richland county's dogs are now on sale at the county auditor's office and must be purchased by Jan. 20 to avoid payment of a penalty, Auditor Norman L. Wolfe stated.

All dogs three months old or more must have tags. Cost of the 1942 tags will remain the same as this year's licenses—$1 for male dogs and sterilized females and $3 for females.

The auditor said mail orders for tags will be filled if they are accompanied by check or cash for the proper amount and a complete description of the dog for which the tag is being purchased.

The county has sold 6,225 dog tags this year, providing $7,158 in revenue. Wolfe said all but $6 of that amount has been spent for auditor's clerk hire, applications, tags and supplies, salary of the dog warden, and payment of claims for sheep destroyed by dogs.

There is a balance of $3,640 in the dog tax fund, virtually all of which has accumulated in past years when receipts were considerably in excess of former years.
