Come to Church for Easter Services

THIS IS HOLY WEEK—the week between the triumph of Palm Sunday and Calvary and the Cross when dutiful Christians give thought to the glorification of suffering and sacrifice. It is through suffering that mankind goes forward. Later comes the joy and cheerfulness and hope which are the comfort and inspiration of the brotherhood of man.

Holy Week is a time to dwell on the truth and the cost of knowing it and profiting by it, to stand clear-eyed and honest-minded in the presence of reality. The text is in what Christ said that first Good Friday as He stood before Pilate: "To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth."

This week the world suffers as Christ suffered during the first Holy Week. Men are giving all in bearing witness to the truth. But the giving is making them strong. It gives them strength in the degree that they suffer. At the same time it takes strength from the oppressor. Always it is the fate of the brute of might that it inspires the object of its cruelty to rise and strike it down.

In this year of great strife, when the way of liberty in the seeking of truth is challenged on all sides, Holy Week has a special significance. It carries to all the message that the dark hours try men's souls and make them ready for better days and a better life.

Special services in all local churches have been planned, both for Good Friday and on Easter Sunday.

LUTHERAN CHURCHES
In the Lutheran church the Senior choir will present the celebrated cantata "The Crucifixion," by Sir John Stainer, Friday evening, commencing at 7:30.

The Easter Dawn service is scheduled at 6:00 a. m., followed by the breakfast at 7:00 o'clock. The Luther Leagues of the church are in charge of the breakfast and an invitation is extended to who care to come. There is no set charge for the breakfast but a free-will offering will be taken. The menu consists of grapefruit, bacon and eggs, toast, coffee or cocoa.

Sunday school will be as usual at 9:30 and the morning worship at 10:30. Holy Communion will be administered at both the Dawn Service and the regular morning worship.

The Lutheran Leagues meet at 2:30 o'clock.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Easter in the Presbyterian Church will also begin with a Sunrise Service at 6:30. Christ is Risen, will be the theme, and a Fellowship Breakfast will follow.

The Easter Cantata, entitled Angel Voices, will be given Sunday morning at 11 A. M. by the choir directed by Mrs. Gladys Peters. The Sunday School at 10 o'clock and there will be no evening services of any nature.

AT THE METHODIST CHURCH HOLY WEEK SERVICES

Holy Week Services are being held at the Methodist Church this week for three nights—Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. These services will be of interest to all who can come.

We can strengthen our spiritual forces by attending Church during Holy Week. Those who cannot attend on Wednesday should plan to be present on Thursday and Friday. The hour is 7:30 p. m.

The Easter Services at the Plymouth and Shiloh Methodist Churches will be of interest to all who do not have a regular Church to attend. There will be special music appropriate to the day as well as a special sermon. There will be a time for baptism of the babies and small children. In addition there will be baptism and reception of new members. There are some who could not be present on Palm Sunday and others who could not be seen by that time as the reception will be held on Easter too. The entire community should attend Church somewhere on Easter.

You are welcome. The visit to the Tomb of Christ by his Disciples, the two Marys and the Resurrection will be portrayed in an one act play at the Dawn Service announced for six o'clock. Special music and readings are also on the program which is in charge of the Wesleyan Class followed by the Easter fellowship breakfast. There is no charge for the breakfast but a free-will offering will be taken.

PICTURE IN LIFE MAGAZINE

Captain Elmer L. Parsel of the United States Army, a native of Plymouth, is one of the heroes of the present war whose picture is included in the Roll of Honor of men receiving decorations published in last week's Life magazine.

Captain Parsel was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross. According to the Life write-up accompanying the picture, Captain Parsel was cited for his courage, determination and skill as pilot of a bomber which took part in a raid on Japanese transports and supply bases in Linzayen Gulf.

He was born in Plymouth on September 18, 1906, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Parsel, and was graduated from Plymouth High in 1924.

He started flying in 1925 as a civilian and took a refresher course at Randolph and Kelly fields in 1937. He went to the Far East last October. His wife lives in Macon, Ga.

ASSISTS IN HOME

Mrs. Josephine Cole of North Fairfield is spending some time in Plymouth in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Harry and Mrs. Henry Cole. She is helping to care for Mrs. Cole who has been ill for several weeks.

DEFENSE SCHOOL NOT TO BE INTERRUPTED BY COOKING SCHOOL

While the cooking school is scheduled for Monday evening at 8 o'clock, April 13th in the High School Auditorium, announcement is made that it will not interfere with the usual Monday evening Defense School. The First Aid Class begins promptly at 7 p. m. and lasts approximately 45 minutes, thus allowing sufficient time between the two projects. Even so, an invitation is extended to all the men attending to stay and enjoy the cooking school session which promises to be the best ever held here.

The Tuesday Session is scheduled for 8 o'clock. Students not desiring to attend will be dismissed at this time. The students will bring their lunch and make up the extra period at noon hour.

SUES VILLAGE OF WILLARD

Mrs. Doris Otterbacher of Willard, has filled a case in common pleas court Norwalk in which she asks a judgment of $10,000 for the death of her infant child David Arthur Otterbacher, who died in Municipal Hospital at Willard May 14, 1940. The child was born April 22, 1940 in the hospital. It is averred the infant contracted typhoid fever as the result of food contamination caused by an avowed human "typhoid carrier."

Defendants are the town of Willard, which operates the hospital and the following who are connected with the institution: C. H. Strahn, G. C. Heppelfinger, E. H. Brown, Mrs. Eva Lewis, Anna Putcell and Miss Gertrude Baker, the latter superintendent of the hospital. The plaintiff avers that the hospital management permitted the maternity ward to become infected with typhoid germs. It is stated the child died of paratyphoid. Young and Young and Bracy are attorneys for the plaintiff. Mrs. Otterbacher is administratrix of the estate of the infant son.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Haldon Cheesman, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Cheesman, underwent an emergency appendectomy Friday evening at the Shelby Memorial Hospital. Late reports state that he is getting along nicely.

Tuesday at the Barkdull funeral home in Shelby with Rev. Victor Roebuck, pastor of the Tiro United Brethren church officiating. Burial was made in the Greenlawn cemetery in Plymouth.

Mr. Mellick had been in failing health for the past six months. He had operated a threshing outfit in this area for the past 30 years.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS
Mary E. Franklin, et al., to Edith Pearl Briggs, lot 220 Shiloh.

Plymouth and other Ohio war workers will be permitted to purchase recapped tires during April for the first time since the rationing system was instituted, according to the Office of Price Administration.

The OPA directed that 24,288 passenger car retreads be made available in Ohio during April to persons on both class A and B lists. Previously recaps had been available to only persons on the A list, such as doctors, nurses and farmers.

Under the new ruling for April, workers using their cars for transportation to war work, taxi operators and other in essential services may be granted recaps.

MOVING TO FLORIDA

William Diebert who has been working in Key West, Florida, expects to move his family to that city this week. He has been living on the P. H. Root farm north-east of town.

PLYMOUTH TO PARTICIPATE IN "V" GARDENS

The Ohio State Council of Defense this week issued specific instructions to the Plymouth defense council by which volunteers may enroll in the program of Victory Gardens as a civilian contribution to the national and state war effort.

As chairman of the state defense council, Governor Bricker, declared that a planning guide, prepared jointly by the Office of Civilian Defense and the U. S. Department of Agriculture, would be helpful to persons interested in raising Victory Gardens.

The Governor said the Victory Garden program is designed to increase the production and consumption of fresh vegetables and fruit to the end that "we may become stronger and healthier nation."

The program will enable families and institutions of Plymouth and Richland county to save on the cost of vegetables and fruit and apply this saving to the purchase of other necessary foods.

FLORIDA NEWS FROM DOC SEARLE ON HIS BIRTHDAY

Doc Searles, who is making his winter headquarters in Florida, writes that he deeply appreciates the many birthday cards which he received recently. As he had 70 cards to read, and as it takes quite a long time to answer that many, he has requested us to thank his wellwishers through the columns of the Advertiser.

Despite the fact that Doc is always advertising Florida while he is up North, he states in the first paragraph that "The Advertiser came duly to hand, and the contents hungrily read; the news from home is always interesting."

He writes that his daughter Eleanor stopped in Bradenton on her way to Lakeland, where she played the part of the widow in the opera of Elph. This opera is especially beautiful, and Dr. Searles urges all who can to attend if it tours this part of the country.

Eleanor then received her degree of Doctor of Music in the ch. of the College. Dr. Searles describes this building as equal, as it is very impressive, as it was made by the students even to the concrete blocks.

The college has over 25 acres of ground, which will be occupied by buildings, to be built by the pupils from all over the country. Doc thinks that it would be a worthy cause to leave your fortune to, if you have no heirs, and tells a little sermonette about a man who builds a splendid tomb so that posterity will remember him. "You could make the youngsters who come after you remember you better if you built a library so that they would have the opportunity to obtain an education. For Knowledge is Power."

And he concludes his letter with "More power to you and may your shadow never grow less." Now, Doc, was that nice?

Measles In The Army

Down in Camp Crowder, Mo., somebody had to - and get the Measles, and then the barracks were put in quarantine. Now wouldn't that be something! But Private Swigart says—"Oh, well! there is no place to go anyway."

Private M. J. Swigart is training in the Signal Corps Replacement Center, and Camp is a new one. Despite the fact that the mud is terrible and at times shoe-top deep, the soldiers have hopes that the Camp will be one of the best. This Private says that soldiers spend half the time getting dirty, and the other half cleaning up. Now that's an idea!

Swigart will eventually be a Radio Operator, and those training pass from class to class as they advance. He has celebrated company, Jeffrey Lynn is about two streets away, and they are expecting Cary Grant to arrive. "There as a lot of swell fellows here. Some were ministers, school teachers, linemen, radio operators, announcers and actors."

Private Swigart wrote this letter to Elton Robertson, but if all soldier Swigart's letters are as interesting as this one, I wouldn't mind if he wrote some to me!

INVITATION TO INDIANTOWN GAP

J. Garth Snyder of Mt. Joy, Pa., sent in his subscription to the Advertiser this week, and inclosed with it a splendid invitation to Plymouth soldiers who are stationed at Indiantown Gap, Pa., to visit over Sunday at the Snyder home, or when they can get leave.

Says Mr. Snyder, "I will see a way for them back and will not cost them anything." Now soldier, if you get homesick go over to see Mr. Snyder.

Then Mr. Snyder gets around to Hen Fackler shorting his pet deer when he comes to Pa., to hunt-but we'll let that go until another time.

Mr. Snyder has one boy in the army, who is on the way to Texas at the present time.

For now, thanks for both your subscription and your letter Mr. Snyder, and write again.

PASSING OF

RAIL FENCES

The old fashioned rail fence because it encourages brush rows and other vegetation so necessary to game is rated highly desirable by conservationists. Very few of these fences are to be seen nowadays, however.

Of interest, therefore, is the recent survey of rail fences in Ohio. Only 18 rail structures were among 2,692 fences recorded at random in 20 Ohio counties. Thus rail fences, which were once the most common of Ohio fences, now constitute less than one per cent and are rapidly disappearing.

MARRIAGE LICENSE ISSUED

A marriage license has been issued to Robert E. Hunter, 23, Plymouth, wood worker, and Margaret Ann Newland, 20, Willard. Rev. Mr. Sharp named to officiate.

Also to William J. Mathews, 53, Willard, brickman, and Myrtle LeVerk, 51, Willard. Rev. A. L. Baker named to officiate.

NAMED EXECUTORS.

Michael F. Dick and Glenn W. Dick, Plymouth, have been appointed executors of estate of Hattie B. Dick, late of Plymouth, by the probate court.

Wilson Rites Friday

Funeral services for Mrs. Rose Wilson, 59, who died suddenly at her home east of Tiro, were held Friday morning at the Dye Funeral Home in Shelby and at 2:30 p. m. in the Methodist church at McGuffey, Ohio. Burial took place at Pleasant Hill cemetery south of McGuffey. Rev. Howard Bethel, pastor of the Plymouth Presbyterian Church officiated.

Clear blue burns the flame of gas in over 17,000,000 American homes—itself a salute to gas as America's favorite cooking fuel. No fuel available for kitchen use possesses so many desirable qualities. For every cooking job—and for automatic refrigeration, too—there's nothing like the efficiency and economy of gas. This is why so many American housewives have pronounced gas the ideal kitchen fuel. In the programs of "The Great American Food Fare" you'll witness the latest, most modern applications of this popular fuel. Methods of food preparation, like everything else, are constantly changing. Every modern homemaker wants to keep abreast of these changes. Here's your opportunity to see modern American cookery at its best with gas and modern gas appliances.

IT'S OUR WAR, TOO

It's our war now and has been for three months. But the fabulous islands of the Pacific, where the boys from the U. S. A. are getting in a few licks, are so far away it still seems like something to read about or see in the news reels.

It may soon be our turn to be bombed and any night this spring the sirens may sound in the cities along our coasts. But being an air raid warden is still like a new kind of a game and we find it almost impossible to believe we're really in danger. Of course there was Pearl Harbor. But that seems to have happened a long time ago. It's already like something in history. Even General McArthur and his men have a legendary quality.

Of course, there's our trouble about tires and sugar and silk stockings. But these inconveniences haven't effected us seriously yet and we can't realize that there may be a really unpleasant shortage of various necessities before next winter. Meanwhile we continue to live and eat and dress much as we always have.

Only in the great army camps of the nation and in our factories, now working day and night, is there unmistakable evidence that we're in the greatest war we've ever had to fight—in it until "victory or death."

Our military leaders know that we're in this war to the finish—as do the men responsible for making the machines needed to win. They are not blinded by our distance from what is now the front line, or by the absence of air raids until now or by the spectacular stand of our forces in the Philippines. They know the United States must fight the bitterest war in our history with the greatest quantity of equipment the world has ever seen.

This very year our factories must turn out a flood of war materials that will "confound the Axis and astound even those Americans who have long known and respected the 'know how' of industrial management."

This is why industry's own organization, the National Association of Manufacturers, has appointed a new War Committee which will help speed production and see that maximum production of war materials is uninterrupted. There will be neither quarrelling nor quibbling nor quiting on the part of the managers of industry in the months to come as America hits her production stride and begins to turn out the machines that will finally tip the balance.

Meanwhile, the rest of us must try to see the facts which the leaders of industry see so clearly—that this is not going to be a short war or an easy one—that we're going to have to work and save and go without as well as fight. But the victory, which will insure our freedom of speech, of religion, of enterprise, will be worth anything it may cost. And when all of us work for this victory in all the little homely ways we can, as well as wish for it, it will surely come. A triumph for the world as well as for us.

JUNIOR PLAY PLEASES CROWD

"Coming Thru the Rye" the drama produced by the Junior Class of Plymouth High School was a splendid treat for all who witnessed it. It contained many humorous situations and home-spun humor which was very well received. The old country hotel, without modern heat; the splendid food which was the subject of much comment; the sternness of the hotel keeper and of course the acquiescing of Bubbles to statements, added considerable mirth in the production.

Herbert Beeching, the "sure" proprietor; Arline Ford, the goot cook; Bob Ross, the rickshack sailor; Spencer Heath, the "Hick Cop"; Anna Mae Steele, the go getter; Zanette Briggs, the travelling venge; Willard Ross, the loveable boy; Adrienne Frances, a typical college girl; Francine Forney, who liked dogs; Margaret Bradford, the staid widow; Mary Ann Bevier, the comely widow; William Reed, the self accused man; Betty Echelbarger, the modern college girl; and Bubbles portrayed their parts most commendably and are deserving of much credit. Considerable of the credit goes to the director of the play Mr. Most for his efforts to give to the audience a portrayal of typical life of the age.

Music between acts was furnished by the High School Band under the direction of Mr. Grest. The largest crowd for several years was present to enjoy the play and encourage the young people in their efforts. The Junior Class is very thankful to all.

Kroger Employees

May Purchase Bonds By Deduction Plan

Employees of the Kroger Grocery and Baking Co. now may purchase Defense Bonds by means of a payroll deduction plan, Albert H. Morrill, Kroger President, announced today.

By special arrangement with the employee-sponsored credit union, any of the firm's 23,000 employees may authorize a weekly deduction of not less than one dollar to be applied toward the purchase of a $25 maturity value bond. The credit union has arranged to keep records and purchase their bonds when required amounts have been accumulated. Bonds of larger denominations also may be purchased by specifying correspondingly larger weekly deductions.

"Participation in the plan is entirely voluntary," Mr. Morrill explained. "Many of our employees have asked for some method which will facilitate their investment in national defense by buying bonds. By paying for them in weekly installments, many more Kroger people will be able to subscribe for Defense Bonds."

Rev. H. G. Springer And Bride Return To Plymouth Saturday

REV. H. G. SPRINGER and his bride of last Wednesday evening returned to Plymouth Saturday and Sunday were greeted by members of their congregation at the First Lutheran church.

The account of their wedding as recorded in the Wednesday morning edition of The Gazette and Daily, York, Pa., is reprinted here:

Miss Ruth Runkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Runkle, 544 East Princess street, and Rev. Henry George Springer, son of Mrs. Daisy E. The bride, who will be given in marriage by her brother, Fred Runkle, will wear a gown of white slipper satin, following graceful lines, with a pointed bodice, long tapering sleeves and a sweetheart neck line encircling the throat. The wide skirt flows to form a long train. The veil falls from a Juliet cap of tulle, embroidered with white satin leaves, to the end of the train. The bride will carry a white Bible showered with an orchid and sweet peas. Her only jewelry will be a string of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Miss Betty Ann Grieman will act as maid of honor. Junior bridesmaid will be Donna Lee Springer and bridesmaids will be Mrs. Walter A. Runkle, Mrs. Richard Warner, Mrs. J. H. Bender and Miss Ernest E. Byerly.

The attendants will be gowned alike in models of pale blue, dusty rose and maize silk jersey. The gowns will have fitted bodices and bequeir, with a sweetheart neckline and puffed short sleeves. Velvet ribbons in colors to match their gowns will be their headresses. They will carry white Bibles showered with white sweet peas.

Flora Koons and Sarah Jane Springer, dressed in yellow net and carrying nosegays of spring flowers, will act as flower girls. Kenneth LeRoy Springer, Jr., dressed in white satin and carrying a white, sweetheart shaped, satin pillow, will be ring bearer. Rev. Robert E. Deputy Esther Place Grades Plymouth Chapter "Excellent"

A SPLENDID attendance marked the annual inspection of Plymouth Chapter, 231, O. E. S., on last Friday evening. Besides a good number of the home members, there were guests present from Gallon, Mansfield, Shelby, Shiloh, Upper Sandusky, McCutcheonville, Bellville, Willard, Crestline and Cary.

A grade of Excellent was given by the Deputy Grand Matron Esther Place, of Gallon, to the Chapter and its officers. At the close of her report to the Grand Matron of Ohio, Mrs. Place spoke on "Constancy," from the Bible story of Ruth, and urged all to be loyal, courageous and constant in the difficult living of today. She held the attention of all with her timely and fine thought.

The special meeting was opened by Worthy Matron Donna Dawson after the registration, and the 1942 officers made an impressive entrance, the ladies in white and the gentlemen in formal evening clothes. For the initiation ceremony, the four candidates wore floor-length gowns of black, rose, white and red, respectively. White leather Bibles were presented to each of the candidates.

At the close of the deputy's speech, the visiting Deputy Grand Matron of District No. 5, from Willard, Mrs. Verna Williams, spoke briefly but interestingly on the story of the Dogwood blossom at Eastertime, and Mrs. Thelma Hartman, district president, also talked briefly on the subject of Easter. Mrs. Beatrice Guthrie spoke in behalf of the 1943 visit.

ing Matrons, and Gallon's Worthy Patron spoke for the visiting Patrons.

All the officers were commended for their work both in the initiation and during the regular work of the year. Chaplain Hoffman and Worthy Patron Dawson were especially commended.

It was announced that the Stars were to attend church service together on April 18th, and were asked to attend the Worthy Matron's church. The first regular meeting in April will be Obligation Night, and following this, one candidate will be initiated.

A delicious luncheon was served by Mesdames Van Wagner, Barr, Johns, Gleason and Miss Mollie Keller. For each member and guest a favor was given, a tiny basket covered with colored cellophane, and containing small candy Easter eggs. The five Star colors were used.

Plymouth Chapter was invited to Shiloh's Angelus Chapter in white on April 6th, Thursday. Deputy Grand Matron Place will be the inspection officer. On Tuesday, April 21st, the Worthy Grand Matron of Ohio, G. May Sharp, will head the inspection at the Gallon Chapter, of which the Deputy is a member.

Mrs. Place stated that she felt especially interested in Plymouth as it was the home of her husband's Laurence Place family. Her mother-in-law, Mabel Swope Place, had at one time lived on West Broadway, in the house owned by the late Frank Caldwell.

Why Ham For Easter?

Our idea is, all folk here aside, that it's because ham is not only out of the handsomest meats of the meat family, but can be "dressed up" as smartly as an Easter promenade. Hold your Easter dinner with ham, and you'll order a glaze of brown richness, a fragrant clove in each score.

To "Cost" The Ham

Pour off drippings fifteen minutes before it is done, apply coating and increase heat to 400° to 450° F. to brown. Turn your choice of these three styles:

1. One-half cup honey, plain or with teaspoon ground cloves.

2. One cup mashed apricot pulp.

3. One-half cup brown sugar with ¼ cup pineapple juice

Present Cantata On Good Friday

The senior choir of the First Lutheran church will present the cantata, "The Crucifixion," by J. Stainer, to the public tomorrow night, Friday, at 7:30 o'clock.

The Crucifixion is one of the most widely used Easter cantatas and brings to the listeners a message never to be forgotten, so clear and impressive is its presentation in a musical setting. The parts of Jesus, the high priest, the malefactors and the narrator are sung by the men of the choir, all solos being written for male voices. The choir proper portrays the part of the crowd.

Soloists for the evening will be John F. Root, Rev. Henry G. Springer, Sherman Most, Gerald Culler, and R. Byron Griest.

Mrs. Marie Guthrie is the organist for the church during the Lenten season.

The choir and soloists have spent much time in preparing this cantata and it is sincerely hoped that a large congregation will be in attendance.

Around the Square

(By Phineas Whittleseed)

Of course, a movie camera would give you a better idea of how Charlie Hyland looked Tuesday morning when a four inch layer of snow slid off the roof of the Fate-Roth-Heath Company truck and made a "bullseye" right between his leather jacket and his trousers, but this is the best we could do. Learning over to place a package on the seat of the truck, his weight was just sufficient to cause the heavy snow to slide off with the above result. Charlie whose main purpose in life, is being told to "bring a load of this or a load of that" had his first experience in having nature GIVE him a load of snow—and boy was it cold.

HENRY WATTS and E. W. Heath are going to go in "cahooots" but this is the best we could do. They'll at least have to agree on the brand, and instead of the Lucky slogan, "two to one," it will be, "one for two."

FLORENCE McDUGALL, high school student, pulled a fast one Tuesday on her way to school with a group of schoolmates. Florence looked up at the building in which the Peoples National Bank is located and asked: "What does 'Les Natio' mean? It sounds like Latin to me." One of her chums quickly replied: "Oh, Florence, that's part of the name of the bank — Peoples National Bank."

The man who is working on the job started the letters in the center of the name: "les Natio."

THE WETTEST, dirtiest and the heaviest snow of the season came Tuesday, which made the Robins, those harbingers of spring—turn out to be fibbers. Well, we hope this is the last time.

UTILIZING his ingenuity with a little elbow grease, "Doc" Raymond Babcock made a couple of bucks Tuesday morning by pushing off the 10-inch snow in front of several business places.

Plymouth Digs Out

True to tradition, March roared out like a lion and left in its trail a blanket of from 10 to 12 inches of the stickiest, wettest snow of the season.

Beautiful to look at, but heavy to shovel, Plymouth residents had a last fling (they hope) of digging from under such a landslide.

There were many beautiful scenes for those who took time to gaze at the scenery. However, the beauty of the snow, which, clothed trees, buildings and fields in sparkling raincoat dulle rapidity during the morning as the white blanket changed to a muddy slush.

A number of telephone lines were down, and phone service disrupted for a short time on a few lines, but no accidents were reported in the district.

Six of Richland county's schools were closed as buses were unable to buck the drifts on rural roads and 2400 of the 4,729 pupils in 11 schools found themselves with a surprise holiday. Plymouth buses pulled through however and students here had to content themselves with pelting each other or a chance passerby.

With the rise in temperature the streets are practically cleared but roads are still muddy and mushy.

Presbyterian Church Holds Annual Meeting

The annual business meeting of the Presbyterian church was held Thursday, March 26. D. L. Daner and William Wechter were selected as members of the session; Manly Cole and B. E. Miller succeeded themselves as trustees. Reports by the different societies showed progress. Harry Vandervoort, chairman of the Every Member Canvass Committee reported the benevolence budget over subscribed and the pledges for the current expenses was better than one year ago. The only change in officers was Harold Samra for Raymond Steel as church treasurer.

Mr. Steele had served for several years and requested that he be relieved of the responsibility.

At the close of the meeting light refreshments were served by the United Workers. Some of them a present in honor of the Mrs. Bethel's wedding anniversary was on that day and made them a present in honor of their occasion.

THE UNUSUAL

It isn't often that two nephews can witness the baptismal services of their uncle and still be included in the Christening themselves.

However, at the Palm Sunday services in the local Presbyterian Church, Rev. H. L. Bethel had the privilege of baptizing the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Feters-Barrie Lane; the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Feters-Barrie Lane, who is the nephew of Barrie Lane and a grandson of the Luther Feters; and Daniel Lewis Hockenberry, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hockenberry of Mansfield, another nephew whose mother Dorothy Feters Hockenberry is a daughter of the Luther Feters.

Included in the congregation was W. H. Feters, father of Luther Feters, grandfather of Barrie Lane and great-grandfather of Thomas Ray and Daniel Lewis; on the maternal side was Mrs. Fay Ruckman, mother of Mrs. Luther Feters, grandmother of Barrie Lane, and great-grandmother of Thomas Ray and Daniel Lewis.

A CORRECTION

The Advertiser recently published an item that Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Myers who have been living at Shreveport, La., had moved to Columbus, Ohio.

This was in error and should have been Columbus, Ga. In writing their change of address for the paper, Mrs. Meyers evidently was thinking of good old Ohio, and wrote Ohio, instead of Georgia, on the card. We have made the correction and no doubt the Advertiser will reach them okay again.

Dramatic Highlights in Gasco Food Institute Programs

In past years, the Gasco Food Institute has established a reputation for entertaining and dramatic programs wherever it has been presented. This year's programs are no exception. In fact, this year's presentations are enlivened more than ever with drama and dialogue. The programs are keyed to the theme of the time—one of national defense and patriotism. In spite of their informal conversational style, they are packed full of timely, important information in which every American homemaker will be tremendously interested. Pictured here are a few of the dramatic situations which develop throughout the programs, which will be presented in the High School Auditorium Monday, April 13 at 8:00 p. m. and Tuesday, April 14 at 2:00 p. m.
