

HOFFMAN RITES HELD MONDAY

MRS. ALBERTA HOFFMAN
PASSES AWAY FOLLOWING
SHORT ILLNESS.

The last solemn rites for Mrs. Alberta Hoffman were conducted Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Lutheran Church with Rev. Frederick Lambertus, pastor, officiating, and arrangements in charge of the Janus Funeral Home. Burial was made in Greenlawn Cemetery, Plymouth.

Mrs. Hoffman took ill on Saturday, June 16th, and was removed to the home of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Helen Hoffman, where everything possible was done for her comfort. However, her condition became worse Friday and she was removed to the Shelby hospital where she quietly passed away early Saturday morning.

The deceased was born March 12, 1868, near Mansfield where her early youth was spent on a farm and where she attended school in the rural district and later taught school for some time in that community.

In 1890 she was married to Mr. Daniel Hoffman and to this union two children were born, one daughter Ruby who died in early infancy and one son, Ralph, who preceded her in death in 1941. Her husband passed away in 1928.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman and family lived in Plymouth since the year 1900. "Granny" Hoffman as she was affectionately known was a faithful member of the First Evangelical Lutheran Church since she lived here. Her active interest in the church and its organizations, her cordial and pleasant dealing with friends and neighbors, her sincere Christian fellowship, won for her a host of friends who express their sorrow over her departure.

She loved her home and was loved by those who were near her as well as those who knew her. She ranked high in the esteem in the community and for 26 years served as chaplain of the Eastern Stars.

Near relatives who survive are her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Helen Hoffman, Plymouth, 3 grandchildren, Mrs. Robert Hoffman, at home, Mrs. Frederick Clayton Mechanicsburg, Ohio, and Miss Sue Hoffman, at home and one great grandchild, Danny Hoffman. Besides these there are many other bereaved relatives and friends.

ATTEND RITES

Relatives and friends from out-of-town attending the services of Mrs. Alberta Hoffman, Monday, were Mrs. Elizabeth Craighead, and son, Mrs. Ruth Ohler, Mrs. Clinton Craighead, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cairns, Mansfield; Mrs. John Downs and daughter, Lou Ann, Newark; Mr. and Mrs. Biggs, Mt. Vernon; Mrs. L. S. Robinson, Utica; Mr. George Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Black of Shelby; Mrs. Jake Ritzman, of Reading, Pa.

VACANCIES ARE FILLED ON STAFF

With the hiring of F. H. Marvin of Shelby to teach Mathematics and Science, Supt. P. I. Van Brunt announces that all vacancies in the school faculty have been filled. Mr. Marvin succeeds Miss Sachman.

Mr. Marvin is a graduate of Wooster College, receiving his AB degree, and has had many years' experience, coming to Plymouth from Chatfield, where he has taught for a number of years. He resides in Shelby and will commute daily.

The school enumeration completed last month, shows that a total of 451 children of school age in the community and prospects are that enrollment in the local school will be higher than for many years.

NEW SUPERINTENDENT

Mrs. Fred Port was elected the new superintendent of the Methodist Church Sunday School last Sunday, succeeding Paul Scott, now a student at Ohio State university.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robinson of New London were Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Robinson.

IMPROVE POWER PLANT

NORWALK — Norwalk city councilmen have adopted an ordinance for the spending of $100,000 as a first step in a municipal power plant project that will require the use of from $350,000 to $400,000 in a few years. Among the purchases will include a new 3,000 k. w. generator, the building of a new switch board at the power trust lines to the business and factory districts and a new switch board at the power station.

PLACE 500 VETS IN RICHLAND

The War Manpower Commission, United States Employment Service has completed plans to give efficient employment service in assisting the veterans in obtaining employment. C. W. Handley, manager of the U. S. E. S., has made the announcement that the handling of veterans' placements will include special services in assisting the veterans in obtaining employment.

The veterans of Plymouth and vicinity may report to Mr. Roy J. Lewis, manager of the Shelby branch office of U. S. E. S., located in the basement of the Shelby Postoffice building.

Harry A. Vandervort of Plymouth is now acting veterans' employment representative of Richland County, and he will be glad to assist any veteran in obtaining suitable employment.

The program includes increased placement activities by various departments of the service in order to meet the ever increasing demands for employment by the large number of veterans now being discharged from separation centers under the demobilization plan.

More than 750 discharged veterans have registered in Richland County, and of this group more than 80 per cent have been placed in suitable positions. It is the desire of the U. S. E. S. to work with all other agencies to see that every returning veteran has an opportunity to work at some gainful occupation.

CONVENTION IS WELL ATTENDED

Four hundred persons were present Thursday evening when Dr. Homer Rodehorst and B. D. Ackley, who accompanies him presented a program of songs at the United Brethren church, Shelby. The meeting was attended by the Rev. Christian Endeavor regional members and residents from the vicinity.

An address was given by Rev. Dan Packard of Steubenville who had as his subject, "Carrying the Cross for Christ," taken from Luke 23:26. Rev. Packard told the part that the Christian Endeavor can take in carrying the cross.

A surprise feature of the evening was the presence of Miss Helen Benner of New York City, who is a radio singer. Miss Benner presented several selections. Richland county received four awards including the Emma Beck cup for county heirs activities presented to Marilyn Strouse in charge of the activity; the Glenn Maassman award for county heirs activities presented to Miss Mirth Monn, activity chairman; the James A. Thomas award for the best county project and the Louie M. Ernst award for the best all around county work, both presented to President Harold Sams of Plymouth.

Catherine Miller Baum of Philadelphia gave an address at the close of the afternoon session entitled "The Place of Recreation in the C. E. Program" after which the group adjourned to the Reformed church for a period of recreation.

A basket supper was served at the Reformed church basement. Those attending from Plymouth were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sams, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Ritzman, Mary Alice Weller, Luella Vandervort, Helen Gowitzka, Dorothy Sourwine, John Andrews, Mrs. Omer Burkett, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Keith and children and Mrs. and Mrs. Toby Whitmore.

Vernie Oney, Shild, R. D. vs. Henry Oney, Elvira. For divorce suit and support of five children, drawn grounds of neglect. Married Oct. 15, 1937 at Norwalk.

BEEF SUBSIDY THROUGH AAA

Livestock feeders are asked to save all bills of sale, scales tickets, account records and receipts to present as evidence of their eligibility to collect beef production payments on cattle sold on or after May 15, 1945. Robert E. Finley, Huron County AAA Chairman, said today.

"A payment of 50 cents per hundredweight will be made to feeders for sale of good and choice cattle weighing 600 pounds or more. The feeder is required to own the cattle for at least 30 days and sell them to a legally authorized slaughterer at not less than the minimum stabilization price for his zone."

The county AAA office will make the subsidy payment to local livestock feeders. Applications for sales made from May 19 to June 30 inclusive, must be filed on or before August 31, 1945. For sales made on and after July 1, 1945, until the offer is withdrawn, the application must be filed within 60 days from the date of sale.

"Not more than one application—listing sales—should be made for each calendar month," Mr. Finley said.

County AAA offices will begin to make payments on the beef subsidy just as soon as all the necessary forms are received in the county office.

DEATH CLAIMS JOSEPH TAUS

Funeral services for Joseph Taus, 72, who died Friday at his home in Franklin township, following an illness of two months, were held Monday afternoon at the Wapner funeral home, Mansfield, with Rev. Herman L. Gilbert, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, officiating. Burial was made in the Mansfield cemetery.

Surviving are his widow, Theresa; three sons, Carl at home; Frank in California, and Robert serving with the army in Texas; two daughters, Mrs. Paul Miller, Ashland, R. D. 1, and Mrs. Hulbert Wharton of Shelby, R. D. 1, also five granddaughters.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Mrs. Clay Hulbert and Miss Florence Mittenbuhler attended the funeral of their cousin, Mrs. Charles Baron of Tiffin Thursday morning.

FUNERAL RITES

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shutt and son Jimmy attended the funeral of Mrs. Shutt's brother-in-law, Elmer S. Buras at North Fairfield, Thursday afternoon.

NOTICE

Attention of those sending subscriptions of the Plymouth Advertiser overseas to men and women in the Navy, Marine and the Coast Guard service, is called to new postal regulations, effective July 1.

After that date, a letter of request from the service man must accompany each new subscription and thereafter a new letter is required each time a renewal is sought and must be kept on file in The Advertiser office.

This applies to Navy, Coast Guard and Marine forces receiving mail via fleet post offices and has no effect on overseas mail to boys in the army.

REV. HAINES IS RETURNED HERE

Rev. E. R. Haines, pastor of the Methodist church, has been returned to the Plymouth-Shiloh pastorate for the fourth consecutive year, according to announcements last week at the North-East Ohio Conference of Methodist churches held at Lakeside.

There were very few changes in the district, but Rev. H. T. Wintermute, pastor at McConville, who formerly filled the charge here, was transferred to Chardon in the Akron district.

Rev. J. C. Campbell, another former pastor, now of Cleveland, was appointed to the Tallmadge-Brimfield charge, also in the Akron district. Rev. A. Crawford will be the new pastor at Attica, and Rev. W. E. Gerst at Oberlin.

Rev. Haines, wife and daughter are welcomed back by their many friends, both in Shiloh and Plymouth.

SUFFERS HEART ATTACK

John Byrnes employee at the Tracy Restaurant suffered a heart attack early Monday morning and was removed to his room at the Tourist Inn. He is getting along satisfactorily.

RETURNS TO NORWALK

NORWALK—Dr. Robert Scott, former Huron county health commissioner and who now acclaim charge here, was transferred to surgeon at Buns and elsewhere in the Pacific region, has returned to Norwalk and will practice medicine here. Dr. Scott arrived here last week and for two weeks will conduct the office of a Norwalk physician who is taking a supplementary medical course at Chicago.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Miss Betty Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Webb of Willard, underwent an appendectomy Friday at the Willard hospital. She is getting along nicely. Miss Webb is a niece of Edward Ramsey of Plymouth, and a frequent visitor here.

SATURDAY DEAD LINE FOR STAMP

Saturday, June 30, is the deadline for the purchase of Federal use tax stamps for cars and trucks, which must be placed in a conspicuous place on all motor vehicles by July 1, if they want to drive their car tax with the law after that time.

Despite rumors that the use tax has been outlawed, the law is still in effect and fines and jail penalties can be imposed for the failure to show the $5.00 stickers.

Up until Monday of this week approximately fifty of the use stamps had been sold. During the month of June, 1944, more than 600 had been issued, and unless sales are more brisk this week, there will be a long waiting line at the post office just before the dead line.

ASSIST IN GIRL SCOUT WORK

Miss Elizabeth Mohr, teacher, has consented to assist with the Girl Scout work for the summer, taking the girls on a nature walk to the park and vicinity, Tuesday.

It is necessary that the girls contact the leaders immediately if they wish to attend the day camp at Selkirk Park, Shelby, July 10, 11, 12 and 17, 18, 19 of July. They will leave here at 8:30 a. m. and return at 3:30 p. m. daily.

The first hour will be swimming with instructions, followed by various Scouting activities. $1.00 registration fee is required, also a health certificate.

TAKEN TO PEN

The following have been taken to the state penitentiary at Columbus:

Benjamin Fix, who pleaded guilty to killing Frank Mason on May 2 in the jail at Monroeville.

James William and Jesse Cartrell, escaped Mansfield reformatory trustees, charged with driving a car without the owners' consent.

William Moore, colored, charged with having burglar tools, went to the Mansfield reformatory to serve a term of from one to five years.

RETURNS FROM TRIP

Mrs. Ruth Heiland returned last Wednesday from Nova Scotia where she visited her husband, Ensign John Heiland and resumed her work at the Laser & Hancock Company in Shelby.

Around the Square

(By Phineas Whitfield)

NEXT WEDNESDAY is the 4th of July and Plymouth, along with the rest of the country, will take a holiday. All retail stores, post office and banks will be closed for the day. Checking up for the Tuesday evening hours next week the grocery and soft drink places will be open, but Brown & Miller's Hardware, Plymouth Shoe Store, Jump's and Curpen's will be CLOSED Tuesday evening.

JOHN (DUTCH) LASER, a sergeant in the quartermaster's corps of the U. S. Army, and who has been stationed overseas for three years, more recently in Germany, is due home most any day, according to word received by his wife, Audrey Smith Laser, last week. Sgt. Laser entered service in 1940 and during his stay overseas, he became the father of twins, born Jan. 26, 1943, one of them passing away on the day of birth, but Jean Anne, the little girl, that survived will be 2 1/2 years old, and big enough to greet her daddy with a big embrace. Sgt. Laser has 108 points to his credit, making him eligible for an honor discharge. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Laser, and a former employee of the Shelby Cycle Co.

IN A telephone conversation on Tuesday, Representative Frank Pierce of Huron county, informed me that the Blood Bank Bill, introduced by him and sponsored by the Norwalk chapter, B. P. O. E., had received favorable action and expected passage before the day was over. There are only five states providing such a service to its citizens, and Michigan estimates that one thousand of its citizens save each year by the free blood plasma available. The Bill gives the funds necessary to the State Health Department, which will set up the program and get it into operation. Mr. Pierce is to be commended for his efforts on the promotion of such a worthy cause.

WELL, WE NEVER thought of it in this light, but Joe Page over at Page's Hatchery in Shiloh, pointed out to me the real situation like it is and the way it may continue for months to come, the smart farmer will find that he can put WISH-BONES on the table sooner than T-BONES.

KEEPING THIS in mind Page's Hatchery is planning to operate through the summer months, and this policy was adopted to help alleviate the meat shortage, and to supply the chicken-raiders who would like to carry an extra flock in late fall. We believe the high demand for eggs and poultry will make it worth the effort of anyone to squeeze in a few fall chicks, even though it will require a little extra work. The main thought behind the whole scheme of things is to produce enough of eggs and poultry to supplement the slim supply of available meats.

WE'RE NOT saying anything about quality or quantity of chicks, but the Page's in Shiloh will be glad to check over your present equipment and show you how extra dollars can be brought in this year without much outlay. They have a number of eggs producing chicks over a period of years, and they'll give you some interesting figures on feed, too. So it might be a good idea to stop in and talk things over.

TIME AND TIDE wait for no man. And either does Jane (Bachrach) Hughes wait for baby play plans to go on sale. The other day she felt that she had to have a safe place for Johnny to "stay put." So she just gathers a few strips of wood, plus saw, hammer, and nails, and as a result . . . a play pen. Mine said she was the wisest job in the world, but it answers the purpose.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

MISTREATMENT OF VETERANS

THE stories on the cruel treatment of soldiers in some veteran hospitals has been a severe shock to the nation. After hearing about the cruel and sadistic treatment of our men by the Germans, it is certainly disillusioning to think that Americans would treat fellow Americans in anything approaching similar fashion. And it is even more shocking when we realize that the men who are, apparently, being mistreated, are those who became ill or mentally unbalanced as a result of fighting for our country.

Until a careful investigation has been made we should of course withhold judgment. But if the stories of cruelty which are being told are found to be true, it seems to us that those responsible should be treated as "war criminals" of the first order.

WHAT WEATHER IS BEST?

WHILE wiping the perspiration from our brow during the hot spell, we began wondering if there was any such thing as ideal weather. If weather could be controlled—if we could, through some remarkable discovery, standardize the time and amount of rainfall, as well as the temperature—what would be the ideal?

If a vote were taken, we imagine the answers would be just about as varied as the weather is at present.

In the first place, most of us would not want one standard of weather. We would want some hot weather to make crops grow and for the enjoyment of swimming, we would regret the elimination of the cold and snowy weather which is a welcome change after a hot summer, we would want rain to fall on the days which were most convenient to us personally rather than according to a national pattern, and we would insist that the welfare of animals, birds and our natural resources be considered in any weather program.

In trying to standardize weather to fit all needs, it seems quite probable that we would end up with a program quite similar to the uncontrolled weather of today. Despite our complaints about the weather, if put to the test most of us would probably rather continue to take a chance than to have weather by government edict.

GIRL WHO WOULD NOT FAIL

THIS is the story of The Girl Who Would Not Give up. You've read about her in the papers, and you've seen her in the news reels, and you've heard her on the radio.

Her name? Alice Marble. But do you know her inspiring story? Bits, here and there, have been printed. Here it is complete:

Alice Marble was a natural-born athlete. The pride of San Francisco. When she was 20 she was one of the best women tennis players in the United States. She was the Wonder Girl of the western world. She was headed straight for the top.

Then disaster struck. She was entered in a tennis tournament which the officials were anxious to have finished on schedule time. The day of the final play came and something else came with it. A heat wave. The thermometer boiled and sizzled. Up and up it zoomed. It reached 104.

The officials did not want the game to stop, and so she played on in this inferno. She met opponent after opponent and swept them down. New opponents were brought on. She sent them down. She played an almost unheard-of total—108 games in blast-furnace heat. When the last opponent was finished, she started to the club house. Suddenly there was a scream from the spectators. The champion had collapsed.

She was taken to her home in San Francisco and put to bed, and there she lay week after week so broken and emaciated that she could not leave her bed.

A year passed. She was better. A telegram arrived. She had been named a member of the United States Wightman Cup team. It was a great honor. She began to practice tennis again; went to Paris with her teammates, went onto the court, collapsed. She was taken home to San Francisco again, where the doctors examined her and said she would never play again. She would be an invalid the rest of her life. She became The Forgotten Girl of Tennis.

But she would not give up. She was in bed almost a year, then began to practice again, feebly at first, stronger as the days marched past. And she DID play again. One year after she got out of bed she won a match. Fans looked at their programs . . . who was this girl? Some of them remembered her. Oh, yes, they said, that California girl.

She went in. She won. Not only once, but three times.

SGT ALEX BACHRACH DESCRIBES HIS ACTIVITY IN ARMY OVERSEAS

Mrs. Josephine Bachrach has given permission for the Advertiser to print the letter of her son, Sgt. Alex Bachrach, written to his wife at Allison Park, Pa., which gives in detail an account of his travels since leaving the States. Alex is with the engineers and recently the facts of this company were published in every daily newspaper. The letter follows:

Friday, May 17

Darling Jeanne,
Today they announced in the Stars and Stripes the point system for discharge from the Army and of course it was along the lines that had been rumored before so it really wasn't much of a disappointment to us to learn that most of all of us "would not" be discharged for a long time yet for we don't have anywhere near enough points.

On the basis of the point system I have 55 points whereas 85 are the minimum so it looks like all we can hope for is that if we are sent to the Pacific we will be sent through the states and get a furlough, or of course, we may be left here to supply the gasoline to the occupation troops or we may be sent direct to the Pacific, only time will tell.

Censorship rules have now been relaxed so we can tell you more about our doings since leaving the States. As I think you will be anxious to hear all about it, I'll try to write in detail. We were at Camp Shanks, N. Y., for four days, which is just outside of New York City and a lot of the boys had passes and that is when I wired for you to meet me but of course you had trouble with the car, anyway, we were alerted on Sunday morning so all passes were cancelled.

We left Camp Shanks on Jan. 17th and went to New York where we embarked and sailed at noon Jan. 19th on a Liberty ship on which there were about 500 men, we were in convoy of course, and it was quite an experience and it was a smooth trip all the way, though one day we had a submarine alert while we were eating dinner, so of course everyone was finished eating immediately, but nothing happened, for which we were duly thankful.

We woke up Sunday, Jan. 30th, in the harbor at Greenock, Scotland, and stayed there a day, then we were taken ashore, put on a train, and went clear across England down near Portsmouth, where we stayed in camp for about a week then went by train to Southampton and took the ferry to the Isle of Wight where we were billeted in an old resort hotel. This was a lovely little town on this island which was 16 miles wide and 20 miles long, and as we were the only Americans there they made us very welcome and we all enjoyed our stay there very much.

We left there about May 30th and went to the marshalling area near Portsmouth where they gave us all we could eat for 3 days (fattened us up for the kill) and then we shipped out June 9th for France on the ship "Empire Mace" which was a sister ship to the "Empire Lance" that we came to England on from New York; we arrived off the coast of France June 9th and awaited unloading orders until Sunday, June 11th. All the time we lay at anchor we were bombed and strafed by enemy planes and believed we were plenty scared for after all that was only 3 days after the initial invasion.

We were finally put ashore on Sunday morning about 7:30, having been landed by LST and wading through waist deep water. We hiked about 3 miles to our bivouac area, cleared the area of mines and pitched our tents.

Pete and I dug a big foxhole 4'x3'x3' and pitched our tents over us for we were being strafed every night and that was the safest place. We worked from 15 to 18 hours a day rain or shine for a month getting two lines built out to sea to receive the gasoline, building storage tanks, stringing pipeline across the country right behind the infantry and artillery and putting in booster stations to pump the gas ahead for the tanks trucks and air planes. So we worked unrelentingly July when we moved on to Cherbourg. The Germans didn't have time to destroy the installations there so all we did was make minor repairs and lay new lines ahead. We couldn't move up until after the St. Lo breakthrough, though we had the line lead to St. Lo. We moved to St. Lo on Aug. 5 and in all my life I never saw such ruins, there wasn't hardly a building left standing and there wasn't a living soul anywhere. Our work continued the same there all the time pushing the line ahead and building storage tanks at each strategic point.

We left St. Lo on Aug. 19th and moved on to Damfront where we halted for about two weeks while we installed some more stations then moved up through Alencon to a small town near Chartres (Fontaine La Guyon) where we stayed for about three weeks; this was the town where I met those people who gave me those souvenirs for you, remember.

We built quite a few tanks here (5000 barrels each) then we were called for a rush job at an airport in Belgium. The armies needed the gas faster than we could get it to them so we rushed up there and put in a setup of pumps and tanks to receive the gas which they flew in from England and in converted Liberator bombers, which carried gas tanks instead of bombs. The worst thing there was that it was cold as hell, rained almost continually and we were sleeping in pup tents and eating in our kitchen which was located in a half bombed-out building on the edge of the airport. I had a good break there though as I was Sgt. of security guard which did duty during the night and we were free all day so I would visit the neighboring town, namely, Charleroi, Denant, etc., and that was the place I picked up so many souvenirs which I sent to you.

We left Belgium Sept. 29th after being relieved by another company and came back to France where we were billeted in a chateau at Barneau which was about 22 miles from Paris, where we had our headquarters for almost two months and where we built more storage tanks so that was to be the terminal point on that line.

During this time our platoon was sent out for four weeks to build a tank and dispensing rack for trucks at Arpaon then we returned to the chateau for a couple of days then our platoon went to Landres (near Verdun) where we built another tank and dispensing station.

We moved to Antwerp the middle of November, soon after that port was opened and there we operated the biggest set-up we had come across since arriving over here. Antwerp was quite a nice city of about 500,000, but oh! those bug bombs, boy they were terrible and there were anywhere from 15 to 50 every day for the 3 1/2 months we were there. Two V-2's lit in these big tanks of gasoline and exploded and we were all mighty lucky to get out unharmed. We did lose one boy there who was killed when a bomb fell on a theater downtown and the balcony caved in and he was killed instantly, whereas another boy from our company happened to crouch down between the seats and was not scratched but of course his nerves were bad and ever after that he was very nervous during the operations.

Six of us were transferred on March 15th to this new E. P. O. company as cadre, as we are specialists in this work and the other boys who fill up the outfit were in another branch of engineering so we were divided up on the stations to help them to learn the peritina.

We were located just out of Chalons, at present which is a city of 5,000, located between Rheims and Verdun.

That brings me up to date now so you can follow all my moves on a map and I hope you find this of interest as it is the first time I have been able to tell you in detail about all our movements since I saw you last.

I'll close for now and write again later today or tomorrow. All my love Darling, now and forever,

Your Alex

SMITH'S GIVES PARK FLOWERS

For the third consecutive year, Smith's greenhouse of Willard has donated flowers for the Mary Fate Park in Plymouth. Club set out 45 choice large geraniums and 45 double petunias. Both are showy flowers and add much color to the park's background. Some of these were set in the large central bed and some to the east near Mr. Franklin's, the caretaker's house.

The unusually rainy weather the past month has decreased the attendance at the park, but bookings for tables for reunions and picnics are at top record, for the next two months.

Both the park committee and the Garden club are grateful for the flowers given, and much pleasure will be derived from their beauty by park-goers.

SHILOH HIRES TWO TEACHERS

At the Tuesday evening Board of Education meeting two new teachers were hired for the Shiloh Village Schools. Mrs. Mabel Lendot of Shelby, Rt. 1 will teach the fifth and six departmental grades, succeeding Mrs. Greta Stroup, and Mrs. Ditha McBride of Shiloh, has been hired as instructed for the third grade. Mrs. Kathleen Ratcliffe of Shiloh was teacher in the third grade last year.

BOND QUOTA IS OVER THE TOP

With the Seventh War Loan coming to a close on July 8th, Plymouth, along with the rest of the nation, is well over the top, and this is good news not only to the folks at home, but to the boys who are stationed throughout the world, especially in the Pacific area.

Total sales for the drive, not including sales at the plant of the Fate-Root-Heath Co., are listed as follows: E Bonds, $24,870; F series $31,840; C Bonds, $1,500; 14 1/2 Treasury Bonds $70,000; 2 1/2 Treasury Bonds, $8,500. The sale of E Bonds was below that expected. The proportionate share of this type bond for Plymouth had been set at $45,000, but only $24,870 were sold.

The total amount of bonds sold, as pointed out, does not include sales at the F-R-H plant, which amounts to $156,570.55. This is $5,500 above the quota of $150,000.

One of the outstanding facts of attaining the quota in this drive is that no one solicited in the sale of bonds, but all purchases came through voluntarily. J. E. Nimmons and James Root handled the campaign locally; Mr. Nimmons at the bank, and Mr. Root at the plant of the Fate-Root-Heath Co.

GUY LOMBARDO AT THE PALACE

Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians will start a week's engagement on June 29th when the RKO Palace resumes its policy of bringing the best in entertainment to the people of Cleveland. The band features the Lombardo brothers, Carmen, Lebert and Victor, Jimmy Brown, the Lombardo Trio, Rose Marie Lombardo and the Twin Piberts. The scrumptious feature will be the gay musical, "Patrick the Great," starring Donald O'Connor and Peggy Ryan.

For more than 16 years, Guy Lombardo has been among the biggest of the name bands. For fourteen consecutive years he has appeared at the Roosevelt Hotel in New York — a record to be envied. His Decca recordings are consistently found on best seller lists and in coin machines. One of the first orchestras to realize the value of broadcasting, Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians started on the air in the early days of radio and haven't missed a week before the mike in the past ten years. They are currently featured on the Chesapeake Cigarettes "Musical Autographs" program, heard Mondays over the Blue network.

Guy, his three brothers and younger sister, all were born in London, Ontario, children of a talented violinist who insisted on their having a musical education. Guy, the eldest, plays the violin. Carmen, next, plays the saxophone, sings with the trio and writes songs. Lebert, third, is in the trumpet section and Victor, the youngest of the brothers, plays the clarinet and baritone saxophone. The apple of their collective eye, young Rose Marie, is the band's vocalist.

Richard Major Talks To Hollanders In Germany
Richard Major, in a recent letter from Heidelberg, Germany, told of living and working in a railroad station where many people of all nationalities were on their way back home after serving as laborers in Germany. Many were Dutch and spoke some English. He enjoyed talking with them and told them of Celeryville and its people and their work. They were very interested and recognized the names of Holthouse, Cok, Buurma, Shaarda, Newmeyer and Harsema.

The railroads are being turned back to the people as rapidly as possible. Richard also mentions the story of F-B-H shipment by air, making the army paper over there.

BAKER'S BAND PLAYS AT 'HOP'

Russ Baker's 9-piece band is going to furnish music Friday night at the Willard Skating Rink, when a dance will be held, starting at 9 o'clock and continuing until midnight.

Baker's Band has proven a popular hit the past few months in the schools at Crestline, Willard, Shelby, Greenwich and Plymouth. Baker announces two new members to his organization, Dick Sykes of Shelby, who is said to have a real smooth glide on the trombone slide. The other member is Curtis Smith who fascinates with his manipulations of his saxophone. Baker is really proud of teaming up these two players with his band, and it'll be worth the price just to see these two boys in action Friday night at the Willard Skating Rink.

Approximately 30 were in attendance coming from Norwalk, North Fairfield, Delphi, Wake-man and Plymouth. A basket dinner was served at the noon hour and the afternoon enjoyed.

For the 1946 reunion, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Ruggles of North Fairfield will be the hosts, place to be announced later.

PICNIC SUPPER.

Friday evening at the Mary Fate Park, Mr. and Mrs. John VanderBilt and family and Mr. and Mrs. William Van Loo enjoyed a picnic supper. The affair honored Ed VanderBilt of Great Lakes and Art VanderBilt, SM, 3/C, home on leave.

ATTEND 52ND WEDDING ANNIVERSARY DINNER.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Childs attended the 52nd wedding anniversary of Atty and Mrs. Ray Craig of Norwalk, given at the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Henderson and daughter, Jane, on Sunday.

ICE CREAM PARTY.

Memories "of the good old days" when home made ice cream was served in "man sized" dishes and was a weekly occurrence has haunted Rev. Stull, of Youngstown for years, so when he and his family had occasion to pass this way last week, friends decided to hold another such event. Last Wednesday evening at the Carl Carnahan home of near Plymouth, a group of former friends when Rev. Stull was pastor of the local Lutheran Church, pooled their sugar allotment and an ice cream party was held.

Friends who enjoyed the affair and old time memories were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Griffith of Shelby Route, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Earnest, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Jenkins and family of Norwalk and Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Ford of Plymouth, and honored guests, Rev. Stull, wife and daughter Dorcas.

The preceding evening, Tuesday, Rev. Stull and family enjoyed the evening at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Bruce Young of Shelby, when Rev. Gilbert and wife of Mansfield, and Rev. Paesnick and wife of Shelby were entertained, all old friends.

DINNER GUESTS.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Oden were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Owens and daughter, Cheryl and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Oden of Shiloh. The dinner marked the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Owens and the first wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Oden.

AT WILLARD O. E. S. INSPECTION.

A group of local members of the O. E. S. chapter were in Willard Saturday evening attending the annual inspection of Willard Chapter.

Those attending were Mrs. Iva Gleason, Mrs. Robert Schuch, Mrs. Joe Hodges, Mrs. John Beelman, Mrs. M. R. Lindsay, and Mrs. Elma Stevenson of Shiloh.

VACATIONING.

Dr. I. E. LaBarre and mother, Mrs. I. H. LaBarre of Mansfield expect to leave July 1st for Hamilton, Canada and also on a fishing trip near the North Bay. Mrs. LaBarre will join her husband a little later.

CALLERS AT HACKETT HOME.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Perkins of Ashland, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hackett and daughters, Dolly and Mrs. Ellen Reed of New London, Mrs. Ross Hackett, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hackett, recently married, of Ruggles and Mr. Frank Hackett of Plymouth were callers in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hackett and daughters, Sunday.

Mr. George Hackett has been bedfast since June 1st and expects to leave this week for the hospital in Brecksville.

Relatives were also present from Medina, Wilmet, Wooster, Mansfield, and Shelby.

NIECE TO MARRY.

Mrs. F. M. Gleason will leave the latter part of the week for Ft. Wayne, Ind., to attend the wedding of Miss Betty Miller, daughter of Mrs. Cortland Miller and the late Rev. Miller, and Platoon Sgt. James Lewis Wright of Constantine, Mich.

The wedding will be at the First Lutheran church at Ft. Wayne, Saturday afternoon, June 30, at 3 o'clock, followed by a reception at the home.

SURPRISE PANTRY SHOWER.

Fifteen members of the Daughters of Union Veterans, Shelby Tent, planned a surprise pantry shower last Thursday evening on a member of their group, Mrs. Lola Heck of Shelby. The affair was held at her home and local members attending were Mrs. Mabel McFadden, Mrs. Judd Keller, Miss Florence Danner, Miss Helen Akers, Mrs. Ed Phillips and Mrs. Harriett Robinson. The evening was spent informally.

12 CANDIDATES GIVEN FIFTH DEGREE WORK AT POMONA GRANGE.

The fifth degree was conferred on twelve candidates Thursday evening when 85 members of Pomona Grange met at Union Grange Hall.

Worthy Master Harry Stroup conducted the chess session at which time the charter was draped for Victor Light.

A lunch was served followed by a social evening. The next meeting of Pomona Grange will be held September 20 at Shiloh Grange and the group will also hold their annual picnic the 4th Sunday in July at the Richland County Home.

Those attending from Plymouth Grange was Mr. and Mrs. Manly Cole and Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Heller.

ALICE WILLETT CLASS MEETING.

Mrs. Cleland Marvin with the assistance of Mrs. W. W. Wirth and Mrs. John Bradford graciously entertained members of the Alice Willett Class for their June meeting last week, at the Marvin home.

The July meeting was announced with Mrs. Corrie Blier, Mrs. Theora Kennedy and Mrs. Marguerita Anderson as co-hostesses and Mrs. LaVerda Trauger in charge of the devotions.

KROGER'S HELP MOVE PEACHES

Georgia peaches, estimated at a high record crop of 11,000 carloads, are now moving to local markets, announces the Kroger Grocery and Baking Company.

This will be the biggest canning event of the year, company representatives say, because late spring frost damage reduced fruit prospects in northern and eastern states. Furthermore, government purchases will take more than two-thirds of the commercially canned crop for the armed forces and for lend-lease purposes.

Housewives were disappointed in strawberry season this year because of a short crop and cherries will likewise be extremely scarce. Kroger produce merchandisers say. Apples, pears and plums will be only a third to a half-crop this year, growers report in the principal producing areas of eastern and northern states.

Southern peach states, notably Georgia and South Carolina, however, report a crop 50 per cent greater than in 1944 and 65 per cent above average. This is the only peach area with heavy crops above normal production.

Canning with limited sugar supplies, as well as with honey and syrup, is possible with peaches, Jean Allen, home economist of the Kroger Food Foundation, says. Recipes to make sugar and sugar substitutes go farther in canning peaches at home are being distributed through all Kroger stores.
