

Around the Square

(By Phineas Whittleshead)

IT WAS ONE OF THOSE "One in a million" chances for Gerald Scott last week. Working as a janitor at a Cleveland firm, Gerald was walking down the Avenue in New York City when he came face to face with three former Plymouthites, Mrs. George Eastman, Mrs. Ted Trilling and daughter Juanita. Needless to say, they were delighted to see each other and Gerald accompanied them home for a further visit.

CALL ME SARGE—Jim Moore who will have the first anniversary of his induction in the armed forces the day after Thanksgiving was recently promoted to the rank of Sergeant. He is stationed in Japan.

MRS. HELEN LAMOREAUX is continuing her home nursing work. A clerk at the Shutt grocery, Mrs. Lamoreaux slipped and fell. She will be off duty for a while. Mrs. Lamoreaux also sent to the Advertiser, three Christmas roses, in various stages of growth, taken from her garden. It is the first time that they have bloomed so early before Christmas for Mrs. Lamoreaux and usually come up thru the snow.

WELL, GIRLS, from what we hear you might as well get a hair cut, especially those of you in high school. There ain't no justice, is there?

WHAT THE EYE ADMIRES the heart desires—that applies to advertising mostly, but Weldon Cornell at the Black & Gold has installed a new pop corn "popper" in his shop. It is the first time that you want to eat popcorn. All electrically operated, it pops, butters, and almost hands it out without ever being touched by hands. Mrs. Ad never to look at it, unless you want some popcorn.

GEORGE STEVENS of Steven's Restaurant is going to have a lot of people eat spaghetti. How? Well he has employed the services of Wayne Wittmer, former chef for the Erie RR, who knows how to mix the ingredients. Mr. Wittmer knows his cooking and patrons have a pleasant surprise in store for them when they dine there.

THERE IS NO DUBB in my mind but what the community as a whole is very happy that the CIO did not win out in our only manufacturing plant. The fact that the Plymouth Order of Mechanics is going a majority, shows that the employees have faith in the ability of the union to represent them.

MOVED

Mr. Paul Lyons who has been rooming at the home of Mrs. Ruth Davis on North Street is now rooming at the B. L. Waddington home.

REMOVED HOME

Mrs. W. Burkett who was removed home in the McQuate ambulance Sunday afternoon from the Shelby Memorial Hospital where she was receiving treatment. Chester Garret was in blood donor for Mrs. Burkett on Thursday.

RETURNS FROM SERVICE

Sgt. Glen D. Lehman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Lehman of New London, is on a terminal leave and his discharge becomes effective Dec. 3. He has been in 26 months service and left the States in September of last year and has been stationed in the Philippines.

Prior to his return home he had been supervising the setting up of mess halls and was making plans for the general staff of the 13th Air Force at Ft. McKinley. The Lehman family operated the Plymouth Bakery a number of years ago.

CHOIR TO GIVE PROGRAM

The senior choir of the Shelby Lutheran church will present a special program of religious and secular songs in the Plymouth Lutheran church on Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

The general public is cordially invited to attend and enjoy this fine program.

There will be no admission or collection. The program was arranged because the members of the choir love good music and like to sing.

We urge all interested in good music not to miss this fine presentation.

LACK OF COAL MAY CLOSE SCHOOLS

Unless a miracle happens within the next few days, Plymouth schools will be forced to close Friday for an indefinite period due to the coal shortage. Supt. P. I. Van Brunt stated Wednesday that the schools have enough coal on hand to last through Friday's sessions but no longer. Although a car of coal is not to be on the way for the Plymouth schools, with the coal situation as acute as it may be, it will be needed for the fuel for hospitals or other vital needs other than for school use.

PLANT MAY BE AFFECTED

The Fate-Root-Heath Co. has enough coal to last for a two-week period. However, only heating facilities require coal, and if the weather remains mild, the present supply at the plant may last longer. The firm has been operating under the direction of Hard Fels Administrator for some time, and shipment of coal to the plant has been subject to regulations.

FUEL IS SCARCE

Local coal dealers, while not out of coal altogether, have a very limited amount on hand, and this will be rationed out to those who absolutely have no coal at all. Whether or not shipments on order will be received within the next week or so is not known, but few of them have any hope of getting additional fuel.

The town's electrical supply is not endangered for a couple of days, but there are reports issued to curtail the use of street lighting. The Ohio Power Company, who kindly contributed its electrical energy, has issued or requested no notice of curtailment. The power company probably will continue to operate for 30 days without any difficulty, but beyond that a curtailment of electricity might be sought.

Don's Grill Opens Monday, Nov. 25

After being closed for three weeks, Don's Grill, located next to the Peoples Bank, will open its doors on Monday, November 25. During the past three weeks, extensive repairs, cleaning, painting, and general improvement was made in the restaurant formerly operated by C. W. Tramm. From the back door to the front, walls have been washed and painted, new fixtures installed, and a rearrangement of tables and chairs, giving the place an entirely new atmosphere.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Levering, who selected Plymouth as their home after much consideration, are confident that the people of Plymouth and vicinity will appreciate a clean and wholesome atmosphere in which to dine. In expressing this confidence they have made improvements which will run into several thousand dollars; the purchase of new tables and chairs, new soda fountains, stoves, and refrigerators. They have left nothing undone to make their new restaurant clean in every way, and attractive in appearance. They have selected interior decorations to harmonize from painted walls down to chair covers, and you have a real treat coming when you visit Plymouth's newest restaurant.

As an introduction to the community, Mr. and Mrs. Levering are planning a real Thanksgiving dinner on Thursday, Nov. 28th. Turkey, of course, will be the main dish, but there will be chicken and steaks for those who wish. A well-balanced menu in every detail has been planned for this day, and reservations may be made up to Tuesday night of next week. Or if you can't make reservations, come on in for dinner and we'll be ready to serve you.

Mrs. Russell Kitchen of New Washington was admitted Friday to the Grant Hospital in Columbus for observation. Mrs. Kitchen and family were former Plymouth residents.

KNOCKED FROM BICYCLE

George Fairchild, nine year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fairchild of the New Haven Road suffered only slight injuries Monday evening when the bicycle he was riding was struck by a car driven by J. E. Nimmons at the intersection of Sandusky and North Streets.

George was being sacked popcorn he had raised and neither he or Mr. Nimmons saw each other. Mr. Nimmons was unaware of the accident until he had returned home and saw a crowd on the corner when he returned. George was taken home but no injuries were found. The accident occurred about 5 p. m.

Local Alumni Team Organize Team

The Alumni of Plymouth has organized a semi-pro basketball team, which will play in the North Ohio Independent Basketball League.

The schedule is now being drawn up for the coming season and the following named teams are entered: Shelby, Willard, Shiloh, New Haven, North Fairfield, Greenview, Celeryville and Plymouth. League play will start the first week in December and notice of season schedule will be given later.

The Plymouth squad has not been completed, although prospects are very bright. Those listed for the team are: Nick Hoffmann, Rich Moore, Smoky Lasch, Wayne Hoffman, Roger Miller, Bill Reed, Jake Berberick, Everett Arnold, and Bill Fazio.

Any man desiring to try out for the team may contact Bill Fazio. Practice will begin as soon as arrangements are made for the Plymouth high school gym. Now People of Plymouth, let's back the boys to the limit! Let's show them you have that old community spirit. A team without moral support isn't a team! We boys will be the playing men you folks hold down the morale end of it. That's fifty percent of a ball club.

O. J. Nickle of New Haven has purchased the farm on the New Haven Road owned by Mrs. J. E. Fairchild. The farm is tenanted by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fairchild and family.

Plymouth Stores Filled With New Merchandise For Xmas Shopper

With only 35 more shopping days before Christmas, shoppers will find Plymouth stores with more and better merchandise than at any time for the past six years. Most of the stores here are featuring a lay-away plan, whereby customers may make their selection of merchandise and by making partial payments it will be held until Christmas before delivery. A check-up around the Square reveals many new items for the home, and some electrical home appliances are becoming available. Both stores, Fetters Radio Electric, and Robert's are showing new models of some appliances, as well as radios and record players.

NEW TOY BASEMENT

This week, Brown & Miller's Hardware announce the opening of their basement. The entire basement floor has been filled with new and attractive toys this year are better than those of the war years. New kinds of toys, designed to attract the children's interest, are now on display. While toys are more plentiful than last year, there will be a shortage for the Christmas trade, and the early shopper will do well to make selections as soon as possible.

Dolls and games will be found in Brown & Miller's basement in a wide selection, as well as many kinds of toys, such as trains, wagons, wheelbarrows, etc. The basement, approximately 24 feet wide by 40 feet long, is made at the rear of the store, and is arranged with tables placed high with all the things the average American child wants for Christmas. Brown & Miller's invite you to visit this store, which is open every day for the Xmas holidays.

Curpen's Has Big Stock

The past week, Edward B. Curpen, who operates Curpen's Jewelry & Gift Shop in the Peoples National Bank Building, has given his store window a little of Hollywood's glamor by installing a display of Christmas merchandise in "stepped shelves" the merchandise is well displayed, supported by the reflection of the kind of boxes with cross panels. Curpen, who is one of the best known jewelers in Northern Ohio states that he has been successful in building up a good stock of items for the Christmas trade. "Watches may be a little scarce, but there are hundreds of other items now available," stated Mr. Curpen. Curpen's Jewelry & Gift Shop will also feature the lay-away plan for shoppers. Diamonds are a feature at this shop, as well as many models of the better known pens and pencils. A wide range of gift items are now on display.

"This being the second Christmas to be observed following the close of World War II, it is rather difficult for the average shopper to believe things are coming back to a normal state, especially those who wish to buy something for the home," stated Earl McQuate, in regard to his store's ability to meet the needs of the Christmas shopper. McQuate's is a very fine showing of tables, chairs, and other home furnishings, breakfast sets, etc., plus living room, dining room and bedroom suites. Of course, a purchase may be made here on the lay-away plan, and delivered on time at the right time.

The Plymouth Shoe Store, operated by Harold Cashman, has started to show a full line of house shoes.

ON COMMITTEE AT BOWLING GREEN

Miss Miriam Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Johnson of 1800 Broadway, has been elected representative chairman of the Sub Committee group in the registration of alumni over Homecoming week-end. Bowling Green State University.

slippers and other items for the Christmas shoppers. Just keep an eye on their big display window for all the new things.

"The clothing industry has really had tough going since the close of the war," said Max Jump, "and we will not have nearly as much merchandise as we would under normal times, but we expect to have a good selection of some items." The keynote here for the Christmas shoppers to make a frequent call between now and Christmas. Men's shirts and pajamas will be on a shortage basis, as well as men's robes, but there will be some jackets, sweaters, and a lot of belts and ties and socks.

This Christmas, Webber's Drug store is offering a bigger and better selection than ever before, especially gifts for My Lady, which will be perfumes and cosmetics of all kinds. Webber's of course, is Plymouth's drug store, and will be stocked with gifts for every member of the family.

So, while you may think this column is straying, it is not. It can be taken as a warning to "shop early." Plymouth stores invite you to come, look, compare, and dollar for dollar, you'll get it elsewhere. Plymouth merchants are friendly, their salespeople are courteous, and the quality of the merchandise is of high quality. The variety is being shown. Make out your shopping list, as well as that gift list, and come to Plymouth this week-end for a tour of the stores—whether you buy or not, you'll be welcome.

LOCAL UNION HAS OUTIN ELECTION

In spite of concentrated efforts of CIO organizers the past few weeks to swing employees of the Fate-Root-Heath Co. into its fold, the election held Wednesday gave the Plymouth Order of Mechanics a big majority, and as a result this union, will remain the bargaining agency for employees at the local plant.

The election Wednesday expressed the sentiment of a majority of the workers, and the results of the polls showed:

Plymouth Order of Mech. . . 179
CIO Group . . . 56
All Other . . . 2

No Union Favored . . . 60

Total Votes Cast . . . 297

According to figures released Tuesday, the 325 employees eligible to vote, but only 297 actually cast a ballot; 28 mm held under the polls.

The election was held under the auspices of the National Labor Relations Board, and the returns were counted Wednesday afternoon.

From the number of votes favoring the local union and the American Federation of Labor, it is very little favor among the employees.

Rites Held Tuesday For Mrs. Akers

Last rites for Mrs. Bertha A. Akers, widow of the late Lafayette Akers, were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family home on West Broadway. Rev. H. L. Bethel, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, officiated with arrangements of the McQuate Funeral Home. Burial was made in Greenlawn cemetery.

The deceased passed away Saturday afternoon at the home following a lingering illness. She was the daughter of Byron H. Akers and Sarah E. Ross and was born July 25, 1868 near Bryan in Defiance County, Ohio and at the time of her death was 78 years, 3 months and 18 days of age.

She was united in marriage with Lafayette Akers on March 20, 1890. She is survived by a brother, Alroy A. Ross of Plymouth, two sons, H. L. Akers and H. L. Akers, Mildred Chorpensing of Ashland; two sons, Byron A. at home and Donald E. of Plymouth; eleven grandchildren and three great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband and infant son, Theodore, and daughter, Lucille.

The first nine years of her life were spent with her parents at her birthplace and after the death of her parents at that age she came to live with her aunt and uncle, Mary and Rev. Ross of near Plymouth. She made her home with them until her marriage. The next twenty-seven years of her married life were spent on a farm west of Plymouth and the last years were spent in her home in Plymouth.

PLYMOUTH SCHOOL NOTES

INTRODUCTION

Now that the people of Plymouth are getting into the spirit of the school, we thought it would be helping things along to tell the people what activities and the like are going on at school. That is why this column has come into being.

As the weeks go on we hope to have more and more news and have things in this column that will interest the public and also the students at school.

We started this column at a very opportune time as there have been quite a few events taking place.

BACK THE BOOSTER CLUB

The students of the Hi School are backing the Booster Club. Are You? The team needs your support. With the entire town in back of them, the team will do better. Come to the games! The cheerleaders need your help, too. Come and yell. Booster Meetings are announced in advance in the paper so come to the meetings and show the team that the town is behind them.

SENIOR CLASS

In preparation for the day when they graduate next Spring, the Seniors have begun to plan. Last week the invitations and name cards were ordered from the Century Printing Company of Chicago. Mr. Van Brunt will soon take the measurements for the robes. The colors decided on were Navy blue with contrasting white tassels.

The Seniors wish to thank all those who bought tickets for the show "A Stolen Life." The profits from this show will add to the growing fund for the Senior trip. Thanks again!

Several of this year's graduating class have been over to DeVito's in Shelby and have had their pictures taken. The results turned out very satisfactory and they have ordered more pictures. Mr. Van Brunt took the pictures of the whole class for the Annual.

The annual "Mayflower" will be published again this year. The Staff has been chosen and it is moving ahead at full speed in the Editorial Staff is Mary Ellen Thomas - Editor-in-chief, Ruth Ford - Assistant editor, and Agnes Roberts - Class Historian. Those assisting this staff will be:

Faculty Advisor-Miss Jeffrey

The advertising staff has been working for several weeks. Ads have been secured from Shelby, Willard, Celeryville and Plymouth. The "Mayflower" promises to be well worth while for the Senior project.

F. H. A.

The F. H. A. Pot Luck Supper at Phyllis Haines' house on November 23, is all arranged. This party is being given for the fellows as well as the girls, so in order to go, you must have an escort. Each girl is requested to bring one hot dish and silver for two. Betty A. Hutchinson will provide entertainment and Lois Salts of girls from the organization. So come on, girls, grab yourself a man, and get ready for a "super supper time."

F. H. A. MEET IN SHELBY

Saturday p. m. the Plymouth Chapter of F. H. A. assembled with the other county chapters at the Shelby Senior High School building for a convention and a general business meeting.

Registration and games until noon helped the girls to get acquainted and at noon a delicious pot-luck dinner was served. After the meal was over, singing F. H. A. songs and other table games held the girls attention until the business meeting. This was in charge of Miss Handley, the Home Economics teacher of Shelby Hi. Betty Hutchinson, of Plymouth, was elected County President. Other officers were girls from the other chapters.

After the meeting, a tour of the school building was conducted by the Shelby Chapter. Phyllis Haines and Mrs. Lindsey provided the transportation, and from everybody's comments, they had a wonderful time.

NEW STUDENTS

Two new students, Alma Nessen of Sandusky, and Robert Metcalfe of Plymouth, are now attending Plymouth Hi. Bob has been in the Merchant Marine, and returned to school Monday.

JUNIOR CLASS

The class rings, which were ordered by the Juniors earlier in the year, will be here sometime near the end of the month. The rings were ordered from Herff-Jones.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

At eight o'clock last Friday evening the curtain in the P. H. S. Auditorium rose on the first act of the Junior Class Play, "When the Bow Breaks."

The entire play took place in the living room of the wealthy Silas Courtland (Cornelius Vanderbilt) and his 3 lovely daughters, Charlotta (Joy Bradford) and Julia (Betty Chronister) and Beth (Mary Fox). Silas brings home Tony Smith, Kenneth Echelberry and Tony tries, under the pretense of Silas' illness, to reform the girls. Their many duties, without Sarah, the maid, (Theresa Alexander) cause many laughs and chuckles. Beth is in love with Dr. you call it? I can't (James Burrer) a struggling young intern. Eugene, the hat designer, (Ed Gamble) came to the house and helps Tony make onion soup. William (Robert Baker) and his mother (Karyl McGinty) had designs on Silas' money and tried, in several ways, to marry into the family. But all is well that ends well and Charlotta fell in love with Tony.

Several unusual talents were brought out in the play. For example, Kenny E. singing "Rock-a-Bye-Baby" at the end of the first act.

For between acts specialities, a group of seven Junior girls sang. They were dressed formally and they sang "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows" and several other popular numbers. Betty Davis and Dorla Gullette were ushers.

SECOND GRADE

As was previously announced, every six weeks during the current school year an assembly of the grades will be held. At this time, one particular grade is host to the other grades and all parents who may attend.

On Thursday, today, promptly at 2 o'clock, the Second Grade under the supervision of Mrs. Agnes McFadden and Miss Joy Bethel, will present a program consisting of Drills, and Musical numbers with Thanksgiving as its theme. Thirty-five little folks are looking for a big crowd. Don't disappoint them.

JACK FROST'S VISIT

By Agnes Roberts
Jack Frost paid me a visit
Last night when all was dark
He thought I wouldn't know for all
But still he left his mark.

He trailed his long, slim fingers
Across my window pane
And left some fairy castles
With horses in the lane.

He painted all the countryside
And left it bright and glowing
He painted all the leaves on trees
And kept the streams from flowing.

Though no one's ever seen him
I know what he must look like
He's got a little painted cap
And shoes with pointed toes.

He is a merry, laughing elf
With smiles and yes, no frowns
He's got some fairy workers
They're happy little clowns.

They live so gay in Fairyland
Where work they do is play
They steal upon us quickly
They always find a way.

So next time, will you notice
If Jack Frost did come to see you
If he painted all your windows
And then stole away with the dew?

But, he is so very lovable
His kindness, too, is known
Throughout the whole of Fairyland
Wherever he has flown.

Still, I keep in my memory
Those delicate, little picture-fares
And I'll watch and wait for him
Till he climbs his pretty stairs.

FRIENDSHIP CLASS

ENTERTAINED

A very enjoyable meeting of the Friendship Class of the Methodist Church, was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Johnston west of Plymouth, with Mrs. Fred Ross, Mrs. Rose Weaver and Miss Alta McGinley associate hostesses. There were twenty-nine members and three guests, Mrs. C. Hyde,

Mrs. Ella Crum and Mrs. Etta Brumback present.

The meeting was opened by the president, Miss Jessie Cole and the song, "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say" was sung. Mrs. Bernice Morrow read the Scripture and a poem, followed by prayer. Mrs. John Beelman, secretary, read the minutes and the treasurer's report was given by Mrs. E. E. Markley. A note was read from Mrs. Anna Belle Johnstone, who after Dec. 1st will make her home in Youngstown.

The entertainment was in charge of Mrs. Sadie Ford, who asked each member to give an account of the first meeting they attended of the Friendship Class. Mrs. R. E. Haines won the prize in writing the most words from the word Thanksgiving.

The hostesses served a dainty lunch and the next meeting will be the Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Mabel McFadden.

FORMER LOCAL COUPLE OBSERVED SILVER WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

On the eve of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary, Gladys and Russell Kitchen of New Washington renewed their nuptial vows Thursday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Crocker of New Washington.

It was a solemn and impressive service when Rev. Paul Gerlach of the Lutheran Church read the single ring ceremony in the presence of a large group of relatives and friends. Their son Keith gave his parents in marriage and the couple were attended by Mrs. C. B. Crocker, a sister-in-law, as matron of honor. Mr. Crocker served as best man and Miss Georgia Billett of Cleveland as maid of honor. Mrs. Warren Fike of New Washington played the wedding music.

Mrs. Kitchen was attired in a white satin wedding gown, with shoulder length veil and carried a white Bible and an orchid. Mrs. Crocker wore a more formal gown of American Beauty hue and Miss Billett chose a yellow net.

A reception was held following the ceremony and a buffet lunch served from a beautifully appointed table. A three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature figurine centered the table while two other cakes were on either side.

The couple were remembered with many lovely gifts. Mr. Kitchen will be remembered in Plymouth as a projectionist at the Plymouth Theatre.

Mrs. Kitchen at one time assisted at Wayne's Restaurant and the son Keith was a member of Plymouth's Varsity Basketball team. The family has many friends here.

Included in the guest list was Mrs. Glenn West of Plymouth while others were Messrs. and Mrs. J. S. Barrington, Elton Ackerman, P. J. Koepfer, O. W. Mohrhorff, Ray Chronister, Paul Worley, C. High, Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Schadtall, Clayton White, G. S. Bonderer, Mrs. Sarah E.
