

MRS. WM. TEAL DIES SUDDENLY

FUNERAL SERVICES WILL BE HELD SATURDAY AFTERNOON AT 2:00.

Death again struck suddenly in our midst Wednesday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock with Mrs. Ida Teal, wife of William Teal, the victim. Mrs. Teal had not been feeling any too well recently, but about and about her usual work around the home when stricken. Death was attributed to thrombosis.

The deceased was born March 28, 1876 in Noble County, Ind. She was married on Nov. 10, 1895 to William Teal, and the couple celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last Fall. They had resided in Plymouth since September, 1919.

Survivors include the husband, and five children: Arthur of Upton, Ind.; Mrs. Irene Meyers of Willard; Rex of Indianapolis; Mrs. Lois Taylor, son Harold of Plymouth; one brother, Jacob Prick of Ligonier, Ind., and 11 grandchildren also survive.

Mrs. Teal was a member of the Presbyterian church, the United Workers Class and had taken an active part in all church work. She was also a former Eastern Star and Pythian Sister, but had given up her membership some time ago.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 2:00 p. m. at the Lenius Funeral Home with Rev. Howard Bethel, pastor in charge. Burial will be made in Greenlawn cemetery, Plymouth.

NEW PASTOR FOR THE LUTHERANS

CONGREGATION ACCEPTS REV. M. P. PAETZNIK FOR LUTHERAN PULPIT.

At the congregational meeting held Sunday morning at the First Evangelical Lutheran church, members voted unanimously in the appointments of Rev. M. P. Paetznik to the pastorate of the Rev. H. L. Lambertus, who resigned some weeks ago. Rev. Lambertus served the Lutheran church here for the past three years.

In selecting Rev. Paetznik for their pulpit, the congregation and the church council feel that they were very fortunate in securing a young minister with so many sterling qualities.

Graduating from Paducah high school in 1926, he entered Willamette college, where he finished his education there in 1930, and completed his course in Hamma Divinity School in 1933.

At the completion of his ministerial education, he was called to come to Shelby, where he was assistant to Dr. Bruce Young from 1934 to 1939. At the conclusion of his work with Dr. Young he took up the pastorate of the St. Paul and Pleasant Valley churches at Lucas from 1939 to 1941.

Rev. Paetznik's third pastorate was that of the Christ Lutheran church in Carey, where he preached from 1941 to 1943. It was while here he entered the service in the U. S. Naval Reserve with the Marines, and for two years was attached with them in their operations in the South Pacific.

Throughout his various connections with churches and his record while in service, Rev. Paetznik gained a high standing of character, knowledge and ability. He is a deep student of the Bible, a scholar, and understands human characteristics, and as a pastor, he should prove an asset to the community as well as to the church.

Rev. and Mrs. Paetznik, the former Ruth Tindale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Tindale of Shelby, have one son, Richey. They expect to move to here as soon as possible. Rev. Paetznik will take charge of his work here at once.

Warmest March In 100 Years

A year ago the U. S. Weather Bureau announced that March, 1945 was the warmest March known in Ohio for one hundred years or more.

That record has now been broken. The average temperature for March, 1946 at this station was 49.3 degrees or 12.2 degrees above normal. The average for March, 1945 was 48.6 degrees or 11 degrees above normal so March of this year was 1.3 degrees warmer. There were 18 days when the thermometer hit 60 or above, and 5 days when it rose above 70. The highest was 77 on the 28; the lowest 19 on the 10th.

Precipitation was comparatively light, amounting to 2.29 inches as against a normal of 3.08 inches. Snowfall measured only three-tenths of an inch for the month.

Sunshine was abundant with 14 clear days, 10 partly cloudy and only 7 cloudy. The only real high wind was on the night of the 6th.

At the end of the month fruit trees were budding out and the wheat fields and pastures were looking greener. It was an ideal month for Spring plowing and outside work.

The only fly in the ointment is the possibility of killing frosts. A heavy frost occurred on the morning of the 31st, but it is too early to say whether it damaged the buds.—J. A. R.

FARMERS MAY STRIKE MAY 1

GROUP IN SESSION AT MONROEVILLE ASKS SAME DEMANDS OF LICKING FARMERS.

Farmers of Huron county have agreed to follow the precedent set by the Licking county farmers to "strike" May 1, unless their demands are met. This action took place Tuesday evening in the town hall at Monroeville where more than one hundred and fifty farmers gathered to voice their opinions. The meeting was sponsored by the Ohio Marketing Quota Protection Association of Huron County. Present were: W. W. Haven, vice chairman, presiding. The original date of April 1st had been set to start the withholding of farm produce from the market, but it was revealed that what action the Congress was to take with the OPA request for extension.

The Licking county farmers who met Monday, asked that OPA be abolished, that farmers be allowed the cost of production, plus the same wages other labor receives, including time and one-half for all work over 40 hours a week, and double time for Sundays and holidays. Such a demand was made so that the farmer can compete in the labor market, it was revealed. They also demanded that the Department of Agriculture cooperate with "dirt" farmers in setting up fact-finding committees to determine needs. Stress was laid on "dirt" farmers. They asked that "dirt" farmers sit in on conferences aimed at settling disputes between labor and management without stoppage of production of vital products.

The Huron county group passed a similar resolution and with other counties following the "dirt farm strike" may be expected.

H. H. Fackler, state chairman of the Ohio Marketing Quota Protection Association, was present as well as a number of local farmers and business men.

The Man Who Came to Dinner

Next Tuesday and Wednesday, April 9-10 at the Plymouth Theatre, the Junior Class of Plymouth High School is sponsoring the picture "Mildred Pierce," starring Joan Crawford. Miss Crawford won the Academy Award for her performance in this picture. Co-starring with Joan Crawford is Jack Carson. Other members of the cast are Eve Arden, Ann Blyth, George Tobias and John Compton. The Screen Award of this picture is based on the novel by James M. Cain.

Many critics say that the screen play is top-drawer, the characterizations are superb, and the picture as a whole is one of the finest of this or any other season. The James M. Cain novel is a deeply moving story, magnificently wrought, and everyone who has had anything to do with its transformation into a motion picture should be proud that he added his part to what undoubtedly will be a tremendous success.

Tickets can be obtained for this show from any member of the Junior Class and your cooperation will be appreciated very much. "What did MILDRED PIERCE DO?" COME! And the question shall be answered.

TOP REACHED IN 'R. C.' CAMPAIGN

Both the village of Plymouth and Plymouth township have not only reached their respective goals in the Red Cross drive, but have topped it by a considerable sum.

In the township, Mrs. Ira Ross was chairman, and their goal was $180.00. A total of $233.46 has been turned in to date and credit for this good showing goes to Mrs. Ross as chairman, Mrs. H. Dawson, Mrs. Victor Stine, Mrs. Rollo Dick, Mrs. Virgil Baird and Mrs. Roscoe Hutchinson.

In the village to date, $740.36 has been handed in to Mrs. Mabel McFadden, chairman, with several reports yet to come in. It is estimated that between $850 to $900 may be reached when all reports and contributions are in. Assisting Mrs. McFadden in the drive were Don Emsel, Mrs. E. B. Miller, Mrs. S. C. Brown, Mrs. Dave Scaffield, Mrs. Chak Look-augh, Miss Elizabeth Weber, Mrs. D. K. McGinty, James Root, and P. I. Van Brunt.

JAYCEES PLAN TO ORGANIZE

On Monday evening, April 1st, a meeting was held at Fellers Radio Electric Shop to discuss the possibilities of having a Junior Chamber at Commerce in Plymouth.

A delegation from the Shelby Junior Chamber of Commerce headed by Herb Goltz, the president of that city's Jaycee organization was present. Mr. Goltz explained to the group of Plymouth young men present at the first meeting the functions of the Jaycee.

Your Junior Chamber of Commerce is a civic organization for all young men between the ages of 21 and 35 inclusive. It is dedicated to two purposes: 1. Improvement and development of the community. 2. Improvement and development of its individual members to train them for business advancement and civic leadership.

Mr. Goltz explained that no matter how large or how small the community may be there is always a need for a Junior Chamber of Commerce. It has been tried and proven in other towns in the United States and the Jaycees have turned out to be a very reliable asset to the community in which they live.

Mr. Goltz and his committee have been successful in organizing Jaycees in Mt. Gilead, Crestline and Bucyrus.

There is a great need for an organization of this kind here in Plymouth. The town is large enough to support and benefit by it. There has been talk in Plymouth for some time that a wide awake civic organization should function in this town for young men.

Monday night the chance for that organization came when the delegates of the Shelby Jaycee came to Plymouth to assist in organizing a Junior Jaycee in this community.

Plymouth, there is your chance for all young fellows from 21 to 36 who always want something good for the town. We have assistance from the Shelby group and they need our support. Attend these meetings and discuss the worthwhile possibilities of such an organization. Herb Goltz will be back next Monday, April 8th. The meeting will start promptly at 8 p. m. at Fellers Radio Electric Shop on the Square. Be sure and attend this meeting and support a worthwhile cause.

What say fellows. Let's meet the Shelby delegates half way by attending this meeting. They have a 100 percent Junior Chamber of Commerce functioning in Shelby now and they are willing to help us have one just as good for our community. Come and bring a friend.

The firms listed above are advertising their closing hours to become effective next Thursday. Early Thursday morning shopping will be the rule from now on, or you may go to bed without your supper!

SENIOR PLAY FRIDAY NIGHT

John Montgomery, who produces plays, gets what he thinks is a brilliant idea to present a play where real people play parts of real people instead of having regular actors take the roles.

He has been hired as a telephone operator, Nellie Jordan, who also is practicing as an amateur kleptomaniac; a cowboy from Oklahoma, Dorsey who is notoriously dumb and badful; an English schoolmaster, Miss Prentiss, who is constantly wishing she were back in England; and with the smiling aid of a sour-faced director, DeLaska, attempts to rehearse a play written by his star authors, Janet Smith. The rehearsal is more or less successful until the whole group becomes involved in "Who Stole the Emerald" from a jewelry salesman next door.

Pendleton Penny, the dumb hotel detective goes on the trail of the missing jewel and trouble ensues both for him and for the people who are vainly trying to rehearse the play. Peg Rogers, a go-get-ten reporter, smelling a story on the theatrical activity, joins in the hunt for the jewel in time. There follows a general mix-up that does not get straightened out until...

Come and see who steals the Emerald, Friday evening, April 5th at the High School Auditorium.

MINIMUM WATER RATE INCREASED

The minimum water rate took a jump of $1.00, effective for the current quarter, which ends June 30, according to announcement made this week by the Board of Public Affairs.

At the regular monthly meeting held Monday night, president of the board, Harold Cashman, pointed out that with the increased cost of material and labor making a major portion of present operating revenue, it would be necessary to meet the increased costs by raising the minimum rate. No change was made in water rates beyond the minimum of 7,000 gallons, which, at the old rate, was $2.50, but with the new rate will be $3.50.

While the incoming revenue has been sufficient to operate the local water plant for the past four years, it must be remembered that very little work has been done upon the improvement of the plant. A screen has to be constructed for the aerator, two filters have to be renewed, and other improvements are necessary. Then, too, the cost of operating the water softener equipment has taken an increase also.

Vote Water Extension

Before the Board took under advisement the construction of an addition to the water main on Plymouth street. Before the work was started the war had intervened with the city council's session. The Board voted to go ahead with the extension which includes a distance of approximately 2400 feet from where the present main now ends to the corporation limits.

Work on this project will begin as soon as possible so that the construction of the line will include the laying of four inch cast iron pipe and two new fire hydrants. The estimated cost is set around $3,500.

It is estimated that a charge of $15.00 will be made when the department is requested to make a "tap" on a water line. It was brought up at the meeting Monday night that the absorption of a tap average of $15.00, and the Board feels that the water consumer should stand this expense as far as water service is concerned. The change is in line with those made by the water departments of Willard and other surrounding towns.

It is not the intentions of the Board to make a charge of this service, but if the patrons desire good fire protection, and safe water, additional revenue must be made available for the current year at least.

NEED WORKERS AT SCOUT HUT

A call for volunteer workers is being sent out for help on the Scout Hut at the Mary Fete Park. The committee in charge of construction, expects to lay the floor this afternoon and evening, and will appreciate if any of the men in town who do not work this afternoon, will come down and help on this project.

The men who have completed, but there remains much to be done on the finishing touches, and if you can donate an hour or so, it means finishing the job much more quickly.

So, this afternoon or evening, work on the floor will be in progress. Come and help!

RETURNING THURSDAY of last week from a ten thousand mile auto trip to the West Coast, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Steele and two daughters, Mrs. Geraldine Foss, and Sandy Steele, report a very enjoyable and scenic trip, which they began last December 6. The party motored out to San Francisco, going through St. Louis, Oklahoma City, and toured the southern route back home.

It was a real pleasure for the Plymouth party to call on Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Myers, former Plymouth residents, who are now making their home in Tucson, Ariz. Here they found Mr. and Mrs. Myers enjoying all the climate Arizona offers, plus a healthy appearance. Archie told me that Jake is having a little trouble in Tucson, a "trouble" that means that Jake thought he was in the wide open spaces of the great west, but one day he discovered he had overstepped the law while driving through the city streets of Tucson.

IT WAS when the long, horrid shrill tone of a siren caught his ears that Jake looked around and saw a patrolman pull up beside him. Myers couldn't recall anything about the incident, but would make a policeman blow his horn so long. As the officer walked up to Myers, he asked him if he had his driver's license, and of course Jake didn't have one. He had, and he chewed his tobacco a little faster, when he found that he really didn't have his license. Well, to make a long story short, after writing a "trouble" about five minutes, the officer handed Jake a slip of paper, which must have contained all the laws of the universe, and on it, Jake found he had been charged with driving without a license, and crashing a red light, but the officer cautioned him that "this is just a warning, due to the fact you are not a resident." So, Jake, released, he went home to add a number behind your address of The Advertiser.

HERE'S ONE for Judge Luther Van Hook. "Are you the judge of reprobrates?" asked the lady. "I am the judge of probate," was the answer. "Well, that's what I want, I guess. You see my husband died, and he left several little infidels, and I want to be their executioner!"

MOTHERS! Watch your talk. "Mamma, I've got a stomach-ache," said little D. J. S. six years old. "That's because your 'tummy' is empty. You would feel better if you ate something in it." That afternoon the pastor called, and in the course of the conversation, remarked that he had a headache. "That's because it is empty," said the little six-year-old. "You'd feel better if you had something in it."

"SCHOOL FOR BRIDES" BOOKED
AT HANNA THEATER, CLEVELAND

Opens Monday, April 8, for a Week's Engagement

UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER TO SPRING FEVER . . . Dennis Klein, two, New York City, started out full of vim and vigor to break ground for his garden but the spring air and sunshine worked its magic. So what is a fellow to do but give in?

Helen Twelvrees (top left), Jack Sheehan and Alice Dowling head the brilliant cast of 25 in this rowdy farce comedy.

After a sensational New York run of over two years, "School for Brides," the hilarious farce comedy by Frank Gill, Jr. and George Carlton Brown, will play a week's engagement at the Hanna Theater, Cleveland, starting Monday, April 8, with Jack Sheehan and Helen Twelvrees in the featured roles. Frank McCoy, who is presenting the long-run laugh success is also featuring one of the loveliest array of Hollywood pin-up starlets ever assembled. They are students in the school, which aim to teach the young brides the "way with a husband."

Centering around the situation created when a promoter opens a "School for Brides" and places the models from his defunct Model Agency in the school as proxy students, to trim prospective bridegrooms, the play moves through merry merry complications. A much married millionaire (Tommy Manville type) is inveigled into endowing the school with the idea in mind that maybe he can find a new bride who will love him for himself and not just run off to Reno with a portion of his wealth. He acts as one of the Faculty, so that he may choose the most promising of the student body, for his next and eighth wife. Then the Dean of Women gets ideas, the promoter's wife appears to take the course, and the phony students rebel.

Jack Sheehan, well known in both pictures and the Broadway stage, plays the eccentric millionaire and makes him both sympathetic and amusing. Helen Twelvrees, known for her many Hollywood successes, plays the Dean of Women. Others in the large cast include 12 Hollywood pin-up starlets on their first legitimate road tour.

All seats reserved for popular prices with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday. Night performance will start at 8:30. Matinees will begin at 2:30.

SOCIALIZED MEDICINE TEST

THE people of Great Britain are about to make socialized medicine the law of the land. They will have completely free doctor service, dental service and hospital service. That is, it will be completely free after they have paid heavy taxes to support the program.

The British measure is similar in many respects to the socialized medicine bill which will soon be discussed in our congress.

In the United States the subject is a highly debatable one. There are many people who favor such a plan while others, including the medical profession itself, think it would be disastrous.

But now that the British are adopting this program, we have an opportunity to learn the truth. Will it mean poorer medical service or better?

TOO MANY SCRAPS

IT HAS been said that five million hungry families in other parts of the world could live on the scraps from American tables.

The question is: How are we going to get those scraps to them?

When we scrape the plates to feed the dog, or reluctantly throw good food into the garbage, we may feel a sense of guilt over throwing away food when there is such a great need for it all over the world. Yet there seems to be nothing to do about it.

It is true that we can't gather up our leftovers and ship them abroad. But we can contribute to starving humanity by seeing to it that we don't have so many scraps—that we buy less food so there will be less left over. If each housewife in our country would make it a habit to buy only enough food to satisfy the minimum requirements of her family, instead of over-buying to meet their maximum appetite, the amount saved would be enormous.

HAPPINESS LIES IN SIMPLE THINGS

HENRY THOREAU of New England believed that happiness came from simplifying one's life instead of making it more complex. This was in the day when this country was just waking up to the riches that might be obtained in this expanding land. Thoreau meant what he said, so he got an axe and built himself a cabin in the woods. Completed, it was about the size of the average living room. He did all the work himself: put in the windows, built the fireplace, placed the shingles. He kept a journal of his expenses which amounted to less than thirty dollars. Then he tested his theory! Lived alone, did all his own work—both housework and labor. But it gave him time for life's things: he made friends with the birds and the animals. He had an extraordinary power over them. He could tame a fish by feeding it, then he would scoop his hand and bring it out of the water. He built a log cabin in the wildwood. Cost: $28. He found his food in his garden, forest and fields, spending for food only 25 cents a week!

One day he went to the village to have his shoes repaired. The marshal came up, and to Thoreau's astonishment, told him he was under arrest.

"Why do you arrest me? I do no harm to any one."

"For not paying your poll-tax. We have a law on that."

Thoreau was arrested and clapped into jail—this friend of the wild creatures of the woods. Outraged by this act, he pondered the question of how much authority a government, or a nation, should have over its people, and finally wrote an inspired essay on "Civil Disobedience." Time passed . . . that essay fell into the hands of a young lawyer in Durban, South Africa. Eventually it affected the entire British empire, for that young lawyer was Mahatma Gandhi who has been struggling for his country many years.

we give you a written

Future Delivery Agreement

TO control the distribution of our gas appliances, The Gas Company has devised this simple but what we think is a foolproof plan for your protection. Our FUTURE DELIVERY AGREEMENT is designed to eliminate misunderstandings, unfairness and confusion. At the time of purchase, a substantial down payment is required for all future deliveries. If the gas appliance is not available at the time of purchase, your request will be placed in numerical order and will be delivered in your turn.

WE are receiving greater allotments of Tappan Gas Ranges, Servel Gas Refrigerators and other gas equipment—but until "there's enough to go 'round", we believe you will appreciate the fairness of The Gas Company's FUTURE DELIVERY AGREEMENT.

Should OPA Be Extended

That's what millions of Americans are thinking about today. That's what your Congressman would like to know... it's a question you find hard to answer yourself.

However, Congress must make a decision soon to either extend OPA or the chop off price controls. A round table radio discussion Sunday in which the Farm Bureau, the A. F. of L. and the United States Chamber of Commerce, were represented, proved that there is as much argument for discontinuance of OPA as there is for its continuance. When the question arose: If OPA is continued for another year, would labor be willing to have its wages fixed, brought a decidedly strong NO from the A. F. of L. representative. The commentator asked this question: "If OPA is extended for a year, would insurance do well? It will not be continued on and on."

Today, more so than at any other time in American history, Americans are sitting on a powder keg which can blow our economic structure from the face of the earth. Studying the inflationary reaction from every angle, it simply means this, if price controls are continued for even one year, government will have to step in and control labor and wages, as well as take over industry and go into the manufacturing business. It means that we go entirely into communism or we take a chance on the law of supply and demand and keep our democracy. One thing is certain; You cannot keep on building up demand and dwindling supply without creating a dangerous position in our economic structure.

Hon. Howard N. Buffett of Nebraska, a member of the House of Representatives says this about OPA:

OPA Has Powerful Propaganda Machine

Obviously, a propaganda machine fueled by OPA's $150,000,000 appropriation is well financed. With gigantic tax funds, plus effective use of the radio, the administration has propaganda weapons to mold most people's opinions on inflation and prices. These weapons, like those of the late Nazi propaganda minister, Goebbels, would seem to be irresistible.

Accordingly, getting the inflationary problem fairly before the people may become almost impossible. If that administration, to protect its political power, determines to mislead the people, it may do so successfully.

So the road back to economic freedom in America may be very difficult. Besides the propaganda blitzkrieg, other devices are being used to fool the people on price control. Examples are the peace-keeping industry on coffee, the citrus fruit frame-up, and the hamstringing of the building industry by OPA.

OPA Provides Cunning People

However, this kind of talk in high places is not fooling the rich and well-informed. The burden of such deception falls on the naive people who place full faith in official utterances.

Shrewd people have long been buying jewels, land, houses, stocks, paintings, and other tangible property. Shortages are increasing this desire to trade currency for goods. But instead of permitting increased production to offset this demand, OPA creates new restrictions. These spread the decline in confidence in the future value of our money.

It is a ruinous increase in the cost of living to result? It can be avoided only if President Truman will plan: First, a balanced budget; second, instruct OPA that production of goods must be their paramount objective; and third, announce the end for the end of the OPA.

These three simple acts are immediate leadership responsibilities. Only these actions promptly can prevent a smash-up in recession.

If these three steps are not taken promptly, disaster is ahead—and not too distant. Who says so? The history books.

History of Price-Fixing is a Record of Disaster

First Money Inflation in France, by Andrew Dickson White, details a French price-fixing experiment that our OPA has paralleled to date. It ended in hunger and misery, and before it was over the streets ran red with the blood of the common people. For Nazi Germany Has Controlled Business, issued by the Brookings Institute, details price control under Hitler. That report outlines Nazi price-fixing policies. OPA today is its almost exact duplicate.

The causes of inflation in America go back many years. But the battle against inflation thus far has been a constant retreat. Why? Because there is little understanding of this economic disease.

What Causes Inflation?

The truth about inflation and the high cost of living is not so easy to understand as propaganda slogans. But the truth will be a more digestible and helpful diet for the American people. What causes inflation?

The OPA says that high prices bring inflation. Let us measure that against the testimony of the top administration man on money and prices, Mariner Eccles.

In official hearings, Mr. Eccles, Chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, testified:

Inflation comes from appropriations of congressional or legislative bodies in excess of their willingness to impose taxes to pay for the expenditures.

Compare that statement of what causes inflation with the OPA's claim. Either Eccles of the OPA is deceiving us.

Stated more simply, Mr. Eccles declares that when the Government spends more than it collects in taxes it is inflating. So inflation begins with deficit spending. We will not remedy this situation until this fact is generally understood.

Deficit spending is the cause of inflation and high prices are the consequence.

What does a parent do with a child who gets the stomach ache from eating green apples? Obviously the vital move is to stop the child from eating green apples. Similarly, to stop inflation, first deficit spending must be stopped.

The administration must balance the Budget. Can the OPA Stop Price Rises?

Millions of humble citizens have been led by propaganda to believe that the OPA can stop price rises. What are the facts?

The OPA did a necessary job of wartime price control. The OPA was used to prevent sharp price rises resulting from short production of civilian goods. The war is over. Now shortages can exist only if the OPA causes them by shackling production.

There is no shortage in America of productive capacity. OPA is Now Operating as a Narcotic. The OPA does not stop price risers because the OPA does not combat the cause of price rises: inflationary deficit spending. The OPA now operates as a narcotic. A drug which conceals pain or other symptoms can deceive an ill person, and such a delusion may be fatal.

Face the danger that the OPA may now similarly mislead us. Deficit-financing goes unnoticed by the same groups that want the OPA continued. Thus the OPA already is fooling those people into believing price controls can evade the natural law of supply and demand.

The OPA now has a further evil effect. A drug often stops neural healing processes. Now the OPA is preventing natural economic healing processes from keeping prices down.

For example, ordinarily a scarcity of bricks results in a higher price for bricks. That in turn causes many factories to step up production and also slows down demand. Both the increased supply makes a market surplus and this condition brings prices down again.

The OPA prevented that natural remedy from expanding brick output for 8 months in 1945. As a direct result, thousands of homes for veterans were delayed many months. Finally OPA adjusted the price for bricks. Labor wages were raised, and with adequate labor the brick output is increasingly sharply.

Can Price Fixing Stop Higher Prices?

What is ahead if the Government continues to create billions of dollars of excess purchasing power, and tries to hide this evil by price-fixing?

We then face one of two alternatives.

One alternative is much higher prices. In either case the frugal, thrifty, and trusting citizens will be systematically and ruthlessly cheated by their Government.

The buying power of their savings, now in war bonds, insurance, and other dollar obligations will become smaller and smaller. During inflation, those who have invested their savings in forms of cash, present or future, have a uniform fate. They all get poor. That happened in Germany and elsewhere.

Already price rises from diluting our money is bringing distress to the humble people and workers generally. It is rewarding the cold-blooded, cunning and heartless. It is destroying honesty among all citizens by frequently requiring black-market deals to get necessities of life.

As individual economic distress becomes acute, serious social disorders are probable.

The President and Congress have been warned about this danger many times. But even President Truman does not seem to comprehend that the root evil is the deficit spending, and not the high prices that must result from more dollars than goods.

Is An American Gestapo Ahead? The American people have not been told about the other alternative of continued deficit spending. It is ruthless regimentation.

Price fixing is crippling production. As plants lose money and close down, goods disappear from the market place. Then a ruthless gestapo is set up to cope with the shortage scramble to get food, clothing, and shelter. Witness the effect of the closing already of over 500 butter-making plants.

The Nazi controlled inflation by using a gestapo. Already the OPA is copying the mild early methods of the Nazi. Ruthless gestapo methods will come later, unless OPA is soon eliminated.

Laboring People are Chief Victims

Always the crushing blow of price control falls hardest on the working people and the white-collar classes. That is why the humble people of America are so disturbed today.

The fixed incomes and small earnings of teachers, public employees, and pensioners cannot stand large price rises. Will the frugal financial independence of the great middle classes of America be broken and destroyed? Undoubtedly the communistic elements in the OPA gleefully anticipate such a catastrophe. But I am likewise sure the patriotic Americans within the Administration do not want this tragedy to happen.

President Truman and the OPA can tell the people the truth—that deficit spending causes price rises by creating purchasing power in excess of production. They can also tell the people that price fixing slows down production and creates the shortages that make prices go up. Only a balanced budget, plus a Government policy that encourages full production, will keep prices down. In this direction is found the only genuine solution for the high cost of living.

Extending the OPA without such action puts us in the position of the opium smoker who knows that the habit will destroy him, but who lacks the courage to face the distress resulting from breaking the habit.

Extending the OPA without balancing the Budget and encouraging full production will make black marketeering, bootlegging, and thievery necessary for survival. It will destroy the fundamental morality upon which our Christian civilization is based. How? By crippling production, OPA will make it legally impossible the satisfaction of human needs for food, clothing, and housing. But these needs must be met. Americans will satisfy them by transactions outside the law. Our current experiences with black markets, to say nothing of the prohibition era, have demonstrated that Americans know no law when their needs or appetites are thwarted by arbitrary governmental decrees.

Should the OPA be extended? Only if these three conditions are met: First, if Congress secures assurance of President Truman of genuine cooperation in balancing the Budget; second, if Congress can get adequate assurance that the pledge Mr. Bowles made, et Hartford June 15, 1945, will no longer be simply campaign oratory for the OPA. That pledge declared "that OPA pricing policy shall not stand in the way of all-out production of civilian goods and services which is the only final answer to tremendous inflationary pressures now threatening our economy." And, third, of the extension provides for its elimination by a definite date.

Should Congress now fail to inist on the restoration of free production and free markets quickly, it will mean that this generation has given up for a mess of temporary pottage the American birthright of liberty, justice, and opportunity.

Attend Ohio Day Festival in Cleveland

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spirk, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Forsythe, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wolford, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Eley, Mrs. Donald Hudson and son Donald, and Ruth Bell and Charlotte and Deane Seaton were Shiloh residents who attended the Ohio Day Festival held at the Cleveland Public Auditorium, Saturday, March 30th, as a part of the Music Educators National Conference.

The program included: the National Anthem, The Royal Fireworks Music, Choral from Cantata 147, Caribbean Fantasy, and March "Hands Across the Border."

The 500 piece festival band, under the direction of Mr. J. J. Cagner, Canadian Broadcasting Company, Montreal, Canada, played numbers by Hauffrecht, C. Busch, Boccherini, Cadman, Tchaikovsky, Grieg, and Mozart. Two of our musicians, Mr. and Mrs. Wolford, clarinet, and Darryl Hudson, flute, were members of this band.

The 250 piece festival string orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Guy Fraser Harrison, Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra, Rochester, New York, played numbers of Victoria, Archaic, Alan Murray, Lyn Murray, and Lambert-Wilhouky.

The 1750 voice Festival chorus, under the direction of Mr. Peter J. Wilhouky, as director of music education, New York Public Schools, sang "The Netherlands Hymn" to close the program.

The noted orchestra leader, composer, and conductor, Fred Waring, was present at this program and gave a short talk Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Eley heard Phil Spitz and his all girl orchestra. The program started at 8:30 and included his regular weekly broadcast of "The Hour of Charm."

P. T. A. Discusses School Conditions

At the April 1st meeting of the Shiloh P. T. A. the business meeting was devoted to motions and discussions of a new school building for Shiloh.

To start the ball rolling Dr. C. O. Butner made the following motions: (1) That the school board be requested to investigate thoroughly the school building and either remodel the present one or build a new building; (2) That a special bond issue be made to cover the expense of an adequate building and playgrounds; (3) That there be an increase in the amount of money in the school budget to cover an increase in operating expense.

These motions were seconded by Mr. Frank Spirk and the motions were carried.

During his talk on our school conditions, Dr. Butner stated several facts, which cannot be denied nor overlooked. For example—a good school makes a community, that we all know. The school building should be the pride and joy of every citizen in a community. But look at the conditions under which our school is now being run; it is operating on a very close budget; it is very unhealthy; it has poor sanitation; the heating system is very inadequate; and, although the facts, which cannot be denied (we have an enrollment of 344 pupils this year) than it was ten years ago, still we have made no move to make more room for these pupils.

Junior Class Play Tomorrow Evening

The Junior Class of Shiloh High School will present the three-act comedy mystery, "The House of Strangers," Friday evening, April 5th. The cast is as follows:

Sandra Pemberton—who is thrilled by new adventures

Joan Guthrie—A girl of mystery Helen Whitehead—Winetta Bullitt—Wife of Tobias Adams—Isora Rhodes—June Winterbottom—A newlywed Mrs. Adams—Wayne Merritt—Interested in Sandra Charles Young—Nigel Wiseheart—A reporter whose name should have been Tobias—LaVaughn Oswald—Tobias Bullitt—Who is affected by a speech impediment

Ruth Winkler—A male newlywed Mrs. Reynolds—Abby Pierce—A prim old maid—Virginia Shepherd—Shug—A doubtful character—George Rinehart—Maria—Slightly demented—Bonnie Pennell—Paul Carson—A driver—Douglas Amstutz

Service Men's News Jack Reynolds gm 3/2 received his discharge from Great Lakes Monday. He returned home on Monday.

Jack entered the Navy on October 12, 1943. He graduated from gunnery school in Bainbridge, Maryland, on April 1, 1944. He was stationed aboard the LST 277 up until the end of 1945, when he was transferred to LST 904.

He is the holder of six battle stars for Saipan, Iwo Jima, Leyte, Lingaven Gulf and Nagsughi, Luzon, and Okinawa.

RED CROSS GOES OVER THE TOP

We are very happy to announce this week that Shiloh—in town and country—went Over the Top for this year's Red Cross drive.

Your chairman, Mrs. Rudy Rader and Mrs. Dewey Reynolds, gave us the figures today, and we would like to pass them on to you. The quota for the country was $180. Mrs. Rader reported a total of $206.07 received. A contribution of $10 which helped us go over, was given to Mrs. Rader by a former resident of Shiloh, who now lives in Cleveland.

The town's quota was set at $250, and Mrs. Reynolds reported that a total of $264 was received. We're sure that the Red Cross of America says, "Thanks a million" to every one of you who GAVE again this year. And Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. Rader would also like to thank their helpers:

Mrs. C. McQuate, Chester Bell, Eldon McQuate, Harmon Rothlisberger, E. J. Stevenson, Lena Reynolds, Pearl Wallace, S. Kirkland, Messrs. Darley Arnold, Boyd Hamman, Mrs. Lucy Downend, Mrs. Paul Kranz, Mrs. Frank Dawson, Mrs. Fred Dawson, and Mrs. Edwin McQuate. Their help and help during this drive was greatly appreciated by everyone.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. F. Leroy Black, Ashland, are announcing the engagement of Miss Alice Lucille Robinson to Mr. John Sherwood Gedney of Chicago, Ill. Miss Gedney graduated from Shiloh High School in the class of '41. She attended Ashland College and for the past eight months has served as a yeoman in the Hawaii Coast Guard.

Mr. Robinson returned from Hawaii where he is employed at Farsell Air Depot, Shelby.

Mr. Robinson attended Washington University, St. Louis, and has also recently returned from military service in Hawaii. He is an engineering inspector for the Chicago office of the Home Insurance Co.

The wedding will be an event of the coming summer.

NEW FIRE ENGINE

Shiloh, Cass and Blooming-grove township trustees met in joint session in the council chamber, Wednesday evening, March 27th, with Harry Sutphen of Columbus, who represented fire-fighting equipment.

The meeting was called to obtain information on a new modern, fully equipped fire engine to handle rural fire. At this meeting the most favorable method to purchase this truck was joint ownership. This would give protection to all fires in these townships and this village. The next joint meeting will be held Friday evening, April 5th, to decide on this matter of purchase.

ACHIEVEMENT DAY

There were seven women from our community who journeyed to Mansfield to the Achievement Day program. They were Mrs. Mary White, Mrs. Mary Brook, Mrs. Gladys Stanley, Mrs. Doris Herz, Mrs. Fanny McBride, Mrs. Fanny Seaman and Mrs. Wilma Reier.

Guest speaker for the day was Mr. Van Rogers, of the interior decorating department of the O'Neill Store in Akron. He gave a very interesting talk. A well-rounded program had been arranged and it proved a day well spent.

LEAVE FOR ARIZONA

Mr. and Mrs. I. L. McQuate and Mrs. Helen McQuate left for Phoenix, Arizona on Thursday morning. The McQuates expect to be gone a month, but Helen is making her home out there. Although Helen was a resident of this town only a short time, still she has made many friends. We know that all who know her wish her all the luck and happiness which she so richly deserves.

During Mr. and Mrs. McQuate's absence, Mr. and Mrs. Sharp of Wellington, will have charge of the funeral home.

GANGES CHURCH

The young people of the Ganges church will have charge of the Sunday School hour next Sunday. Let's plan to make it a big attendance for these young people, and show them that we really appreciate their interest.

AMBULANCE TRIPS

Mrs. Ella Wise from Shenandoah to Shelby Hospital Friday evening.

Mrs. Rich Craig from Shelby Hospital to home in Shiloh on Thursday afternoon.

HOME BUILDERS

The Home Builders will meet Tuesday, April 2nd at the home of Mrs. Wood Arnold. The associate hostess will be Mrs. Josephine Daup.

METHODIST W. S. C. S.

The Methodist W. S. C. S. will meet at the church, April 11th, for an day meeting. A potluck dinner will be served at noon. The hostesses for this meeting are Mrs. Elsie Barnes, Mrs. Fanny McBride and Mrs. Chester Bell.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Little Steve Patterson returned home from the Shelby Hospital, Saturday afternoon. Although Steve had a pretty tough time of it while last week, he is recovering very rapidly now that he is home, and he hopes to be out playing again soon.

VERY ILL

Mrs. Redick has been very ill at her home on Mechanic Street the past week. Sunday night her nephew, Dinnaud Anderson, took her to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Anderson of near O'Leary. Mrs. Anderson is a sister of Mrs. Redick.

GANGES LADIES AID

The regular monthly meeting of the Ganges Ladies Aid Society will be held at the church, on Thursday, April 4th. A covered dish dinner will be served at noon. The public is invited to attend.

NEW ARRIVALS

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Miller at Shelby Hospital Friday morning. She has been named Connie Joy.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Porter are the proud parents of a little girl, born Tuesday morning. She has been named Janice Marie.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mrs. Henry Zackman and Mrs. S. W. Zackman were in Shelby, Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Selby Cole. The occasion was a birthday dinner in honor of Mrs. Henry Zackman.

CONDITION SERIOUS

Sorrow came into the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lucas, on Tuesday. Premature twin boys were born to Mrs. Lucas Tuesday morning at the Shelby Hospital, and they lived only a few hours. Mrs. Lucas was taken to the hospital Monday afternoon, and her condition is still very serious.

LEGION DANCE

Don't forget the Legion Dance again this Thursday night. Attendance slacked a little bit last week, and we hope to see all of you back this week with a few more besides.

We're still interested to know what your opinion is on continuing these dances through the summer months. Won't you please contact one of the Legion members and give them your viewpoint on this subject.

Don't forget—Round and square dancing, Thursday evening, in the Legion Hall. Doris Gooding's orchestra, with "Purdy" doing the calling. See you then!

BETHANY CLASS MAKE COAT LAFELS FOR CHILDREN'S HOME

A number of little boys and girls at the Berea Children's Home will be made happier on Easter Morn because members of the Bethany Class devoted an evening to making of small Easter gifts. These gifts are yarn dolls of varied hues for coat hells, small felt cats, dogs and ponies in gay colors for lapel pins and handkerchiefs with initials embroidered.

This work was accomplished Tuesday evening when the group met at the home of Mrs. P. W. Thomas who had as her assistant Mrs. Ira Ross. The evening's devotions were in charge of Mrs. Earl McQuate who reviewed the life of Dorothy Thompson and the monthly project of the annual birthday gift was arranged by Mrs. Lawrence Ruff. A goodly sum was deposited in the birthday cake as each member read her horseshoe and for roll call gave her birthstone and flower. The Birthday song was sung and Mrs. Thomas whose birthday was an event of the month of April was presented a lovely cake.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses at the close of the evening.

"WHAT IS COMING" (Part I)

By Dalton F. McDougal
As I write of this subject—"What is Coming," I am thinking of the Book that Jesus Christ warned his followers to understand. "When ye shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (who heareth, let him understand.)" Matt. 24:15

In this Book of Daniel, God makes it known to Nebuchadnezzar, the King of Babylon, what would come to pass from his day to the end of the world. Daniel said to Nebuchadnezzar, "There is a God in heaven that reveals secrets, and makes known to the King Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days." Dan. 2:28.

What does Daniel say the King saw in his dream?
"Thou, O King, sawest, and beholdest a great image... This image's head was, fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass; his legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay. Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon the feet that were of iron and clay, and break them to pieces. Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver and the gold, broken to pieces together... and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth." Dan. 2:31-35.

What was meant by the head of gold?
"Thou, O King, art a king of kings... thou art this head of gold." Dan. 2:37-38.

This gives us positive evidence that the head of gold symbolizes the kingdom of Babylon, which was ruling the known world at this time the prophecy was given, about 603 B. C.

It is made very plain in Dan. 2:38-40, that the four metals—the gold, the silver, the brass, the iron—present four world powers that were to arise successively, with Babylon of Daniel's day as the first of the four. This metal figure of a man from his head to his toes, as interpreted from the last part of verse 38 to verse 44 inclusive, is a preview of the course of history from B. C. 605 to the end of time, condensed into two hundred and thirteen words. Part II will deal with the silver, brass, and iron of this metallic image of Daniel 2.

LEAVING ZANESFIELD

John H. Wicherson, former pastor of the local Presbyterian church, sends a note this week stating that he and his wife have sold out their business and are leaving Zanesfield, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Wicherson have been readers of the Advertiser for more than eight years and state they have enjoyed it from the first to the last edition.

Leaving Plymouth, Mr. and Mrs. Wicherson purchased a grocery in Zanesfield, and have returned here occasionally for a visit. Just what they plan to do in the future, the note did not state, but their many local friends wish them the best of success.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

Mrs. Ben Biteman who resides over the Crispin Store fell down the stairway early Tuesday morning and was taken to the Willard Hospital in the McQuate Ambulance for examination and treatment. She was returned home later in the day.

SIGNS OF A Christian Revival

By Rev. J. J. Adams

When George Washington was a small boy he went into his father's garden and saw his own name growing in a beautiful flower bed. He was filled with wonder; he could not understand it, but his father said, "I just wanted to teach you a lesson. There is always a cause for great wonders."

I prepared the garden soil and with a small stick I marked the letters of your name, and sowed the flower seed in those marks. God sent the dew, the rain and the sunshine and in time your name was growing in the flower bed. It is said the future statesman never forgot the lesson and always thought of God when he had mysteries to solve.

Many people can see the cause of things after they have taken place, but a closer observer can read the signs of the times and tell what will be the outcome.

One who has gone through many real Christian revivals knows that certain spiritual laws always govern the work and the result will be determined by how closely those laws were followed. John Wesley, the great preacher and evangelist said, "The world is my parish," and he was constantly leading lost folks to the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world," John 3:16.

It is an unfailing sign of such a revival when professed Christian people begin to see and feel that every unsaved one is on his way to the lost world and then do something about it. Some of these may be in his own home or among his close friends or neighbors. They are everywhere.

A real Christian revival is always very expensive, and the saints must pay the price. After a hard day of toil, some will spend the whole night in agonizing prayer over the lost ones. After many worries and well laid plans the pastor goes to rest at a very late hour and is suddenly awakened with a train of fresh, new plans, thoughts and bible texts, just sent to him from Heaven. He goes at once to his study and spends hours in prayer and recording this special delivery for future use, and thanks God for the rare privilege.

Misunderstandings, cold shoulder experience, bitterness after such things all come to light and are considered in the white light of the judgment. Church members who are quite worldly in their conduct, and are alarmed at any spiritual motions often begin to see that they have only been traitors, getting all the dust and dirt and carrying unnecessary burdens. Family altars are established and the family is not hurried out into the dangers of the day without first being freshly committed to the tender watchful care of the good God who loves them and thus far has protected them.

Christian children in school and their teachers who know the Lord begin talking to others about Jesus and his power to save us from sin. Church going folks begin to see the little things they can do about the church to give more influence to the revival.

Public offerings are voluntarily larger and the attendance steadily grows, while lost folks begin coming to the altar weeping and broken hearted over their sins, and really praying through until there is not only joy in Heaven over one saved soul, but pentecost Luke 15:10, but these are happy and the Christian folks rejoice. These are only a few of the signs of a Real Christian Revival.

Well this world belongs to God for he made it and redeemed it. Satan has no right to it; he has stolen it and yet he has a strong hold on many folks and he will not be shaken loose simply by good wishes and human resolutions. It requires the all-powerful God of the New Birth John 3:7 together with our full consent. Yes it is a real battle and the soldier of the Cross needs to be all out for Jesus.

Now if you really want your church to be victorious, your friends and loved ones to be saved from sins, the wicked places and devices of your community to be put out of commission and safer and better conditions for the boys and girls to live in, then this is your opportunity to put in your very best for you may be certain that Satan will use up all his hinds against the work of the Lord when people are really getting saved from sin and leaving him.

Remember it is one thing to stir Satan up but quite another thing to stay on the field of action when the battle is raging. Here is where you will need the whole armor of God. Eph. 6:11.

SHILOH SCHOOL NEWS

MUSIC

Pianos were given or sold at a very reasonable cost to the school by the following people: Mrs. Park Miller—Elyria; Mr. Koehenderfer—Shiloh; Mrs. Shafer—Shiloh.

This is a great help to the music in the grade school department, and is greatly appreciated by all.

Please bring back all music and instruments that belong to the school this is all needed if we wish to keep our music department functioning.

JUNIOR CLASS NEWS

Come on! Come all! This Friday night to the Shiloh Auditorium and see that mysterious play "The House of Strangers" presented by the Juniors. It is super! Even though Tobias is really a little tongue twister with his super-colored mile long word. And to top it all off, you'll want to see Dug Amstutz get knocked out cold in the first act. Or did some one say he's to get killed? My, Joan don't be so rough on him, after all you do have a nice handsome Romeo all during the play. Don't you think so Chad? This play with millions of thrills starts at 8:00 sharp, and the admission is only 30c for children and 50c for adults, so come and cheer your heroes! I hear they may need it.

ANNUALS

Say, now wouldn't you like to have one of these glamorous annuals the seniors are now selling. How many should you ask for when a picture of each one of the seniors and their ambitions, pictures of all the activities during the winter months, and oh, yes even pictures taken when different members of the school were not looking and none other than that wonderful helper, Mr. Koker fixing the locker door. You know he's a very handy man to have around. If you are down in the dumps look at Koker's smile and you will feel your best. So now rush an order to any member of the Senior class immediately for this Wonderful Annual you have been waiting for four years. The last annual printed from Shiloh High was in 1942. Of course, we don't have anything against that class. But we think our Annual is just tops. And just for the years you'll have loads of fun in the years to come. Won't your hubby be mad when you show him a picture of his sweet self in the first row of the second basketball squad looking very down in the dumps because you wouldn't have a date with him the night before. And boys we know you would just love to have a picture of Dot, Joan or Mary in their bathing suits up to the lake last summer.

DANCE

Hey, kids did you have a lot of fun Friday night? It was simply out of this world wasn't it? But it seems too bad that we have to have mothers to sponsor anything like that before we can have it. Gee, Mrs. Benedict, Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Rose you ladies were wonderful to help us out Friday night. And we hear Mr. Koker got out of the dog house. More dances would make our school look a little more like other schools instead of just a place to get an education after school hours. Don't you agree mother's and father's?

SNOOPER

Where were Betty Mock, Max Donna Mae and Jim Ryan during intermission at the dance Thursday night, oh, you kids!

Does Teet find Garret's cat truck interesting? That's all better, you guess the rest. Betty thinks she's some sweet talk to make daddy give in and let her go with her red-head.

Mary certainly thinks the state of Ohio made some mistakes in putting some of those red-heads in the reformatory. Oh, well, boys, will be boys, Mary. Even boys, will be boys, even if they are red-heads that can't control their temper!

What was the matter with some of the Junior and Senior boys Friday night? Not to speak of Neal and Bill Forquer, was everybody happy?

Bonnie thinks the nickname "Goddie" is simply sweet, and on such short acquaintance, pity.

Those Juniors are really kicking themselves out over their class play and I've also heard Virginia Shepherd was knocking herself out period Friday night, let's see what time was it, Ginnie? My watch stopped.

"FACES IN PLACES"

Dug yelling his head off Friday night, none of his affairs tho, really.

Marilyn's face looking sort of pale Friday night.

Leatrice face really burning up over those smooches going on over those smooches after pulling April-fool gags on everyone!

Joan's face Monday morning, sputtering wasn't the word.

Dot's face smiling at Bobby while he eats up picture books! Dot, Joan and Mary feuding Monday morning after the night before. My Mary when will you learn. Says Joan.

DREAMS

Dick Clark dreaming of Virginia.

Donna Mae dreaming of being head Drum Major.

Doris dreaming of peace if Donna would quit hammering the piano.

Hodie dreaming of plowing and the life of a farm. Oh, sweet.

Ruth dreaming of 18 months from now. You know Bob just hit Camp Atterbury for training.

Virginia dreaming of the guy she was with Friday night, but oh, what is his name.

Betty dreaming of the first of July, they tell me that is when part of the Navy is going to be discharged. Of course the best part.

THE BITTER FRUITS OF JEALOUSY
Jealousy is deadly, yet it is condoned. Elsie Robinson, writing in The American Weekly with this Sunday's (April 7) issue of The Detroit Sunday Times tells how two useful lives were snuffed out when the lovely wife of a physician shot up an imaginary "eternal triangle." Get Sunday's Detroit Times.

Scene from "Life with Father," America's all-time comedy hit, now in its seventh year on Broadway. Pictured here are Wallis Clark and Lily Cahill, currently starring.

"WHERE ARE THIS MONTH'S BILLS?"

"Speaking of money," Father thundered, "where are this month's bills?"

"Clare," Vinnie pleaded, "it isn't fair to go over the household accounts while you're hungry!"

POOR VINNIE! Was ever any wife so stormed at? How Father raged over the bills she ran up! But our guess is that if fashionable, lovable Clare and Vinnie were keeping house today, one "bill" wouldn't bother him. That's the electric bill.

For Father was a thrifty man. "Vinnie," he used to roar, "this is a matter of dollars and cents, and that's something you don't know anything about." But he knew about it. And he would have appreciated the fact that while the prices of most things went way up in war years, the average price of electricity actually came down. Plus the fact that the average family gets twice as much electric service for its money today as it did twenty years ago.

Being a practical man, Father would have realized the reason why. As he used to shout at Vinnie, "You know I like to live well, and I want my money to live well. But this house must be run on a business basis."

And that's exactly how your electric light and power companies are run. On a business basis. Almost certainly, America's Favorite Stage Character would have applauded America's business-managed, self-supporting electric companies.

Production line

Fork customers are getting choosy again. Concentrate on quality and low cost of production.

That puts Dr. Hess Hog Special right in the spotlight. The hogs getting Hog Special on the Research Farm finish out as much as a third less supplement and a tenth less grain.

Give Hog Special to your sows, then your sows and pigs, then to the shots from weaning time to marketing time. That's our advice for more economical pork production.

Rites Held

Funeral services were held on Sunday at 2 p. m. for Mrs. Nora Barnett, 27, who died in Municipal hospital Thursday. Rites were held at the Church of God at Guinea Corners, three miles east of Willard, with Rev. Edward Elliott officiating. Burial was made in the New Haven cemetery.

Mrs. Barnett is survived by her husband, Boyd; four children, Mildred, Marjorie, Jean and Floyd all at home, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Barnett and three sisters and one brother.

She was born in Kentucky but had lived in Willard and vicinity for twenty-five years.
