OBITUARY

MINA LATIMER HUNTER

Mina Latimer Hunter was born in Greenwich Township, Huron County on November 24, 1891, the daughter of Norris J. and Beale Jinks Latimer. She departed this life November 27, 1947 at the age of 56 years and 3 days. On December 21, 1912, she was united in marriage to Irwin Hunter. To this union were born two children, Mrs. Arlene Swartz of near Shiloh and Wayne Hunter of Shenandoah.

Surviving besides the husband and children are six grandchildren and four sisters: Mrs. Esther Williams of New London, Miss Gertrude Latimer, Mrs. Jay Laster and Mrs. Chester VanScyoc of near Shiloh. She also leaves a number of nieces and nephews and a host of friends.

She was a former member of Rome Presbyterian Church and later transferred her membership to Shiloh Methodist church of which she was an active member. She will always be remembered as a loving wife, mother and grandmother. We loved her, yes we loved her, but angels loved her more; And they have sweetly called her To yonder shining shore.

The golden gates were open
A gentle voice said "Come,"
And with farewell unspoken,
She calmly entered home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Coleman and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson of Findlay spent Thanksgiving Day at the Russell Moser home.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Anderson of Findlay were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ruckman on Thanksgiving Day.

WHAT IS AN EXTENSION TELEPHONE?

An extension telephone is an extra telephone instrument attached to your present line. It can be placed anywhere in your house or place of business.

Since telephone instruments are again plentiful, we are happy to announce that EXTENSION TELEPHONE SERVICE IS AGAIN AVAILABLE.

Extension service will not delay new service for anyone on our waiting list. The only new equipment required is this extra telephone instrument. Thus the use of plentiful telephone instruments in no way interferes with our expansion program, which calls for installation of other equipment still scarce.

Ma Hoskins Sneezed at Cats!

Ma Hoskins couldn't understand why she got a fit of sneezing every time Harpo, the cat, came in the room. Finally figured she'd have to get rid of Harpo altogether. Then Doc Hollister explained she had an "allergy." Cat's fur made her sneeze like strawberries give some folks rash. He gave her an inoculation so she and Harpo would live peacefully together. I guess a lot of us have "allergies" in the social sense. Some folks just can't stand music, or radio comedians. Other folks don't go for

Beautiful Ceremony Unites in Marriage Lois Jeannette Chapman to Gene E. Buchanan Sunday

The New Haven Methodist Church was the scene of the pretty wedding of Miss Lois Jeannette Chapman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Chapman of New Haven, and Gene E. Buchanan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Buchanan of Siam, Sunday, November 30th at 3:30 p. m. Open church was observed.

The couple exchanged vows in a double ring ceremony read by the Rev. Keller. Two large beauty baskets of white chrysanthemums and lighted tapers in candelabra were placed at the altar, while white ribbon bows and daisies marked the pews for the immediate families and relatives.

Preceding the ceremony, a program of nuptial music was played by Mrs. Marie Guthrie of Plymouth, including, "O Promise Me," "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer," sung by Miss Maryalice Weller of Plymouth.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a beautiful gown of heavy white satin with a net yoke edged with white lace. It had leg-of-mutton sleeves ending in points over her wrists, and a full skirt which swept into a long train edged with double rows of white lace. A crown of white feathers held her fingertip veil. The bride completed her outfit with an heirloom necklace belonging to her great grandmother, and blue sapphire earrings, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a white Bible topped with white carnations falling in a cascade over the Bible. White streamers fell from the arrangement.

Miss Patricia Buchanan, sister of the bridegroom, served as maid of honor. She wore an aqua taffeta dress with matching feathers in her hair, and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow carnations.

The bridesmaids, Miss Margaret Bradford and Arline Ford, of Plymouth wore deep rose taffeta and deep gold taffeta, respectively, with matching feathers in their hair, and carried colonial bouquets of pink and rose carnations. All attendants wore single strands of pearls, gifts of the bride.

Little Miss Marilyn Sue Rosenberry and Sandra Kay Chapman, nieces of the bride, served as flower girls and were attired in white taffeta in similar style to the brides gown. They carried small baskets of rose petals. They wore little gold lockets, gifts of the bride.

Mrs. Chapman chose for her daughter's wedding, a royal blue crepe dress with black accessories and wore a corsage of red carnations. Mrs. Buchanan wore a black crepe dress with black accessories and a corsage of red carnations.

Ushers were Bob and Marvin Gray, of Attica, cousins of the bridegroom. Serving as best man was Morris Buchanan, brother of the groom.

Following the service a reception was held in the Auditorium for two hundred and forty guests. The table was decorated with triple candelabra and a four tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. Presiding at the serving table, Mrs. Richard Fackler and Miss Evelyn Buckett, of Plymouth, poured for the guests.

For traveling the bride wore a blue and white checked nylon two-piece dress, with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Upon their return from a short wedding trip, they will reside at Attica.

The bride was graduated from the New Haven High School and is employed at the Fate-Roth-Heath Company in Plymouth. Mr. Buchanan attended Attica school and served in the Army for two years. He is now employed in Clyde, Ohio.

MARRIED IN PLYMOUTH

Mr. Lloyd B. Noble of Shelby is announcing the marriage of his daughter, Miss Dora E. Noble, to Lt. Stanley S. Schreffler, son of Mr. Sumner A. Schreffler of Harrisburg, Pa.

The double ring ceremony which united the couple took place Nov. 26 at 3:30 p. m. before the altar of the Lutheran Church in Plymouth with Rev. M. P. Paetznick officiating. The bride wore a light blue street length dress with brown accessories and a corsage of Talsman roses.

Her attendant, Miss Pauline Wilson, wore a blue street length dress with brown accessories and a red rose bud corsage. Mr. Lyric Hagger of Ashtabula was best man.

The couple is at home at 734 West Smiley Ave., Shelby.

ENTERTAINS WITH SHOWER FOR COUPLE TO BE WED DEC. 24th

Miss Patricia Ford entertained with a miscellaneous shower Saturday evening at her home on West Main Street, Shelby, in honor of Miss Barbara Paine and Mr. James Griffith who will be married December 24th.

Both young ladies are granddaughters of Mrs. B. S. Ford, formerly of Plymouth.

Games and contests were the diversions of the evening after which refreshments were served. Those present were Miss Juanita Downs and Raymond Downs of Ontario, William Daugherty of Mansfield, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Griffith of Crestline, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Griffith of near Shelby, the honored guests and the hosts.

The couple received many lovely gifts.

SURPRISED ON BIRTHDAY

RADIO! No condensation, news, symphonies, dance bands, no "fear of Chans," no radio—without electricity.

X-RAY! The X-ray itself is actually a special kind of electricity—and that's no risk!

TROLLEY CARS! Horses pulled 'em once, but electric horsepower does a faster, better job.

How many of these need electricity?

You're right. All these—and many other good things of modern life. That's one reason why, in a recent Gallup poll, Americans named electricity as the most important invention of all time.

Another reason: good electric service is available to almost everybody, at low cost.
