HARD TIMES PARTY
Tuesday, April 1st, the F. H. A. Girls will have a hard times party in the Home Economics Room. The time is from 8:00 to 10:30 and the girls are all warned that it is April Fool's Day. The food will all be eaten from a sack and there be coke to sell so come on and join the fun, all F. H. A. girls.

NO SCHOOL ON FRIDAY
On Good Friday there will be no school. It was previously planned to have from Friday until Tuesday off but due to all the time missed it was decided to have just all day Friday as Easter vacation. The Churches have planned a service from 1 until 2 and all students are urged to attend. There will be school on Monday, April 7th.

INTERVIEW
This week's special "teacher" is Mrs. Virginia Lindsey. She is a graduate of Kent State University and has a B. S. Degree. Before coming to Plymouth she taught at Leroy, Ohio and Columbus, Georgia. Among her many duties she is the advisor for the F. H. A. and has other various jobs around the school. At the present time she and the Home Ec Classes have undertaken the task of remodeling the furniture for the stage setting and a couch for the Home Ec Room. This year she has changed the Home Ec Room around and has gotten a new refrigerator and plans to have new draperies soon.

She likes teaching in Plymouth High School and likes the town very much. She says she feels that a cafeteria would make a big improvement in the school and would give the girls a chance to have a noon program to learn the various techniques of cafeteria cooking. Another improvement would be an organized Girls Gym Class.

Mrs. Lindsey is married and has a son, Larry. She lives on Plymouth Street and her telephone number is 1112.

HOME TO STAY
Jim Moore, one of the members of the class of 1945, is home to stay now and his friends down at the high school are certainly glad to see him. Jim has been serving in the U. S. Army overseas.

TWO NEW TYPEWRITERS
The school was very lucky when they got two new typewriters for the Commercial Department.

New typewriters have been very hard to find. These have been on order for some time. The Commercial Department is one of the least talked about and one of the important departments in the school.

NO SCHOOL
Last Tuesday's snowstorm was the reason for the closing of school Tuesday and Wednesday. Maybe now that Spring is on the way, school sessions will be more regular. There are only eight more weeks of school and assignments and class discussions will be increased. Between now and May in order to cover all the required materials.

STATE TESTS
Wednesday and Thursday will be the days for the final state tests for the year 1947. These tests are given twice a year and cover a lot of the material studied in class discussion. These tests are made out by experts in the various fields and some of the material has not been covered when the tests are given. This makes it rather difficult for the students as well as the teachers.

Fireman's Sister Ohio Mother of '47

NORWALK — Emery Miller's sister, Mrs. Hester A. Miller, has been chosen Ohio's Mother for 1947.

This good news reached Emery at the local firehouse where he is a regular man with the department. He took the news philosophically enough. "I expected her to make it," he commented. "Any woman who did as well as she did in rearing eight extraordinary boys and three unusual girls should get some kind of recognition."

Mrs. Miller, an 85-year-old farm woman, was widowed in 1902. In educating her children she mortgaged the family homestead and was never free of hardships until recent years. Eight of her children have bachelor degrees and the rest at least several years of college.

She was named Ohio Mother for 1947, and thereby becomes a candidate for the honor of National Mother, to be selected by the Golden Rule Foundation in New York.

Emery's sister makes her home with her oldest son, Edgar, principal of Cleveland West High School at 2163 Glenbury-av., in Lakewood.

PLACES FIRST IN COUNTY

BELLEVEUE—Jack Heter, senior at Central High School, placed first in Huron-co. in the Ohio 1947 general scholarship test. He received a score of 250 out of a possible 300 which was 19 points more than the second ranking pupil, Carolyn Jeanne Rupert, Greenwich, who had 231. Don Moyer, Bellevue, placed third with a score of 228. Other local students placing were Frank LaSalle, sixth, with 218, and Dick Boehler, seventh, with 215 points.

If young George Washington were around today, we for one would beg him to assist his tree cutting act. In fact, we'd give him a power saw to speed up the job. Data On Our American Legion

NOTE: This is the third in a series of fourteen articles explaining the aims and workings of the American Legion.

HOW LEGION WAS NAMED

The little known fact that a Kentuckian who served in a Texas outfit, named The American Legion was revealed here recently by Commander Alvin A. Garrett of the Garrett-Riest Post No. 503 as the organization intensified its 1947 membership campaign.

The Kentuckian was Major Maurice K. Gordon of Madisonville, Ky., who served in the 36th Division, Commander Garrett said. He made the motion at the caucus of 1,000 fighting men of the 1st ASF in Paris, France, that the new veterans' organization destined to grow into the largest of its kind in the world, be named "The American Legion."

Commander Garrett quoted from the new HISTORY OF THE AMERICAN LEGION by Richard and Selva Jones on the naming of The American Legion in Paris: "The Committee on Name had long sessions. Many names were considered and with great seriousness. The report of the majority favored 'Legion of the Great War' as first choice. 'Veterans of the Great War' as second. Debate was carried to the floor and waged with vigor. The terms 'veteran' and 'Legion' and 'comrades' appeared in most of the proposals. When Maurice K. Gordon moved to adopt 'The American Legion' an amendment by Joseph Mills Hanson, the historian, sought to add 'of the Great War.' Alexander Woodcock objected to the word 'Legion' as covering slightly the silk stocking.' A 1st Division delegate remarked that he had fought alongside the Foreign Legion before Sarason, and if the fat medic thinks those babies are sissies, he is just nuts. Much of the debate was of this gaily informal character. The delegates adjourned for lunch, returned less stubbornly determined on their first choices and adopted 'The American Legion.'

AMERICAN LEGION GARRETT-RIEST POST NO. 503

Just a word to say that we soon hope to invite the public to see some of the new Legion films that we are getting in. We should get some sport films in that should interest the kids. We have made arrangements to let the school show them.

With spring on the way and the hardware store having a big run on fishing equipment, I think that we should organize a fishing contest. It looks as though everybody is going fishing. That's about all everybody talks about now.

SOCIETY
BETHANY CLASS GUESTS OF MISS FRANK FITZEN
 It was a busy evening Tuesday for members of the Bethany Class of the Methodist Church when they gathered at the home of Mrs. Frank Fitzen for their April meeting.

The guests were seated at card tables where the final touches to one hundred and five Easter Baskets, made by the class previously, were put on and filled with grass and candy to be delivered to the Berea Children's Home Friday morning.

The evening's devotions were given by Mrs. Ira Ross who read the Scripture lesson and also several chapters in the book, "The World I Lost" which is concerning the Berea Children's Home. For Roll Call each member tried her luck in snapping buttons into a divided egg carton in which numbers were placed. The number represented a question, which if answered, the 25¢ fine was marked off, but if you failed to answer the question, all pertaining to the Bible, the fine was imposed. This project netted the class $5.35. The market basket project was also completed and a total of $11.88 was realized from that.

The May 6th meeting will be with Mrs. Earl Hankammer, the president, assisted by Mrs. Glen West. Business relations will be in charge of Mrs. Glenn Frakes and Devotions by Mrs. Lewis.

Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Fitzen are responsible for the program. The hostess and her assistant, Mrs. Raymond Brooks who substituted for Mrs. Joe Slocum because of illness served a tempting lunch at the close of the evening. Twenty members and three guests, Mrs. Kenneth Patmore of Cleveland, Mrs. Perry Curtis and Mrs. Parkinson of Plymouth were present.

GIRL SCOUTS MEET IN REGULAR SESSION

Ten Girl Scouts were present Monday after their regular at the Union Hall for their school meeting. Mrs. Paul Root, our new leader, was in charge and will be assisted by Mrs. E. R. Haines.

The Scouts are looking forward to the purchase of a Quonset Hut for their new quarters and at present are selling pencils for 5¢ each and making over old furniture.

How many do you have in your house?

Counting on your fingers is fair. But first, make a quick guess: How many electric motors do your home-work for you? Would you say 3? 5? Maybe 10?

Now count 'em up. It's easier! If you think of them room by room. How about the bedroom? Electric clocks and shavers each have a motor. So do the fans you use in summer.

A modern kitchen is a gold mine. There's a motor in the electric refrigerator, the food mixer, the ventilating fan. (The list below will remind you of others.) Don't skip any rooms. Even the basement and storeroom may be rich picking.

Finished? How does the count compare with your guess? Most people guess way low. Actually 10 motors per house is common—20 is not unusual!

But, whatever the number, the point is true. We seldom realize how many jobs electricity does for us, because it does them so dependably, regularly and cheaply.

You've helped bring this about by taking advantage of so many electrical opportunities. And the men and women of the business-managed electric companies are always working to bring you better service at lower cost. That's why the price of electricity has gone down and down, while the price of almost everything else has gone up and up.

Card of Thanks

Mother says that when I'm tired, the bed's the place to go, But I'm sure she didn't mean it for days all in a row. Yes, that's just exactly what happened to me For someone left germs where I chanced to be. The Doc said: "Scarlet Fever, that's what you got Your plans are all over—you're not going out." Then the Health Nurse came and tacked on the door A bright red card with a warning more.

The Scout Party — Oh Dear! — I'd miss that, you bet, But the girl's saw to it, my cake I did get.

Then the Postman came daily the mailbox to fill, With cards and books and candy, from those who cheer the ill. To miss the PTA did make me feel sad And from a friend a basket to make me feel glad.

Yes, it's things like that which change every doubt, A friend is surely what you cannot be without. So THANKS HEAPS is what I'd like to say, To all who cheered a shut-in, in a great big friendly way.

Know Your INDIANS

James Patrick Seery "Pat" (Outfielder)
Born in Wiburton, Oklahoma, March 17, 1923. Throws right. Bats right.
Height: 5'10. Weight: 210 lbs.

There is no player in baseball who can hit a ball farther than Pat Seery according to Bill Veck, Tribe president and owner of Pat's contract. In fact Bill felt so strongly about this that he hired one of the games' greatest hitters, Rogers Hornsby, to ferret out the reason for Seery's inability to meet the ball more frequently.

Upon the success of Hornsby's efforts with Seery and Jim Hegan may well depend the Indian's rise or fall in the 1947 pennant scramble. Last summer Pat wound up fourth in homers among American League sluggers with 26 but also tied for top honors in the uncovered matter of strikeouts. On anemic batting average of .225 he, paradoxically, led the Tribe in runs-batted-in.

Therefore, it is a simple conclusion that under Seery's powerful body lies an untapped potential that could easily make him a modern Babe Ruth. If Hornsby is somehow able to eliminate the flaw in Seery's swing without sacrificing the power, if he is able to show Pat how to meet the ball more often—then the Indian will boast probably the greatest hitter in the league.

Personal Notes: Single. Union residence: Little Rock, Ark. Ancestry: Irish. Hobbies: Fishing and bowling.
Joseph Edward Bockman "Eddie" (Infielder)
Born in Santa Ana, California, July 28, 1920. Throws right. Bats right.
Height: 5'9". Weight: 175 lbs. Hair, Blond. Eyes, blue.
Eddie Bockman was one of the several players who figured in the trade which brought Joe Gordon and Al Gettel to the Indians. Eddie, however, was by no means tossed in to make the deal but was rather a definite part of it for both Bill Veck and Lou Boundreau are extremely "high" on the young ex-Yankee.

Farmed out to Kansas City last summer, Eddie had a great year with the Blues as he wound up with a .303 average and a very impressive total of 96 runs-batted-in.

Oddly enough, Bockman made his major league debut against his present boss—and struck out on his first time at bat. He had been recalled by the Yankees after his fine performance with Kansas City.

Only twenty-six years old, the young Californian is expected to make a spirited bid for the third base job and will probably see plenty of action there during 1947.

Personal Notes: Married and has one daughter. Winter residence: Long Beach, Calif. Hobby: Movies.
