Cashman's Shoe Store Now Showing The Latest Style Shoes For Spring

With Easter only two weeks away Sunday, Milady is beginning to plan her wardrobe for this gala event. This Easter, more than ever, Dame Fashion offers all the new novelties, materials, styles that any woman could wish for. Footwear is always one problem that be- hoves the average woman, but Harold Cashman of Cashman's Shoe Store, says this Spring we have MORE shoes than in all the history of the store.

Cashman's Shoes is featuring many of the well-known and nationally advertised brands of footwear, which is the prefer- ence of the younger set, the mid- dle-aged, and older people. For the kiddies, you'll find such well-known brands as Culver Cubs, Story Book, Red Goose, and Acrobat Shoes, in every size and width. They all carry individual features and styles; all quality made, and real values for the money. And, too, through X-ray, Cashman's children feet perfectly... you see the foot in the shoe, and the child does not have to depend on "feel" in order to tell whether a shoe fits the foot. This service is FREE.

As for the Teenagers, they'll really thrill at the many styles being offered at this well-known store. And, here again, the names of well-known brands come into the picture... Edgewoods, Tar- sal, Travelers, Friendly Sports and others.

For those "middle-aged" wom- en, who prefer comfort, plus good looks, rather than the "latest style," there are several shoes that are built to suit them. Take the "Drew Arch Rest" shoe, which is obtainable in sizes from 5 to 10, in 4A width to C, is a good looking shoe in every detail. Those who have worn them do not hesitate to highly recommend the DREW as the perfect shoe. And they're here, ready for East- ere. They also feature Tar- sal Treads, and Grace Walker Shoes, plus a full line of pumps and slings.

As for the men... well, they're out in front with one of the widest selections shown in Plymouth for many years. Blacks, browns, plain and fancy toes... in names that are familiar to men, such as Wright Arch Preserver, Mas- sagie, Fortune, Cadillac, and John C. Roberts shoes.

In Cashman's Shoes, you'll find a medium price shoe with lots of style and zip; as well as the high- er price shoe with the latest styles, comfort and quality built into one piece of leather. The young men of the community are realizing more and more each week, that Cashman offers qual- ity shoes at a low price.

In the three years that Harold Cashman has conducted the shoe store, in Plymouth, he has ac- quired a stock almost four times greater than when he took it over, shortly before the end of the war. His aim and desire is to serve everyone in the commu- nity who needs shoes, and for young and old, he is fast recog- nizing their desires and whims, and as a result he is, constantly adding to his stock the shoes the public wants.

Athletic Banquet Is Big Success

JIMMY SHUTT, Reporter

Approximately fifty-three persons, including members of the basketball and baseball teams with members and friends of The Booster Club, turned out Friday evening for the Pilgrims' Athletic Banquet held in the Lutheran Church Annex and sponsored by The Plymouth Booster Club.

The guests were seated at four tables attractively decorated with spring flowers and pussy willows. At each place was a clever place card. This was a miniature man made of different colored pipe cleaners, with a basketball shaped head on which different facial expressions were drawn. In his hand he held the name of the person whose place was designated. These were the handiwork of Mr. and Mrs. Ford Davis who deserve a lot of credit for the hard work they put in on this project.

The dinner was served promptly at 6:30 p. m. by the Alice Willet Class and was greatly enjoyed by everyone. The menu was:

Fruit Cocktail
Swiss Steak and Gravy
Mashed Potatoes
Whole Kernel Corn
Relish, Plate Rolls Butter
Ice Cream Cake
Coffee

The ladies deserve a great deal of thanks for this lovely dinner. At each place was an attractive program, made possible through the courtesy of the Plymouth Order of Mechanics.

Immediately following the dinner, Harold Cashman as Toastmaster arose and introduced Supt. P. I. VanBrunt who made a few remarks concerning the team and their progress during the year. Then Harris Postema, a member of the Board of Education, was introduced and he also commented on the records of the two teams.

Next Toastmaster Cashman introduced Coach Robert Lindsey, who brought out what he considered to be the two high lights of the Basketball Season: one being the Pilgrims' 47-33 Victory over Willard, which is a Class A School, and the other Plymouth's upset victory over Butler.

Following this the Coach presented Varsity Basketball letters to the following boys: Kenny Ekeberry, Captain of this year's team, Corry Vanderbilt, who was, incidentally, the only Class B Athlete from Richland County given honorable mention for the All-Ohio Class B team, Bill Lawrence, Jim Burrer, Donald Smith and Robert Baker (who are all members of this year's graduating class), Ronald Trauger, Dez Donnewirth (Junior) and Grabach (Soph.). Glen Burrer and Donald Hough received letters as Managers.

The Cheerleaders, Lois Smith, Pat Moore, Edna Myers and Penny Christian, also received letters.

Each Varsity member, receiving a letter, was then entitled to vote for next year's captain or co-captains. Ronald Trauger and Dez Donnewirth were elected Co-captains of next year's team. Toastmaster Cashman then introduced the speaker of the evening, "Mike" Scarry, former center for the All-America League Champion Cleveland Browns and at present head basketball and football coach at Western Reserve University. Mr. Scarry spoke on sports today and the young athlete entering college.

He said that after a war people always turn toward sports of all kinds for relaxation, either as a participant or as a spectator. As an example of this, he said he played for the Cleveland Rams during the war years and they thought they were doing good, but now after the war, crowds of two, three, and even four times as many people are usually on hand at a football appearance of the Browns and this is true of all sports today.

Then speaking on the subject of the young athlete entering college he said that in most of the major sports which require a lot of activity, such as baseball, basketball, football and a few others when the athlete reaches the age of 35 or 40 he knows that his days as a player are almost ended. When this happens he must find some other job which will support himself and his family. In most positions of any responsibility today a high school education is required and he said he believed that in the not too distant future a college education will be necessary in acquiring one of these positions. So the young athlete of today if he goes to college, should go primarily for the purpose of getting an education and putting sports secondary. Because no matter how much your scrapbook means to you it isn't worth anything to the other fellow and won't even buy you a cup of coffee.

Mr. Scarry was accompanied by his assistant coach Mr. Luther who made a few fitting remarks and for most part seconded everything "Mike" had said.

The evening's events were climaxed by a movie of the Western Reserve-Case Tech Basketball game which, of course, Western Reserve won by a wide margin. Mr. Scarry and Mr. Luther brought the movie along with them.

From where I sit . . . by Joe Marsh
How to Keep 'Em Down On the Farm

The other day Pete Swanson's nephew, Bud, allowed as how he was fed up with farm and country life. . . . and was going to the city where there was a lot more opportunity and excitement.

Some folks might have tried to stop him. But not Pete. He even advanced Bud carfare for the trip. . . . figured that when he'd had a good look around, he'd come back where he belonged.

And what happened? After seven days of big-town bustle and excitement, Bud was back behind the wheel of a tractor, with color in his cheeks again. And he'd traded the night life of the city for a quiet glass of beer with Dad.

From where I sit, that's how it goes. Try to prevent some one from getting what he thinks he wants—and he'll go on wanting it. But give him his head, and he'll settle for the sensible thing—whether it's country life, or a temperate glass of beer!

Mothers Are Guests at 7th Grade Tea

One of the most delightful programs of the school year was held last Thursday evening when the Mothers of the Seventh grade girls chorus, were guests at a Musical Tea.

Tiny shamrocks and big shamrocks twined with streamers of green, completely transformed the Science Room into an Emerald Isle. Quiet salon music played on the record-player, cast an air of "atmosphere and dignity" into the setting.

A welcome was extended to those in attendance, by Kay Donnenwirth, including an explanation of the summary of the year's work, and the care in the selection of the numbers on the program.

Two piano numbers were given in contrast to the chorus singing by Rita Keith and Sue Farrar.

The selections ranged from folk songs, negro spirituals, secular two part harmony, to a climax of the Easter Hymn, "Alleluia." Every number found a place on the program to hold the interest of the Mothers. The ability displayed of the girls in singing two-part harmony, really showed careful training and a promise of better things in the future.

A tempting dessert, cookies and tea were served by a committee and the delight of the Mothers over homemade favors was evidence in itself that Mother had enjoyed the evening.

A kind thank you daughters, from us to you, All in all it was something entirely new.

Twentieth Century Guest Night Mon.

The social highlight of the year for members of the Twentieth Century Circle is their annual Guest Night. This was held Monday evening at the Shelby Inn when thirty members and guests were seated at a long table gaily decorated with yellow candles and arrangements of Pussy Willows, Easter baskets and bunnies. Place cards and individual Easter Baskets adorned with daffodils marked each place. A tempting meal was served with plans in charge of the entertainment and refreshment committee of the Club.

Mrs. H. H. Fackler as toastmistress.

dress, presented the retiring president, Mrs. Agnes McFadden, who in a few well chosen words mentioned the work study and pleasures of the past year. She laid stress on friendship, and companionship which made this possible. Mr. E. L. Bailey responded for the guests and mentioned that this organization is now fifty-one years old and spoke of the part it played in the community. He was followed by Mayor Robinson who spoke briefly.

A chalk picture by Mrs. Harold Cashman was very interesting and it was like the coming of spring to see the clouds, trees, and flowers appear. During her drawing she was accompanied by Mrs. Ramsey at the piano.

Mrs. Fackler then introduced Miss Ruth Kellermeyer, dramatic teacher of the Shelby H. School. Miss Kellermeyer gave two readings on spring and then presented four of her boys of the dramatic class who gave a skit "The men played cards the way women do." They really "stole" the show and their takeoff on men and the public square were so good that more than one gentleman present had red faces.

Cards and games concluded a very enjoyable evening. Members and guests present for the affair included Mrs. Agnes McFadden and son Larry, Messrs. and Mesdames C. A. Robinson, E. L. Bailey, Edward Roney, H. Fackler, Harold Cashman, Robert McIntire, J. E. Nimmons, E. B. Miller, S. C. Brown, Ford Davis, E. L.
