Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt Whitney Entertain Daughter of President

Miss Margaret Truman was in the glittering audience Thursday, January 27th at the opening night benefit performance of the Ice Capades of 1949 proceeds from which went to the Soldiers, Sailors and Marines Club. And the traditional color of the services had been with the beauty of the ice pageant to make the "black tie" event a memorable winner.

Preceding the 8:30 p. m. curtain time at Uline Arena, Washington, D. C., there was a brilliant array of dinners after which guests went on to view the magic on ice for a good service cause. And even after the final applause subsided there were still other parties to which guests flocked. Included in the pre-party dinners as described in the Times Herald, January 28th issue was the dinner given by Assistant Secretary of the Air Force and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney (nee Eleanor Seale of Plymouth).

mouth) in Georgetown, and which Miss Truman had attended. Others enjoying the Whitney's gracious hospitality included the Secretary of the Air Force and Mrs. W. Stuart Symington, Sen. and Mrs. Millard Tydings, Gen. and Mrs. Omar N. Bradley, and the latter's sister, Mrs. Wayne Stewart of Danville, Ore., and Mrs. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, as well as the former Undersecretary of State and Mrs. Robert A. Lovett and the Clark Cliffords.

Lt. Col. George Howard, leader of the newly uniformed Air Force band, led the orchestra later at the Ice Capades in the Star Spangled Banner when it was sung by beautiful Eleanor Seale Whitney. A thrill ran through members of the first-night audience as they heard the National Anthem. Mrs. Whitney's gown was of deep cyclamen pink lace styled simply by Athena of Hollywood with a modified off-the-shoulder sweetheart neckline. Her jewelry was of diamonds and pearls.

E. Waters Surprised on 31st Birthday

J. E. Waters who resides east of New Haven was completely surprised Sunday afternoon when thirty-one friends and neighbors called to wish him "A Happy Birthday." Mr. Waters has been a farmer all of his life and still does some work and enjoys good health.

He and his wife are the parents of nine children, four of whom are living, Mrs. Clarence Reed, Shelby, Mrs. Gilbert Johnson, Stockton, Cal., Mrs. A. H. Newmyer of Plymouth Route and Luther Waters of Globe, Ariz. There are also nineteen grandchildren and seven great grandchildren in the family circle.

The affair was arranged by his daughters, Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Newmyer, and after the callers were served refreshments many tributes were paid Mr. Waters among them an account of his life as told by Roy Lofland which read as follows:

"Mr. James E. Waters: This is a part of your life as I see it. You came to Huron County as a young man in the year 1893 with Mr. Rube Echelbarger from Wood County as a farm hand on a farm about two miles east of Plymouth.

This was the horse and buggy days and as you and Rube plowed that straight furrow, you had to stop the horses to rest and as the horses were resting Rube said to you "Jim, do you know I have a mighty nice sister-in-law." It is that, said Jim, I would like to meet her, so Rube being the good sport that he is said "I think I can arrange it."

From here on, is another chapter in your life. You started to housekeeping on a farm one mile east of Plymouth on the Shoup farm. As a young boy, I helped you move to a farm near the Blackfoot River. Do you remember that first team of horses, one I believe had a brand on it. Believe you held a sale here and then moved to Shelby. How you behaved in Shelby, I do not know but remember thinking you had a pretty nice girl, Lula, I believe was her name.

Yes, Jim, about this time you saw the Street car come and later saw it go. Then after a while, you tired of Shelby and came back to the farm to be a neighbor of mine. As the water ran under the bridge you and I both had our ups and downs, our sorrows and gladness.

Yes, Mr. Waters, you have seen the horseless carriage come into being, the airplane, the electric clock, the electric light, the truck, the radio and have seen the good old days go from work horse to power or tractor farming, the combine, the hay baler and so on. You have been thru two World Wars, thru good years and bad years; yes, you have seen corn and hog days and crops plowed under and surplus of wheat on paper.

You have raised a fine family and you have worked hard, but did you ever stop to think about these plow handles and Mr. Echelbarger and that sister-in-law? She has been one main factor in your years. Remember the wonderful loaves of bread she baked, the best we ever ate? Remember the school days, butchering days, the parties, the sleigh rides, the neighbors and friends that you have enjoyed and shared with all your life. You have seen Republican days and Democratic days? Which one were the rainy days I have forgotten, the last election fooled them all.

There has been great history made in your time and mine and now may you have many happy years ahead."

That's why we are proud of the work of our Boy Scouts, helping others and keeping "physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight." We take this occasion, the 39th Anniversary of their founding, to wish the Boy Scouts of America "Happy Adventures in Scouting."

LEGION NEWS

As the time drew near to 8 o'clock the Legion members began to wander into the hall in anticipation of the meeting to be held at that time, least suspecting the business to be brought forth. There was nothing unusual about the business, only the manner in which the business was conducted. Members of the Legion are beginning to draw a little enthusiasm, in hopes of bringing more activity to the home. Hardly anyone knew the Legion existed. What has always been needed, is further activity.

An agreement has been made between the Community Club, Brotherhood and Legion to conduct a banquet in honor of Rev. Paetrick on Thursday evening, February 24th. Tickets will be sold to gain admittance. Members of the three clubs mentioned are to be the only participants. This is done because hall can only seat so many, therefore tickets are restricted to those memberships.

Last, but not least, is an item of interest to the teenagers. Some time ago the Legionaires voted to hold Tuesday nights open to the teenagers in order that they may have a night of good fun. We felt it was our privilege to do this for their benefit. BUT we find it impossible to continue this unless the teenagers show a little more enthusiasm towards it. In the past weeks the attendance at these little parties have fallen away, which of course, constitutes but one decision. If the teenagers show no more spirit during their stay at the hospital, than in the past, that privilege will be taken away from them. After all, it's for their benefit, and if the kids won't take advantage of it, all that's left is to discontinue. A week from last Tuesday there were only about five who attended, and they stayed but a few minutes. This will have to cease. Either you want it, or you don't, which is it? This Tuesday will make the decision. We don't want to drop it. It depends on the reaction of the teenagers this coming Tuesday.

Leesville Drubs the Pilgrims

Tuesday evening, the Leesville Reds knocked over the Plymouth Pilgrims by the score of 63-41. The Pilgrims failure to control the backboards, even under their own basket, was the main cause for defeat. The Reds were hot their shots as they made better than 50 per cent of their attempts from the floor. Most of these came on sucker shots from under the basket.

The Leesville quint was in the van at halftime 29-20 and in the second half they really poured on the steam as they won going away 63-41.

Ronald Trauger set the scoring pace for the losing quint as he dropped home 10 points.

The Plymouth reserves did manage to salvage the preliminary as they won from the Leesville reserves 34-22.

The Pilgrim reserves jumped into an early lead and never got behind. They led by periods, 7-6, 15-11 and 27-17. The Plymouth quint scored the home five in every period.

Kenny Donathan led the reserve scoring as he racked up five field goals good for 10 points.
