Football Queen's Coronation Highlight of Homecoming Friday

Pilgrims, Up To Full Strength, To Face Margaretta's Polar Bears ARCHITECT TO BE

The most spectacular highlight of the football season in Ply- PRESENT AT P-T-A mouth will be the Homeocoming game with the Margaretta Polar Bears tomorrow evening, Friday, Oct. 17, on the local gridiron at 8 o'clock. In addition to the Homeocoming game, there will be the crowning of the Football Queen between halves on the field halves on the field.

Preceding the game, the entire band in their bright red uniforms, accompanied by the twirlers and junior twirlers will entertain the draw from Marvin.

Tom Marvin. crowd and the band will again play at the half-time prior to the coronation of the queen. This is the first time in the history of Plymouth School that the crowning will take place on the field. Herenfore, it has been held following the game in the high school auditorium. The Band will again lead the Grand March to the auditorium following the game for the Homecoming Dance.

This year's queen is Miss Marge Ricker, a 5'4' senior with brown eyes, black hair and a pleasing per-sonality. She was chosen by popu-lar vote and will be attended by Elsie Reed, senior, Sandra, Trauger, junior, Carol Cobb, sophomore and Bette Carter, freshman.

FORMER QUEENS

FORMER QUEENS
The first basketball queen was in 1947 when Phyliss Haines Hampton was chosen to reign over the homecoming game; in 1948, Mary Kathryn Fox Hatton was basketball queen, and in 1949 Holy Pitzen Pugh was the first football queen. The 1950 queen was Miss Sally Dietrich and last year's queen was Miss Ruth Barnes. THE GAME TOMORROW

ITHE GAME TOMORROW
For the first time since the opening game, Plymouth's team will be in full strength. They will wear their new red uniforms with white numerals and will be out after their first victory of the 1952 season with the Margaretta Polar Bears.
Last Friday night Margaretta nouth faced defeat to Richwood 47-0. Plymouth has been greatly handicapped with lack of players and injuries this season, but are hoping for a successful game tomorrow night.

BIGGEST CROWD EXPECTED

BIGGEST CROWD EXPECTED
If the weather man cooperates,
the largest crowd of the year is expected to turn out for this game.
All alumni are especially invited as well as the townsfolks. Even if you don't understand the game too well, the band, twiriers, grand tras that go with a homecoming game will be worth your effort to come out and back the Pilgrims.

Home Again After Interesting Trip

When Mr. and Mrs. Luther Fet-ters and son Barry drove into Ply-mouth the latter part of last week, the hometomy probably looked real good to them, but they have some wonderful memories of in-teresting places from Ohio to Flor-ida to Texas, and then home again. Mrs. Fetters and Barry accom-panied Luther on a busness trip to Florida, and while he was busy they were able to do quite a little sight-seeing at places of historical interest, etc.

Huron County Fair Is Financial Success

The preliminary Financial Report given by Mrs. Elfreda Crayton, Secretary of the Huron Country Fair Association shows an excess of receipts over expenditures for this year's fair of approximately $4,500.00. There are a few accounts yet to be collected & also a few bills to be paid. A complete resounts yet to be collected & also a few bills to be paid. A complete resounts yet to the Fair Assn. which will be held November 15th.

The Fair Board is very happy with the results of this year's Fair which was due largely to ideal weather and a larger number of exhibits than ever before.

In the two previous years the balance remaining after all expenses were paid was very small. Levy for one of the outstanding Fair of Ohio and if the Half Mill Levy for one year carries at the fall election it will be possible to make certain repairs and improvements which are absolutely necessary if our Fair is to continue to grow and furnish comparable or even better programs than in the past.

LORD - FOR - SHERIFF BOOSTERS

Here's a whole family outspokenly in favor of Clayton C Lord for Sheriff of Huron County. Of course it's doubtful if election booth workers in his home batiwisck. Precinct 2, Montroeville will let Robert James, ton his Mother's Lapl get too close to the voting machines. He might get his formula mixed up with the godgets thereon. Charles, at left, and Kase Frances, in the center, think the voting age requirements should be lowered, much, much at right, who has been voting a straight tacket for 10 Mr. Loron variant right, who has been voting a straight tacket for 10 Mr. Loron variant right, who has been voting a straight tacket for 10 Mr. Loron variant right, who has been voting a straight tacket for 10 Mr. Loron variant real preference in politics leans to Winston Churchill as he hasn't any hair either. Candidate Lord is pretty proud of his strategy board. Mrs. Lord is the former Hida Boetcher, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Boetcher, live on Route No. 2, Willard.
