

PERSONAL TAX FILING CLOSES

While the personal tax filing period closed on Tuesday, it was better than over before than the avalanche of late minute returns can be cleared up. Starting with last Thursday, returns after computation were boxed in cartons, to await the end of the period before proper filing.

Thru the diversion of the full force of the Huron Auditor's office to personal tax assignments, 1100 returns were processed last week.

Co-operation with instructions was better than over before than this year. Inventories were completed, and in many instances the tax had already been computed, greatly reducing filing time. Without this co-operation it would not have been possible to have handled so many returns, which are on the increase each year.

FORMER NORTH FAIRFIELD PASTOR DIES IN SHIREVE

Rev. Frank Reeder, 43, pastor of the Church of Christ in Shreve, died in Columbus Thursday following surgery in a hospital there. Death ended a long illness. He had once held a pastorate at North Fairfield.

Surviving is his wife, one daughter, Dorothy at home, and his son, Logan Reeder of Alliance. Services were held Monday of this week in Lisbon, Ohio.

LEGION TO MAKE FINAL PLANS MONDAY

The regular meeting of the American Legion, 43, at 600 at 8 o'clock on their hall. It is very important that all members attend to complete the final plans for the Friday, April 10, Legion Spring Conference to be held in Plymouth on Sunday, April 19th.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my thanks to Doctors Butler, R. Moffat and Hansen, and the staff at the Shelby hospital for their excellent service; neighbors, organizations, and friends for flowers, cards and gifts which followed the passing of my dear home. Everything was greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Robert Meiser

FINED IN COURT

Joseph Hunter, Plymouth route, was fined $100 and costs in the Shelby County Court for the accident which occurred Friday on East Main street. Hunter was also ordered to pay for the damage done to the auto of Woodrow Tucker, which was parked on Main street when hit by the Hunter car. A 15-day jail sentence was suspended.

MORE MUMPS

Mumps have "caught up" with Nancy Lewis, Jane Vanderpool, Mrs. Lincoln Spawley, son of Mrs. Spawley, and daughter Betty. Mrs. Spawley had expected to begin on her new duties as clerk at Heck's Dry Cleaning establishment, Monday.

EASTER BAKE SALE

The annual Easter Bake Sale sponsored by the ladies of St. Joseph church will be held on Saturday, April 4th at Cushman's Shoe Store. The sale opens at 10 a. m. with a full line of baked goods including novelties for Easter.

Contributors are asked to have their donations at the store before ten o'clock.

HOME ON LEAVE

E-T-3 Gerald Schneider is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schneider, at their home in St. Louis until April 13th at which time he will be sent to California to continue his schooling and later to be stationed in the Philippines for at least a year.

Gerald has been stationed at Staten Island, N. Y. and other eastern points until his leave here.

GOING ON VACATION

Miss Florence Danner of Shelby and Mrs. Mabel McFadden of Plymouth expect to leave Sunday, April 2nd for a ten-day auto trip to Florida. They will make stops in St. Petersburg, Tampa, Bradenton and other southern cities.

JACKSONS MOVE TO SAN FERNANDO VALLEY

The Iden Jackson family, who have been making their home in Burbank, California, send us word that they are moving to the "heart of the San Fernando Valley". That is, to a very interesting place, according to history and legend. Their home address is now 13885 Terra Bella, Pacifica, California.

LOOKING FOR SANTA

Priv. J. C. Donnenwith returned to his base at Ft. Eustis, Virginia, last Wednesday night after enjoying a six-day trip with his folks. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Donnenwith and daughter.

Jacobs has been transferred to the Arctic group and expects to be in the North Pole sometime. Maybe they are going to look for that old fellow who is said to be in the North Pole.

Red Cross Drive Goes Over Top

Comendation should go to the chairman, and assistant of Plymouth's Red Cross drive which closed last Saturday. The workers finished the report up and over the top in their final report, with $534.95 total.

Mrs. Roy Eckstein, chairman, and Mrs. Roy Johnson, co-chairman, expect a little more to be turned in yet, but there are one or two late reports, but are very pleased with the response. They wish to thank all workers and also those who gave to the cause.

Mrs. Schuyler Zackman, of near Shiloh, called in Plymouth on Monday evening to help complete the reports and papers on the campaign.

BAPTIZED AT CHURCH ON PALM SUNDAY

At the Palm Sunday services at the Plymouth Methodist Church, the following infants were baptized by Rev. E. Smith: Thomas Leroy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wilson; Jeffrey Lynn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Myers; Daniel Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Fugh; Robert Craig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pugh; Rebecca Lynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Smith.

The following were taken into church membership: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mintier, Janet Norris, Bonnie Mills, Carol Schneider, James Dye, and William Archer.

At the Shiloh Methodist Church, Carol West, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry West, was baptized by Rev. E. Smith. Also, Mrs. Malcolm Brock, James Cuffy, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Delamater, Phoebe Guthrie, Judy Hamman, Larry Hamman, Gerald Hamman, Craig Harnly, Woodrow Huston, Mary Lasey and Sherry Smith.

WILL ADDRESS UNITED SUNRISE EASTER SERVICE

The guest speaker for the United Easter Sunrise service in Shelby will be Rev. W. H. Miley of the University of Chicago. The service will be held at 6 a. m. in the high school auditorium.

Rev. Miley is a former superintendent of the Shiloh church and is now head of the Speech Department at Aukland College.

PHONE CALL FROM CHINA

When Lee Schneider returns to the States next July, he will have practically circled the globe. Serving a four year sentence in the U.S. Navy, he will be held in the U.S. Valley Forge for China and the East.

He recently put through a call from Hong Kong, China, to his home folks on Woodland Avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schneider, and his mother was so surprised the call was left from all the questions she would have liked to ask—in fact, Lewis could have been talking Chinese until she could talk.

Lewis said he was well and had written his parents to be on the lookout for his call but the letter came after the call. At the time of the call it was 10 a. m. in Plymouth, and those three minutes went by mighty fast.

Johnson Rites Held Wednesday

Last rites for Mrs. Christina M. Johnson, 90, were held Wednesday at 10 a. m. at the McQuate Funeral home with Rev. Paul Mumford, pastor of the Lutheran church of which she was a member, officiating. Burial was made in Port Clinton.

Mrs. Johnson was born Sept. 17, 1862 in Nebel, Germany, but was a citizen of the United States and had made her home in Plymouth with her daughter, Mrs. Earl Shelby, for the past 15 years.

Mrs. Johnson was unusually active for her years and until she suffered a stroke several weeks ago enjoyed helping with the household duties and going to church affairs. She had a keen sense of humor, with a pleasing personality and delighted children with her wit.

After being stricken and unable to do her household duties, she seemed to lose interest in living and often stated she was "ready to go." She will be greatly missed by friends and relatives.

Survivors include the daughter, Mrs. Shelby, one son Ed of Los Angeles, Calif.; one sister, Mrs. Sophia Golden of Toledo, 18 grandchildren, 22 great grandchildren and 42 great-great grandchildren.

CRASH KILLS OHIO PILOT

Last Thursday morning inquiries were being received in Plymouth regarding the crash of an Air Force fighter pilot by the name of Lieut. Halbert L. Alexander, whose home was given as Plymouth, Ohio.

Investigation disclosed that a family by the name of Alexander had resided on the Bowman Street Road about 10 years but had since moved and it was presumed the young man belonged to this family.

The 22-year old pilot was killed last Wednesday when his F-51 Mustang crashed and exploded in an open field in East Chelmsford, Mass., during a training flight.

McKinley Banquet Draws 800 Guests

Area Republicans, including more than 800 members and friends of the Huron Co. McKinley Club, were assured Friday night that the Republican administration and Congress are moving forward on all fronts in behalf of the American people.

This message was presented by U. S. Congressman Charles A. Halleck, House majority leader, who was the guest speaker at the McKinley Club's 47th annual banquet held at the Norwalk high school auditorium.

Congressman Halleck was introduced by Congressman Alvin F. B. Sandusky, who spoke briefly on vital problems confronting the nation and the role of the McKinley Club.

O. W. Leach opened the meeting.

Dudley A. White served as toastmaster, and introduced the Republican members and spoke Frank Davidson, Ann Arbor, Mich., who was present for the 46th time. J. H. Williams and G. W. Leach, dean of Huron Co. attorneys.

Attending from Plymouth were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ellis, Mrs. S. W. Sandusky, and spoke Buskirk, Mr. Pearl Hedges, Mr. and Mrs. James Root, Mr. John A. Root, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shutt, Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Ray and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sparks of the County Line Road.

GRANGE MEETING IS FRIDAY EVENING

The next meeting of the Plymouth Grange is announced for Friday, April 3rd at their hall with the usual business session followed by a social hour.

Ralph Turner, Red Cross Director from Mansfield, was present at the previous meeting and gave a very interesting talk on the work of the Red Cross in floods, disasters and wars. The group voted to give contribution to the current campaign.

Beginnings today, April 2nd, more will be open all day on Thursdays and until 9 p. m. hereafter on Wednesday nights—MILLERS' HARDWARE.

RE-ELECTED TO SECOND TERM OF MOHICAN POST

Charles R. Payne, of Mansfield, was re-elected to his second term as Post of the Mohican Post No. 9442, Veterans of Foreign Wars. Payne is a veteran of more than four years' service with the Army combat engineers. He served in Italy, Sicily and Italy.

Payne was at one time a resident of Plymouth, but has lived in Mansfield since 1935.

FIRE VICTIM TO BE BURIED HERE

Mrs. Robert Whaley of Greenville, Pa., called the McQuate Funeral Home Tuesday to advise that the body of her aunt, Mrs. Lola Byers Sager, would be brought to Plymouth for burial in the Byers Mausoleum in Greenlawn cemetery, Saturday afternoon at 1:30. Rev. Smith will officiate.

Detting were lacking but Mrs. Sager was one of the victims of the flash fire that killed 32 patients in a private nursing home near, Lar-go, Florida.

Authorities reported that 29 of the fire victims were women and four were men. Twenty-seven other patients escaped from the flaming building.

Baseball Season At New Haven

Next Tuesday will see the opening of the New Haven high school baseball schedule for the season. The first game will be at Greenwich on April 7th. Games on the schedule are:

April 7—at Greenwich.
April 10—at Montville.
April 14—North Fairfield.
April 17—Monroeville.
April 24—at Milan.
April 28—at North Fairfield.
May 1—at Milan.
May 5—Greenwich.
May 8—Leesville.

The Yellow Jackets have booked five home tilts and four on the road. Home opener is slated April 14 against North Fairfield.

The Jackets will participate in the Huron county tournament that opens April 20. Greenwich, Montville, Northfield, New London and Wakeman also compete in the journey.

Bill Zoest, Sam Predieri, Beecher Caudill and Arnold Risner are returning lettermen from the 1952 squad. Wayne Robinson, Jim Buckingham, Ed Risner, Don Lyons, Jerry McKinnon, Larry Predieri and Dave Baxter are also bidding for varsity spots.

Visit Officials For Better Service

Mr. Earl Cashman and Mr. M. J. Johnson made a trip to Columbus, Wednesday, for an appointment with Mr. Dwight Dargatzis, Supervisor of School Transportation. The purpose of the trip was to see if sufficient funds are not available for better transportation at Plymouth.

The buses have been running double time on occasions over two overloaded. Some children have to board the buses by 7:45 a. m. and some do not get home until almost 10:00. Some children have to walk short distances to board the bus, however there are only about 15 of these children in the area. The walk over two-tenths of a mile. Since there is always danger in children walking along roads and buses turning back on highways, these obstacles could be eliminated with more buses.

HOME FOR EASTER

Sgt and Mrs. Ivan McQuate, Jr. and son Bobby are expected to arrive home Easter Sunday from the American Expedition. They will visit in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. McQuate, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Walter Porter and other relatives.

BACK HOME

A. B. Williams who has been a patient at the Shelby hospital was released Monday and brought to his home on Plymouth street in the McQuate ambulance.

HOME FROM FLORIDA

Mrs. Verda Weller returned to Plymouth Saturday from Lake Worth, Florida, where they have been spending the winter. It has been a very pleasant season for both and Mrs. Weller enjoyed being with her sister Mrs. Weller. The Weller family has been at home in Lake Worth also.

RECAPITULATING

Mrs. Griville Gallett was released Friday afternoon from the Willard hospital where she underwent a minor operation and is now recuperating at her home on West Broadway.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

Carl Gleason of North Olmsted recently underwent an operation at the Lutheran hospital in Cleveland. He is now recuperating at his home. He is the son of Mrs. Iva Gleason of Plymouth.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES

Word was received this week of the death of Walter Lebold of near Cleveland. Services were held on the 21st and burial made in Lebold's home in Cleveland.

Details were lacking but the Lebold family resided in Plymouth many years ago. His wife and son are the immediate survivors.

Around THE Square

OVER THE AIR

Doris Reber, a patient at the Gates Hospital in Elyria, Ohio, will sing with a quartet of girls on a program to be broadcast from the hospital over station WEOG, Saturday, April 4th. This is 930 on the radio dial and the time is between 11:00 and 11:30 a. m.

Doris is a member of this year's graduation class of Plymouth high school and is recuperating at the Elyria hospital from injuries suffered in an accident over a year ago.

Another broadcast with a local slant will be announced for Saturday, April 4, at 12:45 p. m. over station WRFD when an article from the Plymouth Advertiser "Time for a Change" will be heard on the Buckeye Viewpoint. WRFD is 880 on your dial.

THE "KICK-OUT" for the Plymouth-Shelby-Shiloh area drive will start next Monday. Supr. M. J. Coon, J. E. Nimmons and others will be conducting the committee this year for the local campaign. This is one fund that deserves the support of every resident in the community for the benefits are direct—the cancer clinic at the Shelby hospital. So, folks, don't forget, when you contribute to the Cancer Fund, you're helping your own community in a very large way.

PLYMOUTH STORES will be closed Friday afternoon between 1 and 3 o'clock. The post office and bank will also observe these hours on account of Good Friday. The National Lutheran church should be well attended—the one observation that means so much to Christianity.

R. H. MACK of Mack's Super-

Market, and Henry Christner of Harry's Market announce that their stores will be closed all day Sunday—Easter. This is a gesture on the part of these firms, and we're certain that the United Sunday shopper will agree with us.

COMING SPRING is about time for our village council to consider a two-hour parking limit on the Square. Parking is quite a problem in most towns, and with the practice of local people using the Square to leave their cars all day, is becoming a problem also.

SPRING PLOWING is in vogue

these days—and most farmers are taking advantage of it. It's a good thing that so much plowing has been done so early. The boys at the Plymouth Elevator know that the Square is a prospect for long years that so much plowing has been done so early. The boys at the Plymouth Elevator know that the Square is a prospect for long years that so much plowing has been done so early.

THE OUTLOOK is very bright for the most of us

. . . Peace talks on the Korean peninsula are going on. . . road improvement for Ohio, and plenty of business ahead—despite the wailing of some. So let's hope that Old Joe Jackson will bring a little rest to the world—after all the Russians seem to be the ones causing the biggest stink.

DRIVING NEW CAR

Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Lynch of Shelby are now driving a new blue four door DeSire Chevrolet.

WEATHER

March was another mild month, much like April than March, with a high of 73 on the 21st and a low of 12 on the 8th. The average for the month was 41 degrees or 1.4 degrees below normal.

Rainfall, while frequent, totaled only 1.69 inches—or 1.61 inches less than normal; snowfall was also light, measuring only 2.8 inches. It was a good month for outdoor work, and Spring plowing was well under way at the end of the month. This was one of the few winters to be the first time in January 6.

TRANSFERRED

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smith who have been living at Corpus Christi, Texas, are being transferred to Brownsville, Texas. The Smiths have been living in their trailer home while Don is in service and ask that their Advertiser be sent to Mrs. Smith's parents for outdoor work. Mrs. D. F. McDougall until they have a new address. Mr. Smith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Smith of West High street.

HEGAN — THE FITCHER

Baseball experts have been loud in their acclaim of Cleveland's stalwart pitching staff in recent years, and while they're about it, they might pause and toss an accolade at Jim Hegan, the man on the other end of the delivery department. Hegan is an automatic choice for any group of outstanding catchers, for it's a rare receiver who has more mechanical ability behind the plate or uses better judgment in the handling of a pitcher.

Hegan has such a thorough knowledge of the weaknesses of every batter that the bat swinger frequently walks away mumbling about the catcher, rather than the pitcher, for he realizes that he was fooled by Hegan, and not Jim's battery mate. The batter can often guess what is coming, fast ball, curve, slider, but Hegan has no set rule for calling his pitches and it's virtually impossible for the batter to out think him.

The Indians' backdrop has an uncanny knack of catching foul flies. He does it gracefully and easily, but more important, he darts in the right direction the moment the ball leaves the bat, an instinct which enables him to snare pop fouls other catchers never reach. In addition, no receiver does a better job of blocking off runners at the plate, a maneuver that requires greater courage than any act on the ball field. Twice during a single inning runners have crashed into Hegan and sent him reeling, but he held the ball and bounced right back on the job.

Unfortunately, the man who can find the flaws in every other hitter, finds it impossible to diagnose his own case. His batting average seldom goes above .250 and is more apt to be .225, as it was in 1952. Bill Dickey, however, has been heard to say, "When you can catch like Hegan, you don't have to hit." Inability to hit with a fair degree of consistency against left handed pitching led to his decline in batting. Jim averaged only .150 against southpaws and batted .272 against right handed. Almost as fast today as he was in his freshman summer, Hegan is one of the finest base runners in baseball. Jim was named to the American League for the fifth time in 1952 and the fourth year in a row.

The tall, slender, 32-year-old backdrop from Lynn, Mass., came up to the Indians from the minor leagues at the end of the 1941 season, served as a substitute in 1942, and after three years in the Coast Guard, returned to the Indians to become their first-string catcher. He has caught more than 130 games for five consecutive seasons, a heavy strain considering the number of close ball games and the numerous pennant races in which the Indians have been involved almost every year since 1948. The Tribe obtained Joe Tipton from the Athletics last year and Hegan was relieved of some of the burden, but he's still No. 1 man.

EYE WITNESS TO GAMES

I received a letter from a local "spy," Harold Cashman, who is vacationing in Bradenton, Florida. Harold has been seeing a few games and he tells me the Yankees are just as tough if not tougher than last year. The Tigers are reported to have more life than last year. It's too bad when Oct. rolls around that all eight teams couldn't be in first place.

Here They Come Back North With The Spring

Maybe they're following the robins, or maybe they think it's time to make garden — but here they come, those Ohio folks who have been sojourning in Florida. (Perhaps they have read that best-seller non-fiction "North With The Spring.")

With a dateline from Bradenton, H. E. Silliman says—"Just a few lines to advise that after your next issue you can send the Advertiser to my home address as we expect to start homeward on or about April 1st. Recent callers here were Mr. and Mrs. Elden Nimmons, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Sam Nimmons. Also Mr. and Mrs. Clair Tanner, Mrs. Thelma Bustline and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. White I might also say we had the pleasure of being guests at a very nice birthday party honoring our good friend Dr. Searle on his 93rd birthday."

From the post office at Ft. Myers, Fla., was sent the note from E. C. Gensinger, who writes, "The tourists about all seem to be headed for the North again, so I guess we will have to follow along with the rest. Just keep our 'Advertiser' and we will pick them up when we get home. We have surely enjoyed getting the paper every week, reading the news from there."

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Tanner send the message from St. Petersburg that they expect to leave for the North on Monday the 30th. "We are enjoying such perfect weather it's very hard to leave!" We have an idea that they will soon be with us again, however.

Another long time subscriber of the Advertiser Miss Hallie Tillson who likes St. Petersburg, Florida, for her winter home, writes she will be leaving this week for her home on route 1, Willard. Miss Tillson says "We have enjoyed the Advertiser each week and have been having delightful weather."

NORTH FAIRFIELD BOY CHOSEN IFYE DELEGATE
James A. Meyer, of North Fairfield, will be one of the Ohio International Farm to Youth Exchange delegates for 1953. He will go to Luxembourg in Europe for several months residence with the farm families there.
The IFYE program is administered by the state Agricultural Extension Service, but is financed by voluntary contributions from individuals, groups and organizations. In 1952, Miss Betty Hutchinson, of Plymouth, spent several months in Italy as an IFYE delegate. The objective is to promote more international understanding through exchange of ideas and friendships of farm youth.

THREE DIMENSION MOVIE AT NORWALK THEATRE, APRIL 9

Installation of the special equipment necessary for the showing of 3 dimension pictures is nearing completion at the Norwalk Theatre where "Bwana Devil" the world's first feature length motion picture in natural vision will be shown starting Thursday, April 9th.

The sound screen has already been polarized and the installation of a special electrical converter has been completed which makes possible the use of two projectors which run simultaneously and are synchronized exactly in order not to distort the image. Since natural vision utilizes both of the projectors in the booth at the same time it is necessary to interrupt the picture in order to change the over-sized reels. To minimize the interruptions, two, mile-long reels are used, which require four to five minutes to rewind by hand. Installation of the balance of the equipment will be completed some time this week.

Patrons who witness Arch Oboler's "Bwana Devil" which is filmed in color will be seeing motion picture history in the making, since the 3 dimension picture is like nothing you have ever seen before. The picture comes alive off the screen and is more like a live show than a movie.

"Bwana Devil" stars Robert Britton and Nigel Bruce and will start its local showing at the Norwalk Theatre in Norwalk starting Thursday, April 9th.

electricity for more people

than ever before in history

Last year we delivered 4,535,707,000 kilowatthours of electricity to the homes, farms, stores, and factories that we serve. It's the greatest amount we ever delivered in any year.

The number of customers served reached 384,140 in 1952... another all-time high.

Here's why both these records are important: the more electricity an area uses, the faster it becomes a better place to live.

Our payroll, taxes, and money spent for construction also made important contributions to the well-being of the area we serve. In 1952 we invested $40,282,000 in new facilities. Our taxes were $14,727,000. Our operating payroll for the year was $14,000,000.

Friends, Fishing Take Up Time of Root And Hillis On Trip To Florida

As ye Editor is expecting some comments on the trip that Mr. Coy Hillis and I took to Florida, I reluctantly comply. P. H. Root.

Leaving Plymouth, Saturday, Feb. 28th, via Delaware, London and Rt. 62 we were at Mayville, Ky. at noon, and an even 200 miles using Rts. 68 and 25 we made Gatlinburg, Tenn. by evening, 505 miles.

I never imagined that Gatlinburg was such a beautiful small town. Sunday morning we started over the Smokies and what gorgeous scenery unfolded as we climbed to the summit! I think it is the most beautiful spot east of the Mississippi. There is nothing on the entire trip around Florida to compare with it. I would like to spend a week in the Smokies when the rhododendrons are in bloom.

The roads are excellent thru the mountains and down thru the Carolina on Rt. 28 to Augusta, Ga.

Close to Augusta we saw a crowd ahead and assumed that it was an accident as we had just passed one about a mile back. It turned out to be President Eisenhower leaving the Augusta Country club. We were just six cars behind the procession. People lined both sides of the street and I couldn't believe there were that many Republicans in Georgia! From Augusta we took Rts. 25 and 301 spending the night at Claxton as the motels were filled at Statesboro. Monday we were in Jacksonville by 11 and it was really getting hot. It was 36 when we left Gatlinburg.

To St. Augustine on Rt. 1 and to Marieland, we took in the show and saw them feeding the porpoises. Very interesting, and it attracts large crowds. We drove to Daytona Beach and onto the beach as the tide was out. Turning inland on Rt. 92 it was a relief to get into the shady town of DeLand, and away from the fierce sun along the ocean.

We stopped at a Root Beer stand run by an elderly couple from Conn. We sampled the nice looking doughnuts, and asked for another. She told us that she baked 135 dozen on Sunday, which proves the old mouse trap story. Following Rt. 92 we were in Winter Park by 6 P. M. We had quite a time trying to find Dan Grabach and John Elliott. Our directions were wrong and we got into the colored district. You should see them in Augusta and Chattanooga. It is depressing.

We finally found the folks in a nice district and had a pleasant visit. Tuesday morning we passed thru Orlando, a very nice city, and on thru miles of orange groves to Lake Wales and onto the Bok Tower about three miles away on what is called Iron Mountain, the highest point in Florida and 325 feet above sea level. This sanctuary comprising 59 acres is perhaps the most beautiful spot in Florida. It includes over 1,500 large live oaks, 10,000 azaleas, 300 magnolias and 10,000 ferns. The Tower is 205 feet high and 50 feet square. It is built of grey concrete and pink Georgia marble. It is the most beautiful piece of architecture I have ever seen. It is surrounded by water and aquatic plants.

The Carillon comprises 71 bells, the largest weighing 11 1/2 tons. Recitals start at noon at which time we guessed that there were 1,000 cars parked there. We left, after a few selections, to avoid the traffic jam, and soon located Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ruckman. "Rucky" was busy installing a shower in a garage that he was converting into a nice sleeping quarters. He could stand it to be idle. He goes fishing across the street in a very nice creek. I liked his location very much. Near Avon Park we found Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schneider who showed us the improvements that they are making in their home.

We then headed for West Palm Beach via Sebring and Clewiston south of Lake Okechobee. This is a nice drive where one sees miles of irrigating ditches and thousands of acres of pasture and nice cattle. Vegetables were being harvested in the extensive muck lands. Cabbage was 3c a lb. and oranges further north were 75c and $1.00 a bushel. Wednesday we took in West Palm Beach and Lake Worth both nice cities. It was getting hotter by the hour as we went thru Miami Beach and headed south on Rt. 1 toward Key West. By evening we were at Key Largo and decided it was time to find sleeping quarters.

We saw some nice cottages called the Star Coral. The owner said rented for $100.00 a week but would put us up for the night for $10.00. We persuaded him to take $9.00. Evening we were up with possums in full bloom and a fine bathing beach. Further down the road was Blue Marlin Inn, a nice restaurant where they had a 796 lb. Blue Marlin hanging on the wall. On the menu was Lime Pie which I had never heard of and it is to be excellent.

Thursday morning opened with a blazing sun. Coy had a headache, and a party said that the rest of the trip to Key West wasn't worth it so we went some 20 miles further to the Toll Gate near which is the Theatre of the Sea. This was worth seeing as they have one porpoise that rose 16 feet to take a fish that the guide was holding. (I have a photo to prove it). At 11:30 we left Homestead on Rt. 27 for Miami. We turned off into the Everglades, and found this to be a nice town where we had our noon-day drink of malted milk. Along the trail one sees the Indians with flat bottomed boats propelled by airplane propellers. We saw them spearing fish from the canal which parallels the road. (to be continued)

ATTEND GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY AT ASHTABULA SUNDAY

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Thomas motored to Ashtabula on Sunday where they attended church services at the First Presbyterian Church.

At the close of the service, Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Bethel, former Plymouth residents, but who now reside in Ashtabula, reaffirmed their marriage vows in observance of the fifteenth wedding anniversary. As the wedding march was played, Rev. and Mrs. Bethel attended by Mr. and Mrs. Otis Bethel of St. Clairsville, Ohio, took their places before Rev. Cranston Goddard, pastor, and reaffirmed their vows.

The Coffee Hour held once a month at the close of the church services in the chapel was dedicated to the Bethels who received their friends here and were remembered by the church members with a purse, with a very fitting tribute paid them by one of the deacons.

At the Bethel home a cafeteria dinner was served to members of the family and friends. On Saturday, open house was held, and children of Mr. and Mrs. Bethel and their families came for the festive affair.

Miss Florence Danner of Shelby and Mrs. Mabel McFadden, motored up on Saturday for Open House and remained over Sunday for the church services.

Rev. Bethel now preaches regularly at North Kingsville and has substituted in the schools numerous times since his "retirement".

MEETING DATE IS CHANGED

The April meeting of the Lutheran Women's Missionary Society to be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Brinson has been postponed from Friday, April 3 to Friday, April 10 at 7:30 p. m. Mrs. David Webster is the leader.

Anyone interested in Missionary work is welcome.

WEDDING INVITATIONS ARE RECEIVED

Plymouth friends and relatives have received the invitations to the wedding of Miss Marcella Bannaworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bannaworth, of Willard, to Raymond Babcock, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. Babcock of Plymouth. The service will be at St. Francis church, Willard, on Saturday, April 11, at 9 a. m. Reception will be held in the evening at 7 o'clock at the Eagle's Hall, in Willard.

IDEAL SEWING CLUB

Thirteen members and advisors of the Ideal Sewing Club met at the home of Joyce Stoodt on a recent Monday evening. Roll call was answered by naming the project on which they worked this year.

The next meeting will be held at the Hazel Grove Grange Hall, May 11, and the Mother and Daughter Tea Party. At this meeting there will be a single demonstration by Nancy Burbour, and a team demonstration by Shirley Champion and Janet Miller.

All girls will attend the skating party at Mansfield.

EASTER THEMES USED IN KINDERGARTEN PARTIES

Two members of the Fackler Kindergarten observed their sixth birthdays this past week and to mark the occasion, each entertaining of the afternoon group. On Wednesday, Fred Buzzard treated the class to chocolate Easter eggs, ice cream, and cake with candles and was permitted to choose the games and songs.

Friday afternoon, Jennifer Haas was hostess because it was her sixth birthday. On Wednesday, Fred Buzzard treated the class to chocolate Easter eggs, ice cream, and cake with candles. Mrs. Haas and daughter Eleanor were guests on Friday.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CIRCLE TO BE ENTERTAINED MONDAY EVENING

Members of the Twentieth Century Circle are reminded of their "make-up" meeting on Monday, April 6th at the home of Mrs. J. E. Nimmons.

The February 9th meeting was postponed on account of illness and those on the program will present their papers at the Monday evening meeting. They will have an article on Tito's Early Life. Mrs. Grace Brown, one on Stalin's Private Life, and Mrs. Norman McQuown will prepare a paper on Walt Disney.

Roll call will be current events.

BUSY FINGERS CLUB

The Busy Fingers 4-H club held a meeting at the home of Margie Curren on March 10. Five visitors were present. Plans were made for the coming year. It was also planned to hold a Mothers Tea at the next meeting on March 24th.

The Mothers Tea was held at the home of Mrs. Roscoe Hutchinson, the club advisor. At this meeting all mothers were present. Three new members were taken into the club. Project books were discussed. Installation of new officers took place. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. The next meeting will be April 21 at the home of Richard Hunter. News reporter, Richard Hunter.

WONDERFUL TIME AT PANCAKE SUPPER

The consensus of opinion of all that attended the Young Adults class supper on Monday evening at the Methodist church, is that M. J. Coon is a WONDERFUL cook. The class had planned a pancake and sausage supper, the men in charge, and Coon was assisted by Leland Pugh and Raymond Brooks. Their methods and theories differed, even to the extent that Brooks went home after his own pancake mix and special frying pan, but the results were all good. Two Easter centerpieces were arranged on the tables, using rabbits, chickens, nests and eggs.

The other food on the menu was furnished by other class members, and enjoyed by all. After devotions pertaining to Easter, a round-table discussion was held. At the

Building Sterilizing Bins At Plant Here

Leo Swank, who operates the Swank Peat Moss Sales here, is constructing two open topped sterilizing bins, size 38x18 and 36x22 ft., on his farm on the south edge of town.

When completed, Mr. Swank plans to have a little party, inviting in his friends and newspaper representatives of the area to view his operations, which now are in their fourth year. The plant, a branch of the Richland Peat Moss Co., distributes peat moss through an area stretching from Cleveland to Columbus.

IN BEREHA HOSPITAL AGAIN

Mrs. Mary Pennell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merton Benedict was rushed to the Berea hospital last Friday and given a blood transfusion, and for a time it was feared she would not live. Her sister, Marge, was summoned from Winterville, Florida, and arrived in Cleveland Sunday morning by plane to be at her bedside.

Tuesday noon she was reported to be much improved, but probably faces an indefinite stay in the hospital before recovery, and, no doubt, will welcome cards and letters from her many friends in Shiloh.

OBSERVES HIS 82ND BIRTHDAY

Our good neighbor W. W. (Billy) Kester observed his 82nd birthday last Thursday, March 26. Bill is a very well preserved man for his years and is much more active than many men 20 years his junior. He pointed his house roof last fall, and every day you see him working about his garden and yard or getting into his little Ford coupe to drive out into the country to take a friend for a few hours on his farm. Congratulating him on passing your 82nd milestone, Bill, and here's hoping you enjoy many more happy and active birthdays.

Lord's Prayer On Very Small Bar

Forrest VanWagner, Fate-Roat-Heath farmer who lives on State route 178 just west of here, is the proud possessor of a tiny bar of aluminum just 1/16 of an inch on one end of which is engraved the entire Lord's Prayer — 66 words and 271 characters, including punctuation—in letters so small that they cannot be detected without the aid of a microscope.

The characters are .0026 inches in size and the bar was cast in 1/4 inch and require a mold .0025 inches high.

The bar was received by Mr. VanWagner as a courtesy of the American Type Foundry and was accompanied by a circular describing just how the work was done, which Mr. VanWagner will be glad to show anyone interested.

SCOUT ACTIVITIES

CUBS' GARDENS
NOW ON DISPLAY

Take a look this week at the Cub Scout displays in the windows of Eckstein's Hardware and Fetter's Radio and see the crops the Cubs raised last month. Den 1 has its farm at Eckstein's and the Den 2 farm is at Fetter's. Mr. Royal Eckstein was chairman of this month's program, "Life on the Farm," and he did a fine job making farmers out of our Cubs.

At the Pack Meeting last Thursday night the Cubs displayed these farm exhibits and put on two lively skits. In Den 1 Farmer Jimmy (Den Chief) Root and his son, Benny Root, had plenty to do, feeding the Hens, dogging the Pig and milking the Cow. A Pest about to feast on the Tomato, Carrot and Cabbage, was exterminated in short order by Benny with a good old Flit gun, while Farmer Jim sowed corn among the Pack.

Farmer Dave Roberts of Den 2 had his troubles also. His hay stack (3 Cubs) and the Scarecrow showed signs of life when three Black Crows caw-cawed into the corn patch and started to peck at the corn. Farmer Dave rushed out for his trusty stout gun, came back and Bang, Bang, Bang — one cork — three dead Crows.

The farm atmosphere was enhanced with the singing of the "Old Gray Mare" and "Old MacDonald had a Farm." Old MacDonald's animals oink-oinked and moo-mooed all around the farmyard. Leaving the farm, the Cubs donned their Indian head bands and gathered around the camp fire for the Wolf ceremony. Two Belkans from Den 1, Jimmy Fetter and Dicky Lewis, became Wolves and received their Wolf badges. To the beat of the tom-tom the other braves did a whooping good war dance around the new wolves to honor their new rank.

Two of our Cubs, Fate Christian and Joey Boyle, missed the Pack Meeting because they were sick and we hope they are much better by this time.

The theme for April's program is a Minstrel which will be produced under the guidance of Bob Young. Bob is going to present the minstrel at the next Pack Meeting which will be held at the Boy Scout Hut on Thursday, April 30, at 7:00 p. m., unless the weather is too wet or too cold, in which case the meeting will be at the high school.

Met at Mrs. Markley home. Jimmy Fetter led pledge of Allegiance. And we practiced for pack meeting. Our den mother treated us. K. B. Dick.

Area Deaths

VINCENT EKEY

Senior were held Monday afternoon in Greenview by Vincent Ekey, 73, who passed away Friday at his home near the village. He was born in Shiloh, and had spent most of his life in this area. Surviving is his widow, Faye, one son, Ford, of Dayton.

William Hasselbach, 86, a retired farmer, died Thursday evening in the Bellevue hospital after an illness of three years. Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Buck, Bellevue, and two nieces, Mrs. Perry Swander, North Fairfield and Mrs. Bertha Stockley, Willard.

Funeral rites were held Sunday at the Waters and Smith Funeral Home and burial made in the Bellevue cemetery.

JESS RETTIG

An unexpected heart attack on Friday night ended the life of Jess Rettig, 56, at the Eagles club room in Willard. Services were held Monday afternoon at the Fink Funeral home in Willard, with burial in Galion. Surviving is the widow, Ethel, and one son, Richard.

STORK ARRIVALS

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Courtwright of Walnut st., Plymouth, announced the birth of a son at the Willard hospital on March 22. He weighed six lbs., six oz. and is named David Marvin.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Huston, of Shiloh, are the parents of a son born Saturday at the Shelby hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Lafferty, Shiloh, are the parents of a daughter who arrived Saturday afternoon at the Shelby hospital.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank Doctors Butler, Moffatt, Hannum, Miss Hoover, nurses, aides, and tray girls for their wonderful care; the Sunshine club, Rev. Lubold, Rev. Young and all my relatives, friends and neighbors who visited me while in the hospital or remembered me with cards and gifts during my recent confinement. It was all greatly appreciated.

RURAL FAMILIES GET

LEGAL SLANTON

LEASES, CONTRACTS

Extension Service meetings have been held in four districts of the county to assist rural families in understanding some of the common legal affairs. It was reported by Miss Mabel G. Fernald, Home Demonstration Agent.

John K. Wells, County Agricultural Extension Agent, discussed Farm Leases and Mortgages at the first series of meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Bracy, Norwalk Attorneys, have discussed the need for people to have a will and other legal problems of interest to the different groups at the second series of meetings which have been held at New London, Hartland and Willard.

The Northeast District will hold its meeting Wednesday evening, April 8, in the Court House, Norwalk at 8 o'clock. Rural men and women who have not had an opportunity to attend the meeting in their own district will be welcome.

PAST MATRONS MET TUESDAY

Mrs. Elizabeth Ellis was hostess to the Past Matrons of Plymouth Chapter on Tuesday evening. April 1, at the Court House, Norwalk at 8 o'clock. Rural men and women who have not had an opportunity to attend the meeting in their own district will be welcome.

Mrs. Gladys Fetter read the devotional material on the Star Point of Ruth, and this series is proving to be very interesting.

After a short business session, a social hour was enjoyed, and then a delicious Easter luncheon was served. Mrs. Hodges invited the Past Matrons to meet with her on Tuesday evening, June 2.

TOURIST CLUB ENDS 1952-1953 SEASON

Nine members of the Tourist Club and one guest, Mrs. Richard Hunt, were entertained Monday evening, March 30, when Mrs. Helen Hoffman of Shelby was hostess. Dinner was served at Town House in Shelby. The table was decorated with jonquils and pussywillow and suggestions of the Easter season.

After dinner the club drove to the lovely home of Mrs. Hoffman where they were beautifully adorned with forsythia and jonquils.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Belle Bachrach in the absence of President, Mrs. Grace Brown. Mrs. Golda Priest led the study hour with an article selected from the March issue of "National Geographic Magazine," "On the Winds of the Doanesean."

The authors, Jean and Franc Shore wrote of their exciting adventure among the Isles of Greece.

The club will meet again in the fall at the call of the newly elected president, Mrs. Belle Bachrach.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to sincerely thank friends and neighbors for cards of sympathy and acts of kindness shown my family during the illness and death of my mother. Everything was greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Royal Eckstein and family

ALPHA CLASS WILL MEET APRIL 7

The Alpha Class of the Lutheran church will meet on Tuesday evening, April 7, at the church annex. Hostesses will be Jessie Trauger and May Page. Miss Sourwine will have charge of the devotional period. All members are reminded to bring their thimbles, needles and thread to this meeting as there will be sewing for the hospital.

Mrs. Bertha Newmeyer and daughters visited on Monday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Robinson and family in New Haven. The occasion was the birthdays of Mrs. Newmeyer and Mrs. Robinson.

Mrs. Earl McQuate and sons were in Struthers Sunday where they called on the former's grandmother, Mrs. Emma Shilling.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Pugh and family of Shelby were entertained Sunday in the home of their son, Charles and family.

Carl Davis had his first train ride in a number of years last Wednesday when he went to Cleveland to attend the Sportsman's Show.

COUNTY SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT TALKS TO FARM BUREAU BOARD

Members of the Board of Trustees of the Huron County Farm Bureau at their meeting last Wednesday evening, heard Ralph Brown, County School Superintendent, talk on school conditions and school legislation. Mr. Brown told the group that there was a definite shortage of teachers, especially in the rural area, and that with the constant increase in birthrate more facilities are needed. Teachers salaries are not high, and the teaching profession was attractive to young people, and consequently time, retired teachers are being employed.

Mr. Brown pointed out that the state's share for the support of public schools had decreased with the years and in order to keep pace with the rising cost of education, the financial burden has fallen on the property owners. A Legislative Council has been formed in the county, composed of school people and citizens, to examine the various proposals before legislature and make recommendations.

The Council represents the school districts of Bellevue City, Norwalk City, Willard City and Huron City. Mr. Brown urged anyone who had questions to get in touch with his office at Norwalk.

During the business session, Mrs. Paul Haver reported that the Women's Committee was serving dinner for the District Youth Council meeting being held at Monroeville high school, March 28. Plans also got underway for a county-wide Fun Night for Farm Bureau members to be held at Monroeville high school on April 25.

John Seelinger, organization director, tendered his resignation to become effective April 1st. Mr. Seelinger will enter the insurance field as representative of the Farm Bureau Insurance Companies. The Board extended their best wishes for his success in his new work.

Clean Up For Spring!

Ohio fires in 1952, according to Charles R. Scott, State Fire Marshal, caused the largest property loss in the history of the Fire Marshal's office. Approximately 30 million dollars worth of valuable property was consumed by flames.

He is urging that all Ohio citizens clean up for Spring. Clean homes and premises seldom catch on fire, he stated. Your chances of having your property destroyed by a visit are in direct proportion to the amount of rubbish you allow to accumulate. Rubbish may not be a cause of fire in itself, but it supplies the fuel for a carelessly discarded match, cigarette or stray spark.

Americans probably keep more rubbish than any country in the world. We also have the worst fire rate. There are two reasons for this rubbish record. First — national procrastination — "I'll take care of the trash barrel tomorrow" philosophy. Second — we have a lopsided sense of thrift. We are a nation of strivers and thrifty collectors. We hate to throw anything away. We hang on to things like Uncle Josh's coonskin coat or a broken down deer head in the vain hope that we may be able to use them sometime.

Let's forget the "keep everything" attitude and start now in the basement where 57% of all home fires start) and go through to the attic and CLEAN-UP FOR SPRING before we are CLEANED OUT BY FIRE.

Bill Guthrie Tells of Beauty And Thrills Found On Alcan Highway

Editor's Note: This is the second installment of the article written by Clyde Caldwell of Shiloh on the trip of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Guthrie over the Alcan highway.

"At Tok, northern terminus of the Glenn Highway, we entered the Alcan Highway and our traveling direction changed from north-easterly to southeasterly. At the Northway Motel, a little farther on, we stopped and ate lunch, and just a little farther on at Seaton's Service Station and Store, Milepost 1235, we gassed up again and I tried to get a picture of a beaver lodge and dam. I almost broke my neck climbing about 60 feet down along the dam, but the picture was a fizzle. However the site is a good place to get pictures of both dam and lodges of the Alaska beaver.

"The elevation had been gradually rising as we approached the Alaska-Yukon border, but the timber areas which generally follow the drainage systems remained much the same, consisting of white and black spruce and occasional small tamarack, birch, cottonwood and aspen. There are dense growths of alder and many varieties of willow in swales and draws along streams, but there are no pines in Alaska. We encountered jackpine when we got down to Klunene Lake in the Yukon, but that seemed to be as far as they extended.

"We ate lunch at the Northway Motel, a short distance from the Yukon border, and shortly afterwards, at the Boundary Road house on the Yukon-Alaska border, we moved our watches ahead one hour to Yukon Standard time. This was our first change.

"At Klunene Lake we paused a while and I tried to take a picture of the majestic mountains that enclose it. The scenery is magnificent and the area is an outdoorsman's paradise. Great hunting and fishing for lake trout and grayling and placer gold mining. Here you can pan your own gold.

"We traveled 437 miles that second day, and spent the night at Silver Creek Lodge, a short distance this side of Klunene Lake. The place is located in a park-like spot and has fine cooking, a licensed tavern and gas and oil service. Our lodging cost us $5.00.

"Saturday morning we resumed our eastward trek feeling much refreshed after a good night's rest. The 60 foot wide road of stone and gravel is not quite so crooked here as it is farther back. In the mountains it winds and twists. You are surrounded by towering mountains and you would think to look at it that the road could never wind its way out, but after a time you would look back and the pocket was behind you and another was looming ahead.

"That day we passed through Whitehorse, famed in Jack London's stories of the gold rush days. It is now a thriving town of about 5,000 population and has been greatly benefited by the advent of the Alaska Highway. It has modern hotels, stores and service shops, a theater, schools and churches. Here is located the Robert W. Service, poet of the Yukon, memorial cabin. We did not, however, take time to visit it.

"We passed many beautiful lakes, including Marsh Lake and the long finger-like Teslin Lake, which in Indian means 'Long Wait'. The lakes are ford-like with many bays stretching off into the timbered highlands, reported to be teeming with game. No doubt, this region will some day develop into one of the greatest resort regions of the North.

"As Saturday afternoon waned, we stopped at the Upper Liard Trading Post near Watson Lake for a much needed dinner and rest, and shortly thereafter stopped for the night at the Upper Liard Hotel, called the 'bush country Stater' because of its friendly hospitality and service reminiscent of the famed Stater hotels.

"We had driven 420 miles that day and were feeling pretty tired, but the hospitality of the place soon caused us to throw off our weariness. Heated rooms were provided and the cafe provided excellent meals and service. We enjoyed ourselves very much and the cost of our night's lodging was only $6.00.

"At Jac and Mac's Cafe and Auto Camp we ate a leisurely breakfast the next morning and then took to the road again. We were very near the Yukon-British Columbia line, and when we crossed it at Milepost 627, we turned our watches ahead once again to Pacific Standard time.

"The road was still pretty crooked and the price of oil kept increasing as we advanced. We had been paying around 60¢ for an Imperial gallon, which is about 5 quarts, but at the place where we spent the night, it was marked 65¢. 'Heck', I told Bea, 'I'm not going to pay that much. We'll just go on until we find it cheaper'.

"I had about a half tank of gas and a five gallon reserve in the trunk, so I knew there was no danger of running out right away, although gas stations are sometimes 250 miles apart. When we came to the next station, however, I just had to get gas and it cost me $8.16 to fill the tank with 12 gallons — 68¢ a gallon.

"We were now driving through the Rocky Mountains with wonderful scenery all along the way. We passed by Lum'n Abern's, a colorful north country trading post, about the middle of the afternoon. It has real log cabins and is classed as a 'must' stop on the way. We were in a hurry, however, and did not stop.

"Sunday night found us at Mason Creek Lodge, another pioneer spot of Western hospitality. The cabins were quite comfortable and we spent a restful night and enjoyed a leisurely breakfast there the next morning. The cost of our lodging here was $3.00.

"Once again we took to the road, and around noon drove into Dawson Creek, another community with a pioneer history that has increased greatly in population since the start of World War II. In 1942 it had a population of only about 300 and today boasts over 4,000 and is still growing. It taps the great wheat belt of the Peace River country and is in an area rich in gold, oil, coal and timber. It is just beginning to taste the prosperity which most certainly lies ahead.

"It is here that the Alcan Highway starts and here the not quite yet completed John Hart Highway branches off connecting Dawson Creek with Vancouver, Seattle and the Pacific coast. It is classed as Milepost Zero in the 'Milepost Guide Book', published by Alaska Hiway Research Co. at Anchorage, Alaska — a 'must' for every traveler over the Alcan Highway. It provides him with valuable information on every town and station along the way, and the information therein I found to be very accurate. It costs $1.00.

"From Dawson Creek we followed the Highway on through Grand Prairie, and at High Prairie, near Lesser Slave Lake, we spent our last night in Canada.

"Here we encountered real pioneer day accommodations. There is an oil boom underway in the vicinity and all hotels were occupied. The only accommodation available was a rustic cabin at the edge of town. It was furnished with an old majestic range and woodbox in the rear and a reservoir for hot water — just like the ones I knew at home when a boy.

"The place was cozy and comfortable, however, and it seemed something like old times to get up in the morning and build a roaring fire in the range. When I returned after a trip to the outside, I found Bea with a chair drawn up to it and toasting her toes in its oven.

"From High Prairie, we passed on through Edmonton, a booming city of 150,000 and the capital of Alberta called the 'Treas of the North.' It is the trading center of the rich Peace River country, packed with oil, coal, livestock and wheat.

"Further on we passed through Calgary, Alberta's second city, and another prosperous community, thriving on the wheat and livestock of the area, and thence down through Lethbridge, through the Canadian-U.S. customs, and on into Shelby, Montana, where we branched off east and south through the States.

"We covered 2,510 miles from Anchorage to the U.S. boundary, 4,540 miles from Anchorage to Shiloh, and the trip took us exactly 9 days and 4 hours.

"We arrived in Shiloh on Saturday, Nov. 8, tired, glad the trip was over, but glad, too, that we had been able to make it. I had carried three extra tires all the way from Anchorage, but never had to use them. We did not have a bit of trouble all the way.

"I'm going back to Alaska again this summer, am planning on leaving the latter part of March. I am going up by plane, however, to get things arranged for the boys who will come up later in May — Dale Reynolds, Bob Elliott, Foster Smith and others. Bea will make the trip by plane this year also. Although enjoyable, the one trip over the Highway will last us quite a while.

"This will make Bill's third year in Alaska, and he thinks it will be the last, for the work is rapidly nearing completion. The work is government work connected with radar installation over the entire peninsula. Bill is a supervisor for the Hursh Construction Co. of Columbus, one of the contractors. The house he and Bea lived in last year in Anchorage is waiting for them, although he has had to pay rent on it for several months this winter to hold it. It is a comfortable frame dwelling, according to the pictures he showed us, with all modern conveniences. Compare houses, Bill says, rent from $175.00 to $200, a month during the working season and are almost impossible to find. By paying three months rent on it this winter, he gets it for about half that.

"Before closing our little interview, Bill had this information to pass along to anyone contemplating a trip over the Alcan Highway during the summer months:

"Expect to encounter a lot of dust. The road is of gravelly construction, and in the heavy traffic of summer the dust settles over the road in an almost impenetrable cloud. We escaped that, as traffic was very light. I think we encountered just two cars on our way down over the Highway.

"However, at that time of year one is taking quite a chance with the weather. Winter can close in suddenly, almost without warning. We hit it lucky. The weather was mild all the way, about like we've been living lately.

"At High Prairie, where we spent the night with the Majestic range, we had half a notion to linger a while. When the old timers there told us, however, that a year ago at that time the temperature stood at 25 degrees below zero and about four feet of snow covered the ground, we decided to keep on moving.

LIBRARY BOARD ENTERTAINED

Miss Virgie Fennor very nicely entertained the Library Board Thursday evening at her home. New books for the rental shelf were ordered and other routine business transacted. Townpeople are reminded by the librarian of the material on Ohio available to all, in honor of the state's Sesqui-Centennial year.

Following the business meeting, refreshments were served by the hostess. The Board will meet in April with Mrs. F. Pitzen.

Telephones and Mink Coats

WHAT do mink coats have to do with telephone service? Nothing at all — the mink coat is a luxury and the telephone is a necessity . . . but the tax on your telephone service is HIGHER than the luxury tax imposed on mink coats!

Last year subscribers of the Northern Ohio Telephone Company paid $890,688.32 in taxes for local and toll service. This amount is in addition to the $890,127.05 paid in county, state, and federal taxes paid by your Telephone Company.

school now stands. This last letter comes from Dr. Harold U. Sykes, a Lakewood dentist, who at one time was a little boy in Plymouth, the son of a local doctor. This former schoolboy says,

"Ever since some weeks back when you mentioned Miss Sibbett, I've been wanting to write. I'm quite sure there are many more former pupils of Miss Sibbett's roaming around than just Verda Trauger Weller and myself. I know of one other reader who started her education with her — that is, my sister, Mrs. Eula Sykes McLaughlin in Waupaca, Wisconsin. Being a Yankee descent, the Yankee thrift in me makes me send on the hometown paper to Sis and getting a good $3 worth out of it."

"If I'm not mistaken, Miss Sibbett taught first and second grades in the Plymouth schools for 29 years. She had offers to go to large school systems, but due to the fact that her parents lived over in or near Delhi, she preferred to stay on in Plymouth where she could be near her aged parents. She was a wonderful soul, and an excellent teacher, and I know some of us just couldn't understand why she couldn't be promoted along with us children when we went in to the 3rd and 4th grade room."

"I'll tell you a story concerning my sister that Mother told. In those days we had occasional hygiene talks from the teachers. Miss Sibbett had been telling my sister's group about nicotine in tobacco. Sis was a little confused about the word, and when she saw our father when he came home she said, 'Papa, you must quit smoking cigarettes because they have nicotine in them.' For MISS SIBBETT said so! Miss Sibbett's word was law and gospel to us youngsters."

"Our father smoked 'home made' ones of Bull Durham. During the war when cigarettes were rationed, I passed some one on the street who had to resort to rolling his own, and he had used the same brand of tobacco Dad had used to use, and the odor of it brought back to my mind seeing Dad coming down a country home walk, (where he had gone for a professional call) rolling one."

"I was just a lad of nine the last summer he lived, and I drove the horse for him so he could relax between house calls. We didn't know it until after he was in his last sickness, that he'd told the oldest brother, who was also an M.D., that he took me along that summer so I could drive him home if he should have a stroke while out making house calls."

"Had it happened that way, I probably would have been too frightened to have been able to do much. 'Old Fred', the horse would probably have had enough horse sense to have gotten us home."

"There's another reason I've been wanting to send an epistle to the Advertiser. More or less recently, one of the former Plymouth 'boys' was honored by being elected president of our Ohio State Dental Association. Dr. Arthur C. Heibert, of Akron. He is the son of Rev. Heibert of Akron who just recently celebrated his 90th birthday."

"Speaking of birthdays, I just got back from helping my brother celebrate his 77th today in his home in Shaker Heights. (This would be Dr. Will Sykes). This next April it will be 55 years since he became a practicing dentist, and he still goes to the office five days per week and of course for emergency calls, the other two."

"This is a much longer letter than I expected to pester you with, so—

Cordially yours,
Harold U. Sykes
(Our sincere wish is that more people would "pester" us in a like manner with such letters.)

I've found a sensible way to pay bills and buy things without overburdening my budget. "I just add together payments, bills I owe and the extra cash I want for purchases and other things. I consolidate this into a cash loan arranged on signature alone, car or furniture. Then there's just one place to pay a budgeted amount each month. And, of course, I want my financial affairs handled quickly, privately and in a friendly way. That's why I see . . .
