Two-week visitor who stayed lifetime, fire chief issues warning on heating

He was sent here for two weeks in 1942 and stayed a lifetime — at least that part of a lifetime that gives a man grey hairs, an aching back and a long record of community

Judson A. Morrison took time out this week, on the heels of recognition by the Standard Oil Co. of Ohio for an advertising promotion he dreamed up last winter, to speak from under another hat — one of three he wears seven

He took off the visored service station chapeau to don that of fire chief in issuing re-minders to householders at the beginning of the heating season. "We want to prevent fires, not fight 'em," Morrison said, "and here are some tips that will help to do so."

"Ordinary precautions and common sense will prevent almost all home accidents involving, heating appliance." most all home accidents involving heating appliances.
Furnaces, water heaters, intiferators and room heaters should be checked for adequate ventilation, proper adjustment and safe connections.
Burning any fuel without a good fresh air supply can produce carbon monoxide. Vents carry away the products of combustion, a nd therefore should be checked regularly.
"Make sure the heater is vented to a good chimney.
"See that the vent pipe goes up, not down, to reach the chimney.

"See that there is a cleanout opening with cap in the chimney under the vent (stove pipe).

"See that the chiminey is clean (One way is to blow smoke into the clean-out oppening to make sure it is draw-ing properly. If the smoke is drawn into the opening and up the chimney, the draft is suffi-

"See that there is outside fresh air to the space where the heater is located.
"Have a quaffired, licensed installer connect and adjust your heater.
"Don't use a cook stove for room heating.
"Finally don't neglect calling an authorized repairman if you suspect that your heating equipment is not working properly, or if you smeller fumes. It may cost a few dollars but it may save your life."

LAST NIGHT, THE NEL-sonville native who was sent

Carter scores thrice, Red rips Mohawk in independent play

Plymouth's Big Red warmed up for Butler with a 40 to 8 victory over Mohawk here Friday night.

The Big Red struck for a touchdown in the first period and two scores in the second and never was in danger after the first few minutes. Dan Carter, the main offensive gun Plymouth, broke around end for 13 yards and the first end for 13 yards and the first Red score to climax a 77-yard drive in 12 plays. Two aerials, Dayton Reed to Jim Russell, one on fourth down and the other on third, kept the Red in business.

Reed passed to Ken Van Loo for the PAT.

Reed's pass to Russell for the PAT was not good.

Amilin punted after four plays to Reed on the Red 33. From this point, the Plymouth eleven required 19 plays to score. A 20-yard safety pass from Reed to Russell, on third down, was the key play. Reed threw eight yards to Carter for the third TD. Plymouth was set back 15 yards in its try for the PAT, but it might as well have been 115, it was that far from success.
