

Goodbye, hello to old, new pastors

Departure of the Rev. Robert F. Hall for another charge, a bigger one, is not unexpected. It is natural for the younger man to seek greater challenges.

He served his parish well and faithfully and we wish him success in Elyria.

His successor, the Rev. John H. Worth, comes here from a small city, a county seat, a college town. These are circumstances which Plymouth cannot match. Many advantages accruing to one who resides in such a community simply will not be available here.

But there are some advantages obtaining here which neither Wooster nor any small city can match.

One of them is the privilege of knowing everybody. And of everybody knowing you.

And another is that everybody is reasonably interested in your affairs, without being nosy.

We welcome the new pastor and his young family and urge our friends and neighbors to be friendly and neighborly with the Worths.

Where do our graduates stand?

This is Commencement month throughout Ohio.

The state's high schools, for the most part, will be graduating 12th graders and casting them into the maelstrom of our materialistic society.

Perhaps 40 per cent -- and the figure is admittedly high -- will go on to college.

The remainder will enter the labor market, save for those who join the armed services.

Without considering how our school rates within the state, let's look at how our graduates must rate with those of the 49 other states.

Ohio's teachers receive an average of $5,367 annually, and Ohio ranks 19th among the states:

Ohio ranks 24th with teachers having four years of training, with 65.6 per cent.

State contribution per pupil of $136 ranks Ohio in 32nd place.

Total expenditure per pupil of $388 ranks Ohio in 23rd place.

The state ranks 24th in average length of school term, of 177.9 days.

Ohio ranks 35th in pupil-teacher ratio of 26.9 to 1.

All of these factors affect public education.

They are not the governing factors, of course, because what the community wishes to do about its schools governs the quality of education.

Is it the duty of the professional school people to lead the community? To some extent, it is, we'll admit.

But it is primarily the duty of the community to tell the professional school people what it wants, to set standards.

But it must also furnish the wherewithal so these things can be done.

You can have the best school if you're willing to insist upon it and pay for it.

Clerk's records show it's spring: many moving

The Stanley Rosses occupied premises at 220 Plymouth street Monday.

The Lonnie Hasses moved from 9 Fortner street to the second floor of the Sprowles premises at Park avenue and West Broadway.

The Theodore Rosses are vacating an apartment at 9 Fortner street to move to Huron.

Mrs. Ruby Cross vacated 34 West Broadway and moved to Willard.

The Paul Brewsters moved from 108 to 34 West Broadway.

The Chalmers Lykesses, Willard, have occupied the house of Mrs. J. O. Schreck in Mills avenue.

The Ronald Mumeas have vacated premises in Mill street and moved to 45 Bell street.

Paul Weatherbie, Greenwich, fiancé of Patsy Pagel, has rented premises at 37 West High street.

Mrs. William Hough vacated the Miller apartment in Railroad street and occupied an apartment at 11 East Main street.

Youth, 17, admits thefts, police say

A 17-year-old Plymouth youth is reported by Willard Police Chief Calvin Fillings to have admitted he stole four automobiles and 32 pounds of marshmallows.

Fillings said Lewis Lee Kimberlin, who lives in Plymouth route 1 in New Haven township, was taken into custody on suspicion of theft of 24 cartons of marshmallows from Harvey's Sav-Mor store in Willard. Under questioning, Fillings said, Kimberlin admitted he took the marshmallows and four automobiles, all of which have been recovered.

Kimberlin also told Fillings, the chief said, that he is under probation by a Kentucky court on a charge of breaking and entering.

Mrs. Osborn's kin dies at Shelby

Shirley Hawk named class valedictorian

Shirley Ann Hawk, elder daughter of the Kenneth Hawks, Plymouth route 1, is the valedictorian of the Class of 1961, Plymouth High school.

A talented musician and singer, she intends to enter Kent State university in September to major in education.

She received Friday night the John Philip Sousa award for outstanding service to the high school band.

Kay Elaine Forsythe, daughter of the Robert Forsythes, Shiloh, is salutatorian of the class.

She intends to study nursing at Ohio State university.

Sewer service line defined; to repair New, Brazilian streets

What is a sewer service line? An hour's debate produced Tuesday night a formal definition and established a policy by which village council will discharge its moral and legal obligations toward householders whose sewers may be clogged.

A line of four inches or more in diameter serving two or more householders is a sewer service line, the council ruled. If it is clogged, the village will assume the responsibility for cleaning it.

No change in standing policy governing cleaning of stopped sewer lines was made. It is the duty of the householder to prove that any stoppage of a sewer line has not occurred on his property. If excavation or examination of the service between sewer lateral and house, at the expense of the householder, proves it is clear, the village repairs the stoppage at its expense.

Mayor William Fazio said it is village policy to charge actual wage cost plus cost of materials used by village employees when municipal personnel are employed to clear sewer stoppages.

May 18 and 19 were set as official clean-up days. Huron county residents wishing to dispose of trash must place it in manageable, sturdy containers on May 18. Richland county residents will be served on May 19. Cardboard boxes will not be considered as sturdy containers by the street department.

Richland county commissioners were criticized during a lengthy discussion about street repair.

"We're fortunate that Huron county, and New Haven township, come in and help us with our street work, but neither Richland county nor Plymouth township does much," Mayor Fazio observed. "They'll give you a lot of hard time saying they don't have any resolution on file, but as we proved in the case of the post office alley, the resolution was on file a whole year before we got any action on it."

HE WAS REFERRING to a request for Richland county assistance in repairs to the alley east of the post office, between Trux street and Mills avenue. It will now be repaired by the county at a cost of not more than $300.

Huron county road crews will repair North Street road and New and Brazilian streets, at a cost of not more than $1,000. Councilman Donald E. Akers voted against this measure, chiefly because he wants a definition of "seal coat," "drag coat" and "resurfacing." His colleagues seemed assured these would be forthcoming and supported the resolution.

Akers announced he will not

Driver training out of PHS curriculum

Driver training will no longer be a part of the formal curriculum of Plymouth High school, Board of Education decided by 4 to 1 vote Thursday night.

Only President Judson A. Morrison opposed the measure to economize, in view of reduced state foundation funds, by eliminating the subject. It will be offered on a tuition basis during the summer of 1962.

It was only coincidental that the driver training instructor, Lewis J. Petit, resigned, after six years in the system.

Mrs. Guy Flora cited "demands of a growing city" as her reason for resigning as fifth grade teacher at Shiloh.

New contracts were authorized for 11 administrators and teachers, as follows:

John Fazzini, elementary principal, three years;

Wayne H. Strine, high school principal, two years;

Harold Davenport, instrumental music, two years;

John Arndt, vocal music, two years;

The building will measure 1,021 sq. ft. inside. It will be serviced by 3,850 sq. ft. of black asphalt paved parking area and maneuvering space.

Cost of the building is estimated at $14,000. Occupancy is set for June 1.

Charles E. Davis has been postmaster since 1926.

Mrs. Frank Fenner, fifth grade; L. J. Root, Jordon Holt-house, Edward W. Kinsel, Paul Fazzini and Franklin Koonitz, junior high school, two years;

Mrs. Franklin Koonitz, junior high school, one year.

Frank R. Garber was relieved of teaching duties in the industrial arts field to give full time to guidance work.

Six-week summer courses in typing and health, on a tuition basis, may be available in the high school beginning in June, Supt. M. J. Coon reported.

Saas to erect, lease New Haven USPO

Albert J. Saas will erect and lease to the post office department a new concrete block and brick structure in Route 61, about 200 feet north of the traffic light, for New Haven's new post office.

The building will measure 1,021 sq. ft. inside. It will be serviced by 3,850 sq. ft. of black asphalt paved parking area and maneuvering space.

Cost of the building is estimated at $14,000. Occupancy is set for June 1.

Charles E. Davis has been postmaster since 1926.

Cheesman's kin dies of heart attack

Forrest Cheesman, 54, succumbed to a heart attack Tuesday afternoon while gathering mushrooms near Loudonville.

He was a Shelby resident 25 years. He was retired from the Shelby Seamless Tube Works.

A sister, Mrs. George Metzger, Shelby, and a brother, Isaac, Sulphur Springs, also survive.

Last rites will be conducted today at 2 p.m. by the Rev. I. M. Farnsworth from McQuate Funeral home. Burial will be in Greenlawn cemetery.

Mrs. Chatfield discusses impact of history on doll

Mrs. Walter L. Chatfield traced the history of dolls in a short talk Tuesday night at the Mother-Daughter banquet in First Presbyterian church.

Doll images were common in early religious beliefs, she said. Later they became toys. The Greeks were the originators of the finest dolls during the early period.

The Italians made beautiful figures which were used for church holidays.

Cornish dolls were playthings of American Indian children in the 17th century.

"Doll makers strived to make an unbreakable doll," she said, "the English wooden doll, of which she showed two examples, one dating from 17-86, were among the earliest of this type. Later, when porcelain was used, fine workmanship was the goal.

Germany became the leader in doll making and continued until World War I, when an attempt was made in this country to duplicate the fine feature in the porcelain faces. At the end of the war, Germany again regained her position in the doll world. Now the United States has become the leader.

May 16 and 17 have been scheduled as Clean-up days in Shiloh.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Beard are the parents of a daughter born Monday in Shelby Memorial hospital.

Mrs. J. J. Chila, Mrs. Harley Kendig, and Mrs. Madge Kirkwood attended an American Legion Auxiliary meeting at Tiffin Apr. 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ruckman and Mrs. Leo Russell spent Sunday at Athens where Ohio university was paying special tribute to the mothers of students.

Mr. and Mrs. John Elliott and son, Sam, of Shelby spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Merton Benedict.

Mrs. W. W. Pittenger was taken Tuesday to Shelby Memorial hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Cloyce Adams and two daughters and Mrs. Cloyd McQuate visited Mrs. Ida Bell Garrett at Paramore Rest Home Sunday.

There will be a pre-school clinic today at the new elementary school building.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Rish of Crestline were Sunday guests at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, the C. David Rishes.

Mr. Williams, an aged man home with the L. S. Hamman family the past several years, was removed this week from a rest home to a hospital in Tiffin.

Darley Arnold, a patient in Shelby Memorial hospital last week, was re-admitted Thursday.

Mrs. Chatfield discusses dolls

NOT ONLY WERE DOLLS playthings for children, but were used extensively to show fashions. "The Fashion Doll" was sent out four times a year from the leading French dress designers to show milady what was the latest in French designs.

Mrs. Chatfield also showed one of her favorites, a small brown "baby doll" made in Germany for the South Sea Islands. The doll was designed as a native. She observed that each country wants its dolls to look like its own residents.

She also showed several types of paper dolls from her collection.

A musical program by Mrs. Moss Rutan and Mrs. J. Raymond Willet who sang a duet and Mrs. Donald Baker, who also sang, preceded. They were accompanied by Mrs. Charles H. Dick.

Mrs. Ralph Riem, who was introduced by her daughter, Mrs. James D. Cunningham, spoke on the role of mothers. Mrs. Cunningham responded for the daughters.

Mrs. Harry Dick gave the blessing before the potluck supper in the church rooms.

Bowmen to shoot in Loss Creek field

Huron Valley Bowmen will take part in the league shoot Sunday at the Loss Creek club. Registration is from 8:30 until 9:30 a.m., and the shoot begins at 10 a.m.

Stop and See What We Have!

We still have several farms for immediate sale at this late date. Have you seen our cozy home for one or two?

We also have several two and three bedroom ranch style homes for sale, take your pick. A home with an income (duplex) maybe yours for the price of an average home. We have a lovely two bedroom home on the edge of Willard for a retired farm couple or young people preferring country living.

The making of monuments was one of the earliest media by which man gave outlet to his creative talents.

Ranging from small tablets to towering obelisks and the pyramids, monuments to civilizations flourished thousands of years before Christ.

Today, the art of monument making to commemorate some persons, event or activity is one of our most important industries.

Men devoted their entire lives to the designing and creating of beautiful memorials to express our deepest sentiments. Representative of the highest standards in this field is Longstreth Memorials, 134 Harding Way, West, Galion, Tel. Howard 8-3477.

Longstreth Memorials is represented in Plymouth by Elmer Markley, 28 West Broadway, Plymouth, Tel. 687-5544. Established in 1866, Longstreth Memorials provides a complete and beautiful line of memorials and markers in granite, marble and bronze. Its artistry in executing the most difficult assignment is exhibited in the finest pieces of sculpture.

The least that can be done materially to keep alive the memory of one close to us is to erect a suitable marker or memorial over the last resting place.

More than 93 years of service is a good criterion of both ability and desire to serve.

Longstreth Memorials can work best when plans are made far in advance of their actual need. It can supply your memorials for Decoration day, if ordered now.

Books, anyone?

Lack of locomotion will hardly be an excuse for failure to use facilities of Plymouth Branch library from now on.

Girls of Scout Troop 85 will supply the transportation of books and magazines to and from the library, under terms of an agreement between their leader, Mrs. W. H. Ruckman, and Mrs. Mary H. Fackler, member of the library board in charge of the project.

Persons wishing to have books or magazines of the library brought to or taken from their homes should notify either Mrs. Ruckman or Mrs. Fackler.

"We especially hope," the Scouts said Monday, "that shut-ins and others who can't get around very well will make use of this service."

Bachrach elected by Golden Agers

Maurice Bachrach was elected president of Golden Agers club Thursday night during the potluck dinner meeting in First Presbyterian church.

Luther R. Fettes and J. Elden Nimmons are vice presidents. Mrs. Harry Shutt was elected secretary, Thor E. Woodworth treasurer and Mrs. Roy Hatch reporter.

There will be no meeting in May. In June the club will be guests of the Woodworths at their camp on Lake Erie.

Nancy and Marcia MacMichael played a musical duet during the Thursday meeting.

Young choristers to attend dinner

Junior choir of First Presbyterian church will be guests at a potluck supper with their parents Thursday.

Their director, Mrs. J. Raymond Willet, is planning the affair. Members are Gerald and Kathy Willet, Suzie Padlock, Janeane Cunningham, Minnie Fazzini, Patricia Hampton, Linda Loughman, Martha Carter, Mary Jane Echelberry, Linda Hollenbaugh, Susan Koonz, Marlene Stine, Montelle Faust, Robert Fairchild, Deborah Hoffman, Deborah Reeder, Timothy Willet, Anita Taylor, Janet Lewis and Martha and Sunday Robinson.

First communion

Fifteen youngsters will receive their first Holy Communion during the 10 a. m. Mass May 14 in St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church.

They are Lucille Berberick, Rita Phillips, Cindy Buckingham, Patricia Fidler, Thomas Dansemiller, Gary Farnwall, Stephen Donnerworth, Neil McKown, Ronald Lybarger, Michael Cloriso, David Courtwright, Terry Allen Fenner, William Fazio, Michael Beard and Michael Lillo.

Firebelles meet

Plymouth Firebelles met Tuesday night to make final plans for a bake sale May 13 in the Suttles building.

Mrs. F. E. Guthrie, Mrs. Wallace Redden and Mrs. Quentin R. Ream, the committee in charge of the social room in the firehouse, held a special meeting Saturday afternoon to discuss draperies.

Shirley Hawk awarded prize for band service

Recognizing excellence and achievement in instrumental music and singular merit in loyalty, cooperation and high quality of conduct, the annual John Philip Sousa award was presented Friday night to Shirley Ann Hawk.

Forty other musicians were awarded insignia in recognition of service to the band. They include Mary M. Blackford, Virginia L. Burrer, Hilda L. Elliott, Judith A. Petters, Kay E. Forsythe, C. Jane Hamman, Miss Hawk, Kenneth G. Turner, Carol A. Postema, Robin Root and Benjamin Root, senior pin;

Also, Anetta Dawson, Wallis Harnly, Beverly Hawk, Marcia MacMichael and Carol Sloan, junior letter; Also, Allen Arnold, Gail Aumund, Diana Belt, Sharon Dye, Robert Guthrie, Earl Hess, Janice and Susan Smith, Dorothy Stoodt and Louise Newmyer, sophomore lyre;

Also, Girard and Gregory Cashman, Richard Dye, Raymond Hankammer, Diane Kruger, Katrina Little, Nancy MacMichael, Diane Miller, Janice Porter, Diane Ruckman, Eugen Smith, Daniel Swartz, Jane Vancorp and Dean Smith, freshman certificate.

Three to receive NOTelCo awards

Two Plymouthites and the manager of the Willard exchange, Northern Ohio Telephone Co., are among 111 employees of the firm who'll receive service recognition at Fremont Wednesday night.

Donald E. Fidler and Harry B. Forquer will get five-year pins. Charles E. Tyler, manager at Willard, will get a 15-year pin.

Fidler and Forquer are assigned to District 5, Norwalk-Huron-Milan-Monroeville offices.

Loaded for trouble?

To the youngsters, a drive with the gang is great fun. But driving is serious business, too. Last year, nearly 40,000 people died in traffic accidents —many of them killed by drivers whose minds weren't wholly on their job. So stay alert every minute when you drive. Keep driving fun—and safe!

Help stop senseless killing on our highways. Drive safely yourself. Insist on strict law enforcement for your own protection. Work actively with others to support your local Safety Council. Remember—where traffic laws are strictly enforced, deaths go down.

Petit quits grid coaching post; successor to be newcomer

A six-year regime in Plymouth High school football came to an end Thursday night when Lewis J. Petit resigned as head coach.

He did not reveal his future

COACH PETIT

plans but it is reliably understood he does not intend to teach or coach again.

The rotund Ashland graduate came here fresh out of college, where he was unable to play varsity football, in the season of 1955.

His most successful outfit was the 1956 squad, which was undefeated in eight games, albeit tied once.

The 1958 outfit was his poorest. It won two and lost seven. Petit installed the split T offense and when he had the guns, it worked well. The Plymouth squads have never been deep. Mostly the coach had to make it with one spare for each position, if indeed there was a qualified spare.

Overall, his record was 28 wins, 21 losses and two ties.

His predecessor, Fred Kreutzfeld, previously a coach at Butler, where he had an undefeated team, strove hard to defeat the Bulldogs. So did Petit. But he never succeeded and if he must have regrets upon leaving his post, it is supposed they revolve around that failure.

A COMMITTEE OF THREE has been set up to screen candidates to succeed Petit. They are Maynard J. Coon, executive head of Plymouth schools; Wayne H. Strine, high school principal, and Harold E. Daup, athletic director and junior high principal.

The candidate whose teaching background is in industrial arts probably has an inside track on the job, it was reported.

Petit also coached the ill-fated Huron Valley entry in basketball and served as baseball coach (indeed, baseball is his first love) and track coach for some seasons.

He told the Board of Education he has enjoyed working with parents and players here and will cherish some rewarding experiences. While on the local staff, he married and established a family. He taught health for a time, then qualified as a driver training teacher after graduate study at Bowling Green State university.

William R. (Bill) Hess, coach of Ohio university's Mid-American conference champion Bobcats, will address the annual PHSAA dinner in the elementary school Tuesday night.

Tickets are on sale at Millers' Hardware, Bob's Barber shop, Weber's cafe, Karnes' Pharmacy and Cornell's at $2-25.

Hess was named to the top grid job at Athens Jan. 9, 1958.

A native of Columbus, he prepped at South High school there and was graduated from Ohio university. He coached and taught at Maple Heights in 1947, thereafter went to Grandview High in Columbus and rose to head coach in 1949. In 1950, he went to Portsmouth High, where his team won seven, lost two and tied one.

In 1951 he joined Coach Woody Hayes' staff at Ohio State and served seven years as varsity guard coach, head freshman and varsity tackle coach.

The Bobcats were undefeated last season. They knocked off Bowling Green in the season's finale.

Awards to varsity and junior varsity athletes will be distributed by Coaches Lew Petit, Harold Daup, Bill Flaherty, Frank Garber and Guy Flora.

COACH HESS

Esteron 99 — kills weeds that other weed killers find too hard to handle . . . yet costs as little as 25¢ an acre

It's not what a 2,4-D costs—but what it controls that counts. More farmers buy and rely on Esteron 99—for they find it's too costly to experiment with less-known brands. Tests show it's extra effective and easy to apply . . . doesn't foam . . . mixes easily in hard water, and sprays evenly. A single gallon covers many acres—an extra bushel an acre more than pays the cost. Order your supply of America's leading brand of weed killer today.
