Joy enhanced by new church

The joy of Christmas is enhanced this year because St. Joseph's Roman Catholic mission church is occupying its handsome new building for the first time.

The new church is a great credit to its parishioners and to the village.

Its priest deserves great praise for his ingenuity, the breadth of his dreams and the efficacy of his planning.

It is our hope that all who worship there, whether on Christmas eve or another time, will constantly give up thanks that Almighty God has indeed been good to them and to all of us.
