

Congratulations

That a school so small as ours should have such an ambitious, and expensive, music program has often evoked sharp criticism by patrons of the district who feel that while music is nice to have, it is not essential and when the wind is weak, the sails must be set to take the most advantage of it.

We have been, from time to time, among those who have felt that music could very well be curtailed. This feeling comes upon us mostly in the fall, when the chief activity of the music department is to produce a unit of 50 or so marchers who can play the Notre Dame Victory March and the National Anthem passably well, with files and ranks straight enough to satisfy any drill sergeant.

So it is with some surprise, and pleasant surprise, that we note here that some of our musicians scored very well indeed at the District VII solo and ensemble competition at Loudonville.

The Plymouth contingent did not eschew the difficult work. It undertook some of the most exacting compositions and performed exceptionally well. To the teacher and pupils who brought home such fine ratings, which are a good reflection upon themselves, their school and the community it serves, we add our own congratulations to those already heaped upon them.

Abuse

The new gas rates seem equitable. All should rejoice that some semblance of fiscal stability will prevail, at least so far as gas rates go, until this time in 1966.

It has been fashionable to berate the supplier and we are distressed that such abuse was piled upon its employees, who deserve considerable credit for putting up with rude, often insulting observations about their honesty and that of their employer.

We certainly do not share these notions. If the replacement-cost-new formula by which Ohio governs utility rates is wrong — and we are not convinced that it is — the machinery to change it is available to those who would do so. Let them undertake to do so in a constitutional manner. Abuse of the legitimate business which operates honestly and honorably according to the provisions of law certainly does not become the abuser.

Four entries win superior OMEA ratings

Four Plymouth High school seniors took top honors in the stiffest competition during Saturday's District VII solo and ensemble festival staged by the Ohio Music Education association at Loudonville.

Billy Young, son of the Robert Youngs, won a I (superior) rating in Class A for a baritone solo, "Calm Is the Night".

Anetta Dawson, daughter of the Robert Dawsons, Shiloh, received the same rating for a soprano solo, "The Wind in the South."

A girls' ensemble, in which Miss Dawson was joined by Karen Huston, daughter of the Earl Hustons, Shiloh, and Darlene Koser, daughter of the Alvin Kosers, Plymouth, was rated I in Class A. They sang "Velvet Shoes."

Harold R. Davenport, Jr., is the music director.

A trombone trio composed of Gail Aumend, James Hawk and James Hook was rated I in Class B. The trio played "Slippery Gentleman".

PLYMOUTH HAD FIVE entries in Class A, the "most difficult" category of selections. Deanna Amstutz, Shiloh, received a III (very good) for a soprano solo. Carol Sloan, flautist, was rated III for her solo. Donna Smith, soprano, received a IV (fair) rating for her solo.

Two other Class B ("moderately difficult") entries received grades of II (excellent).

The boys' ensemble of Billy Young, James Fettes, James Markley and Everett Eckstein and the brass sextet of Gregory and Girard Cashman, Gail Aumend, Daniel Swartz, Edwin Renz and Beverly Hawk were so rated.

Competing in Class C ("less difficult"), a flute trio of Carol Sloan, Dorothy Stodt and Diane Miller received a

Hough re-named park custodian

Carl Hough will serve as caretaker of Mary Fate park for another year.

He will begin his duties Apr. 16 at the same salary as last year, $125 a month.

Park board will put fresh stone on the drive as soon as weather permits and will replace the old white wooden fence with posts placed at five-foot intervals.

New tables will be purchased with the $91.56 received from the 1961 Plymouth Community Chest.

Reservations for tables under the pavilion may be made to Mr. Hough for $1. Those outside may be reserved for 75 cents. Robert Lewis, board member, suggested that a where near the tables for donations to the park from the public.

Leslie L. Henry top speller here

Leslie Henry, seventh grader, daughter of the Daniel Henrys, is the best speller among elementary pupils in Plymouth school district.

Among 18 semi-finalists, she placed first Tuesday Susan Root, a sixth grader, daughter of the Thomas F. Root, was second.

Third place went to Jane Fenner, eighth grade daughter of the Frank Fenners, and fourth place to Horst Renz, also an eighth grader, and son of Edward Renz.

A written elimination narrowed the field to seven. Guy Flora, high school English instructor, pronounced the words Tuesday.

Judges were Mr. Alvin Garrett and Mrs. Malcolm Brook, Shiloh P.T.A. and Mrs. Kenneth Eiselberry, Plymouth Mothers club.

OF GasCo surrenders!

Four-year pact has average 11% raise

Ohio Fuel Gas Co. surrendered in its rate war with the village of Plymouth Tuesday night.

Without discussion, the supplier offered an ordinance, passed on first reading, meeting in every detail the stipulations laid down by the village council Mar. 6.

The ordinance is expected to enter into force Apr. 17. It provides for an increase of 10.6 per cent from $15.60 to $17.20 in the monthly billing for the average consumer of 20,000 cu. ft. of natural gas.

The rate schedule is 25 cents per 100 cu. ft. for the first 1,500 cu. ft., with $2.50 minimum; 7.3 cents per 100 cu. ft. for the next 98,500 cu. ft.; 6.8 cents per 100 cu. ft. for consumption over 100,000 cu. ft.

An unlimited fuel cost clause, which expires when the contract runs out four years hence, is laid upon a base cost rate of 34.8 cents per 1,000 cu. ft. The company will re-calculate its costs four times a year. When the cost of gas at the well head goes down, rates to consumers in Plymouth will go down proportionately. Similarly, when rates at the well head rise, local rates will increase. In each case, the increment must be by one-half cent.

THE COUNCIL WON ITS point in the matter of the stand-by service and omission of the tax clause. The company will charge no more than $10 for up to four months of stand-by service in event of absence or illness of a subscriber.

There is no tax clause. Originally, the company proposed that if additional taxes should be imposed by the state of Ohio or by any subdivision thereof, these taxes would be assessed against consumers. The council argues it had no moral right to legislate away its power to tax.

Guidance director gives report

Statistics concerning the Class of 1961 and failures among pupils enrolled in 13 principal subjects in Plymouth High school now were presented to the Board of Education Mar. 14, by Frank R. Garber, guidance director.

His report to the board came after almost a year of the first full-time guidance program in the schools here. Garber said the field is relatively new in Ohio, procedures are mainly experimental and experience with statistics is weak.

Twenty-three and eight-tenths per cent of the Class of 1962 intends to go on to college, Garber said. This amounts to 12 pupils, five boys and seven girls. Another three girls intend to enter a less-than-four-year college program. Nine boys and four girls plan to enter some post-high school education program but not a college. Forty-three per cent does not plan to continue its education and 12.6 per cent is undecided.

These figures should cause no alarm. Some classes are "simply better from an academic standpoint than others," he said. "They run in groups, one year you'll have a good class, then perhaps a nother good one, then a poor one."

The Class of 1961, composed of 42 boys and 41 girls, sent 34.6 per cent on to college. This amounted to 12 boys and 17 girls. Ten of the boys and 14 of the girls — 61 per cent — are doing successful work, at an average of C or above.

Failures among pupils currently enrolled are predominantly among low intelligence levels. Forty-five per cent of all pupils who by intelligence tests rate in the lowest quarter of their classes are failing. Only nine per cent of those in the third quarter are failing and only 1.8 per cent of those in the second quarter. None of the top quarter pupils is failing.

Most of the failures are boys, in the ratio of 32 to 35.

Authority was granted Shiloh Little league to use the baseball field adjoining the new elementary school there.

Purchase of draperies for the south side of the high school addition was authorized Janes Industries, Canton, will furnish them at about $2,000. A 23 cu. ft. chest-type freezer will be purchased from Millers Hardware & Appliances for use in the Shiloh cafeteria. Its cost, less allowance on the old one, is $266.40.

Plymouthite, 24, held for action on morals charge

A 24-year-old Plymouth youth who has already served a prison sentence has admitted guilt to charges of contributing to the delinquency of a minor and faces sentence by a Huron county court.

He is Thomas Paul Marvin, 42 Birchfield street, arrested by police near Attica early Mar. 10 after he was involved in a 4 a.m. motor vehicle accident in Rt. 4. Willard police noted one of the passengers in the vehicle was an under-age Willard girl already on probation. When apprehending her for this offense, police discovered she and Marvin were registered together as husband and wife in a rooming house.

Arrested immediately, Marvin pleaded guilty.

His companions in the car were Raymond Bivens, 19, Willard, also charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor, now free on bond of $1,500 to allow him to obtain counsel; Mailee Wickler, 18, Willard, a parole violator, released to his father's custody, and Alvin Junior Robinson, 18, County Line road, Plymouth, also a parole violator.

made of Natural Gas!

Modern miracle fibers created by chemists are made using natural gas as a chemical raw material.

The suit, hat and sweater are made of Orion. The handbag, gloves, shoes and luggage are different kinds of man-made fibers and plastics.

Chemists break the molecules of natural gas and combine these elements with other elements or chemicals. As a result, invisible natural gas becomes part of thousands of familiar, useful products.

Just as modern natural gas is used in so many wonderful things today, it will play increasingly important roles in the products of the future. Gas is truly the "ageless" fuel.

Dessie, George Griffith die

George Griffith, 82, died yesterday in Shelby Memorial hospital, three days after his wife of nearly 62 years.

He was in failing health for several months before going to a rest home. Saturday night he had a cerebral hemorrhage from which he did not regain consciousness.

Born near Ft. Riley, Kan., where his parents had homesteaded, he came to Ohio at 13 by covered wagon, a trip which took six weeks. As a young man he worked with construction crews to build railroads and water systems, including the New York City system.

In 1917 the Griffiths began farming in Richards road near Shiloh. In 1937, after he had fractured a leg and it did not heal properly, he gave up farming and they moved to their home in Petit street, Shiloh, where they have lived ever since.

Active in Masonic circles, he served as master of the Blue lodge. He also served a number of terms as county commissioner.

His three daughters, grandchildren and great grandchildren, and two sisters, Mrs. E. P. Smith and Mrs. Floyd Tucker, both of Shelby, and a brother, Charles, Mansfield, survive.

Last rites will be conducted by the Rev. Harland L. Dague from McQuate Funeral home in Shiloh Saturday at 1:30 p.m. Burial will be in Mt. Hope cemetery.

Final rites were conducted for Mrs. George Griffith Tuesday afternoon in McQuate Funeral home, Shiloh.

Mrs. Griffith, 80, died Sunday in Shelby Memorial hospital. A lifelong resident of this locality, she was born in North Fairfield. She was in failing health a long time.

She was one of the oldest members of the Methodist church in Shiloh, a past matron of Angelus chapter, OES, and a member of the Get-Together club.

Her husband, George, with whom she would have celebrated her 62nd wedding anniversary Apr. 15, survives.

So do three daughters, Mrs. J. Phillips Moore, Plymouth; Mrs. Mildred Krueger, Oberlin, and Mrs. Evelyn Mowery, Shelby; six grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

The Rev. Harland L. Dague conducted a funeral service. Members of Angelus chapter conducted a special service Monday night. Burial was in Mt. Hope cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to the crippled children's ward at Children's hospital in Columbus.

Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Myers were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dawson and sons of Willard.

Miss Kay Forsythe and Jesse Hugh Hamman are enjoying a week's vacation from their studies at Ohio State university, Columbus.

Terry Russell, Ohio university, Athens, and James Russell, Capital university, Columbus, spent the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harris, Mansfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harris, Columbus, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Boyce.

Mrs. Mary Seibel, Columbus, spent the weekend at her home in Shiloh.

Members of the Junior and Senior Luther leagues, together with a number of neighbors and friends, were guests Sunday afternoon at the sugar camp on the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Egner.

Mrs. Egner sent out weiners to roast and a variety of other foods for the guests to enjoy in the open.

Miss Janet Baker has recently been employed in the cafeteria of Westinghouse Corp.

Birthday anniversary of Keith Dawson was honored when he and Mrs. Dawson were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Nesbitt at a dinner at Hill Top restaurant in Mansfield.

Robert Gundrum, Jr., left Cleveland by air yesterday to report to Lockheed Missile and Space agency, Sunnyvale, Cal., where he has acquired a position. He is a graduate of DeVry Technical institute, Chicago, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Myers and daughters and Mrs. Edd Silliman spent Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Cronenweil and family at Shelby. The affair was in celebration of Mrs. Silliman's 86th birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Spins of Mentor, were guests of Mrs. Edna Gieseman over the weekend.

Village council discussed organization of a civil defense unit for Shiloh and Mayor Glenn Swanger appointed A. W. Firestone to inquire of Commissioner Fred Dawson for any information available concerning civil defense programs.

A committee was also appointed to make appraisal of village properties to determine front footage assessments to pay for the village sanitary sewer.

WSCS will meet at the church at 7:30 p.m. Monday. Mrs. Jean Smith will lead the devotions, and Mrs. Mary Brooks will conduct charge of the program.

Mrs. John Bryan will serve as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Forsythe and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Forsythe and family were in Elyria Saturday night, guests at a party at the home of Mrs. Gladys Hackett.

The affair honored the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Hale. Mrs. Hale is the former Miss Gwendolyn Forsythe, daughter of Mrs. Hackett.

Refreshments were served cafeteria style from a decorated table. There were about 50 persons in attendance.

Shiloh, Plymouth and Hazel Grove Home Demonstration groups met yesterday with Mrs. Robert Wagner, Mrs. Marian Kirk, Richland county home demonstration agent, gave a talk on "Learn to Be Satisfied With What You Have."

Under the direction of John Arndt and Harold R. Davenport Jr., the Junior High school chorus and band presented the program for the P-TA meeting Monday night. During the short business session plans were discussed for the Spring Festival to be held May 5.

Seventh grade mothers furnished refreshments.

A. W. Firestone recently sold the Ernest Davis property in Lux street, Plymouth, to Mr. Spencer of the same place.

Mrs. Frank Dawson underwent surgery at Shelby Memorial hospital Monday morning.

Mrs. Sam Grove of Shelby visited Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Wallace Harnly.

Eugene Russell, 37-year-old farmer living in Bowman Street road, has been appointed trustee of Cass township, succeeding Ray Kirkendall.

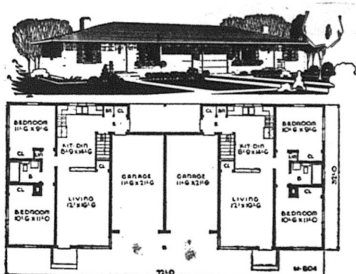

Born in the township, Russell owns and operates a 200-acre farm. He is married and the father of two children. He is a member of Garrett-Riest Post, American Legion, Shiloh.

Kirkendall was chosen by the Democratic party as its nominee for a post on the Richland county board of elections. He was forced to give up his post as trustee.

means "weekly" in French. In Plymouth, "weekly" means The Advertiser.

So it has been for 109 years — the community's weekly journal of news, features and advertising. Note that "weekly" is spelled with two e's. It wouldn't be accurate, not to say fair or honest, to spell it "weakly".

Because The Advertiser isn't weak. It covers the whole news front broadly, without fear or favor. It's the reader's watchdog in government, in education, in civic affairs. You can't be au courant (that's French for "up-to-date") with what's going on in Plymouth unless you read The Advertiser. You can pay for it weekly, at 10 cents a copy (for the time being), or at $3.50 annually (also for the time being).

Less than 12 weeks remain in the current school year. About 64 youngsters expect to receive diplomas in May. Some of them need help to continue their education. You can participate. For each new subscription, or renewal 30 or more days in advance of expiry date, The Advertiser will pay 10 per cent into a loan fund for graduates of Plymouth High school.

Catch! None, except that the money must be repaid by the borrower. This offer to subscribers terminates May 30, 1962.

hebdomedairement — that's The Advertiser. The translation is "weekly". Certainly not "weakly". This week and every week, read Plymouth's best news and advertising medium. Subscribe now. Help a graduate get advanced education.

Timber-toppers headlining outdoors show at Cleveland

Spectacular tree climbers from Oregon, Harold Johnson and Malcolm Harper, will provide a death-defying grand finale for the twice-daily thrill programs at the 25th anniversary production of the American and Canadian Sportsmen's Vacation and Boat show.

It opens at Cleveland Public Hall tomorrow and continues through Sunday, Apr. 1.

Using no nets or protective devices and equipped with only their climbing boots and coils of rope, the men will race to the top of twin 80-foot trees. But this is just the beginning. Then they will change trees, drop a handkerchief and attempt to beat it to the floor below!

It all takes only a few seconds, but the bark and splinters really fly through the air. It's a dangerous contest, easy to slip. In truth, it's a "show stopper."

Malcolm Harper holds the all-time world record for speed climbing — up and down, 10 feet each way, in 43½ seconds.

Harold Johnson started climbing trees competitively when he was 18. He won the world championship in tree topping by climbing 100 feet, sawing off a section of tree 14-inches in diameter and returning to the ground in three minutes and 12 seconds. This was a world record until he beat himself a few years later and won both climbing and topping championships, doing the topping in two minutes and 25 seconds.

Also featured will be Ann Clark, America's foremost archery champion; Carmel Gowan, Canadian-born world champion roper; Nancy and Barbara Morris with her twin water-performing seals will be on the bill.

Orin Benson and his fabulous pointers and retrievers, Orwin Harvey, California's king of the water comics, and Frank Weed will be master of ceremonies brought back by popular demand for the third year in a row.

Tomorrow the show will be open from 6 to 11 p.m. On Saturdays and Sundays it will be open from noon to 11 p.m. On other days from 1 to 11 p.m.

Reserved seats are now available at Public Hall for $2. General admission is $1.50 for children under 12, 75 cents.

Physical fitness prowess on tap at school Apr. 4

Physical education department of Plymouth High school will stage a "Physical Education Night" Apr. 4 at 8 p.m. in the gymnasium.

The William Ramseysers will supervise about 90 pupils, both boys and girls, in a series of exhibitions of group calisthenics, tumbling, relays and volley ball, to demonstrate some of the organized activities being carried on by the department.

The demonstrations will conclude with exhibitions of the kinds of tests being applied in the school's physical fitness program for both boys and girls. Tests of physical coordination and abilities at all levels will be executed by pupils as to age and training.

The public is invited.

Four share lead to be king, queen

Two boys share the first lap lead in the race for king of Plymouth High school athletic association, Director William Flaherty announces.

Two girls divide honors for the lead for queen.

DORIS DAY

Those "PILLOW TALK" lovers are at it again!

TONY RANDALL

"LOVER COME BACK"

In Eastman COLOR

Suzie sez:

After listening to me wrestling with my Ohio history studies, Pop says it is time I should consider how I want the country and the state to be run.

He keeps telling me some ideas about how it ought to be run, although I must admit he always starts by saying, "You make up your own mind, but this is how I see it."

Lately he and Mom have been doing what they call "unwinding" by talking politics. To start with, Mom and Pop vote for different parties, although they are both registered in one party. This I do not understand all the way through, but if it makes them happy, who am I to object?

They keep talking about Mr. Goldwater and Mr. Rockefeller and Mr. Nixon and Mr. Romney (well, Pop does) and sometimes about Mr. Kennedy. My candidate is Ebin-ezer G. Sneezzer, who is a young, ambiguous candidate. He was born 93 years ago on Whig Hill, where he has operated a still for the last 83 years. He has no party affiliations, mostly because he does not use Lifebuoy or Command or stuff such as that. Nobody will affiliate with him. He is the only candidate who is running in the other direction, Pop says.

His platform is that if elected he will eliminate all taxes, of all kinds. He intends to do this by having the legislature eliminate most of the reasons for taxes — schools, roads, prisons and, most important, politicians. He is the man who will not tolerate waste in government (this means he must be intolerable), the man who cannot bear to see high taxes (he's unbearable), the man who ignores pressure from groups (he's ignorant).

Really, I am only joking. Pop takes things so darn seriously he will probably leave this out. Then I won't have any column.

CHIP SAYS HE IS READING for English a book about the new dance by an old author. The author is Charles Dickens and the book is "Oliver Twist."

WHEN I HAD TO GET eyeglasses, and became what Pop calls an optical cripple, he and Chip made fun of me. Pop recited a poem about it.

"Men seldom make passes
At girls who wear glasses,
Seldom get neck-ties."
Now I have got to get back at him.

"The girl who wore glasses
And pined for lost passes,
Now chuckles and cleanses
Her contact lenses."

Just wait! Pop gets the bill for my contact lenses, which I will order as soon as I can.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Sir:

There once was a pretty little girl who was two years old. She was quite healthy and had been walking for several months and then, all of a sudden, she was crippled and her parents were told that she would never walk again. She spent almost a year undergoing several operations at Gates' Memorial hospital in Elyria.

She is now a grown woman with four grown sons. She did have the determination to walk again although she has had very little control over one of her legs. All through her life she had a pair of crutches around the house and used them often.

She was able to bear some of the burden of expensive medical care because of the generous donations of our own people right here in Huron county.

Have you ever had the experience to have a member of your family fight for a chance to use his arms, legs or hands?

It is certainly an experience and I pray to the Good Lord that you will never have to go through the turmoil. Before I finish this unrehearsed letter may I add that the girl mentioned above is my mother. Will you give some serious thought to making just a small contribution to the 1962 Easter Seal drive? You will feel so happy and so will we. If you wish you can mail your money to any person connected with this year's drive or to Mrs. Jay Lydy, 725 Dale avenue, Willard, executive secretary for the Huron County Society for Crippled Children, and a wonderful person. Thank you so much.

John Borgla, 1962 Chairman, Easter Seal drive.

Teachers to parley

Prof. Everett Rogers, sociologist in Ohio State university, will describe the effect of suburbanization on Richland county schools before the Richland County Education association here Apr. 3 at 7:30 p.m.

About 200 teachers and administrators of the county system are expected to attend.

A graduate of Iowa State university at Ames, Professor Rogers is the author of "Social Changes in Rural Society".

His principal interest is analysis of suburbanization, industrialization, population shifts, transportation and improved communications of rural residents.

At 8:30 p.m. departmental meetings in several subjects will convene. Plymouth teachers in charge of their fields of study are the William Ramseys, physical education, and William Flaherty, health.

New gas contract approved by council tion contract with Plymouth township was agreed upon in caucus with the three trustees. The new pact calls for three fire runs for $900 annually. Subsequent fires will be charged at $150 each. The contract which expires called for two fires for $1,000, with subsequent fires at $150 each.

"THE BEST INTEREST OF the village would be served by keeping the cemetery section's job separate from the street supervisor's job," Mayor William Fazio told the council. But he had no nomination of a successor to Henry Trauger, who resigned in November, as street supervisor. It is understood Trauger would re-consider at $900 annually.

Alden E. Stilson & Associates, Ltd., Columbus, sent a second billing for $18,325, representing what the firm says is its fee to terminate the contract which it entered over 14 years ago to provide sanitary sewer advice, design and construction supervision.

Only one of the councilmen, Charles Vansadale, showed any sentiment for negotiating with Stilson. The others voted to table the bill, a motion which Vansadale joined.
