Two local men held for theft

Two Plymouth men and three companions are charged with breaking and entering in the night season after they were caught in the act of stealing from Peek-a-Boo inn, New Haven, at 3:45 a.m. Saturday.

They are Merle D. Chaf-fins, 20, Base Liine road, and Herman Keene, 22, Base Line

Their companions are Lynn C. Cox, 22, 206 Spring street, Willard; Clifford Slone, 19, 280 East Main street, Norwalk, and Edd Smith, 22, 520 Emer-ald street, Willard.

DEPUTY SHERIFF DAVID Bauer reported during a rou-tine check of the establishment at the early hour he saw a sedan with four occupants parked near the tavern. He ordered the vehicle to stay there and approached the building, the rear east door of which he saw was slightly ajar.

Covered by an assistant with a riot gun, Bauer went to the door, saw that its latch was broken from its hinges.

He saw a man carrying what appeared to be a case of soft drinks.

Who picked the daisies?

LADY BUXTON . for The Petite Fleur Set. b picks The Petite Fleur Set? A very special kind of girl. She's it as the daisies, with a wild-flower wildness. Gay as the daisies, at home anywhere. Who? You! The set, in country colors you'll. The leather on which the daisies bloom: a new fashion excite-t, two-thirds textured and one-third smooth.
