Old Timer welcomes Wynn back to the Wigwam

dians simply don't have it this year, the fan can nevertheless cheer the return of Gus Wynn to the big top.

For here is a competitor, a man who'd throw at his mother if he thought she could get a base hit, a tough, hardnosed character who plays baseball as it was meant to be played.

And it is fitting that he should return to the wars in the uniform of the club for which he won the greater share of the 299 victories he has recorded in the American league.

PRIMA FACIE

Schools are out. Now, kids, your favorite dugout will come tumbling down with reverberations — devastating to no end for youngsters who had just one place, out of harm's way, perhaps no more such haven. Some people are capavle of ering also. Don't look baik until you get abreast of Jump's Variety. You may make half turn to the left. REMEMBER DON'T COLLAPSE as you see those quizzical eyes scanning all that pass, looking for 10 who wish with Lot (Gen. 19:1-26). Any Biblicist will gladly assure you may laugh too long, as done and portrayed in a movie, "Sodom and Gomorrah.

Never doubt the Omnipotent and say it ran't happen here.

Read Uncle Bill often. Open up and air out your mental closet. All undesirable family skeletons will take French leave.
