only 6% in five years —

Census of farms in Huron county shows lower number

Huron county showed a total of 1,557 farms in the 1969 census of agriculture, U. S. Department of Commerce's Bureau of the Census reports.

In the last previous census of agriculture in 1964 the number of farms reported in the county was 1,582.

Of the county's total farms in 1969, 996 are reported as selling $2,500 or more of agricultural products in the year, as compared with 1,094 in 1964.

The report also shows average farm size in the county was 178.7 acres, and average value of these farms (land and buildings) was $56,969.

Other figures from the report are:

1. Value of all farm products sold in 1969, $17,828,404; in 1964, $15,869,500.

2. Value of all crops sold in 1969, $10,745,308; in 1964, $10,103,452.

3. Value of all livestock, poultry, and their products sold in 1969, $7,023,631; in 1964, $5,652,947.

Reported for the first time in an agricultural census is information on the extent to which the corporate structure is being used by operators of farms from which agricultural products totaling $2,500 and over were sold.

Including family farms using this type of business structure, six of the county's $2,500-and-over farms are incorporated.

Six teachers beat wage freeze —

1,947 free lunches served in September

Six teachers found a way Monday night to beat the wage freeze.

They submitted to Plymouth Board of Education proof of satisfactory completion of additional professional training amounting to 150 or more semester hours of work and were accorded merit pay increases.

But the increases were based on the old salary schedule, not the advanced schedule adopted by the board for inception Sept. 1.

The teachers are Mrs. Daniel M. Henry, Mrs. Edna Richards, Mrs. Carrie Kistlar, Mrs. Gerald Lillo, Roderick Brown and Miss Linda Yackee.

CAFETERIA OPERATIONS costs cannot be accurately pegged until later, Supt. John Fazzini said. The three cafeterias served 19,643 meals during September, 1971, as compared to 13,633 during the same month of 1970. The increase is attributed to the new closed lunch hour rule in the High school and the opening of the cafeteria there.

The burden, Fazzini pointed out, is aggravated by two factors

1. "We served 885 free lunches in September, 1970, but 1,947 free lunches in September, 1971."

2. "Last year we received 34 cents reimbursement for each needy lunch but this year we will get only 19 cents in reimbursement."

The cafeteria system started the new school year with a deficit of $3,284.01.

Operations during September showed a paper profit of $90.26 at Shiloh and a paper loss of $640.87 in the two cafeterias in Plymouth, which may be laid to increased inventory in the Plymouth operation, Fazzini said.

INVESTMENT OF THE proceeds of the sale of building bonds produced $37,676.95, a total of $7,676.95 more than anticipated, as of Oct. 12, Fazzini reported.

When all bills for new construction are paid, $1,012 will remain in the account, he said.

Repair of the bus garage roof will be undertaken by Orland Thomas, Mansfield, on his bid of $1,550.

Baccalaureate and commencement exercises will be conducted Sunday, May 28, 1972.

TWELVE WOMEN were approved as substitute cooks in the two cafeterias and five men were accepted as substitute bus drivers.

The women are Patricia Owens, Emogene Masterson, Oleta Ramey, Inez Moser, Alice Brown, Carolyn Seaman, Joyce Rinehart, Margaret Kok, Mrs. Willard Postema, Marie Butler, Mrs. Charles Vanasdale and Mrs. Miles Wilson.

Men are Robert Guthrie, Ralph Hauvette, Bryan Neff, Keith Johnson and Lawrence J. Root.

Neff, Root, Myron Am-

stutz and Thomas Neeze were hired as after-school-hours instructors in driver education at $5 an hour.

A survey of costs of driver education in the six schools of the Richland county system showed Plymouth's average during 1970-71 was $40.68 for 117 pupils. State average is $45.

Use of the gymnasiums by private groups was reviewed and the rates for such use adjusted. New high school gymnasium will cost $16,000 high school gymnasium $12 and Shiloh gymnasium $6.

the National Funeral Directors' association and in the Ohio Funeral Directors' association and was formerly a director of the Richland County Automobile club.

He was a member of Mt. Hope Lutheran church and of Shiloh Lodge 544, F&AM.

His daughter, Mrs. William Ross, Shiloh; a son, Donald, Mansfield; a brother, Alvin, Shiloh; two sisters, Mrs. Minnie Lybarger, Shelby, and Mrs. Grace Amstutz, Columbus, and four grandsons survive.

Winterjell —

a fable

In the ancient fiefdom of Winterjell — just before that rich and beautiful principality disappeared — the populace was alarmed.

"Our way of life is being endangered," they complained to the baronet and to his council of elders. The hamlet of Springburg complained that outsiders were moving in, threatening the value of their castles.

Up Hermans way the townfolk objected that an artesian wished to make pots behind his moat and that Hermans simply was not the place for potmakers.

Spanrivers, on the other hand, were eager to get any potmaker they could, providing that they made their home elsewhere. The Valestown people thought that the Spanriver folk had the right idea.

All seemed in agreement that the king imposed killing taxes, offered few services and always seemed to consider people more important than property.

Clearly it was an impossible situation.

The solution was simple. The residents of Winterjell rose up and struck down the power of the baron and his elders. Thereafter, they decreed, all matters would be referred to direct vote by property owners.

The system worked well for the first month but soon they discovered a shortage of pots — the potmaker could find no place to live. They sent out couriers to seek a replacement, but it appeared the word had not got around.

Without pots they soon had to wash in the streams and eat uncooked food. Water became their only beverage and that had to be lifted from hand to mouth from a creek.

Disease became prevalent. There were some pots to be had in a few hamlets, but obviously they would soon break if they were shared with potless communities.

When things looked darkest, however, word crept through that the neighboring fiefdom of Seekingtown had potmakers, few outsiders and low taxes. The exodus began.

Twenty years later in the ancient fiefdom of Seekingtown — just before that rich and beautiful principality disappeared — the populace was alarmed.

Auntie touts 'Desiderata' as fine formula for life

By AUNT LIZ
Americans are really strange people. I have been one for so long, but even though I have lived in several other lands, I really do not know anything except being an American. Somewhere, somehow, we have a quirk in our thinking and are absolutely suckers for anything which turns up with a really beautiful and thoughtful message.

By now you probably have heard a record on your radio made by Les Crane called "Desiderata". The first time I heard it on a Detroit station, it rang a bell. Somehow it was an old message, but I knew it from someplace. It was supposedly found in an old prayer book in Baltimore about 1692. Now there has been such an interest in its origins, librarians who have been working overtime searching books say it was rather recently written by a man named Ehrmann and is in a collection of his poetry. It was our daughter who unraveled where we had seen it. A copy of it was hanging on a wall in her apartment when she was at Miami university last year.

All of us need something like this every now and then, so I am going to copy the words with the hope you might cut them out and hitch them on the bathroom mirror where you will see them each day. Here it is . . .

"Go placidly amid the noise and haste and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly, and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs, for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and youth, there is perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore, be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy."

Red beats Cougars in Homecoming

Plymouth overcame out-casted but dead game Crestview to win its Homecoming game here Friday, 28 to 6.

It was not a rewarding performance for Redfans who hope to see their team achieve a respectable Johnny Appleseed conference record.

Plymouth is now 1-and-2 in the league and 2-and-3 for the season. From here on it's all uphill, starting with Ontario there tomorrow.

Only after the opening kickoff did Plymouth manifest any of the authority that its supporters held out hopes for. The Big Red took the ball at the outset and completed it for slightly over nine minutes in grinding out 60 yards in 20 plays for the first touchdown. Bill Van-Wagner, who was later to fumble away a certain touchdown within 18 inches of the Cougar goal, scored from a yard away. All but 11 yards of the distance was covered on the ground, Van Wagner and Mike Hamman, a worthy substitute for the ailing Kim Carter, racking up four and five yards at a clip.

Larry Taylor rolled out for the PATs but was short.

Plymouth scored the next time it got its hands on the ball.

Crestview could not gain and punted to the Red 37, where Hamman took it in and sped 63 yards down the south sideline, wheeling behind two crushing blocks and finding daylight.

Taylor passed for Jim Cutright for the PATs.

penalty and the accurate throwing of Eric Anderson to score in five plays. There were 44 seconds remaining in the half when Gary McCraw snared Anderson's throw, good for 13 yards and the TD. The run for PATs was short.

Plymouth clearly dominated the first half. Crestview had a minus 14 yards rushing and only 26 yards passing. Plymouth, correspondingly, was 97 and 24.

The Big Red broke it open in the third period with a score the second time it got the ball.

Van Wagner's fumble at the 18-inch line cost Plymouth an earlier touchdown.

Crestview punted out to the Red 34. Plymouth scored in seven plays, the last one a nifty 13-yard throw from Taylor that Cutright snatched at knee level and strode in. Taylor passed to Cutright for the PATs.

A Taylor pass aimed for Ray Hughes was intercepted by Crestview at the Cougar 10 to stop another Red drive.

Pushed back to its five, Crestview was compelled to punt with about six minutes left in the game.

THE BALL CARRIED to the Cougar 25, Taylor passed to Van Wagner for the Cougar 10 to stop another Red drive.

14 and after a penalty for roughing the passer set the Cougars back to their eight, Hamman scored. A pass for PATs was not good.

Neither team threatened again, although at the final gun Crestview scored. A pass for PATs was not good.

The less said of Plymouth's performance, the better. Hamman got an opportunity to start for the first time and showed reason to expect greater things later.

Big Red 21st in A

It is no surprise that the first computerized rating of high school football teams by the Ohio High School Athletic Association is a complete farce.

Consider: Plymouth defeated South Central, 22 to 0. Yet the Trojans are ranked ahead of Plymouth, in 17th place, in the first standings. South Central is tied with Bluffton and Marion Catholic. Plymouth is in 21st place, sharing with Liberty Benton, Danbury and Ridgemoor. Monroeville and St. Paul's share fourth place with Arlington.

Montpelier holds first place in Region 10, Class A.

Pleasant is second, Ada third.

McComb and Buckeye Central share seventh place, New London is alone in ninth.

Just what should the Plymouth village council be doing?

In the past six weekly articles, we have told you what we have done.

THESE WERE THE MAIN TOPICS:

1. Village Finances
2. Electric Department
3. Water Department
4. Streets and Sewers.
5. Disaster Fund, Fire Department and Police Department
6. Civic Improvements

We have tried to perform our duties as councilmen in a manner that the citizens of the village require. And in many instances we have devoted unusual amounts of our own time and resources to accomplish our goals. We have not always succeeded in satisfying each member of the community. But what we have done, we believe to be in the best interest of the community in general. We would like to know how to better improve our programs and how to better serve you -- the people of Plymouth. We welcome your comment, suggestions or helpful criticism.

VANDERVORT FOR MAYOR

This is the third report to electors on results of a continuous opinion poll being conducted by the VANDERVORT FOR MAYOR COMMITTEE. (Go to the polls and vote Nov. 2, 1971.)

To conduct this survey, about one-third of local telephone numbers were selected at random from the telephone book. The results will be shown each week. The last report will be in issue of The Plymouth Advertiser. The last report will be in Oct. 26 issue of The Plymouth Advertiser.

The cumulative data regarding each candidate tabulated by the VANDERVORT FOR MAYOR COMMITTEE is as follows:

	7/24	8/12	9/2	10/9	10/23
Brumbach	not dec.	2%	1%	1%	These percentages are
Paddock	18%	16%	16%	18%
Vandervort	27%	18%	11%	6%	based on estimated
Washburn	21%	15%	11%	9%
Undecided	34%	49%	61%	66%	total of 420 votes cast.
% of voters polled	4%	10%	12%	15%
Not reg.	8	24	31	41

COMMENTS AND ANALYSIS:
The poll tabulation for Oct. 9 will appear in next week's issue. To make the statistics herein more interesting, the percentages for the period Sept. 25, when applied to the estimated number of 420 votes to be cast on Election day, show the candidates receiving approximately votes as follows: Brumbach, 13; Paddock, 222; Vandervort, 76; Washburn, 109.

The time to work hard for your candidate is NOW!
It will be very interesting to compare the Oct. 28 report (six days prior to the election) on the same basis.

The actual election results will be tabulated in this newspaper.
Please continue to call in your opinion and enhance the position of your candidate. Tel. 687-6161 or 687-6344. It will be recorded.

THIRD PLANK, CAMPAIGN PLATFORM:
To explore the surrounding area to determine if there is an unlimited supply of clean surface water available for the village. With an abundant water supply, additional fire hydrants should be installed in our more populated area and business district. This would insure lowest fire insurance rates obtainable under the volunteer fire protection program.

THE RUMOR MILL:
"If Vandervort were elected mayor, he would balance the budget by reducing the village payroll or employee's pay check."

COMMENT:
It is not always true that we get what we pay for. This applies to goods as well as funds expended for labor. However, many in this area who have worked for me know I respect the laborer. After 35 years in personnel, industrial engineering and supervision, I have found in most cases that if there is mismanagement, the right man has not been selected for the work required of him. When a man is not rewarded for a good performance, a high rate of employee turnover and general dissatisfaction results.

I have been an active member in labor unions as organizer, president and chairman of committees for more than 20 years. To keep a man's earnings lower than an accepted standard of living without job security over the years has created today's labor union philosophy.

THE QUESTION BOX
Do appointed officials truly represent the electorate of a community?

COMMENT:
This question has an obvious answer. It is a requirement in our form of government. An election to fill council seats would not be necessary. Under those conditions, the council would be controlled by one or two persons, which may exclude the mayor.

It has been my experience that more decisions regarding village management have been made at the round table outside the council chamber, rather than around the oblong table in the council chamber.

Furthermore, the ability of appointed officials to learn their part and conduct themselves accordingly before the public may determine their position of authority at the round table.

KNOW YOUR CANDIDATE:

Nearly two decades in dress have passed since last week's report.
I enlisted in the Army at Ft. Thomas, Ky., Aug. 3, 1917.

I had acquired the nickname of "Hezekiah", which was shortened to "Heze" and is still "Hez". This came about because I was fond of a wind-up iron toy which included a clown sitting in a two-wheeled cart drawn by a bucking mule. The mule would stop and kick both heels at the clown, who would tip backward each time to avoid disaster. It was a Hezekiah's mule. Authentic reproductions of this most popular toy at the turn of the century are now on sale in limited supply for $150.

During the period prior to enlistment, experience in manual and technical knowhow was gained during summer vacations as a laborer, hod carrier, farmer, worker in a cast iron foundry, coal miner and railroad section hand.

After graduation from high school, I operated the local electric power house on a 12-hour night service, serving as lineman during the day and engineer at night. In the fall of 1915, I worked as electric meter reader, trouble shooter and bookkeeper for the Dayton Power & Light Co., Wilmington, O.

This photo was taken at Kelly field, San Antonio, Tex., in December, 1917, before going to New York, N. Y., and overseas duty with the AEF in France. I was stationed at 1st Air Supply Depot, Colombey-les-Bes, for the duration.

If digging ditches, driving spikes on a new railroad siding to the camp, chauffeuring supply trucks and touring cars all over France without lights and tops on the cars, winter and summer, won any medals, they were never issued to me.

The nearest to being a hero I ever came was when I picked up Col. William (Billy) Mitchell and Gen. John J. (Black Jack) Pershing along a highway where their car had broken down and gave them a wild 75-mile ride to near the front, where troops were being reviewed, pealked and praised before entering combat.

I was discharged at Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., July 1, 1919.
