Miss Hampton wed at Forest

Granddaughter of villager grew up here

Jacqueline Kaye Hampton became the bride of F. Alan Blackburn July 3 in Forest Methodist church.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Justine Kin, Forest, and the late John R. Hampton and the granddaughter of Mrs. Richard Hampton.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blackburn, Forest.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 2:30 p. m. by the bridegroom's uncle, the Rev. Orland Ruby, Alliance, assisted by the Rev. Ray Thompson, pastor of the Forest church.

Mrs. Russell Willeke played an organ prelude and accompanied Mr. Willeke, soloist.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her uncle, Lawrence Hampton, Amherst.

Her gown was of ivory silk organza trimmed with Alencon lace with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The Empire bodice was styled with a high stand-up lace collar and short lace sleeves. Lace appliques were scattered on the long skirt and Watteau which flared out in back.

A small pearl encrusted lace cap held her elbow length veil of Illusion. She carried a nosegay of daisies with stephanotis, carnations, yellow rosebuds and baby's breath.

Mrs. Steve Powers, the former Patricia Hampton, was her niece's matron of honor.

Mrs. Jerry Wailes, Ashland, Miss Sally Cummings, Urbana, and Mrs.

Gary Corner, Clawson, Mich., were bridesmaids. They wore gowns with tangerine crepe skirts with flowered peasant blouses. Their wide brimmed hats were encircled with tangerine ribbon. Each carried a basket filled with yellow, white and tangerine colored daisies with baby's breath.

Gary Corner was best man, James Frey, Columbus; Dennis Walters, Parma; Daniel Carey, Plymouth, Mich., and John Roettger, Upper Sandusky, ushered.

Mrs. Kin chose an apricot colored dress accented with lace and seed pearls in a band at the neck and waistline. The bridegroom's mother wore a mint green trimmed with lace and beading.

Both mothers wore corsages of small white orchids.

The couple's grandmothers, Mrs. Hampton, Mrs. Fred Sheets, Forest, Mrs. Leo Kin, Kirby, Mrs. Paul Tallman, West Mansfield and Mrs. Thomas Blackburn, Bysville, witnessed the ceremony. They wore corsages of white daisies.

A reception for 250 guests took place in the church rooms. The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. John Roettger, registered guests. Cuesets were served by Mrs. Norman Lafferty, Mrs. John Shoop, Mrs. Dale Wheeler, Miss Janet Ehrsam, Sheryl Lafferty, and Vicki and Lori Kin, the bride's sisters. Friends of the bride, Sheri Freese, Mrs. James Brewer and Mrs. Ronald Mescher, were at the gift table.

Two sisters of the bride, June and Jan Kin, carried small wicker baskets filled with rice packed to give to the guests for the traditional going-away ceremony.

For a wedding trip to Virginia Beach, Va., the bride changed to her Lorcor colored pant suit with beige accessories.

They are now living in Detroit, Mich., where he is associated with Manufacturer's Bank of Detroit.

The bride is a graduate of Riverdale High school and received her bachelor's degree from Urbana college in 1970. She taught last year in Springfield schools.

Mr. Blackburn is also a graduate of Riverdale and a 1969 graduate of Bowling Green State university, where he was a member of Sigma Chi. On the wedding eve, the bridegroom's parents were hosts at a rehearsal dinner for the wedding party at the Kenton Inn.

Things are looking up.

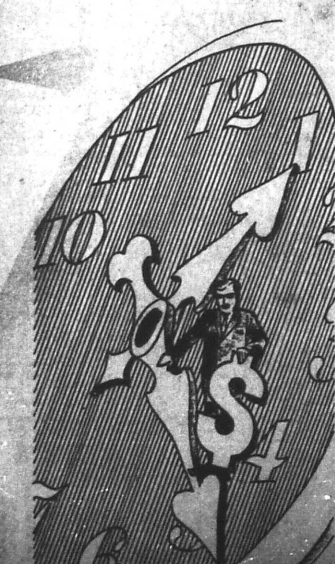

Aren't you glad you have a full-service bank?

You know, sometimes people are funny. The average person would never waste his time and energy running all over town for groceries... meat at the butcher shop... bread at the bakery... apples at the fruit stand. Instead, most people choose to shop the most efficient, most economical way. At a supermarket.

Yet these very same modern, intelligent, aware people go about their financial business as if this were still the 19th century. They have a savings account here. A checking account there. And a loan from some place way over yonder.

Some people just don't know there's such a thing as a banking supermarket. In a sense, that's what we are... a full-service bank. Everything you need under one roof. To save you time and money.

But you know that. Don't you?
