

ast half touchdowns result in second loss at Loudonville

Loudonville struck for two touchdowns in the second half there Friday night to defeat Plymouth, 14 to 8, in a Johnny Appleseed conference game.

Plymouth reported for the second half whistle with an 8 to 0 lead and held the fire initiative -- what the pros call "momentum" -- but was flat and gave up the tying score in the first series. The game was as statistically even as you could make it after the first 24 minutes. The Big Red held a slight advantage in the matter of yards gained but it wasn't enough to write home about. Where the advantage deserved wide currency was on the scoreboard, where the visitors had an eight point lead, fashioned toward the end of the first period.

Plymouth was compelled to punt after racking up two first downs during the first series. It held the Redbirds and forced the return punt, which Kim Carter fielded at the Red 49. He ran it in to the Loudonville 31. In 10 plays was in paydirt.

THE FINAL ONE WAS A one yard sneak by Larry Taylor, who rolled out to his left for the PATs. But the big play of the series was a 16-yard aerial gain to Jim Cutright, who snagged the ball with two defenders hanging to his jersey.

Loudonville fumbled at the Red 21 yard line midway through the second period to blunt a drive that began after a Plymouth punt to the Loudonville 45.

Plymouth returned the slightly set back by a 15-yard penalty. Carter's punt was good for 44 yards to the Loudonville 54 to ball the Big Red from difficulties.

Ron Zook, the Loudonville quarterback, sought to tie the score with the long bomb. He threw two successfully. Each time the receiver had his man beaten but dropped the ball. Zook then collected 17 yards in three plays by threatening to pass and then running and connected for 15 more yards on two passes as the half ended.

Plymouth had earned all it won in the first half and at this point was certainly deserving of victory.

But it didn't last long.

THE VISITORS KICKED off and Loudonville drove 58 yards in seven plays. Loudonville got a fine runback of the kickoff by Bill Van Wagner and Bob Taylor, the outstanding back on the field this chilly night, cracked off left guard and tackle for 15 yards in three shots. Bob Donelson added 10 off right tackle, Zook passed to Jim Allarding for nine, Taylor cracked tackle for six and Loudonville had first down at the Red 17.

On the next play, Ken Krupp ran the counter play beautifully and sped untouched off left tackle for 17 yards and the tying score.

Taylor collected the PATs when Zook executed the option play perfectly.

Neither team did much during the remainder of the third period.

Early in the final quarter, Plymouth stopped a Redbird drive and forced the home team to punt from the Red 44. Plymouth took over at its 23 and made a first down before, on fourth down, from its 49, with just inches to go for first down, Taylor failed to get the necessary yardage in a sneak between center and left guard.

IT WAS THIS PLAY that broke Plymouth, really. And it was the right play to make. Another direction might have been chosen, but there certainly is no fault to find with the Red bench for choosing this course of action. The Loudonville forwards ganged up because the nature and direction of the play were telegraphed but, all the same, Plymouth would have been able to make it on brute force alone.

But it did not. Inspired by this turn of events, Loudonville scored in two plays, both of them by the redoubtable Donelson. He got three off left tackle and then ran the counter for 46

Harriers score third shutout over Crestline

That rarest of occurrences in cross country racing took place in Mary Fete park Thursday, when Plymouth scored its third straight shutout, 15 to 44, over Crestline.

The Big Red was led by Tim Nesbitt in 10:06, followed by Ken Lucas in 10:08, Jim Sutter in 10:36, Brad Buzard in 10:43 and Mike Adams in 10:46.

Doug Algire in 11:04 was the first Bulldog home.

Plymouth scored 15, Madison 55, Ashland 68. Tim Nesbitt fronted the field in 10 mins. 41 secs.

Ken Lucas, in 10:42, was second, Jim Sutter, in 11:19, third, Mike Adams, in 11:21, fourth, and Brad Buzard, in 11:26, fifth.

JUST WHAT HAS THE PLYMOUTH COUNCIL BEEN DOING?

This week we will consider the fire & police departments and the Disaster storm. All firemen and police now have a telephone to receive calls during emergency situations. All of the difficulties encountered with the July 4th Disaster storm are now repaired. The total was $47,181.24. This was entirely paid for by the Federal Government. Below is a more detailed explanation of council's efforts in this direction.

DISASTER STORM

1. Broadened and cleared the Huron River through Plymouth. Paid for by government flood money. All work was done by Slessman Excavating.
2. Put in 18" tile back of the water plant to West Broadway. A new 15" tile on Sandusky Street down Plymouth East Road to creek. A new 15" tile from the center of the A.C. & Y. tracks on Trux Street to the Huron River.
3. Installed ten new catch basins, making approximately 20 new sewer taps on Trux Street.
4. $50,253.24 was spent on the disaster. We received back from the government $47,181.24. The $3,072.00 held back was due to an error by the Engineers Office in Norwalk. A change order on the size of the tile was made from 10" to 12" and should have been 10" to 15".

FIRE DEPARTMENT

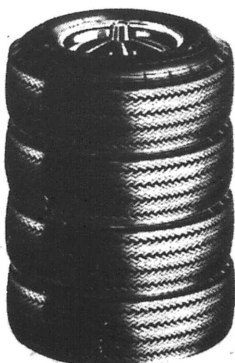

1. Installed new telephones for all Fire Department personnel.
2. Purchased all new fire hose to equip the new fire truck.

POLICE DEPARTMENT

1. Installed new telephones for Police Department personnel.
2. Inaugurated a program whereby all village vehicles are to be inspected twice each year.
3. Issued bench warrants to collect back fines, amounting to $2,000.00.
4. Inaugurated a new system by which each area of the village is patrolled at least 11 times each 24 hours.
5. Put into operation a new Radar system. Not for profit but to assure everyone that those using our streets would do so at a safe speed.

Try Nesselrode pudding which may be French

By AUNT LIZ
Our language and, I suppose, all the others, just never stops growing. Just think of all the words that have been added in your lifetime? If you are as old as I, there have been a lot of them.

No so long ago Bud Guest discussed several on that delightful morning program he does each day (not Saturdays nor Sundays).

He said you can date people by the terms they use, such as icebox for refrigerator (this I use all the time, because having the ice wagon drive down the street on a hot summer day was a great neighborhood treat; we ate all the little chips we could reach). The other word is Victrola. That word eventually to our generation became record player and now it is stereo. And lucky are the ones who still might have some of those records that Victorolas played, like the early Jelly Roll Mortons and Billie Hollidays.

Somewhere along the years words have gradually crept into every one's daily life and no thought ever seems to be given as to how they got there.

Just how many know where the word mayonnaise came from? I didn't either until I read about it not so long ago. Frankly, I always thought Kraft dreamed it up. Years ago, and that date I do not know without searching for it, the French were having a little argument in Mahon and were besieged. Mahon is on the island of Minorca, which is in the Balearics, off the coast of Spain, a sister island to Majorca, which everyone has heard about.

Things were getting rough and the food supply was becoming a little rancid (it has a lovely warm climate which attracts vacationers) so an enterprising army cook took matters in his own hands and perked it up a little by creating a sauce with eggs, oil, vinegar and some spices, hence the term "mayonnaise". Dentin, which is one of those old standby fabrics you can do so much with, also has an interesting background. The material was first made in the French town of Nimes and was referred to as "de Nimes", which means from Nimes, and eventually came a shortened tin which has been dissolved in a half cup of cold water. Stir this until it is all dissolved. Then you add about two thirds of a cup of seedless raisins (these you should cook up a little in boiling water to get them pluffy and softer), a small handful of shaved almonds, some cherries cut up and also some small bits of citron cut very finely. Then set the pan in cold water for five minutes. If you are absolutely alone in your kitchen, you can fill up the sink and let it sit. But disaster will overtake you if someone decides he needs a drink of water. That happened to me once. When you think it has cooled enough, fold in the five beaten egg whites and add about a tablespoon

as police officer

Police Chief Robert L. Meiser was a guest at dinner in Norwalk when Norwalk Christian Businessmen's Association honored three Huron county officers for long and faithful service. Among these was Sheriff's Capt. Nicholas Moll, 73, Celeryville. "Uncle Nick," said Arthur Watson, presenting the plaque, "is a religious leader in his community with morals above and beyond reproach." John C. Harpst, Plymouth, is vice-president of the association. He said nominees were selected by the seven police chiefs in Huron county, by Sheriff John Borgia and by the Norwalk post, state highway patrol.

A POSSIBLE LEADER

A little child shall lead them
Is what the prophet foretold.
When war will be studied no longer
And the lion brings no harm to the foal.
When swords shall be beat into ploughshares
The pruning hook made from the spear,
Atom power used for the good of all
And not be something to fear.
So heed what you do and say
To each child — and never cease.
To guard against harming a leader
Who could bring everlasting peace.
