Where IS everybody?

These devices to amuse the very young were installed in Mary Fatch park this year, but nobody uses them much -- as camera showed Monday afternoon (temperature 78 degrees, no wind!).

The Voice of The Advertiser --

The park

Citizens of Plymouth have a substantial investment in their municipal park but hardly any of them use it.

The park board has lately spent money on diversions for the very young and they are outstanding additions to the place.

A survey this week showed no one in the park save the caretaker and a small boy seeking a tennis partner on the nicest afternoon of the summer so far.

The park benefits by a one-half mill levy, which returns about $2,500 a year, give or take a few dollars, and in addition derives some revenue by selling reservations for use of the pavilions and some tables.

What's more, the Community chest annually makes a place in its budget to benefit the park.

We've carefully solicited opinions of a number of people, and this is a cross-section of them, unevaluated for validity, because it's what the registered voter thinks, regardless whether he's right or wrong, that determines whether a park levy will be renewed:

"It's a dandy park but I never go there except on nice nights in the fall to see a football game."

"I tried to get a reservation for my family picnic but the dates were taken up for two or three years in advance by out-of-towners."

"It's too far for me to let my preschool children and their slightly older brother to go on a nice afternoon, because ruffians drive them out of the park by making the equipment go too fast. It would be better if there were a recreation leader."

"I don't frankly know what ought to be done. Once we paid a recreation director in the park but all he did was babysit."

Busy Fingers 4-H club, as a community project, is undertaking on Saturday afternoons organized, supervised play for the very young.

This is a fine step forward, but is it enough?

The park trustees are paid a whole of a lot of money -- the grand sum of zero dollars each year -- to supervise the park and they have rendered splendid service.

They will welcome appropriate comments as to how the park can be made more attractive for every citizen -- despite the fact there are horseshoes and quon courts, shuffleboard courts, tennis courts, recreational equipment for the very young, picnic tables and grills for outings, modern lavatories, adequate parking space and access to a fine swimming pool.

Kin of villager dies suddenly at Mansfield

Nephew of Mrs. Sherman Burns, Ralph E. Faulk, 65, was dead on arrival at Mansfield General hospital Sunday.

He was taken suddenly ill at his home in Mansfield.

A retired employee of Westinghouse Electric Corp., he was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Marquis Lodge 690, P.A.M., the Amvets and Disabled American Veterans. He served in the Navy during World War II.

He is survived by his wife, Pauline, two sons, Ray, Mansfield, and David, Lorain, four grandchildren and his stepfather, W. D. Stark, Ashland.

Funeral services were conducted yesterday by the Rev. Robert D. Barr. Burial was in Mansfield Memorial park.

Shilohan held after shooting Saturday night

A 44-year-old Shilohan was charged with shooting with intent to wound after his wife received five bullet wounds Saturday night.

Jessie J. Perkins, who lives in Bowman Street road, was sought by police in a manhunt in Woods near his home until he turned up at Shelby Memorial hospital.

His estranged wife, Dorothy, was treated in Mansfield General hospital for wounds by a caliber .38 weapon.

She was taken there from Shelby hospital Saturday about 9:30 a. m.

Seven spent $1,136.60 in primary

Expense reports of Huron county candidates show Kenneth G. Salisbury, former mayor of Monroeville who unsuccessfully opposed Arthur F. Herner for the GOP nomination to be commissioner, spent $96.46.

Hermer is the incumbent. Incumbent Sheriff John Borgia was given $180 by the Republican central committee. He spent nothing. But his son, Stanley, a sheriff's deputy, spent $55.26 in his father's behalf.

Shirley G. Brown, unopposed Democratic candidate for treasurer, spent $68.28.

Michael Rice spent $474.30 for the Livengood for Engineer committee. Urban Livengood, Sr., is unopposed for reelection as engineer. He spent $132.30.

Ardeith Chupp, Republican candidate for treasurer who was defeated by John Arthur, spent $210.23.

Incumbent Republican Prosecutor of the Common Pleas Bernard Freeman spent $200.

Incumbent Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas Clark Hunter spent $110. Russell T. Antrim, incumbent Republican candidate for probate and juvenile judge, who is unopposed in November; Dr. William B. Holman, incumbent Republican coroner who is unopposed; Kenneth G. Kirk, New London youth who will oppose Hunter in November; William Owens, Democratic candidate for prosecutor, and Jay O. Thomas, Republican candidate for recorder, had no expenses.

Willet scores in tractor pulls

For his first try in a tractor pulling contest in Mt. Vernon Saturday night, J. Raymond Willet didn't do badly at all. He placed third in a 7,000-lb. pull and fourth in the 9,000-lb. pull.

He has one of Ohio's two V12 Continental tank engines in a tractor.

Water tower site for playground occupies council

Councilman James L. Jacobs, Sr., said June 6 that he will be held responsible for any accidents. The park committee will discuss the possibility of creating a play area with the park board.

Meanwhile, the solicitor is to check into what insurance coverage the village has.

Firemen have agreed that seven instead of five men will answer calls to township fires.

Mrs. Ralph Lenhart succumbs at 70 at Little Rock, Ark.

Sister of Mrs. Burton Forgy, Mrs. Ralph Lenhart, 70, died June 4 in Little Rock, Ark.

A former Shelby school-teacher, she was born Burdette, Highland, Cal., of the late Dr. and Mrs. Harry Higgins, in Shelby, Apr. 5, 1902.

She is also survived by her husband, a son, Harry, Little Rock, two half-brothers, Marion Higgins, Taylor Center, Mich., and Ralph Higgins, Fullerton, Cal.; five half-sisters, Mrs. Clarence Hulsey, Piedmont, Mo.; Mrs. Clarence Brubaker, Ashland; Mrs. Ted Eminger, Highland, Cal.; and Mrs. Walter Keath and Mrs. Larry Lord, both of Shelby.

Land sold

Anthony Stephen Kasper bought 59.75 acres in Plymouth township from Alfred W. Vermillion, Richland county recorder reports.

James C. Gowitza bought Lot 97, Shiloh, from Richard F. Tallman, the recorder's records show.

Garage burns

A garage belonging to R. R. Donnelly & Sons Co., Willard, formerly occupied by the Lloyd Shortz, High street, Shiloh, was destroyed by fire June 7.

Damage was about $2,000, Fire Chief J. J. Chiles said.

How should principal deal with tardiness?

Board disputes policy

Two thirds of a bare majority of Plymouth Board of Education criticized an administrative policy of the high school Monday night.

The policy, suggested by Principal E. Scott Blackburn and endorsed by Supt. John Fazzini, allows three per cent of a pupil's grade to be deducted for tardiness.

Timothy Rook, at 21 the youngest member of the board, said, "If that's the best you can do to insure discipline, it's simply not enough. It's not fair to tamper with his grades. Punish the pupil for being late but don't mess with his academic achievement."

He was supported by President R. Harold Mack.

Ivan Hawk, the only other member present, defended the administration.

Blackburn said detention as a punishment for tardiness does not work well in a district "where you have so many bus riders." Teachers, he said, "won't give detention if they have to stay after school and supervise the detention hall."

The grade deduction policy, Blackburn admitted, will be refined before the next school year starts, so that a pupil may be sent three times before his grade is affected by tardiness. Rook and Mack suggested the policy may be eliminated during the July 10 meeting, when the annual budget hearing will be conducted.

ONE TEACHER RESIGNED and three 22-year-olds were hired as teachers Monday night.

Mrs. S. Anita Mitchell, teacher of ninth grade English, will leave the 12 PHS pupils make 4.0, 26 named to honor roll

Twelve Plymouth High school pupils made 4.0 grade-point averages for the fourth nine-week period, Principal E. Scott Blackburn reports.

Twenty-six others were named to the honor roll (3.5 and above) and 83 to the merit roll (3.0 to 3.49).

Perfect grades went to Shirley Adams, Norma Barnes, Jane Niedermeier, Rhonda Sloan and Steve Harris, 12th graders; Willis Van Cleave, 20th graders; John Hayes, Barbara Rettig and Amy Seltz, 11th graders; Deborah Mooreman, 10th grader; and Marcelle Edgeson, Hazel Kinsel and Ella Snipes, ninth graders.

MERIT ROLL PUPILS are Vicki Baker, Jana Baldrige, Gayla Booker, John Conley, Sharon Danks, "Robin Dent, Ernest Ebersole, "Jane Fielder, Rueshen Hicks, "Debbie Jacobs, Timothy Nesbitt, "Deborah Osborne, "Rebecca Redman, Charles Steele, "Judy Strohm, Larry Taylor, "Eddie Boggs, Alice Brewster, Bonnie Brown, Mark Burrier, "Kim Carter, Rosemary Collins, "Marla Company, Fanny Conley, Polly Cornell, "Martha Dawson, LaCherril Dean, Carol Ernst, Patricia Hamilton, Nancy Lee Burk, Willoughby, a June graduate of Bowling Green State university, will teach girls' physical education and serve as cheerleader adviser.

Mrs. Donald Beverly, a custodial employee in Plymouth Elementary school, was given maternity leave, retroactive to May 15.

Mrs. Wayne H. Strine, high school librarian, was awarded a continuing contract.

James Haney was hired for painting at $2.50 an hour.

Kindergarten employees hired were Marvin Smedley, two years from July 1; Orlo Burch and David Conley, one year from July 1; Donna Porter, two years from Sept. 1.

Mansfield Neighborhood Youth Corps will pay five pupils for not more than 26 hours a week at $1.60 an hour summer cleaners. These are Randall Hall, Ricky Shepherd, Nancy Reeder, Deborah Redman and Sandra Conley.

MRS. RUTH WAGNER and Mrs. Clethid Lewis will be paid $330 each as bus drivers and Charles Guthrie $110 as custodian for service in the Title I remedial reading program.

Plans submitted by S. James Crawfis, partner in Marr, Knapp & Crawfis, New Philadelphia and Mansfield architects, for repair of the elementary school roof and for construction of a bus garage at Shiloh were approved. Advertisement was directed so that bids may be opened July 21.

U. S. Marine Corps notified the board that Kenneth R. Turtle has completed the general educational development test for high school diploma equivalency. The record was ordered attached to his file.

A contract with Mansfield schools for use of the driver training simulator at $78 a pupil for 16 days during the next school year was approved.

A bid by Standard Oil of Ohio to furnish gasoline at 19 cents a gallon was accepted.

Plymouth district will share with Shelby and Crestview the services of a speech and hearing consultant and an EMU supervisor and will pay the excess costs to the Special Education Service center at Gallon.

School accident insurance with Guarantee Trust Life Insurance Co. was renewed on condition if a agent, Richard F. Tallman, Shiloh, appears at the July 10 meeting to clarify some procedures.

Fazzini reported 25 pupils are enrolled in health 12 in personal typing and 26 in driver education during the summer program.

ton, John Haver, Ray Hisher, John Kasper, Brenda and Linda King, Harold and Janet Lynch, Diane Miller, Nancy and Thea Moore, 11th graders.

Also, Victoria Beck, Pamela Briner, Joseph Broderick, Daniel Carey, John Cornell, Jacquelyn Baring, Pamela Bloomfield, Marla Cole, Vickie Fazzini, Ronald Foreman, Daniel Hughes, Catharine, Lloyd Koppes, David Neumeier, Ronald Porter, Kenneth Roberts, Bert Taulbee, Michael and Susan Tuttle, Katherine Vanderpool, Linda Viers and Tarry Wilkins.

Three Shiloh Junior High school pupils made 4.0 grade-point averages during the final period of the final report, Principal Wayne H. Strine says in his last report as a school administrator.

Shilohan goes to Philippines as rural club organizer

Carolyn Seymour comes by her interest in youth development naturally: her father is Richland county 4-H extension agent and her mother is an elementary school teacher.

Ans what she's learned at home, professionally in Ohio State university and avocationally in 4-H work she'll start to apply this week in the Republic of the Philippines.

The Shilohan flew there as an International Farm Youth exchange student earlier this week.

Daughter of the G. Deming Seymours, Shiloh, and a 1968 product of Plymouth High school, she has been abroad before. She was in Japan with a 4-H caravan for two months and toured Europe with an OSU group last year. This tour is for 14 months.

And she'll help to organize 4-H clubs in the former United States dependency acquired after the Spanish-American war and voluntarily set free at the end of World War II.

"The aim is to teach people how to do their own thing better than what they're doing now," she said last week.

SHE EXPECTS TO BE assigned to the provinces, where communications are not so good. What assignment? "I don't know yet, only generally what'll be required. But I'm taking lots of resource material -- Richland county 4-H project books, reading material on home management, good examples of what has been done in this country by applying sound theories and good management. And I'm taking lots of postage stamps, mostly cancelled but also some new ones. I found the Japanese people were delighted to get them."

Four other Ohioans have been selected in this year's group. A this year's group. A Lorain county youth will go to Korea, a Hocking county girl to Australia for six months, an Ottawa county boy is now in Finland and an Ashtrabula county girl has a 14-month visit in Guatemala.

"This is a new project, only four years old, an outgrowth of IYFE called Youth Development project (YDP)," she explained.

"How much we or I will be able to accomplish in 14 months is unknown right now -- it will depend on the input by me and the reception by the Filipinos and some other factors. But I plan to give it all I've got, because what I've gotten from 4-H has been invaluable to me and I feel it's worth passing on to others."

At the conclusion of the visit to the Philippines, she will return to Ohio State universally to complete her degree in secondary school education with a major in social sciences.

And where will she stay? "Usually with a local family, one that speaks some English. But the stranger soon has to learn the language and I'll have to do that."

Spanish and Tagalog are the lingua franca in the Philippines, but there are a number of dialects that differ from Tagalog.

Prater named to Mansfield post

A Plymouth High school alumnus, W. Richard Prater has been appointed director of community renewal and development in Mansfield by its mayor, Richard A. Porter.

Prater is a former radio news reporter in Ashland, where he was an unsuccessful candidate for mayor last year, and Mansfield.

His parents are Mrs. Zella Prater and Elmer Prater.

Health hint --

"Brush your teeth after each meal to avoid cavities," counsels Susan Ford, Busy Fingers 4-H club.

'Obey traffic rules'

"Obey all traffic rules," insists K. E. Williams, Busy Fingers 4-H club.

Karen Barnes weds Larry Bland

Karen Faye Barnes became the bride of Larry Carl Bland in a candle-light ceremony Saturday at 7:30 p. m. in First United Presbyterian church.

She is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Barnes. He is the son of Mrs. Elmer Prater and the late Ralph Bland.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert Bellingham.

Vases of white snapdragons with yellow and blue carnations decorated the altar. At the entrance of the chancel, two pedestals held large bouquets. Yellow and blue bows decorated the tall candelabra which lighted the altar from either side.

The family pews were marked with large color-coded bows.

Mrs. Charles Dick, organist, played "Each for the Other," "More," "Hawaii Wedding Song," "The Wedding Prayer," "Somewhere, My Love," and "My Heart Ever Faithful."

She accompanied Janeane Cunningham, who sang "Wither Thou Goest," "O Perfect Love" and "I Believe."

During the ceremony, the Rev. Mr. Bellingham intoned The Lord's Prayer.

THE BRIDE, GIVEN IN marriage by her parents, chose a gown of white organza over taffeta designed in a Van Eyck silhouette. The bodice was fastened with high stand-up collar of beribboned Venise lace. A panel of it extended down the front to the hemline. Her long, full bishop sleeves of organza were caught at the wrist with bands of lace. The back of the gown extended into a chapel-length Watteau edged with the same lace.

A lace Camelot grouping of flowerettes accented with a small organza bow held here shoulder-length veil.

Her bouquet was a cascade of white gladioli centered with yellow roses and surrounded with white carnations and yellow and blue daisies.

For "something old," she carried a lace handkerchief of her mother. Miss Cheryl Heyding-er, Shelby, maid of honor, wore a long-sleeved yellow chiffon gown with high neckline outlined with tiny ruffles. The ruffles also were around the right wrist bands and the hemline. The waistline was accented with an embroidered floral band.

Braided loops held a small three-tiered veil, which fell in back. She carried blue daisies.

Pamela Krupp and the bride's cousin, Linda Lee, Shelby, bridesmaids, wore gowns similar to the honor attendant, save in blue. They carried yellow daisies.

Lisa Baker, daughter of the Donald Bakers, flower girl, wore yellow and carried blue daisies. Her brother, Terry, was ring bearer.

RAY CLARK, SHELBY, was best man.

The bridegroom's cousin, Delbert Haas, and Arden Kessler ushered.

Mrs. Barnes chose a long-sleeved pink chiffon with a sleeveless lace coat and white accessor-ties. She wore a corsage of white carnations tipped in pink and tied with a white ribbon.

The bridegroom's mother was in a sleeveless navy blue with white accessories. She wore white carnations.

A reception took place at Ehren-Parael Post, American Legion, with the color scheme of blue and yellow carried out on the buffet table and guest tables. A four-tiered wedding cake was in the center of the buffet table. It was decorated with yellow roses and blue bells. Two heart-shaped cakes flanked it.

For their wedding trip through the Smokies and the South, the bride changed to a white and yellow long-sleeved dress. Floral bands decorated the sleeves and hemline.

They will live in Shelby, where he is employed by Cornell's IGA Foodliner and she by Shelby Mutual Insurance Co.

The bride is a 1968 graduate of Plymouth High school. He was graduated in 1965.

The new Mrs. Bland was honored at a shower given before the wedding by Mrs. Robert J. Lee, Shelby. Mr. and Mrs. Prater entertained the bridal party at a rehearsal dinner at their home Friday night.

Here's new idea for picnic fare -- jelled chicken!

Seymours wed 25 years ago

Married June 14, 1947, in Trinity Baptist church, Dayton, by the Rev. Luman F. Marsh, the G. Deming Seymours celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary yesterday.

She is the former Elizabeth Peterson, Dayton, now a fourth grade teacher in Shiloh Elementary school.

Michael Dorion to take bride

Miss Cynthia Doan and Michael Dorion will be married Saturday afternoon in St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church.

Daughter of the Maynard Doans, Steubenville, she is a teacher in Willard schools.

He is a son of the Dominic J. Dorions, Plymouth route 1.

He hails from Rootstown, in Portage county. He is Richland County 4-H extension agent.

They are the parents of a daughter, Carolyn, honor student in Ohio State university who left Thursday for an extended period of work and study in the Republic of the Philippines as an international exchange expert in rural sociology, and a son, Richard, an 11th grader in Plymouth High school.

Mrs. Leonhardt in lead role

Mrs. James Leonhardt, nee Judy Lewis, Plymouth, has a lead role in "Guys and Dolls", a production to be staged June 16-17 and 23-24 in Shelby Junior High school auditorium by the Blackfork Players.

LOCALS

The Robert L. McIntires, 70 Plymouth street, were in Cambridge, Mass., from June 7 through 11 to attend the 40th reunion of his class in Harvard school of business. He obtained the master's degree there in 1932.

The Tracy L. Hetricks, Wooster, visited her parents, the A. L. Paddock's, Jr., 78 Plymouth street, June 7.

Mrs. Burton Forquer and son, Harry, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young, Jr., Mansfield and Mrs. Frank Ghine, Shiloh, have returned from Little Rock, Ark., where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Forquer's sister, Mrs. Ruth Higgins Lenhart, Mrs. Forquer went by air the week before to be with her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Meyers, Newbury, were Saturday luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Paddock, Jr.

Mrs. George DeVeny and her son, David, Knoxville, Tenn., were recent guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley E. Condon.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Claude Wilson and Mrs. Myrtle McDaniel, Plymouth, were admitted Thursday by Willard Area hospital.

Mrs. Robert L. Meiser was released Saturday from Mansfield General hospital, where she underwent surgery earlier in the week.

By AUNT LIZ
Picnic time and family reunions are upon us again.

There are always the old standbys that everyone loves, potato and macaroni salad, baked beans, and the rest of the things generations have called standard picnic fare.

If you have already gained a reputation for a yearly dish that everyone looks forward to, then ignore this. Simply stop reading.

But if you are new at it, this might be a good idea, and it is also quite economical, which has become so important today.

This eventually ends up in a loaf pan which measures 9 x 5 x 2 inches, the standard size.

Cut up three chickens into pieces and cook them in a kettle with six cups of hot water, one cup of sherry, a teaspoon of salt, a sliced carrot, a cup of chopped celery, a small onion cut in half, a couple of bay leaves, a bunch of fresh parsley, some celery leaves, three fourths of a teaspoon of savory, three whole cloves, a half garlic clove and a few peppercorns. Bring it all to boil, then skim it off a little, cover and simmer for at least an hour, or until the chicken starts to fall away from the bones.

Take the chicken out and carefully separate it from the bones so you do not burn your fingers. Strain the broth and start cooking it over so it reduces to half its original amount.

Put the broth and chicken into the loaf pan. The natural resulting gelatin will turn it into a loaf after it is well chilled over night.

It can be unmolded on lettuce leaves and decorated with all sorts of things like rose had radishes, olives, stuffed eggs and fancily cut up carrots and pickles.

THERE'S ANOTHER recipe which is quite cheap to make and is a little different: pork liver, pate. You may not know it, but pork liver is much richer in vitamins than any of the other livers. It does have a distinctive taste, though, but this covers it all up.

This also goes in an ordinary pan.

Grind up two pounds of liver, three fourths of a pound of lean pork and the same amount of salt pork through the finest blade of your food chopper. Put it in a bowl and add a tablespoon of flour, two beaten up eggs, some salt, thyme, a finely chopped up onion, chopped parsley and mix up as well as you possibly can.

Line the bottom of the pan with sliced bacon or thinly sliced pieces of the salt pork and put the prepared mixture in with more slices of either on top.

Bake this for not quite two hours at 375, then cool it well before slicing.

These are substantial dishes to take. But there are always the very welcomed fruit mixtures that everyone likes. If the fresh fruits have not yet arrived, use what there is and add frozen ones, sprinkle with coconut, and you have a beautiful dish.

And for those who are just staying at home, try a new way to plain old hamburger.

Cut up four medium sized onions into rings and fry them in bacon drippings. To this you add six broken up bouillon cubes. Then cut up a small head of cabbage so the slices are about the same size as the onion rings. Cook this all up while stirring a little so everything is mixed up. It should take maybe 10 minutes. By then the cabbage is cooked. In another frying pan, crumble up a pound of hamburger which has been mixed with a tablespoon of curry powder, and brown it. Once it is done, mix it with the other mixture and serve on top of fluffy rice.

And since summer is here and celery is simply a part of every meal, did you know that the way to keep it really crisp is to let it stand in ice water with a little sugar added? When you are ready to serve it, drain it and it will be really crisp like it should be and not half limp like ours seems to be.

McDougal set 50th anniversary

Former Fire Chief and Mrs. Dalton McDougal will be guests at open house in First Evangelical Lutheran church Sunday from 2 to 5 p. m. in honor of their 50th wedding anniversary.

Conflict of dates still reigns as it did 50 years ago!

Even after 50 years, Thelma Willet, who has been Mrs. Dalton McDougal all that time, and Ethel Steele, Mrs. Clarence Cales for the same number of years, are still having a timing problem.

As young brides planning their weddings, they chose the same day, June 14, the same hour, 2 p. m. and the same minister, the Rev. C. L. Lewis, to marry them.

When the mix-up was discovered, the Cales couple decided to postpone their wedding to noon and work to be married in the home of her parents, the Lewis Steeles. The McDougals were also married at home.

Now they are observing their golden anniversary and both couples have chosen Sunday from 2 until 5 p. m. for a reception.

The McDougals will have theirs here in First Evangelical Lutheran church.

The Cales will greet friends in Fellowship hall, First United Methodist church, Shelby.

Mrs. Cales is the sister of the late Floyd Steele. They are the parents of two daughters, Mrs. William Welch and Mrs. Robert Cramer, and a son, Leo, Shelby. They have six grandchildren.

Why Americans own $54,000,000,000 worth of U.S. Savings Bonds.

One good reason is the Payroll Savings Plan. About three-fourths of all Bonds are purchased through the Plan. It's helping Americans save more money than they ever dreamed they could.

That's because the Payroll Savings Plan is such an easy way to save. All you do is sign up where you work and the amount you specify is set aside from each paycheck and used to buy U.S. Savings Bonds. It's the easy way to build a nest egg.

You've got your reasons to save money. There's one great way to do it painlessly. Join the millions who are buying Bonds the Payroll Savings Way.

New E Bonds pay 5 1/2% interest when held to maturity of 5 years. 10 months 4% the first year. Bonds are replace if lost, stolen, or destroyed. When needed they can be cashed at your bank. Interest is not subject to state or local income taxes, and federal tax may be deferred until redemption.

Take stock in America. Buy U.S. Savings Bonds.

Please leave us a loan.

We're asking you to leave us something in your will. Consider it a loan, if you like. No, we can't pay you back. But we can repay your kids. And their kids. Tenfold.

By giving them a world where two out of three cancer victims don't have to die. By giving them health. And life. Because your loan helps us borrow time. Time to fight cancer. Time to beat it. Just have your attorney add these words to your will:

"I give to the American Cancer Society, Inc. (or to its _____ Division) the sum of _____ dollars to be used for the general purposes of the Society."

Leave us what you will. Just don't leave us alone. Please.
