Police seek giant prowler of Maple street

A report of a prowler having torn the screen off a door of a house occupied by the Shelby Greens, 187 Maple street, was telephoned by two juveniles to Plymouth police Aug. 23 at 2 a.m. Jack Green, 14, and his neighbor, Mark Williston, 15, told police they saw -- a big and hairy thing that looked something like a werewolf! when they were sleeping out-of-doors east of the Green house. Frightened, they ran into the house and locked the door. The figure, they said, "starting running into the side of the house" and "tore off a screen." The Greens said they saw nothing. That it couldn't have been a supernatural creature was confirmed by young Green, who told police "it was in its 20's with big eyeballs." "Classically, werewolves have no age. Police found footprints that may have been those of the prowler, but could have been those of a high school football player who stole in the Green property. They played a person of great height and weight.

Do you have the real auto insurance protection? Just make sure, call us to see that you are fully covered exactly what you're paying for.

Just as we're interested in the whole child, and the whole school, so we're interested in the whole farmer and the whole farm, from seed to harvest. We furnish complete consultation and fertilizers - for all phases of farming.

DAVIS
 Insurance Agency

We take pride in being no. 1. Which is why we serve Plymouth Local School district seven days a week, 78 hours a week (we've got to sleep sometimes). High quality, low cost foodstuffs that meet every standard: Uncle Sam's, Ohio's, Plymouth's, yours and in most of all - our own, which are the highest anywhere.

Sure, we believe in kids! And mother, and father. Which is why we keep a wholesome place, where your kids, and you, too, can eat and/or drink, play music, sing, and enjoy everything but burn the place down! Come in and try.

Red shows strength, holds Mapleton scoreless

Big Red surprised an improved, title-contender Mapleton with a stout defense and a surprisingly effective offense during Saturday's controlled scrimmage, which ended in a scoreless draw.

Plymouth will go to Collins to tackle Western Reserve in the final scrimmage of the season Saturday night. It met Buckeye Central here yesterday.

Since the Roughriders are rebuilding, Plymouth ought to squit itself well.

Saturday's outing showed more bright spots than otherwise.

The defense, naturally, is ahead of the offense; it takes long time to teach defensive play.

But it was apparent after two hours of head-busting in the hot sun that Coach Larry Root has a sound team that may do well if it can avoid injury.

As usual, Plymouth lacks depth.

Thirty-one candidates are suited up. Of these, 14 are lettermen.

And signs are that when Plymouth takes the field against South Central here Sept. 8, the Big Red will line up offensively with Rick Strohm and Rich Stover at the ends, Wayne

Bauer as his front four, Woodmansee at the tackle, Sid Ream and Jeff Clabaugh at the guards and Keith Stone over the ball.

Ray Hughes will be the starting quarterback, handing off to Ron Foreman, Rich Dyer and Kim

Carter. Defensively, Root is likely to call on Stover, Strohm, Clabaugh and Joe Bauer as his front four, Foreman, Dyer, Ream

Harriers set first meet with Pirates here Tuesday

"We'll have a competitive team in 1972, says Coach Robert James, fresh off a state championship in cross country in his first year as a coach, and we'll do well, but I'm not about to predict another state championship."

Plymouth opens its 1972 season against last year's sectional champion Black River, which didn't lose a man by graduation, here Tuesday.

Five lettermen are back, Ken Lucas, Mike Adams, Brad Buzard, Steve Adams and Mike Redden.

Garry Biesel as the linebackers and Carter, Jimmy (Chawkit) Miller and Mike Reed in the secondary.

Track club to organize

Big Red Track club has been organized in Plymouth Local School district to raise funds for a proposed track and field complex and to assist the Ruth Ford Henry Memorial Track committee.

Co-chairmen are Dean Cline and David Howard, both recent graduates. Douglas Dickson, track coach, is treasurer and advisor. First meeting is today at 7 p.m. in Mary Fate park.

Any pupil in the school district is eligible for membership. Any alumnus of the district, any person living in it or any person working in it is also eligible.

Requirement is that any person joining the club be available for assignment to projects aimed toward achieving the goal.

See Our CFS Hybrids and the Plan and Profit Program in Action

Join us for a free lunch and an informative get-together at our field day featuring CFS Hybrids and the Plan and Profit Program in Action. Ours is not an experimental plot, but a practical demonstration of what a personalized CFS Plan and Profit Program and CFS Hybrids can do to help you obtain top yields and maximum returns. We'll take you on a tour and tell you all about the Plan and Profit Program we prepared for the field. We'll tell you, too, about the CFS Hybrids we planted and those we recommend for this area. Bring the family... plan to meet your neighbors... at the CFS Field Day.
