Church census set at Shiloh Sunday

A community religious census will be taken in Shiloh Sunday at 2 p. m. to kick off Key '73 there. Census takers are churchmen cooperating for "The Year of Evangelism" in Community Gospel, Mr. Hope Luther, an church and the United Methodist church. Teams of two census takers will solicit the names of householders and their church preferences. Census takers will be identified by name tags showing names and church affiliation. Data will be shared among the pastors of the congregations for evangelism calling later. All Shilohs are urged to attend the first joint service for Key '73 Sunday, Mar. 4, at 10:45 a. m. in United Methodist church. Pastors and lay leaders of the participating congregations will lead it. World Day of Prayer Mar. 2 will also be observed ecumenically in United Methodist Church at 8 p. m.

The Donald Dawsons and son, Mark, and her mother, Mrs. Vernon Moser, attended in the chapel of Wright-Patterson AFB, Dayton, Feb. 14 the wedding of Mrs. Moser's granddaughter, Jody Holmes, to John Williams Jones, Fairfield, Cal. The bride, a WAF, is the daughter of Lieut. Col. Philip Holmes, an Air Force dentist, and Mrs. Holmes, New Carlisle. The bridegroom is also in the USAF.

Lazy Aces Saddle club will stage a horse show May 26.

Plans were laid during the February meeting at the home of the Dennis Gurneys, Attica.

The Raymond Bordners will be hosts Saturday at 8 p. m. to a card party.

Girl, 15, sent for treatment by OVC

Fifteen-year-old Jane Ireland, Plymouth route 1, accused of possession of marijuana and other delinquencies as a result of a drug raid here, was sentenced Tuesday in Richland county juvenile court to an indeterminate term in the Ohio Youth Commission.

Price to go to 15¢ copy on Apr. 1

Effective Apr. 1, news stand copies of The Advertiser will sell at 15 cents. At the same time, subscriptions by mail will be increased 30 cents, to $5 for subscribers whose addresses are in Huron, Crawford and Richland counties, $5.50 for those outside those areas.

"We are compelled by advances in mailing costs and in materials from which the newspaper is prepared to make these adjustments. It is only fair that readers should bear a fair share of the increase in costs to the publisher, since advertisers have already begun to do so."

"Anyone wishing to subscribe or renew for one, two, three or more years at the present rates may do so by mail or by calling at the business office."

Jesus topic of 20th Centurians

Mrs. A. R. Geller will be hostess to the Twentieth Century circle Monday night.

The three-part program will be presented by Mrs. H. James Root, whose topic is "Jesus The Man"; Mrs. Wayne H. Strine, "The Jesus Movement"; and Mrs. Carl Willford, "Presidential Profiles".

Roll call will be answered by naming a religious leader.

Elwood F. Kaple dies at home of heart seizure

Brother of Virgil Kaple, Plymouth lumber dealer, Elwood F. Kaple, 47, New Washington, died at his home there Feb. 13 of heart seizure.

Ivan Bowman, villager 25 years, dies suddenly

Ivan C. Bowman, 27, 153 Maple street, a villager 25 years, died at his home unexpectedly Friday afternoon.

He was a retired operator for Ohio Seamless Tube Co., Shelby.

He was a 50-year member of the Junior Order of Mechanics.

Born June 25, 1900, in Perryville, he is survived by his wife, Ruth; two daughters, Mrs. Donald Barnhouse, Shelby, and Mrs. Harold Craig, Upland, Cal.; a son, John, Phoenix, Ariz.; and three sisters, Mrs. Florence Austin, Mrs. William Saunders and Mrs. Cecil Daniels, all of Marion. There are five grandchildren.

The Rev. Ronald F. Graham, pastor of First Evangelical Lutheran church, conducted services Monday at 3:30 p. m. from McQuate Funeral home. Burial was in Greenlawn cemetery.

Carnival-in-Square OK'd

Should the Boosters' club carnival be allowed to set up shop in the Public Square? Is the two hour parking ordinance enforced? Do police officers loiter in the village hall? Village council dealt with those questions Tuesday night. Anthony Fenner, spokesman for the Boosters, requested the carnival be set up in the west side of the Square as it has been for several years.

Councilman James L. Jacobs, Sr., immediately agreed, providing adequate space be allowed for fire fighting equipment in the south side. In the past a fire lane has been provided in the north side and stands and concessions filled up the other side.

Councilman Donald E. Akers, agreeing with him, asked if insurance would be payable if firemen could not reach the scene of a fire because of it being "all cluttered up".

Councilman Edward O. Ramsey said there would be plenty of space to carry ladders and hoses.

Mrs. Homer, 88, buried at Shiloh

Mrs. John Horner, 88, a former practical nurse and a member of Shiloh's Mt. Hope Lutheran church, was interred Saturday in Mt. Hope cemetery.

She died at her home in Olivesburg road Thursday.

Born Mildred Miller in Huron county July 31, 1884, she is survived by a son, James, of Mansfield route 1; a daughter, Mrs. Floyd Mehly, Olivesburg road.

The Rev. Walter E. Weber, pastor of First Evangelical Lutheran church, conducted last rites at 1:30 p. m.

Cadet Root in new post

Thomas L. Root has been appointed information officer with the cadet rank of staff sergeant in his Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps unit at Ohio Wesleyan university, Delaware.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Root, 118 Pleasant street, he is selected on the basis of his academic grades, outstanding leadership ability and potential as an Air Force officer.

Young Root is a 1971 graduate of Howe Military school, Howe, Ind., where he was graduated cum laude as valedictorian of his class and a member of the National Honor society.

Girl, 18, hurt as car hits tree

An 18-year-old Willardite employed by The Advertiser escaped serious injury Feb. 14 when her car struck a tree in Sandusky street.

Miss Patricia D. Thornsbury was going home at 3:10 p. m. when she was compelled to turn off the roadway to avoid colliding with a van and another car that had slowed abruptly.

Her car was demolished.

Finally, Councilman Frank R. Garber moved to allow the carnival in the Square with the provision that every effort be made to leave enough space open in the Square with open in the south side for emergency use. Mrs. William Clark, who also represented the Boosters, said the food trailer could be placed in the street, leaving the wide sidewalk free.

Donald E. Akers voted no; Hubert Akers yes; Garber yes; Jacobs and Ramsey abstained. Then Ramsey changed his vote to no and Jacobs changed his to no, which meant a tie.

Mayor Elizabeth G. Paddock called for another roll call after the motion was read again. On the second time around only Donald Akers voted no. Ramsey complained the police department is not doing its job by not enforcing the two-hour parking, and said the department needs "strong arms regulations".

He said Sgt. James Reffett is "hanging out in the city building", during the day while off duty and he had seen him inside at night.

Jacobs said that he and the mayor will try to remedy the situation. Another complaint by Ramsey was that a newly established pool hall is allowing children to play. An ordinance says no one under 18 years may be in a pool hall. He also said card games are being played and that "some have not complete pay checks".

Pay tax out at Shiloh?

Cost of administering an income tax in Shiloh is probably disproportionate to its benefits, village council was told Feb. 14.

Solicitor Franklin D. Eckstein told the council any municipal action to initiate a village income tax will not prevent liability for a similar tax by villagers working out of town.

State law limits the tax to one per cent unless the electorate votes to support a higher tax. An income tax of up to one per cent may be enforced without a vote by the electorate.

Kenneth Huston's resignation as patrolman was accepted. He was paid $50 a month. He will be available on an hourly basis if needed. He would be paid $1.50 an hour.

Kenneth Shaffer was sworn as patrolman.

Title to land occupied by Shiloh United Methodist church is clear, Eckstein reported, a mortgage having been settled. An emergency ordinance to close a 15-foot east-and-west alley into the property was passed.

The land will be sold to the Shiloh-Cass-Bloomington Fire department.

Police Chief Robert McMillon said he will impound all dogs over three months of age that are not licensed.

Roughriders favored over Red in tourney

What kind of ball club Western Reserve, which went into the seed for the Class A playdowns with a 9-and-7 record and a 7-and-7 result with Class A teams?

Plymouth played so few Class A schools (just three, and lost 'em all -- South Central, Mapleton and Buckeye Central) it wouldn't have been eligible for seeding. St. Peter's was in the same boat. The Roughriders are admittedly in the same rebuilding process as Plymouth but seem to have more material.

TO STOP THEM PLYMOUTH must cope with Terry Weisenberger, the big scoring gun, and Ron Strimling.

"Hold these two to less than 30 points altogether and you've got Western Reserve beaten," says an opposing coach.

It's easier said than done, he implied, having done so just once in two outings.

The Roughriders are effective when applying the press. Anybody who's watched Plymouth knows it does not do well in the face of the press. Score one advantage for Western Reserve!

THE RIDERS GO TO the board strong and draw a number of fouls by defenders. This could make Craig McPherson's night a sorry one!

Joe Bibb coaches the Roughriders and he has knitted a coming ball club, since Weisenberger is only an 11th grader.

On form, and record, Western Reserve rates as the favorite by as much as 10 points.

We're still in business to supply clean-burning energy. And we plan to be in business for generations to come. The future looks bright. But, the problem is . . . now. We've been telling you about it. The natural gas shortage. So now we're going to give you some ideas for using less gas. In fact, we recommend our hottest competitor, the sun. Even on the coldest day, you should let direct sunlight in through your windows. It will help heat your home. When there's no sun, close your drapes to keep your heat from fleeing out. It will make a difference. And here are some other ways you can conserve gas: Insulate your home and seal the drafty areas around doors and windows. Have your furnace checked periodically by your heating dealer to make sure it is operating efficiently. Check your furnace filters often to be certain they're clean. Turn your thermostat down to the lowest comfortable temperature and leave it there. All these things will add to your comfort and you'll use less gas. Write for our free booklet, "30 Ways to Save", for more ideas.

Gas is precious, pure energy . . . use it wisely.

Five victories, 13 defeats

Willford, McPherson star

Loudonville wins

Plymouth put it all together in its final basketball game here Saturday and on the strength of a fine second half effort defeated Buckeye Central, 85 to 78.

The victory avenged an earlier defeat at the hands of the Bucks, who for all practical purposes comprise the oldest and most effective traditional rivalry for Plymouth.

Chuck Willford, playing his final regular school-boy game, burst forth with 25 points with 12 field goals in 24 tries from the floor.

Craig McPherson, who sat out some of the third and fourth periods, matched that output. He bagged 10 of 13 from the field and four of five free throw attempts.

THE BUCKS MADE A match of it for one half. They led by one at half-time.

But Plymouth applied the heat just after the second half tipoff and in no time had a substantial lead. The Big Red outscored the Bucks by 14 in the entire third period and within three minutes of the final buzzer held a 16-point lead.

Plymouth won because it shot the cords out of the basket with a near 50 per cent shooting record. It fired 75 times and hit the target 37. The Bucks, meanwhile, shot 81 and made 33. Plymouth was superior from the foul line as well, with 11 of 15 shots in the scoring column. The Bucks made 12 of 20.

Indeed, had Plymouth controlled Tom Riedel, it would have won in a walk. Riedel scored 24, half of them in the second half.

The Bucks sought to run with Plymouth and did not succeed in discomfiting the victors.

RED RESERVES showed that 1973-74 is not the season of the league flag in falling before the visitors, 49 to 30.

Despite a roster peopled with 11th graders and some varsity hand-me-downs, the reserves did not have a winning season.

Loudonville laced Plymouth in the second half there Friday night to win a Johnny Applesed conference game, 56 to 38.

With it the Redbirds led at least a share of the 1973 league championship.

It was close for two periods. The Redbirds led by one after eight minutes and by three at the half. IT WAS IN THE THIRD period that they broke it open, forcing Plymouth into countless mistakes and turning two big scorers, Gary Kauffman and Jim Haudenschild, loose for 12 and six points, respectively.

It wasn't that Plymouth rebounded badly. The Big Red took down more Redbirds, by 38 to 28. Rather, it was that Plymouth shot poorly and played a ragged floor game.

Overall, Plymouth connected with only 17 of 57 from the field and a miserable 40 per cent at the free throw line with four of 10. Loudonville, meanwhile, was shooting nearly 39 per cent with 24 successes in 62 tries. Kauffman is every inch an all-league player and by scoring 24 points he showed his value to the Redbirds.

In fact, only one other Loudonville player -- Haudenschild -- got into double figures.

The less said of Plymouth's scoring effort, the better. Ray Hughes led the pack with 12.
