Drought since '72 requires upset in league play tomorrow

Plymouth has not won a Homecoming game since 1972, when the Big Red took out Clear Fork in the rain, 8 to 0. It was the last Johnny Appleseed conference for Plymouth, which has since dropped 23 straight league contests.

Signs are that Plymouth will have to play over its head to snap that string here tomorrow, when Loudonville's Redbirds come here.

The Redbirds have been beaten once, but not in league play, and ought to be favored by two scores.

Plymouth showed some improvement for one half, anyway, against a good but not outstanding Fredericktown team there Friday night. If they paid off on one half, Plymouth would be league champion, based on Friday's performance.

TO CUT DOWN ON MISTAKES, Coach Mike McFarren used only 15 players. It was obvious that they were down in the third period, when Plymouth's defense crumbled. Even so, there were some mistakes that were charged to seasoned players, trivial matters that are nevertheless infractions of the rules and, coming on first down at four of them did, put the opposition in a paramount position.

Fredericktown ran a gainst Plymouth's right side almost exclusively. Randy Gaddis, certainly a fine performer, gained substantially both inside and outside his left tackle. Plymouth has not seen a runner of his stripe this season.

It may see another when the Redbirds show up. He is Bob Close, a transfer from West Holmes who never started on offense before this season, who ran for four touchdowns against Crestview at Olivesburg Friday night. Close isn't very tall, but he scales 186 and he can run.

CLOSE ISN'T THE only Redbird who'll bear watching. The quarterback is Rex Conway, who will be a good one with more experience. And there is another of the Brownings in the Loudonville backfield. This one is Scott, who runs from fullback.

Plymouth pupils will stage their Homecoming festivities before the game.

The queen is Cindy Faulkner, a 12th grader. Her attendants are Gail Tuttle Conley, the first

Cancer takes Kamann boy

The sands in little Michael Kamann's hourglass took out on Saturday morning.

Desperately ill with leukemia, the five-year-old son of the Donald Kamanns died in Children's hospital, Columbus.

He was stricken three years ago. Since then, he and his family have engaged in a tremendous fight to save his life.

He was born in Norwalk. He lived with his family in Peru West Section line road.

He is also survived by a brother, Christopher; his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Harold Kessler, Monroeville; his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Harold Kamann, Monroeville, and his maternal grandparents, the Edwin Dillinghams, Monroeville.

Prayers were said Tuesday at 11 a. m. in St. Alphonsus Roman Catholic church at Peru by the Rev. Bertram Shenk. Burial was in the parish cemetery.

The family suggests memorial contributions be made to the research fund of Children's hospital in Columbus.

Schools to get armory site

Title deed to Charles Rhine armory will be conveyed today at 11 a. m. to Sgt. John Fazzini and Plymouth Board of Education by the Department of Health, Education & Welfare.

When the deed is conveyed, the school district acquires absolute ownership of the land and buildings in the west side of Sandusky street. The buildings were constructed by the Department of the Army to house units of the Reserve. When many of these units were phased out about 1968, the village obtained use of them for a nominal lease of $1 a year and an agreement to maintain the buildings.

The armory building was never put to much use by the village, but the fenced enclosure and shed

Mrs. Carl Fenner succumbs at 89

Mrs. Mary Fenner, 86, 184 Nichols avenue, died Sunday evening in Willard Area hospital, where she was a patient for treatment of a respiratory ailment.

Born in Palermo, Sicily, Mar. 12, 1890, she had lived here since 1916.

She was a member of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic church, where funeral mass was celebrated yesterday at 10 a. m. by the Rev. Richard Marcus Willard. Burial by McQuate Funeral home was in Greenlawn cemetery.

She is survived by four daughters, Mary, now Mrs. Clarence Lichtle, Mansfield; Carolyn, now Mrs. James Predieri, and Carmela, now Mrs. Eugene Fink, both of Willard; and Sallie, now Mrs. Jack Carney, Ogden, Utah; two sons, Tony and Leonard, both of Plymouth; 21 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.

Her husband, Carl, died earlier.

Newsy notes

Mrs. H. R. Nesbitt joined her son-in-law and daughter, the Delmar Nesbitts, Shiloh, at Alliance to see the Mt. Union-Grove City football game Saturday.

Woman held as shoplifter

Patricia Ann Babcock, 19, New Haven, has been charged in the Huron county courts with shoplifting $20 worth of jewelry from Mason's Department store, Norwalk, Sunday afternoon.

A store security guard apprehended her after he saw her put several items in the pocketbook and left the store without paying for them.

Chest seeks $5,000

Community chest will begin its campaign for 1976 Saturday, seeking $5,000.

The chest has reached its announced goal only once since it was founded at the urging of The Advertiser. Last year, the first year that the Village of Shiloh was included in the campaign, the fund failed by $300.

Two new agencies have been added by the board of directors, who are Douglas A. Dickson, president; Mrs. Fred Bauer, vice-president; Mrs. Dale McPherson, secretary; Mrs. Arthur Jacobs, treasurer; Ivan Hawk, Miss Cathy Williams, B. Mark Ream, Mrs. Grady McDonald and Stanley E. Condon.

These are Plymouth-Shiloh Boosters club and Plymouth-Shiloh Recreation, Inc.

Other agencies to receive funds, with no specific portion announced by the directors, are Junior High Band Parents, Plymouth Band Parents, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Salvation Army, Christie Lane School for Handicapped Children, Norwalk, Newhope School for Handicapped Children, Mansfield.

Also, Plymouth Branch library, Mary Fate Park, Mary Fate Park Pool, Inc., American Cancer society, Shiloh Little League, Plymouth Midget league, public school libraries.

New billing machine urged on council

Leasing of a new utilities billing machine was urged on village council Tuesday night by Mayor Elizabeth E. Paddock. Most councilmen agreed it is necessary.

Mrs. Joseph Maynard, the new utility clerk, showed records that are misprinted, explained the problems of the present machine, and said many of the records have been done by hand.

Miss Anita L. Riedlinger, village clerk-treasurer, told the council that while she was doing the village payroll last week, the machine broke down and she had to finish it on a typewriter. She said the machine was out of commission for any use until repairs were made the next day, wasting half a day.

Before any action will be taken toward leasing a machine, National Cash Register Co., which renovated a machine given to the village by the Fate-Root-Heath Co. and guaranteed that it would do the work required, will be called to meet with the council.

In a prepared statement to the council, the mayor

Girl charged after collision

A 17-year-old Plymouth driver was summoned on a charge of failure to yield the right of way after her car collided with a motorcycle in Route 224 Friday.

Vicki L. Collins was said by state highway patrolmen to have turned into a private driveway and to have crossed the path of a motorcycle operated by Glenn Green, 26, Greenwich, who was taken to Mansfield General hospital with extensive cuts.

Miss Collins and her passenger, Lorna Collins, eight, were treated at Willard Area hospital and released.

Two plots sold in school district

Dallas Nease has acquired from Crusher Nease Lot 166, Shiloh, Richland county recorder reports.

Phil Clemons has acquired Lots 138 and 139, Shiloh, from Ronald E. Johnson, who also sold to Clemons part of Outlook 139.

Curfew

Curfew ordinance will be strictly enforced during October.

The siren will ring at 9 p. m. daily. Anyone under 18 years must be off the streets. Exception will be for school events, when a reasonable amount of time will be allowed for persons to reach their homes.

Defense beset

Freddies tore through Red defenses at Fredericktown Friday night, but only in the second half. Steve Endicott, No. 77, seeks to stop Freddie runner in third period.

Hard runner!

Freddies win finale, 12-0

Plymouth's defense collapsed in the second half at Fredericktown Friday night, and the Freddies stormed to a 12 to 0 victory over the Big Red on two touchdowns by Randy Gaddis.

Gaddis and his team deserved to win. Gaddis ran the ball 27 times for 155 yards. He was the Freddie's punter and did nobly. And he was strong on defense.

Plymouth made a fight of it for one half, clearly winning the statistical battle during a scoreless 24 minutes and, but for an unfortunate clipping penalty, the scoring battle as well.

A SPLENDID 44-YARD runback of a Gaddis punt by Co-Capt. Jimmy Cunningham was nullified by the penalty. And Plymouth forfeited its six points. Cunningham stamped himself as a competitor of the old school in this one. He was the only Plymouth ground-gainer of note, he was the only pass receiver to gain any yardage and he played well on defense.

Fredericktown scored on its first possession of the second half. It kicked off to Plymouth. The Big Red couldn't advance beyond its 32 and Kevin Finnegan punted. Although the Freddie defender fumbled the boot, the home team recovered and set out for the end zone from its 35.

It was Gaddis most of the way. Fredericktown consistently ran to its left, unusual for Class A football teams, and consistently made yardage there. Gaddis got four, six, four and 12 yards in successive carries, watched Mickey take over for a play that gained five, then ripped around left end for 14 and first down. Mickey came right back with an 18-yard contribution, whereupon Gaddis carried three times for the final 15 yards. Two personal foul penalties against Plymouth in the shadow of the goalposts cost Plymouth six yards and gave the Freddies first down at the Redtwo. The place kick for PAT was blocked.

PLYMOUTH WAS UNABLE to mount any offense whatever in the second half. It was held to nine yards rushing and 32 yards passing. It did not penetrate Freddie territory at any time until its final series. And it could not control the ball at all.

The Freddies maintained possession during the final 24 minutes for 16 minutes and two seconds.

Plymouth was compelled to punt on the first play of the final period. Starting from their 23, the Freddies marched 77 yard in 19 plays to score again. They controlled the ball for six minutes 47 seconds. Gaddis carried nine times. He went the final five yards with 5.04 left in the game. A pass for PATs was too long.

During the last half, Plymouth was penalized four times for such trivial boners as failure to wear the proper equipment on the field and defensive encroachment. And in each instance, it was a seasoned player who was guilty.

Fredericktown has no passing attack to speak of and Plymouth, mercifully, was not compelled to work hard at pass defense. The Freddies threw seven times and completed two. Plymouth nailed two throws.

When Quarterback Tom Miller had time to throw, Plymouth's passing attack was not so bad. He connected with five of eight tosses, suffered one interception that killed a Red drive.

It was not a satisfying night for the largest Plymouth crowd to attend a game in Fredericktown in several seasons. Perhaps the fact this will be the last game in Fredericktown bestirred the fans, who must have been disappointed with Plymouth's failure to generate any offense in the last half. And they couldn't have been encouraged by Fredericktown's success in running the ends, and the right end in the game.

One reason why Freddies ripped Plymouth in second half: outstanding blocking for an outstanding runner, Randy Gaddis, No. 12.

Anybody can make date pinwheels

By AUNT LIZ
What is there about people that doing certain things gains what they call "status"? Just trying to maintain this sort of thing really puts people in a debt. You must drink a certain expensive brand of beer, and f-ankly, who can really tell any difference in beers? Except that you shell out maybe 20 cents more than the guy next to you at a bar. These stupid 20 cents can add up, and I say forget it. I suspect you can blame Detroit for more or less foisting on all us the status cars to drive.

There is no question that those lovely big cars run over the highways like a dream, but what is a car? You need four good tires, brakes and a steering wheel. A heater, radio and air conditioning do help, but they are very much the real extras. A cigarette lighter is the real luxury. Have you ever driven a Pinto without one? No matches and your lighter runs out of either a flint or fluid when you are really out in the countryside? Now can one walk up to a nice old farm house and ask if they have either? They would call the sheriff, thinking you are a real kook. Now there is a new status symbol that every housewife can surely cash in on. Except for me, Chocolate Chip cookies! Can you believe this? All of a sudden, the people who run Wall Street in New York and the country, plus all the high powered legal and engineering firms, have discovered them.

Two companies, one in California which does part of the country, and another in New York, are baking and selling the potlikers for $3 a pound, and those executives who really count nationally have a plate of them on their desks to pass out. The really good stores across the countryside are selling thousands of dollars of these things each week.

This ought to open new worlds to good cookie bakers around here. Start baking them, and simply canvass all the local industries to sell them, then the status fight might really be on, because some ladies can bake better cookies than others. Take us, for instance. About four times I have tried to make chocolate chip cookies, tried various recipes, and they all ended up, each recipe, like a cake that didn't rise and they were completely spread over the whole cookie sheet. That is when I said the heck with such things. Let our kids eat them at other houses. I do not know what I did wrong, because it is a simple recipe, but I was a real failure, which is very hard for any cooking mother to admit.

THERE IS ONE RECIPE we have made for years that really works. It takes a little time, but can be easily done in stages. It is for Date Pinwheels. First you get everything systematically ready. In a sauce pan put eight ounces of dates, chopped up, with a half cup of sugar and a half cup of water. Incidentally, this recipe doubles beautifully, and we always double it.

In a bowl cream a half cup of shortening with a firmly packed cup of dark brown sugar, later add one egg and a teaspoon of vanilla to it. Meanwhile, in another bowl, mix up two cups of flour, a half teaspoon each of baking powder and salt, and a fourth of a teaspoon of cinnamon and ground cloves.

Cream the eggs and sugar, then mix in the dry stuff. Mix it really well. Just pitch in with your fingers. Get the dough going into the shape of a ball, and chill.

Then cook up the date mixture until you think it is really cooked. You can add nuts to it after it has cooled, but they are plain extras.

By then the dough should be cool enough. Divide in half this is for a single recipe and roll out in a rectangular shape, spread the date mixture over it, then roll up like a jelly roll. The rolls can be refrigerated for a week or two, wrapped in waxed paper, until you get please see page 5

Miss Earhart September bride of Douglas Spiger

Miss Cynthia L. Earhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Earhart, Shiloh, and Douglas C. Spiger, son of Mrs. George Spiger and the late Mr. Spiger, Shiloh, were married Sept. 18 at 6:30 p.m. in Mr. Hope Lutheran church there.

The double ring candle-light ceremony was performed by the Rev. David Gensler.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white all-lace gown that formed a train. Her headpiece supported a finger-length veil.

She carried white roses and baby's breath accented with melon roses.

Miss Kathy Cramer, the maid of honor, wore a melon and white gown with a matching hat. She carried a white wicker parasol filled with baby's breath, melon daisies, baby white carnations and talisman roses.

The Misses Constance Kamann, Ginger Cotter, a cousin of the bride, and Sandra Pittenger, the bridesmaids, wore yellow and white gowns with matching hats. They carried white wicker parasols filled with roses, daisies and baby's breath.

Betsy Schoenman, a cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. She was attired in a melon and white gown with matching hat to match the maid of honor. She carried a white wicker basket with yellow daisies, melon roses, white carnations and baby's breath. David Spiger, twin brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Richard Lehman and Michael Starter, Findlay, and Ronald Company, Shiloh, ushered.

Ringbearer was Greg Schoenman, a brother of the flower girl.

Paul Von Stein, a friend, and James Earhart, brother of the bride, served as acolytes. James also played "O Perfect Love" on the piano, accompanied by Mrs. Janet Miller, the organist.

A reception was in Shiloh Elementary school. The bride is a 1976 alumna of Plymouth High school who attended Pioneer Joint Vocational school. She was employed by First National bank at Shiloh the past year.

The bridegroom, also a graduate of Plymouth High school, was graduated by Bluffton college. He is an aircraft pilot in Hancock Co., Findlay. They will live in Findlay.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Ruckman returned Saturday from a three week camping trip to Washington and Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Lesho, Jr., are now living in Teheran, Iran, where he is on a governmental assignment.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. McKown vacationed in North Carolina and West Virginia last week.

Mrs. Ivan Bowman has returned from Lakeside where she spent the summer.

The James C. Roots and her grandmother, Mrs. Ross Van Buskirk, attended the Ice Capades at the Coliseum, Richfield, Sunday.

Councilman Hubert V. Akers celebrated his birthday anniversary Saturday as a dinner guest of the Akers' children, the Cleo Joneses, Shelby, and the Larry Skerses, Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Carter were guests last week of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Forsythe, Jr., to celebrate the fourth birthday anniversary of Julie Forsythe.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Stahl and their infant daughter, Centerville, were weekend guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fazzini.

Date pinwheels easy to make around to slicing them and baking them at 375 degrees. They bake for about 10 minutes or more. They will be soft when taken out of the oven, but will really harden like mad. They are extremely tasty dunked in icy cold milk late at night but if you are a real status seeker, dip them in brandy any time of the day. They are plain good.

Look . . .

It's not so much where you say it, in this newspaper, anyway, as what you say and how well you say it.

Mrs. W. H. says, "I always get good response when I run ads in your paper." (She never spends more than $2 an issue.)

C. R. says, "The business I have developed over the years is in part because we used The Advertiser to serve our friends in Plymouth, old friends that we had before we started to advertise and new friends that we made after we started to advertise."

You don't need a whole page to tell your story. But you need to tell your story professionally. Why not rely on us? We haven't many pretensions, but one is that we know how to write ad copy, whether to sell a barn, a baby carriage or a brougham (remember?).

Our cheapest rate is 20 words for $1. You could hardly go wrong at that price. You can reach us at 687-5511. We'll come a-runnin' to serve you, or we'll deal via Alexander Graham Bell. Call now.

CARD OF THANKS
I'd like to thank everyone for all the thoughtfulness, especially during my stay at Cleveland Chiropractic. Everyone was so good to my family. Also my many thanks for the food brought in by our many friends and neighbors. I want to thank all the ladies from the Catholic, Methodist, Presbyterian and Lutheran churches for all the food and prayers. The prayers were needed as the seriousness of my operation.

All the cards helped my stay in the hospital more bearable and all of them were beautiful with all their many messages. Thanks again and may God bless all of you. Love In Jesus Lelan Beck 7p
