

12th grader in high post

A 12th grader in Plymouth high school active in DeMolay has been elected as junior counselor of Ohio.

He is David Brooks, son of the Norman Kegleys, who was chosen at the annual convocation at Bowling Green State University.

He is a past master counselor of Independence Chapter, Order of DeMolay, here and is now serving as master counselor of the 8th DeMolay district. He has served the state council as aid to the scribe, as state almoner and as state sentinel.

The office of junior counselor of Ohio is the third highest post in the state. In two years he will be the leader of the organization.

Brooks has been in DeMolay work for four years. He has received the past master counselor meritorious service award and the grand master's youth excellence award.

and has received the degree of chevalier, the highest honor granted to a DeMolay, by the international supreme council.

Charles Williams, Jesse Woodmansee and Frank Garber, members of Independence chapter, were also at Bowling Green. So were Gay Weller, sweetheart of the chapter, William Hinebaugh, Robin Royer, Martin Sowers and Michael Dick, Sr., advisers. The Charles Williamses were present for the grand ball on Saturday and the devotional service on Sunday.

Michael Dick, son of the Dicks, Sr., was selected state officer of the year. Active in DeMolay at the local and state levels for seven years, he has received the grand master's youth excellence award and the degree of chevalier.

'79 alumna marries at Willard

Miss Shery Neeley was married July 28 at 4:30 p. m. in Grace United Methodist church, Willard, to Richard Laser in a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Paul Mustard.

Floral arrangements of daisies decorated the altar. Silk bows marked the pews for the candlelit ceremony.

Wayne Stahl was pianist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a floor length gown of chiffon over taffeta, styled with cotton Venice bodice, V neckline, Venice lace fitted sleeves and full chiffon overleaves. The chapel-length train was overlaid with full chiffon.

Mrs. Donald Laser, Willard, matron of honor, and the Misses Kelly Baker, Plymouth, and Karen Shoup, Willard, bridesmaids, were identically attired in apricot polyester knit with sheer bodice and circular cape. Each carried apricot daisies with baby's breath.

Karla Christoff, Plymouth, was flower girl.

Eric Laser, Greenwich, was ring bearer.

Mr. Laser was best man.

Robert Reed, Willard; Robert Laser, Willard; the bride's brother, Randy, Plymouth, and Gary Brubaker, Plymouth, ushered.

A reception took place in the church rooms, decorated with apricot and white streamers. Guests were served by Judy Christoff, Silvia Smith, the bride's sister, Mrs. Brenda Brubaker, and Vickie Fields.

Mrs. Neeley chose a floor-length gown of apricot polyester knit with chiffon sleeves and floor-length cape. Mrs. Laser wore a floor-length gown of coral styled with V neck and chiffon sleeves.

Daughter of the Ralph Neeleys, the bride is a 1979 alumna of Plymouth High school. Son of the John Lasers, Willard, the bridegroom was graduated there in 1977. He attended Pioneer Joint Vocational school. He is employed by Wes Gardner Decorating, Willard.

The couple is living in Willard.

Airman Jay P. Bennis, son of Mrs. William L. Whittington, 46 Pleasant street, has completed Air Force basic training at Lackland Air Force base, San Antonio, Tex.

The airman is remaining at Lackland for specialized training in the security police field.

Airman Bennis is a 1978 graduate of Plymouth High school.

His father, Veron Bennis, resides at Clute, Tex.

Lutherans fete confirmands

Mrs. Leroy Brumback gave the altar flowers in First Evangelical Lutheran church Sunday in memory of her husband.

More than 100 persons attended the ice cream social honoring three new confirmands Sunday evening. Confirmands are Michelle Courter, David Burkett and Tracy Caywood, who received a bouquet of giant chrysanthemums from the pastor, the Rev. Ronald Atkins. Mrs. F. J. Buzard, chairman, thanked participants in the social.

Church council met after the social for the August session, which was attended by a new member, Glenn Haas.

Here's what folks did 25, 20, 15, 10, 5 years ago

25 years ago, 1954
Arthur Stein, Jr., New Haven, succumbed to injuries received in a collision in Route 224 a month before.

Patrolman William Moore withdrew his resignation, effective Sept. 1.

Ray Evans organized trustees of public affairs to stop pumping water from a well they drilled and paid for on his land.

Coach Fred Kretzfeldt looked ahead to a seven game football schedule with these letters: Marty Hampton, Otis Port, John Fox, Jim Jacobs, John Fetters, Buddy Berberick, Franklin Eckstein and John Elliott.

Patricia Ann Foraker was feted on her 10th anniversary by her grandmother, Mrs. Kit Foraker.

Thomas Kranz and Roger Steele won five-day scholarships to attend FFA Camp Muskingum, near Carrollton.

Shiloh United Methodist church bought a pedigreed goat to send to Korea.

Richard Welton resigned as basketball coach and social studies teacher in New Haven High school.

Married here in 1900, Mrs. J. J. Adams, wife of a Methodist minister, died at Gahon.

20 years ago, 1959
Judson A. Morrison resigned abruptly as fire chief. Ray Bright resigned as assistant fire chief.

Mrs. William Bittinger attained her 99th anniversary.

Ralph A. (Bully) Clark, a World War I veteran from Plymouth, died at 67 at Lebanon, Pa.

Mrs. Norman B. McQuown was awarded the baccalaureate degree by Bowling Green State university.

Emily Rose Ford was married in Plymouth United Methodist church to Robert G. Smith, Nevada.

Eleven graduates of the Class of 1954 reunited in Mary Fate park. These were Sam Fazio, H. James Root, Paul Stoodt, Carl Holmes, Lenore Lee, W. Lawrence Cornell, Mrs. Roy Carter, Mrs. Edward Long, Mrs. Leo Hughes, Mrs. Donald E. Akers and Mrs. Thomas DeWitt.

A son, Michael Earl, was born to the Milton E. Melotto, 56 Plymouth street.

The Rev. Cloyd Fugh was assigned to a Baptist church in East Warsaw, Ind., and moved from LaSalle, Ill.

Marriage of Robert Sponseller to Barbara Groff, Souderton, Pa., took place there July 26.

15 years ago, 1964
Father of Frederick H. Lewis, Morris Lewis, 80, died in Willard.

Master Sgt. Kenneth B. Snider competed with the Ohio National guard rifle team in the national championships at Camp Perry.

Wallace H. Redden received $400 for a work improvement suggestion at Fisher Body division, General Motors Corp., Ontario.

Roger Bloomfield, Shiloh, attended the 36th American Institute of Cooperation at Michigan State university, East Lansing, Mich.

Clear Fork, Ontario and Fredericton were favored, in that order, to win the 1964 Johnny Appleseed conference football crown.

Frank Cline's bid to maintain school buses was accepted.

William Burkett entered Mercy hospital, Tiffin, for eye surgery.

Robert Kessler underwent abdominal surgery in Shelby Memorial hospital.

10 years ago, 1969
Village asked for $113,388 in federal funds to assist with July 4 flooding.

Roderick Huston rode his bicycle from Seattle, Wash., to the east coast and thence to Washington, D. C.

Jack Thompson succeeded Russell Keith as councilman at Shiloh.

Former Shiloh teacher, Paul Eley, Gary, Ind., son-in-law of the Frank Dawsons, appeared in Time magazine as a top salesman for Mutual Life Insurance Co., New York.

Three incumbents, Mrs. J. J. Chila, Delmar L. Nesbitt and Walter V. Porter, were challenged by five others for four seats as councilmen at Shiloh.

Those were Harry L. Foster, Kelly Hicks, Marion Hughes, Grady R. McDonald and Theodore C. Robertson.

Richard Maye, Shiloh, was married at Findlay to Deborah Jane Ruppert.

Mike Beard broke a thumb playing baseball and was lost for several games of the Big Red's season. Coach Larry Root sought to train George Lesbo to take his place.

Fate-Root-Heath Co. bought a new System/3 computer from IBM.

Mrs. Robert D. Forsythe won best-in-show at the annual flower show of Town & Country Garden club at Shiloh.

5 years ago, 1974
Guy E. Flora showed the grand champion market lamb at the annual Richland county fair.

Mrs. Clarence S. DeVier, 73, died at her summer home in North Carolina.

Pupil lunches went up five cents to 45 cents for elementary pupils, 55 cents for high school pupils.

Keith E. Diebler, 22, Bucyrus, and Daniel D. Donoghue, 22, Tiffin, were hired to teach in the public schools, Diebler as driver education and physical education teacher, Donoghue as vocal music instructor.

Randolph A. Cole and Michael Dick were elected to state office by the Order of DeMolay.

Thirty-three visiting trailers parked on the R. J. Riedinger property in North street for the weekend.

Frank C. Fenner, trustee of Plymouth township, was in Shelby Memorial hospital.

Margy Hamman, Shiloh, won first prize with gladioli in the annual Richland county fair.

Step-father of Mrs. J. Max Fidler, Joseph Tetlow, 86, died at Shelby.

Mrs. Timothy Redden, nee Susan Smith, was hired to teach remedial reading in the public schools.

All about Plymouth...

Mrs. Foster Smith, Plymouth Village apartments, was hostess last week to her brother and sister-in-law, the R. C. Davises, Charlotte Harbor, Fla.

Sally Von Stein, daughter of the Raymond Von Steins, won first place and the right to compete at Columbus for her entry in Foods to Take and Share class. Julie Von Stein won second place in All-American Foods.

Karen Russell, daughter of the R. Eugene Russell, Shiloh, was the winner in the dress-up outfit during the style revue at the annual Richland county fair.

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY YOUR DREAM HOME AND GET READY FOR THE WINTER MONTHS.

SPECIAL OF THE WEEK
This very neat and attractively decorated home can be yours for $241 per month. It features a large living room, two bedrooms and bath down, kitchen-dining room, full basement, large loft bedroom up and a very large lot.

AVAILABLE SOON - Move in for about $224 per month plus taxes and insurance. This three bedroom house has Buyers Protection to warrant furnace, water heater and most other mechanical equipment for one full year after purchase against repair costs over $100. Owners moved to larger home and will help with the down payment needs.

BUY OF THE MONTH - Monthly payments about $263 per month with 10% down. Taxes and insurance extra, but either part of this large double will rent for at least $125 per month so you could pay less than $150 per month for your own home. No more fixing up a house you do not own. Two bedrooms up, three down. Nice garage and garden area.

111 BROADWAY - Another low monthly payment. $260 per month will provide odds of room for a large family. Redecorated down with new gas furnace. Two baths, four or five bedrooms and maple parking space. Could be made into a double with little trouble.

64 MULBERRY - a real bargain for $290 per month with two bedrooms down and a loft type bedroom up. Two car garage and a storage shed on a good sized lot.

EXCELLENT VIEW ON FOUR ACRES AT THE EDGE OF PLYMOUTH - Three bedrooms, fireplace and more can be yours for about $402 per month or about the cost of a new automobile every month.

WILLARD - Work in Willard, live in Willard. Nice one story home on three lots for about $220 per month.

COUNTRY LIVING FOR $140 PER MONTH IS NOT EASY TO FIND - Move into this 1 1/2 story cottage with a good well and one car garage. Now vacant so move fast.

ANTIQUE ELEGANCE AT $312 PER MONTH IN SHILOH - Needs to be redecorated and insulated but this home would bring twice the asking price in a larger city.

WE HAVE FARMS FOR SALE - Call for monthly payments.

SHELBY - Night club. High gross, excellent terms.

Many other listings in Willard, Shelby, and the local area, come see Holiday Lakes, the playground of the area.

Note: Monthly payments based on 10% down and interest at 11 1/2% for 30 year period. Taxes and insurance to be added.
