Good news

That Huron county has $199,146 more available for 1983 than it reckoned on is good news.

Commissioner Carabin says "it will probably eliminate the need for layoffs and will probably assure that we can provide at least basic services."

Where did it come from? The auditor, C. B. Roscoe, estimated in 1981 that a balance of $220,000 would remain after 1962's bills were paid. It turns out that he underestimated by $199,146.

One should expect the commissioners to set priorities, to publish them, and to stick to them. Road and bridge maintenance, snow removal, law enforcement and a safety net of welfare adequate to meet bare needs are among them, but not necessarily in that order.

First results

Richard Rench no sooner arrived in Columbus, hadn't even taken the oath of office as representative to the General Assembly from the new 90th district, which includes all of Huron and Crawford counties, than he set to work to resolve a troublesome matter.

He went straight to the top, to the outgoing governor, to apply pressure to obtain a reversal of an order by the state welfare department that a young comatose girl under care in a Norwalk geriatric center, only a few steps from her home. should be transferred to a state institution for the retarded.

The girl, only 13, fell into a coma after she was affected by Reyes syndrome. Her medical bills are paid by Medicare and her condition is evaluated periodically by the state, which recently decided the girl can be educated. Her mother disputed this contention. She said her child is coma-tose, cannot be educated, and ought to be kept near her home, where her family can visit her often.

The effort was successful and Mr. Rench deserves full plaudits for moving so swiftly, and so effectively, in the

But there are some thoughts that occur

One is that neither Mr. Rench nor any of his constituents should expect that what amounts to curbstone justice can be had on another occasion. The time was right. The outgoing governor and the incoming assemblyman are of the same, party. The governor was naturally disposed to show what a big fellow he is. And he did that. There's no question but that he unshackled his heavy artillery to bring pressure to bear in just the right place so that girl can stay in Norwalk.

But it won't happen again. No soon, anyway. For one thing, the governor is a Democrat. For another, Mr. Rench is brand new. It's not in the pattern of things that a new representative will win many fights.

For another, the bureaucracy doesn't like to be disturbed. Only a fool would assert that the beaureacracy is not sometimes right. If the child is in a coma, visits by even the president won't help because the child won't recognize who it is that's visiting or know why. Whether the depth of the coma is such that some education, of whatever nature, will benefit the child, and at the same time reduce the state's enormous burden, is more than a layman can assess. It is a fact that in about a month's time, the state will reexamine the girl's case. If Mr. Rench (and the family and its neighbors need to go through this drill again, the first one served hardly any purpose. The second one will be more difficult.

We supported Mr. Rench for a number of reasons and we're glad that at least one of them - that he's a go getter and won't take no for an answer - proved out. In this dinstance, at least. But we don't expect him to work miracles. And he shouldn't either. Moore replaced -

New Haven tavern loses liquor license

The license of Wright Way Inn at New Haven to dispense liquor has been revoked.

Ohio Liquor Control board decided Dec. 28 to revoke the license. It did so after testimony by New Haven township trustees and a petition signed by 35 residents of the township were received.

The petition was filed in August of 1981.

Testimony from both sides was heard during November. The owner, George Wright, was repre-sented by Gordon Blackman, a Shelby lawyer, who says his client will appeal. While the appeal awaits decision, the establishment will remain open for business. This may take several months. Complaints against the Wright Way Inv.

Way Inn: 1. Disorderly and unruly conduct

1. Disorderly and unruly conduct by patrons, including "urinating in the parking lot, noise until 4 a. m., fights and foul language." 2. A resident who asked bar patrons to abate their noise was assaulted and hospitalized.

3. Guns were fired in the parking lot.

4. Numerous complaints to the sheriff's department resulted from conduct at the establishment.

5. Male pattrons of the establishment seek to undress female patrons in the parking lot.

6. A Willard Fire department emergency squad refused to enter the place without a police escort. In its decision, the liquor control board held all these allegations to be true.

outh to have two free throws, and then fired in eight additional markers. When the horn sounded, Monroe-ville had scored 36 points, surely a local record for one period.

The Eagles attempted 27 shots in the first eight minutes and 15 of them went down. Most of them were first shots, but the superior Monroveille rebounding proved effective as well. In the second period, it was more of the same. Monroveille fired for field goal 25 times and was successful with 12 of them. At the half, the Eagles were so far ahead they couldn't be beaten with a stick. The score was 63 to 29.

Plymouth was respectable in the third period, when it scored 29 points. scored 29 points. Monroeville managed 16, all of them on field goals, for which it tried neid goais, for which it tried 26 times.

For the entire night, the Eagles launched 97 shots and made 42 of them. They missed only six of 19 free throws. They took down 69 rebounds and were charged with only seven turnovers.

Big gun for Plymouth is Rodney Hampton, last in a long line of his family to play for Plymouth. Left-handed all the way, the wears No. 20, plays in the forecourt, shoots well and rebounds adequately. He managed 18 against Monroeville and 14 against Crestview last week. No. 20 in Eagle uniform is Jeff Stieber, not a starter, but certainly a valuable contributor to Monroeville's cause. He scored 12 against South Central and 12 against Plymouth in successive games last week. An 11th grader, he stands five feet eight inches.

Cougars dump Plymouth

Big second period wins for Crestview

Apologies ought to be extended to those who paid to see Crestview defeat Plym-outh, 58 to 51, in Firelands conference play here Friday night.

Neither team played well.
Consider: 52 turnovers in 32 minutes, better than three every two minutes. Total output in first eight minutes of play: 12 points Field goal shooting percentage by the home team: 31. Free throw shooting percentage by the home team: 31. Free throw shooting percentage by the home 65.

Crestview seized the lead early in the second period and never looked back It was 10 all when Brian Eastering canned a shot from 16 feet out and the Cougars ran onto a 24-point period and a lead of 30 to 23 the half.

A six point run by Plymouth with less that two minutes left in the half helped the Big Red to cutinto a big Crestview lead.
