ANN ARBOR, Mich. —(P)— Michigan ground out its 16th straight football victory here yesterday, 14 to 0, in the face of an Oregon air school's first football team in attack that threatened down to the last second.

Michigan showed 65,800 fans a determined and aggressive ball club in cracking the eight-game victory streak of the visiting Webfeet. But the fars who helped open Michigan's 1948 home season were *kept constantly on edge by the ever dangerous Oregon passer, Norm Van Brocklin.
