Grid Scores... Loudonville Wins Fifth Straight, 27-6

enced Mansfield Madison football team for more than three quarters, undefeated Loudonville exploded in the late stages to defeat the Rams, 27 to 6, here last night.

It was the fifth straight victory for Loudonville and the Red Buds winning streak as they battled them to a 0-0 stolemate. Madison trailed by only 7-6 with five minutes to go and by only 14-6 with two minutes left to play. Two last-minute scores set cepted pass made the final score By this time Madison's lack entirely different from the true of replacements on an injury story of the game. Up until then it had been a see-saw battle between Loudonville's Bill Foster and Madison's Pedro Pryor, both of whom got off to some brilliant pieces of broken field running. One 20-vard jaunt by Pryor in the third ran the kickoff back to the period was the best bit of running Madison has had all year. Neither team made a serious threat during the en-tire first half as Loudonville, which had punted only once in four previous games, was forced to kick three times. Things began to happen fast in the third quarter, however as Loudonville took the open-ing kickoff down to the Madison seven-yard line before Gray fumbled and Lloyd Rissler reovered for the Rams on the ten.

The ball exchanged hands three more times before Loudondrive started late in the period. Putting the ball into play on .s own 29 after taking a punt, the Red Birds drove to paydirt in eight plays, the last two com-ing in the fourth quarter. A 40-yard off-tackle run by Jack Por-carried over from the ten.

After Carl Young converted to give Loudonville a 7-0 lead. Madison took the kickoff and pounded back on an 88-yard drive of its own.

However a fumble gave Loudonville the ball on the two. The Birds drove to the 11 and then handed the ball back on another
