Huron lost no time in taking the lead after recovering a St. Mary's fumble on the first play of the game from scrimmage. Taking over on their own 30 yard line, the Tigers covered the 70 yards in seven plays, climaxed when Michel took a pitchout and raced 17 yards around his own left end for pay-ofi territory. Fullback Bill Craig failed on his attempt to plunge for the point. St. Mary's roared back, taking the next kickoff on its own 25 and covering the 75 yards in 11 plays and picking up four first downs on the way. Sandusky High's Blue Streaks make their first road showing tonight when they seek to stretch their victory skein to three straight at Ashland against the A's who have broken even in a pair of encounters.

The Streaks were pronounced in top shape after a light drill Thursday afternoon at Strobel field. Head Coach Jeff DeHaven and Assistant Coach Bob Beachy were not on hand for the workout, having left early for the 200 mile trip to scout Mooseheart at New Kensington, Pa., last night.

The locals will start with their offensive regular lineup of Jim Holzmiller and Bob Whetstone at ends, Paul Miller and Don Boissoneault at tackles, Carl Hallo and Bill Heiberger at guards, Dick Coker at center, Tom McGory, George Kreimes, Lavon Ward and Don Cottey in the backfield.

The only change will be in the defensive setup with Pete Lococo going in at safety for Kreimes instead of Darrell Hurlburt who was hurt in practice. Ted Schwanger will go in to back the line on defense and Coker will take the bench. Over 200 reserve seats which went on sale Wednesday here were grabbed up by Thursday morning and the school offices were swamped with additional requests. There were 250 student tickets sold at the school.

Ashland officials announced that if Sandusky fans reach the Ashland College field by 7 p. m. they should have a good chance of getting general admission tickets.

The Sandusky High band was in Columbus today for the Ohio State-Indiana game and will return to Ashland to play at the high school game.

Sandusky has knocked off Akron West 19-6 and Elyria 31-12 while the A's lost to Willard 13-21 and romped over Mansfield Madison 46-12.

This could be the day of decision in the major league pennant races.

The Boston Red Sox can clinch the American League flag by knocking off their challengers, the New York Yankees, today at Yankee stadium.

If they miss, they still have a chance on the last day tomorrow since a Yankee victory today would throw the race into another tie.
