Battered 11-0 in the opening game at Chicago and bouncing back to take the second game there, 4-3, the Dodgers were in high spirts-and almost critical of the team they will meet on their home lot when the Series resumes Sunday.

"When you play teams like the Braves, Giants and Piscare you," said Scrappy Don "And the Cubs, too," interjected Jim Gilliam, as if to say that the Sox would have to be considered fifth-best in the National League.
