Clear Fork Beats Crestline, Leads In JAC

Freddies Tumble Plymouth, 12-0

Clear Fork's running overcame Crestline's passing, and now the unbeaten Colts are on top of the Johnny Appleseed Conference football standings.

In "The Game" last night at Bellville, Clear Fork (7-0-1 and 8-0-1) was never in trouble in topping Crestline (7-1 and 8-1), 20-6. The win stretched Clear Fork's unbeaten string to 23 games. The only mar on its record is a 6-6 tie with Fredericktown.

In another big league game, Fredericktown (6-1-1 and 7-1-1) shutout Plymouth (5-2-1 and 5-3-1), 12-0 If Ontario can oust Clear Fork next week, Crestline can still slip to the title and Fredericktown can tie for second.

Loudonville and Lexington also won league games last night. Loudonville (44 and 5-4) overwhelmed Lucas (1-7 and 1-8), 46-14 and Lexington (3-5 and 4-5) skinned past Northmor (1-7

This afternoon at two o'clock, Ontario (3-3-1 and 4-3-1) was scheduled to invade Crestview (0-7 and 0-8).
