

Madison, Malabar Tumble In Card Games

Ashlanders Beat Quakers, 24 To 6

Malabar and Madison both lost in football action in the Cardinal Conference last night, while Ashland posted a win.

Malabar (1-5 and 0-4) fell to Coshocton (3-2-1 and 2-1), 44-8. Madison (4-2 and 2-1) dropped its first league game to seventh ranked Dover (6-0 and 4-0), 24-6. Ashland (2-4 and 2-2) evened its league mark with a 28-0 win over New Philadelphia (15 and 0-3). In a non-league game, Wooster (3-3 and 2-1) lost to Wadsworth, 36-0.

DOVER — Madison's running attack was halted by an iron-clad Dover defense last night.

Madison gained just 42 yards on the ground, where the Rams have been the strongest before. While the Dover defense can be given credit for a fine job, it must be noted that the Rams were without the services of Dick Johnson and, for more than a half, without Dom Sammataro.

Johnson, a regular on both offense and defense, is sidelined with a head injury. Sammataro broke his left ankle defending against a conversion pass in the second period.

Dover's defense stopped every Madison scoring threat, mainly to the ground. The Tornadoes rolled up 320 yards rushing. Dave Keitch picked up 138 yards in 21 tries and scored twice. Bill Hawk gained 78 yards in 12 attempts and went over for the other tally.

Hawk's touchdown, which opened the Dover scoring, came with 9:24 left to play in the second period on a 36-yard run off left tackle. The TD capped an 81-yard drive in 10 plays.

Dover took a Madison punt at its own 45 after stopping the Rams and drove for its second TD with 3:45 to play in the half. Keitch raced the final 14 yards and the two-point conversion made it 16-0 at intermission.

Madison came out aroused in the second half and promptly drove to the Dover 25. But there Larry Hart was thrown for a loss trying to pass on fourth down. Madison got the ball right back on a fumble recovery, but Keitch intercepted a Hart pass at the Dover 30 on the first play of the fourth quarter.

Dover then marched for its final score. Keitch, who had a 40-yard gain in the 70-yard drive, capped the march with a five-yard run with 5:59 to play.

COSHOCTON — Exploding for 30 points in the second half, Coshocton rolled to its win over Malabar here last night.

A Homecoming crowd of 2,132 paid watched Coshocton pile up 357 yards rushing against Malabar. It was the worst showing by the Falcons this year as their defense simply couldn't contain the running of Don Darr, Tim McLane and Tom Sander.

FIRST SCORE

Coshocton opened the scoring in the first quarter after taking a Malabar punt at the Redskin 39. Sixteen plays later, Darr plunged over from the one-yard line to make it 6-0 with 2:11 left in the period.

The Falcons punted to Coshocton's 48 following the kick-off, but four plays later McLane fumbled and Larry Smith of Malabar pounced on the ball at the Falcon 42. Nine plays later, Junior Quarterback Steve Hahn found End Dick King all alone along the left sideline on a third-and-six play.

King hauled in the aerial and scampered untouched into the end zone for a 38-yard scoring play with 5:47 remaining in the half. After Jim Nixon burst over for the two-point conversion to put Malabar ahead, 8-6, it appeared the Falcons were out to spoil the Homecoming.

Coshocton, however, was not about to let Malabar ruin the festivities. Taking an on-side kick-off at their own 47, the Redskins moved in for their second TD with 1:43 to go in the half. Darr capped the 10-play drive with another one-yard dive.

Coshocton scored twice in the third stanza to go ahead

30-8. Darr raced 20 yards for his third touchdown to put the Redskins in front 22-8 with 9:24 to go in the third quarter. Then, after Malabar's George Ackley had to fall on the ball due to a poor snap on a punt try, Coshocton marched in for their fourth TD from the Falcon 30. McLane plunged the final yard.

Coshocton's next two touchdowns came on a one-yard dive by Sander and a two-yard run by Substitute Dave Dahlberg.

Ashland

ASHLAND — Ashland, noted for its passing attack, resorted to ground warfare here last and played its finest 1967 game in shutting out New Philadelphia.

The Arrows' only pass catches were made by the defensive unit as they picked off three New Philadelphia tosses, two of the interceptions leading to touchdowns. Ashland tried only two passes — both incomplete.

Playing before 3,000 fans at Community Stadium, the Arrows drove 76 yards in 19 plays for their first touchdown. Joe Shideler shot five yards off left tackle for the score with 48 seconds remaining in the first period.

Shideler got a second touchdown with 7:48 left in the second quarter on another five-yard run after a 20-yard

Britisher Wins 'Pro' Links Meet

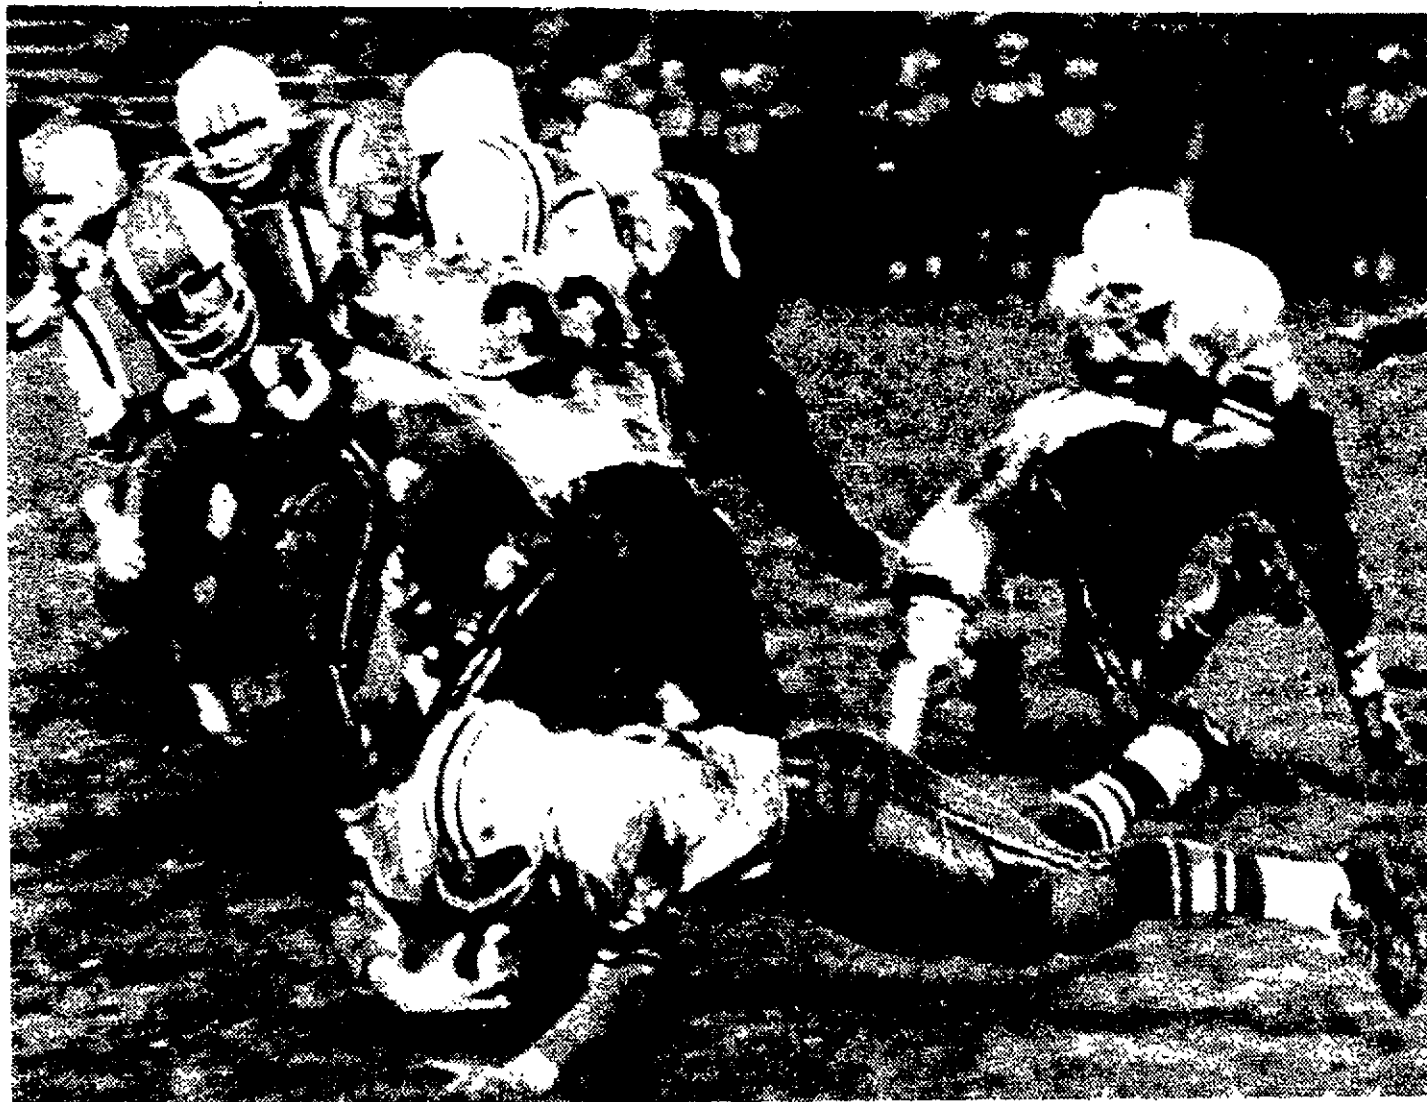

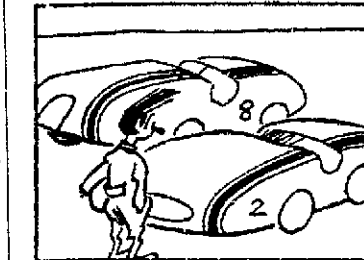

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (AP) — A ball lodged in a palm tree cost Ron Cerrudo a chance to win the PGA amateur qualifying tournament Friday and allowed South Africa's young whiz Bobby Cole a one-stroke victory in spite of a four-over-par final round.

Cerrudo, of San Rafael, Calif., who started the tournament with a round of 67, finished with a 77 after he drove his ball into a palm tree off the 10th tee. At the time, Cole trailed Cerrudo by two strokes.

Cerrudo played the ball and came out with a double bogey to tie for third at 574 with Deane Beman of Washington.

Second spot went to Gibby Gilbert of Hollywood, Fla.

Fredericktown, Clear Fork Win In JAC Football Tilts

Fredericktown and Clear Fork won football games in the Johnny Appleseed Conference last night.

Fredericktown (3-0-1 and 5-0-1), rated seventh in Ohio, won a cliff hanger from Ontario (0-3-0 and 4-2-0), 18-14, to challenge Lexington (3-0-0 and 4-1-0) for the lead. Clear Fork (2-1-1 and 2-3-1) had an easier time defeating Plymouth (1-3-0 and 3-3-0), 24-6.

This afternoon, Lexington was scheduled to host Loudonville (0-3-0 and 1-4-0) and Crestline (1-2-0 and 1-4-0) was booked at Crestview (0-3-0 and 1-4-0).

FREDERICKTOWN — Fullback Ed Wilson leaped into the end zone with 27 seconds remaining in the gruelling high school contest here last night for a come-from-behind victory over Ontario.

Wilson's TD capped an 18-play, 80-yard march in the final period as Fredericktown won its first game ever from the Warriors on the Freddie's home field.

The rain-soaked battle opened up as if both squads would make a high scoring contest of the JAC "game of the week." Fredericktown tallied the first two times it had possession to drop Ontario behind 12-0 early in the second period.

Freddie quarterback Brad Fearn lofted a 29-yard scoring pass to Larry Carpenter with 1:33 left in the first quarter and built up the Freddie lead entering the second frame when he connected with Gordon Doyle for a 70-yard play. Doyle received the aerial on Ontario's 40-yard stripe and sped down the sidelines for the score.

Ontario came roaring back when Roger Milligan broke into the center of the Fredericktown line and sped downfield on a 75-yard jaunt. Teammate Wayne Motley knotted the score with a 70-yard dash with 3:30 left in the first half. Warrior Nelson Bross put Ontario into the lead with a two-point extra point run.

Fearn's passes accounted for 137 yards, connecting on five of his 11 attempts. Carpenter paced the Fredericktown ground attack with 87 yards in 10 carries.

Warriors Motley and Milligan ground up huge chunks of real estate to spark the Ontario eleven. Motley accounted for 151 yards and Milligan added 122.

Clear Fork's defense proved to be an almost impenetrable barrier allowing Plymouth only 43 ground yards.

Rain was a factor in the game, making the field slippery.

Plymouth found trouble holding onto the ball, it lost two fumbles to Clear Fork.
