Baltimore Orioles Trip Tribe, 4 to 3

BALTIMORE (UPI) -Duke Sims did his mightiest to boost the Cleveland Indians past the Eastern Division champion Baltimore Orioles Friday night, but an error in the 11th inning by Shortstop Eddie Leon wasted all his efforts.

The Orioles defeated the Indians 4-3 with a single by Rookie Don Baylor in the 11th that scored Paul Blair from third base.

It looked in the early innings aas if Baltimore might be off to a rout, as Baylor singled in the first to drive in two runs. Don Buford had drawn a leadoff walk, Chico Salmon had singled and Terry Crowly had walked. Then Baylor, in his first time at bat in the major leagues, calmly lashed a single and Bufford and Salmon scooted home.

Two more Oriole rookies teamed to add another run in the fourth as Catcher John Oates singles, then scored on a triple by Bobby

But Sims evened it all up in the sixth with a home run blast that scored Vada Pininning with the bases loaded son and Roy Foster in front move to Boston for three

Dean Chance, the Ohio farm boy who labored all season for the losing Cleveland Indians, today found himself thrust into the exciting pennant chase in the National League East.

The 29 - year - old right - hand pitcher who won the Cy Young Award in 1964 was sold Friday to the New York Mets for an undisclosed amount of cash.

The acquisition of Chance, 9-8 over 46 games this year, was a move by New York to shore up its faltering mound

"Nothing surprises me in this game," Chance said when informed of the transaction. "I woke up this morning an Indian and suddenly I'm a Met. But it's great to be in a pennant race again."

Chance had an earned run average of 4.21 with the Indians this year. He gave up 173 hits, 55 walks and struck

"I hate to leave Cleveland because it's so near my home and of course, I have my boxing interest here," said Chance, from Wooster, Ohio. "As for my pitching, my arm has come all the way back. It took me most of the year to strengthen it. I know I can pitch. I really enjoyed pitching in Cleveland."

LOS ANGELES (AP) -Alvin Haymond stunned St. Louis with a 98-yard touchdown run on the kickoff opening the second half and the Los Angeles Rams swept by the Cardinals in their National Football League opener Friday night, 34-13.

A crowd of 63,130 roared in approval as the 194-pound Haymond took the kick in front of the goal post, swung to his right, received key blocks from Kermit Alexander and Jeff Jordan, reversed to his left and kept flying for the game-breaking score.

The Rams' Roman Gabriel fired three touchdown passes — two bullets from only three yards out and a 15 yarder to Jack Snow to wind up the Los Angeles scoring with less than two minutes remaining.

'More Like the Old Machine'

Reds Smash Atlanta's Braves, 11 to 6

By ED SHEARER

ATLANTA (AP) — "They looked a little bit more like the old machine tonight," said Manager Sparky Anderson Friday night while his Cincinnati Reds uncorked magnums of champagne and doused everyone in the clubhouse in a delayed celebration of their National League West Division

Anderson, his uniform drenched, had a gleam in his eye after seeing his club drill 15 hits in a 11-6 victory over Atlanta. It was the first time in weeks that the Big Red machine resembled the powerhouse that made the division race a runaway by playing .700 ball through the All - Star game break in July.

"I figured it would break open sometime," said Ander-

"Our guys always want to win but tonight they really wanted it, I mean really." The Reds had clinched the title while idle Thursday when Houston eliminated second place Los Angeles 10-5.

"It's our night," shouted Johnny Bench as someone poured champagne over his head. "It's been an unbelievable year. You can't realize everything goes this way. You can't explain why."

Bench hit his 45th homer after Bobby Tolan had rapped a three - run double in the seventh inning to lift the Reds to a 7-3 lead over Atlanta.

The three - run blast by Bench gave him 142 runs batted in for the year, cracking the Cincinnati club record of 141 set in 1954 by Ted Kluzewski.

Kluzewski, now a Reds coach, said Bench will pass a lot of people before he's through.

"He'll be some kind of ball player."

Biggest Offensive Display Ever Malabar Blasts Colts

Mansfield Malabar staged the finest offensive display in its eight years of football, defeating Clear Fork last night at Arlin Field, 41-0, before 3,000 fans.

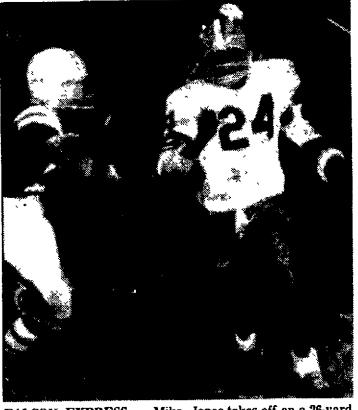

And it was a Jones boy who shown the brightest in the six-touchdown barrage which kept the Falcons undefeated in two contests. Mike Jones, a 160-pound junior halfback, scored three of the touchdowns, intercepted three passes and stockpiled 165 rushing yards on 20 efforts.

Quarterback Greg Loesch scored one touchdown and passed for two others. Junior Dexter Davis and Sophomore Jim Belt collected the other scores as Malabar broke its previous offensive record set in a 37-0 win over Wadsworth in the final game of the 1965 season.

Clear Fork (0-2) never threatened. The Colts did march 57 yards to the Falcon 28 once on Russ Barr's passing arm, but one of five Falcon interceptions stopped that drive in the third quarter. Malabar had other excursions stopped on the 14 and eight-yard lines.

Loesch scored the first Malabar touchdown on a oneyard sneak which culminated a 57-yard march in five plays. The big gainer was a 41-yard sortie by Jones on a pitchout. Jones got No. 2 on a 26-yard scamper just before the quarter ended. He had triggerd the three-play drive with an 11-yard gainer and then Loesch passed 24 yards to Shane O'Hara.

Two second-quarter scores came in a 139-second span. Malabar moved 74 yards in five plays, the touchdown coming on a 43-yard, fourth-down pass from Loesch to Davis. Jones ran back an intereption 26 yards to the 25 and scored on the sixth play on an eight-yard pass rfom Loesch.

Plymouth Defeats Monroeville, 24-0

By DICK KINNEY

PLYMOUTH - Scoring a touchdown in every quarter, the Big Red of Plymouth racked up its second consecutive shutout victory here last night, 24-0 over Monroeville.

Plymouth (2-0) began the independent football battle with a scoring drive the first time it gained possession after Lee Wilkins recovered a Monroeville (0-2) fumble on the Plymouth 30. The Big Red covered the remaining 70 yards in 14 plays with Quarterback Mike Beard capping the drive on a one-yard sneak.

Beard had his hand on the next two six-pointers, connecting on a nine-yard needle threader to Halfback John Conley in the second period and lofting a 22 yarder to Jim Cutright in the third. Cutright picked the ball from the air between a pair of Eagle defenders.

Conley was the big gainer for Plymouth collecting 97 yards in 11 carries. Fullback Bill Van Wagner added 78 on 17 and Halfback Jim Adams garnered 61 on

Rain Kayoes Activity in Pro Golfing

ROBINSON, III. (AP) -The weather was the big topic as PGA tournament pros tried to get underway Saturday in the delayed second round of the $100,000 Robinson Golf Classic.

Rain washed out Friday's second round and if it can be played today the windup will go 36 holes Sunday with the original field of 147 trimmed to the 70 low scores and tie. Possibilities of more rain were forecast, however, as the par-wreckers take aim at the $20,000 first prize.

In Thursday's opening round, Rich Bassett of Miami, a non-winner since he joined the tour in 1967, captured the lead with a six-under par 65 for the exacting Crawford Country Club
