DOVER - That long, long, long famine for the Mansfield Malabar Falcons that the Dover Tornadoes have presented them in the past nine years continued last night when the Crimson and Gray from Tuscarawas County demolished the Mansfielders 27 - 0 in high school football action.

It was the tenth consecutive victory for the Doverites over the Falcons, who were also sent back home with their initial 1972 football loss after a pair of victories.

It also marked an unsuccessful debut in the 1972 Cardinal Conference session for the Falcons, who lost three fumbles in the first half to help Dover to a 21 - 0 lead going into the lockerroom. The crowd of 5,200, included 800 Mansfielders.

In a sense, it wasn't completely a rout, as the Malabar defense played heads - up football the entire game.

The Falcon offense coughed up the football three times, of which two led to Dover touchdowns.

After the Falcon defense stiffened to wipe out an early Dover threat that reached the Malabar two - yard line. the Brown and Orange took over on

The inability to sustain a drive forced the Falcons to punt, with kicker Don Stewart doing the job from his own goalline.

Stewart was unable to hold the ball on a bad snap from center, and Dover's Greg Gardner recovered in the end zone for the initial touchdown.

A Doug Distl fumble on an attempted pitchout was recovered by Dover's Gardner and the Tornadoes were on their way again.

Quarterback Dave Migliore, who completed 13 of 21 passes for 144 yards, directed the Tornado attack which was capped on a one - yard drive by Jeff Korns. Migliore passed to Greg Gurney for the points - after touchdown.

With 3:30 left in the first half, Bubba Beal fumbled a Distl pitchout and Dover recovered on its own 43.

and Randy Gates (1) in third quarter action of the Ontario - Lexington clash last night in Ontario.

Migliore riddled the Falcon defense for five completions, including three to Jon DeVore, to make it a 21-0 game at the 0:52 mark. The final completion of that drive went to De-Vore from seven yards out.

Dover drove for another score late in the game, finalized on a nine - yard run by Migliore.

"Our defense wasn't bad at all tonight," said a saddened Malabar coach Tom Landsittel. "We got behind early and our offensive punch just wasn't there.'

Indeed it wasn't, as the Falcons could muster only three first downs against a stingy Dover defense. Overall. Malabar gained only 72 net yards.

"Our fumbles gave them good field position and you can't do that against a team like Dover," Landsittel added.

While things were glum for the tootballers at halftime, the Malabar marching band performed admirably before an outstanding following of Mansfielders at Crater Stadium.

JAC Opens 1972 Action

Football competition in the eight - school Johnny Apple-seed Conference began last night with Ontario, Clear Fork. Fredericktown and Plymouth winning initial confrontations.

touchdown after an alert teammate blocked a Minuteman punt. The drive covered 35 yards in eight plays with Yancey driving over from two yards out with 1:34 remaining.

Gates came up with the icing for Ontario's victory in the third quarter. Lexington had driven the ball 50 yards. to Ontario's 26 - yard line. Minuteman Tony Delianides attempted a pass to teammate Jeff Wentz but Gates stepped in. The 168 - pound senior intercepted the pass on Ontario's 15 - yard stripe with a one - hand grab, and sped 85 yards for the score.

Both teams ran 37 plays on the ground but Ontario picked up 124 yards in its tries while Lexington earned 87 yards Lexington moved deep into Ontario territory only on one occasion. The Minutemen were stopped at the Warrior 11 yard line at the close of the first half. A fumble stopped the drive.

Halfback Dan Bowersox led the defending Cardinal Conference champions with 16 points on a pair of one yard touchdown runs, two extra point kicks and running for two extra points. Jim Thomas got the remaining points for the Eagles, pulling in a 37 - yard pass from Mark Starr and a six - yard pass from Chris Strine. EARLY SCORING

Ashland, now with two victories and one tie, did all its scoring in the first half. Middle guard Rocky Martin got the Eagles going when he recovered a Coshocton -(1-2) fumble on the Redskins' 41 - yard line. Bowersox went right to work, runing 40 yards to the one and then ramming over on the next play.

Cincinnati Reds Clinch West Title

By MICHAEL A. LUTZ

HOUSTON (AP) - Cincinnati Manager Sparky Anderson says the Big Red Machine ran to the 1972 National League Western Division championship on people - power

We don't just have players on this team -- we have people, and that's one thing the other clubs don't have Anderson said, wiping a trickle of champagne off his cheek Friday night after the Reds wrapped up the crown with a 4-3 victory over Houston

"We've never had any problems" he said "This team is together The players don't want problems You can't play baseball like that You can have all the stars in the world and if they don't get along, it's worth nothing" The only problem the Reds had Friday night was washing the bubbly out of their doubleknits. Players fizzed champagne on each other like a bunch of kids playing in lawn sprinklers on a hot summer day

They had won their second division title in three years and in typical fashion. holding oif a ninth - inning rally by the Astros It's another reason Anderson thinks the Reds will be in the World Series.

'BEST TEAMS'

Later Anderson said he wouldn't make any predictions about the play - ofl with Pittsburgh for the NL title but did say. "The two best teams in baseball will be playing for the National League title."

The Reds scored two runs in the first inning off Astros starter Larry Dierker and added two more on Solo homers by Pete Rose and Johnny Bench. Houston scored once in the third on Jim Wynn's single and two more in the eighth on Bob Watson's two - run single to

But even when the Astros loaded the bases in the ninth, Sparky still had a certain feeling.

"When that phone call woke me up at 8:20 this morning, I had the best feeling I've ever had." Anderson said. . . . even better than 1970 This club means more to me than the 1970 club because this club battled so hard. In 1970 it was just a cakewalk

Reds second baseman Joe Morgan, traded by the Astros to Cincinnati in the off season, said, "It's nice to beat the second - place team to win it. It's quicker that way. This is what I've been trying to get for eight years, and I finally made it."

Rose said the present Cin-
