Bert R. Johnson, 51 Woodlawn, is in critical condition this morning at University Hospital in Columbus after emergency surgery Friday afternoon. He is now in the intensive care unit, and will undergo further open heart surgery in a few days. He is allowed visits only by his immediate family.

Monroeville remained in the thick of the Firelands Conference race Friday night with a convincing 30-16 conquest of visiting Mapleton. The Eagles now sport a 5-1 mark overall, and a 3-1 tally in Firelands Conference play, one game back of St. Paul and New London.

Mapleton dropped to 3-3, 1-3. The hosts jumped out front 8-0 on their first possession of the game, as Jed Myers broke loose on a 32-yard TD run with 9:42 left in the first period. He also ran for the conversion and an 8-0 lead.

The winners added 16 points in the second stanza, sparked by a successful fake punt play. The six-pointers came as Jim Christman ran six yards at the 6:04 mark, and Bob Grose scampered 27 yards. Grose snared a pass from quarterback Joe Moore after the first score, and Moore ran for the two-pointer after the second for a 24-0 halftime edge.

Joe Collins scored the first of two touchdowns for Mapleton with 3:58 left in the third period on a six-yard run, and Mark Newell ran for the conversion.

However, the Eagles countered on a 25-yard scoring pass from Moore to junior end Doug Long. This time the run for the conversion failed.

Collins rounded out the scoring in the final minute of play when he bulled over from one yard out. Again Newell ran for the two-pointer.

Obituaries

HOWARD A. LUTTS
Howard A. Lutts, 84, 98 Eastwood Dr., died Friday at Fisher-Titus Memorial Hospital.

He was a native of Norwalk and lived most of his life in this area. He was a tinsmith and had been employed by Jefferson Hardware, Wilson Heating and Air Conditioning, and Hohler's Furnace and Sheet Metal Co. of Sandusky, before he retired in 1955.

He was a member of the First United Presbyterian Church and the Loyalty Class of the church. He was also a member of Huron Oddfellows Lodge No. 37, the Golden Agers, and the Senior Citizens Club.

He is survived by his son Lyman, with whom he made his home for the past eight years; three grandchildren; and a great-grandchild; two sisters, Mrs. Delbert (Elizabeth) King, Largo, Fla., and Mrs. James (Grace) Francisco, Norwalk; several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his wife Eva in 1963.

Knee In Cast

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Capital Bullets said Friday that center Wes Unseld's left knee will be in a cast for the next 10 days to relieve swelling brought on by an arthritic condition.

Unseld will miss at least four games while the cast is on. He has a history of arthritic trouble and his return to the lineup is a matter of speculation.

Monroeville rushed for an impressive 344 yards, sparked by Myers with 151 yards and Grose with 95.

"They were big and strong, but we really did the job," commented Monroeville coach Sam Fornasaglio. "We just blew them off the offensive line. They had some tremendous kids. This Collins is the toughest kid we've played against all year."

"I'm really elated with the offensive line. And Jed Myers looked good at fullback, and so did the other two halfbacks. We might have had a letdown in the second half with that 24-point lead. And they're too big a team to let down on."

BERNARD R. COBURN
GREENWICH — Bernard R. Coburn, 65, rural Greenwich, died Friday at Fisher-Titus Memorial Hospital following a lengthy illness.

He was a native of Pettry, W. Va., and lived in the Greenwich area for 20 years. He was engaged in farming, and was a member of the Church of Christ of Pettry.

He is survived by his wife Okie; a son, Basil, Greenwich; a brother, Lacy, Lerona, W. Va.; two sisters, Mrs. Rettes Shorter, Shiloh, and Mrs. Catherine Harvey, Parisburg, Va.

Friends may call from 4 to 9 p.m. Saturday at the Myers Funeral Home, Greenwich, and from 4 to 9 p.m. Monday at the Memorial Funeral Directors in Princeton, W. Va. Funeral services will be held Tuesday at the Pettry Church of Christ, the Rev. Roy Akers officiating. Burial will be in the Athens, W. Va., cemetery.

PAUL G. BAER
Paul G. Baer, 68, of West Bradenton, Fla., died early this morning at the home of his son Robert H. Baer, 2 Deep Dale Dr.

He was born in Sharon, Pa., and was a retired steelworker for the Sharon Steel Corp. He was a member of the Sharon Elks Club, and the Methodist Church of Hartford, O.

He is survived by his wife Gertrude and three grandchildren. There will be no visiting hours. Cremation and interment will be made in the Burghill, O. cemetery. Heaton Funeral Home is handling arrangements.
