DALLAS (UPI) - Kathy Whitworth is not playing in as many tournaments these days and she admits to that familiar golf malady nerves - but when she plays in her home town her game always seems to take an improved turn

Miss Whitworth, 34, eight times the leading money winner on the ladies golf tour but a tournament winner only once this year, opened detense of her Dallas Civitan Open title Friday by filing a twounder - par 70

That put her in a three way tie for first place after one round with Shelley Hamlin and Jan Ferraris

The three leaders had a one - shot margin over Murle Breer, Kathy Farrer, Noni Schneider and Jo Anne Carner, all of whom shot one - under 71's on the 6,336 - yard, par - 72 Brook-

Among those at even par were Jane Blalock and Mary Mills, who lost to Miss Whitworth in a sudden death play - off last year.

PLYMOUTH - The South Central Trojans, utilizing a diversified running attack and a mad-dog defense, trounced the Plymouth Big Red Friday night, 36-8, in the opening football game of the season for the two high schools.

Ben Uselton, who gained Firelands Conference honors in 1973 as end, quarterbacked South Central to victory by throwing two touchdown bombs and running for another.

With 4.32 left in the game Ed Gomez charged the goal line from a yard out to give Plymouth its first points since the last game in 1972.

It was all the Big Red fans could cheer about as the Trojans exploded for 20 first quarter points

South Central Senior Jim Robson opened and closed the Trojan scoring with one-yard plunges In between, Uselton scored on an 18-yard option run and heaved a 53-yard pass to Sophomore Jeff Ray and then a 23-yard paydirt toss to Ray standing alone in
