

Willard Is 13-7 Victim

For the second time in as many outings, this season, Willard was defeated by a 13-7 count.

Last week it was Tiffin Calvert which handled the Flashes while Friday night, Ontario pushed across scores in the first and third periods to defeat the Northern Ohio League club.

Willard's only touchdown came on a 31 yard pass from John Rosso to Keith Kuhn in the second period. Dan Gardner kicked the extra point to conclude the Flashes scoring.

Ontario countered with touchdowns in the first and third periods to grab the victory.

Last week, Calvert scored twice in the fourth period to defeat the Flashes.

"It was a real good game. It was well played and well called," said Willard coach Carleton Riddle. They just outplayed us on the ground and cut off our ground game completely," the coach said.

Curt Cok was the leading rusher for the Flashes with 21 yards while John Goodsite had 20 and Curt Goodsite added 13. Willard totaled only 162 yards on the ground compared with last week when Goodsite chalked up 170 by himself.

"I felt Ron Williams did a nice job at defensive tackle for a sophomore and Alec Thornton did a good job at monster back," said coach Riddle who also praised quarterback Rosso. It was the sophomore's first varsity start.

Port Clinton Defense Keys Initial Win

Tom Gresh is a kicking specialist, but it was his short run that paid off handsomely for Port Clinton Friday night.

Gresh was ready to try the placekick after Port Clinton's second quarter touchdown, but suddenly became a runner when the snap from center was wide forcing the 150-pound junior into a different role. He alertly scooped the pigskin and dashed for the corner of the end zone to add the two-point conversion.

That play was the margin of victory as the Redskins launched their Great Lakes League season with an 8-6 nod over Sylvania.

The win marks the fifth year in succession Port Clinton has clipped the Wildcats in the league opener, and Sylvania has never scored more than seven points. Oddly enough, it was Sylvania who enjoyed command at the outset of the series and held a 5-1-1 advantage before the Redskins started their string of conquests.

The victory was also the first for new coach Jim Hastings. Port Clinton dropped a 12-6 decision to Bellevue in his debut last Friday.

Port Clinton's defense came up with an outstanding goal line stand in the waning moments of the first period. Sylvania had a first and goal at the seven and third and goal at the one. However, the Redskins thwarted the hosts twice and took over at the two.

Dennis Dodge recovered a Sylvania fumble to set up the touchdown. The Redskins took over at the Sylvania 30 and was unable to move. However, a personal foul penalty against the hosts gave Port Clinton a first down at the 13 instead of fourth and six at the 26.

Hard-running Barry Chance carried the ball five times in succession and slammed in from the one to put the Redskins on top. Then came Gresh's heroics.

Sylvania didn't score until the 3:33 mark of the final stanza when Dave Ogle plunged one yard.

The hosts tried for the two-point conversion to knot the count, but Jeff Scott stepped in front of the intended receiver to knock the ball away and Port Clinton was still in front.

Sylvania's onside kick wound up in the arms of Greg Laird of Port Clinton and the Redskins maintained possession to earn their first triumph.

Chance and Dodge shared the ball-carrying chores for the winners and combined for 117 yards in 32 carries. Chance rushed for 61 hard-fought yards in 22 thrusts.
